Dozens of concessions, operated by different units here, are now being built and gaudily decorated for the big show, aimed at replenishing funds expended by the Navy Relief during the last year.

Marines' Good Will Cruise Delights 40 French Orphans At Marseilles

BY PFC DAN MILLER
WITH THE U. S. 6TH FLEET—
"It's just like Christmas," said eight-year-old Jacques Marino—and he was speaking for all the children.

Forty youngsters between the ages of six and eight, escorted by their nun guardians, recently spent the day with the 2nd Division Leathernecks aboard the Navy troop transport USS Cambria while the ship was docked at Marseilles, France.

It was the third liberty port visited by the division's 2nd Bn of the 8th Marines on their good will tour of Mediterranean countries.

Coming Aboard

At 11 o'clock one Sunday morning the eager children filed aboard the ship one by one. There they were met by a group of Marines and sailors and led into the mess hall where an American-style Thanksgiving dinner awaited them.

After their holiday dinner they made a wide-eyed tour of the ship. Most of the children were amazed at "how big the boat is" and many said they would like to go around the world in it.

Duds For All

A party was next on the agenda.

Some article of clothing was given to each of them. There were skirts, dresses, blouses, and sweaters for the girls and trousers, shoes, socks, and shirts for the boys. Each also received a toy.

While many of the children spoke no English they all enjoyed the Hollywood melodrama selected for them to see. As they munched lollipops, even in the dim light of the movie you could see the bright shining of their eyes.

And then the party was over. They left the ship reluctantly but with many happy memories of the day spent with the men, "in green and blue."

It was a complete success for everyone. As one Marine commented, "I got as big a kick out of it as the kids did."

Neckties Optional Starting Monday

Effective 8 a. m. May 11 until further notice, the summer service uniform for officer and enlisted personnel here may be worn without neckties during working hours within the limits of the base.

Neckties will be worn after 5 p. m. on week days. Saturdays ties will be worn after 12 o'clock noon, and on Sundays and holidays they will be worn at all times. However, ties can be dispensed with for all evening mess formations.

Ties must be worn at all times off the base, and also to get in and out of the base.

New Runs Slated For Buses To D. C.

Carolina Trailways has announced additions and changes to their schedules, all effective May 20. Times given are Standard Time.

A Lejeune-Washington bus will leave daily at 12:30 p. m. and arrive in D. C. at 11 p. m.

The Friday night express to Washington will leave the base at 5 p. m., arriving in D. C. at 2 a. m. On Sunday evening there will be a bus leaving D. C. at 9 p. m., arriving at Lejeune 5:45 a. m.

'Night's Cover Veils Troops Hitting Beach

One of the few night amphibious landings ever staged by Marine Corps troops in regimental strength saw Leathernecks storm ashore at Onslow Beach early Tuesday morning in a lightning-swift attack against surprised "enemy" aggressors, climaxing Phase Two of TRAEX IV.

TRAEX IV forces, under command of Col. Francis B. Loomis Jr., CTG 46.8, had been conducting training exercises at Vieques since early March. This maneuver at their home base was a final test of the military skills they polished during the Caribbean exercise.

Streaking shoreward from the flotilla of ships which dotted the star-filled horizon, the Marines of Regimental Combat Team 2 hit the beach at 12:30 in pitch darkness.

Catching the aggressor troops off guard, the attacking Leathernecks, under the command of Col. Robert F. Scott, commanding officer of the 2nd Marines, met no opposition as they splashed ashore through the rolling surf.

Bridge Blown Up

Racing forward to exploit their advantage, the assaulting Marines narrowly missed capturing intact the bridge spanning the Inland Waterway, when the retreating enemy theoretically blew it to pieces with demolition charges.

The shattered bridge did not slow down their advance, however. Grinding through the early morning darkness, scores of lumbering, troop-filled LVTs plunged into and across the waterway and pressed home their attack.

Throughout the morning, the still darkness of the Lejeune "boon-docks" was shattered by the staccato rattle of machine gun and rifle fire.

As of Tuesday afternoon, the more than 7000 Marines of the regimental combat team were still beating their way inland in the face of growing enemy resistance.

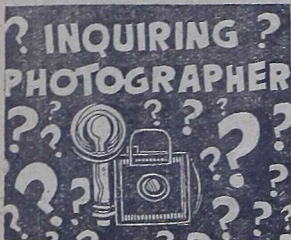

Aggressor opposition to the landing was furnished by the men of the 3rd Bn., 8th Marines.

If You Wanted To Make A Fortune, How Wold You Go About It?

SGT. RICHARD K. MEASURE, 3RD BN., 2ND MARINES — Practically the only way to make a fortune these days is to start a syndicate or rob a bank to get away from the income tax situation. It seems when you make money the government takes part of it. However, the used car business in this section right around here seems to be quite profitable. Marines are always trading in or buying a used car.

CPL. D. J. VOELKL, 2ND. TANK BN.—I'm not even interested in making a fortune.

In the first place, all you get out of it is headaches and, finally, ulcers. You worry day after day over how much income tax you will have to pay or whether the stock market will fall.

CPL. CHARLES CALLEN, 2ND COMBAT SERVICE GROUP — The sensible, luxury minded man of today who is anything of a lady's man is out to find a rich widow who is ready and willing to leave her fortune to her new husband. I'm looking too; I may never find her but, at least, it's worth a try.

SGT. DAVID THOMPSON, 2ND COMBAT SERVICE GROUP — The best way to make a lot of money is to do something spectacular. . . .

Jumping over Niagara Falls in a barrel or eating 500 hamburgers would be money making propositions. I suppose you have to be a little money crazy to do anything like that, but I have to admit, I'm crazy enough to try it.

CPL. RUSSELL E. SAYERS, 1ST BN., 6TH MARINES—Well, if I could think of anything to invent, that someone hasn't already thought of, I'd make a fortune. That's the quickest way I can think of. Another way, of course, is to work like heck and don't spend any money. But that doesn't appeal to most fortune seekers because after you get the fortune you're too old to appreciate it.

Tarheel Yachtsmen Hoist Anchors For May Float Frolics

Tarheels Afloat is now organizing its annual Memorial Day cruise from Washington, N. C. Also on deck are the topnotch power boat races at Elizabeth City, May 29-31.

The cruise, which will start from Washington at 11 a. m. May 31, is scheduled to run as far as Bath, a town bewteen Elizabeth City and Washington on the Inland Waterway. Over 200 boats are expected to participate.

The races at Elizabeth City annually receive entrants from the extremes of the Atlantic coastline with the number of boats last year totaling 106. The run is two and a half miles on the Pasquotank river and all records will be official since a survey was made this year by the government.

Highlight of the boat races will be the inboard, competition May 31, in which speeds range up to 120 miles per hour and the fight for the lead on turns produces some of the most spectacular action in racing.

The 5th Marine Division Association will discuss making scholarship grants when it meets in fourth annual convention at Boston June 26-28. "It is hoped that some grants can be made for the school year starting next September for children of 5th Division Marines who died as a result of enemy action."

Association membership is open to anyone who served with the division in World War II and includes numerous members of the other services.

Piney Green Scouts Win Two Ribbons

Boy Scout Troop 105 of Piney Green was one of the many troops from the eastern part of North Carolina that attended the annual Camporee held recently in Tarboro.

Eagle Patrol, led by Bobby Montford, and Indian Patrol, led by Kenneth Boone, won second and third show ribbons, respectively. The Indian Patrol is having a party for the second place winners.

Property not requiring public property passes are items purchased from the Marine Corps Exchange, Sales Commissary, and Camp Property Office. Items from the latter two must be accompanied by sales slips.

In cases of movements of men and equipment by convoy, property passes will not be required, provided the Camp Provost Marshal has been notified in writing of the movement at least 24 hours in advance. However, property removed in Navy or Marine Corps vehicles not in convoy will need property passes.

Property passes will not be issued to authorize personnel here to remove tools or equipment to be used in personal endeavors off the reservation.

Engineer Officer Gets Bronze Star For Korean Action

Capt. Denver D. Clark, executive officer of Service Co., 2d Engineer Bn., was presented the Bronze Star Medal by Maj. Gen. R. McC. Pate, division commander, in a formal ceremony last week.

The medal was awarded Captain Clark for meritorious achievement in connection with operations against the enemy while with a Marine aircraft maintenance squadron in Korea from March to November 1952.

The citation reads in part: "As a group aircraft maintenance officer, Captain Clark exerted unsparing effort in developing and maintaining an outstanding aircraft maintenance facility."

He also voluntarily led a salvage party into a mountainous area of guerrilla activity to the scene of a major aircraft accident and successfully accomplished his mission.

AWARD—Mr. Tarvia H. D. Jones, engineer director of the Highway Safety Division in Raleigh, N. C., presents a certificate award commending his recent work in the safety campaign here. Looking on are Col. P. W. John, Supply Depot commanding officer; R. G. Willis, of the Jacksonville Police Department; M. G. Rogerson, Edenton Police Department; and Maj. Gen. Henry D. Linscott, camp commanding general (Official USMC Photo).

State Highway Safety Division Award To TSgt. J. A. Watson

A. Watson, special services chief at the Marine Corps Air Station, Edenton, N. C., was presented a certificate award by Mr. Tarvia H. D. Jones, engineer director of the Highway Safety Division in Raleigh, for his Lejeune's recent safety and "in recognition of his achievements in highway safety."

Mr. Jones and Mr. James E. Linscott, chief of the Accident Investigation at the Dept. of Transportation, accompanied by a representative of the Edenton Police Department, Mr. M. G. Rogerson, journeyed to Lejeune with Maj. Gen. Henry D. Linscott, camp commanding general.

In the general's office, P. W. John, Supply Depot commanding officer and Patrolman Willis and Ernest Guthrie of the Jacksonville Police Department.

The Ten Percent

At the meeting, Mr. Jones pointed out that ten per cent of accidents in North Carolina are caused by service personnel, and that the education of drivers for safety was one of the aims of the campaign.

Sergeant Watson's outstanding service along the line of safety, said Mr. Jones, was recognized in the award. Through him, it was to contact the military on this base and bring awareness of highway safety to the general public.

His interest in safety has been recognized by the award.

Marine Air History Available To Flyers Combat Stars

Members of Marine Corps groups who earned at least one combat star are still eligible to receive a copy of the "History of Marine Aviation in World II," by Maj. Gen. Sherrod.

Those who served in Marine aviation during World War II and at least one combat star are eligible to receive a complimentary copy, as are the next of kin of those killed in action while in Marine aviation.

Those eligible should send names and addresses, including unit numbers and information, to the aviation units with which they served, dates of assignment and detachment, awards, and combat stars to: Maj. Loftus Smith, USMC-RW, 5E567 Op-52, Pentagon Building, Washington, D. C. (AFPS).

Marine Warriors Win Korean Medals Totaling 16,486

Since the outbreak of Korean hostilities in June 1950 Marines have won 16,486 decorations, not counting the Purple Heart. Included in this total are 28 Medals of Honor and 161 awards of the Navy Cross or its equivalent, the Army Distinguished Service Cross.

Marine officers, from June 27, 1950, through March 27, 1953, received 9403 decorations, with 7084 going to enlisted Marines. In the above two classes 451 awards were made by the Army and Air Force.

Officers, though fewer than enlisted personnel, have received the majority of awards because the Air Medals and Distinguished Flying Crosses are awarded mostly to officers.

When the 947 Distinguished Flying Crosses and 5139 Air Medals awarded to officers are deducted from their total, they are found to receive a total of 3317 other awards.

Deduction of the 115 DFC's and 1031 AM's won by enlisted personnel from their total leaves a sum of 5937 other awards.

Div. Clerical School Revises Curriculum

The Division Clerical School has added to, and increased the hours of, its curriculum to conform with the set-up of the Marine Corps Clerical School at Camp Pendleton, Calif.

The school still is divided between typing and personnel administration, but in personnel administration these subjects will be added or increased in hours: personnel accounting, correspondence, the Uniform Code of Military Justice, forms and reports, and service record books.

TANK MOTOR and the job it does with its 800 horsepower is explained to the senior class of the Southwood (N. C.) Community High School by Cpl. Louis G. Stecker, turret mechanic in the 2nd Tank Bn. The students, guests of Camp Lejeune, were conducted on an all-day tour last Thursday (Official USMC Photo).

Harry James' High Note For Navy Relief Corps First In Ordering POW Rates

Harry James and his Music Makers, the musical outfit voted "America's Number One Swing Band," will swing into an air conditioned Camp Theater May 19 to aid Camp Lejeune's 1953 Navy Relief Drive.

Trumpeter James will give two performances, at 7:30 and 9:30 p. m. There will be a dollar admission charge for each show, and tickets are limited and going fast. Military personnel must wear the uniform of the day and civilians are invited to attend.

Featured in the James performance will be ace drummer Buddy Rich. Buddy is known for his fine stick work with Tommy Dorsey, whose "Hawaiian War Chant" and "Opus No. 1" became such hits largely because of Rich's drumming.

Disc Hits

James' reputation is built on such record hits as "You Made Me Love You," "Blues In The Night," and his theme "Chiribiribin."

Not only a maker of great records, Harry is a maker of great stars. Dick Haymes, Frank Sinatra, Connie Haines, Helen Forrest, and Kitty Kallen have had the limelight turned on them while singing with the James aggregation.

In 1936 the "Gabriel of America" received his big break when Benny Goodman heard one of his trumpet recordings and signed him. Since then Harry has come a long way, being a top-recording artist for Columbia records and a star in his own right at 20th Century Fox. In Fox's "Young Man With A Horn" he was technical advisor and played all the trumpet parts.

High School Seniors Tour Base Facilities

Camp Lejeune was host to the senior class of the Southwood (N. C.) Community High School last Thursday. The group was conducted on an all-day bus tour of camp facilities.

Included in the itinerary were the Goettge Memorial Field House and surrounding athletic fields, Camp chapels, the 2nd Tank Battalion's tank park, Camp bakery (with samples) and ice cream plant; and the Camp School.

The Marine Corps has scored another first—this time against the Department of Defense. Last week the Defense Department ordered equal promotion consideration for the 11,521 Americans reported to be prisoners or missing in Korea.

The previous week the Commandant of the Marine Corps announced that returning Marine POW's would be given whatever promotions they missed. Under the law, officers must first pass a physical exam.

This new order revokes a 1945 law which provided for the promotion of imprisoned personnel returning from World War II. The new policy states that the mere absence shall not prevent any man from qualifying for promotion according to the same standards used to advance others on active duty.

All time served by enlisted men in a missing status can be counted in computing time-in-grade and/or time-in-service requirements.

Returning Marines Hit Miami Liberty On Journey Home

MIAMI, Fla.—Ruffles and flourishes by the 3rd Air Wing Band, warm Florida breezes, and clear weather combined pleasantly in welcoming elements of Marine Regimental Combat Team Two last week as they landed on Miami shores for four days' liberty prior to embarking for Camp Lejeune on Phase II of TRAEX IV field maneuvers.

The Marines, part of a group of almost 5000 who participated in Phase I of TRAEX IV on Vieques, were virtually swallowed up in the hustle of this vast vacationland city within minutes after landing.

Taking full advantage of the numerous activities afforded them here, Marines enjoyed auto racing at Modley Stadium, sightseeing in the Animal Jungle and the Musa Isle Indian Village, boat cruises on Biscayne Bay.

FLYING PADRE—With naval aviator's wings on his chest and chaplain's crosses on his sleeves, Lt. (jg) Gordon Griffin of Marine Aircraft Group-35, 2nd Marine Aircraft Wing at Cherry Point, renews old memories as he prepares to climb into a "Flying Boxcar." During World War II, the chaplain was a naval aviator at Memphis Naval Air Station where he was a cadet instructor (Official USMC Photo).

Sky Pilot From Cherry Point Sports Flyer's Wings Plus Chaplain's Cross

CHERRY POINT, N. C.—It's common enough to find butchers, bakers, and candlestick makers as members of the Marine Corps. But many eyebrows are apt to raise at the sight of a chaplain wearing Naval aviator's wings.

Lt. (jg) Gordon Griffin, ChC, USN, now attached to Marine Aircraft Group-35 of the 2nd Marine Air Wing here, wears his aviator's wings on his chest and chaplain's crosses on his sleeve.

All of Reverend Griffin's service time hasn't been with the Chaplain's Corps. During World War II, following his graduation from Northwest (Miss.) Junior College, he entered the Navy as a flight cadet, receiving his wings at Pensacola, Fla.

Cadet Instructor

From Pensacola the new lieutenant was sent to the Naval Air Station at Memphis, Tenn., where he served over two years as a cadet instructor. He logged more than 1500 flight hours in various type aircraft before being released to inactive duty following the close of World War II.

Returning to civilian life, he spent two years at Memphis State College, where he received a Bachelor of Science degree. From Memphis, he moved to the Baptist Seminary at New Orleans, La.

Shortly after completion of his course at the seminary, the Navy recalled him when the situation in Korea became acute. He was recalled as a Naval aviator but, being a man of God, he took a reduction in rank—to lieutenant junior grade—in order to follow the work for which he had been preparing himself.

Lieutenant Griffin was sent to Newport, R. I., to take the chaplain's refresher course before reporting to Cherry Point for duty with the 2nd Wing.

Chaplains aren't allowed to fly government aircraft so—something to his regret—he doesn't do any flying here. "I miss the flying I use to do as a cadet instructor," he says. "However, my work as a chaplain is a full-time job. It keeps me so busy that I don't know where I would have found the time to do much flying if I were allowed."

Final Meet Planned By Protestant Guild

The season's final meeting of the Protestant Chapel Guild will be held Monday night at 8 p. m. in the Jewish Chapel, Bldg. 67.

Guest speaker will be Col. S. S. Ballentine, camp inspector, who will talk on "Present Day Palestine." The colonel served on the Arab-Israel Peace Settlement Commission which was headed by Dr. Ralph Bunche.

Colonel Ballentine has visited many points of biblical interest, in addition to serving in Tel Aviv and Jerusalem.

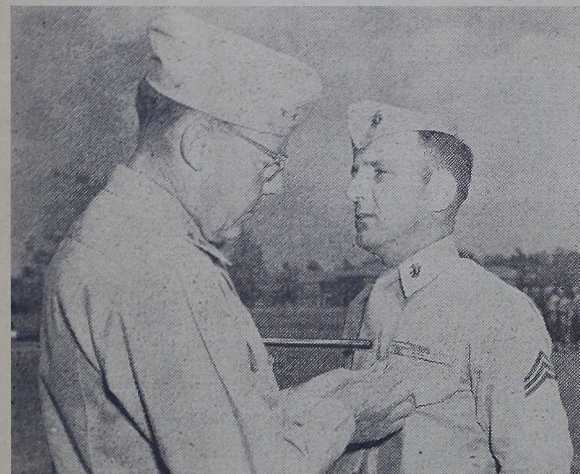

Ascension Thursday Rituals Next Week

Father Godfrey Reilly, Camp Catholic chaplain, has announced the schedule of Masses for Ascension Thursday, a holy day of obligation, next Thursday. The Catholic Chapel will celebrate Mass at 6:45 a. m., noon, and 4:45 p. m.

Mass at the Naval Hospital will be at 6:40 a. m. and at noon in the 5th Area Theater; Camp Geiger's Masses will be at 7 a. m., 12:30 p. m. and 4:30 p. m. Courthouse Bay will have Mass at noon, Rifle Range at 4:45 p. m., and Montford Point at noon.

COMING PROMOTIONS

Some 3000 Regular commissions will be offered to Reserve officers and enlisted men by the Marine Corps between now and June 1956. Most of the commissions will come from college Reserve training programs.

Chaplain's Corner

LIFT UP THY HEART
"Chaplain, I got troubles"

a Marine one day as he slumped to a chair. Worry crowded his face; anxiety showed in his eyes.

"Why does it have to happen to you?"

Do you believe in miracles, Chaplain?"

"Tell me what the trouble is, Sarge, and perhaps I will be able to give you some clear answer to your question," replied the padre.

"My wife just lost a baby, she is hemorrhaging badly, the doctor fears the worst—can't it?"

How To Pray

In that beautiful prayer—Our Father, the Lord's Prayer—we read these words: "Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven." The Apostles of Christ, Him how they should pray, said, when you pray, pray "Our Father, Who art in heaven, God's way of telling us how we want to pray and what He wants us to do."

Prayer is a lifting of the heart and heart to God. We have learned to say this special prayer, our mother's knee. We have repeated it again and again, we know it so well we can say it in our sleep.

Yet to many, how little they sink in. Words are meaningless. They mean nothing if we have learned by prayer to take sick; to take sickness; yea, even the spirit of God's will for us.

We Can Accept

Because we have not only accepted and lifted our hearts to God but have realized the full meaning of prayer and communicating with God, we thus can accept His will in our behalf. We are used to saying "Thy will be done," seeing God's hand in all. When a crisis comes we are then to take it in stride, prayer ascending to heaven, very throne of God.

"God, let her live if it will. Our Father, Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven," Chaplain John E. Bellon, 2nd es.

Lejeune Grid Men Unveiled Sat. Morning

Maj. John C. Crawley, Camp Lejeune's new head football coach, unveils the 1953 version of the camp team, spring style, and gives fans a chance to get a glimpse of the returned one-plate system Saturday at 8:30 a. m. when Gold meets Scarlet in the annual intra-squad game.

The game climaxes four weeks of intensive drills and will be followed by a critique. During the final week, the players will turn actors and make a training film, devoted to blocking fundamentals and the offensive system to be used.

Crawley named the following tentative line-ups with the exception of the quarterback slots. O. M. Scanlon, a holdover who played freshman ball at Syracuse, and Bill De Chard, a newcomer via Holy Cross, are slated for the opening quarterback posts, but Crawley is undecided as to on which team each will play.

Gold will field the following line: Carl Dolan and Mel Yeshnik at the ends, Lew Golic and Rex

Camp Torpedoes Destroyers As Grim, Reich Hurl Wins

Right-hander Bob Grim and lefty Bob Reich continued their brilliant mound work to hand Destroyers, Atlantic, twin defeats here Monday and Tuesday, 4-1 and 10-0.

The wins were the seventh and eighth in a row for the Marines and boosted the overall season's record to 32 wins and two losses.

Swinging into action Monday for the first time in a week, Lejeune showed the effects of the layoff, clipping Jim McMurchie for only five hits and getting the margin of victory on three unearned runs.

Back In Form

By the time Reich took the hill Tuesday, Lejeune was back into form, blasting two Destroyer hurlers, Dick Van Nortwick and Vic Conigalari, for nine hits.

Grim posted his eighth win of the season and upped his strikeout total to 98 with 14 more. Reich fanned 12, making his fifth win a shutout. Neither hurler has lost this season.

Reich had only one bad inning Tuesday, the first. He loaded the sacks on two singles and an error. But Dave Krings turned Jack Custer's grounder into a twin killing, tagging the runner and relaying to first.

To The Showers

Van Nortwick hit the showers in the second when his control deserted him. An error, a bunt single by Ed Kababek, and a sacrifice by Paul Donovan put men on second and third. Van Nortwick gave Jim Gingerella an intentional walk, and then couldn't find the plate again.

He walked Reich, "Chico" Rodriguez, and hit Dave Krings to force in three runs. Conigalari squelched the fire, forcing Don Brown to hit into an inning-ending double play.

Lejeune scored four more in the fourth on a walk, a sacrifice, and straight singles by Rodriguez, Krings, Brown, and Jim Ryan.

"Chico" Goes Around

Two runs counted in the seventh on Brown's walk, Ryan's triple, and "Babe" Daskalakis' single. Rodriguez brought the tenth run (Continued on Page 7)

2nd Division Plans Full Program Of Intramural Sports

Second Division intramural sports competition swung into high gear last week as the 8th Marines broke the ice with activity in three sports.

The division's intramural program for 1953 will consist of a series of tournaments and meets on battalion level. Playoffs will be held later in the season to determine a division champ in each sport.

Six leagues have been formed, consisting of four teams each. These will vie for honors in eight sports—softball, baseball, volleyball, golf, tennis, track, swimming, and basketball. Two other sports, boxing and football, will be held on a division level.

Separate Leagues

Each of the four regiments have their own leagues, while the separate battalions of the division have formed two additional four-team leagues. Regimental commanders have been designated as league coordinators for the various sports.

The crack of hardwood against horsehide last week announced the opening of the 8th Marines' spring intramural program. The 3rd Bn. leads the baseball play at the end of the first week with a 2-0 record. The 3rd Bn. took the season opener from a composite team, 13-2.

In the volleyball department, only one game was held in the 8th Marines with the 3rd Bn. again defeating the composite squad. In softball the 3rd made it three victories in three sports by upending the same unit. In the only other softball game last week the 1st Bn. shut out the 4th Bn., 1-0.

The other intramural leagues are slated to swing into action in softball, volleyball, and baseball this week.

Uphill Fight Sinks Visitors Virginians Meet Camp So

The Camp Lejeune cindermen collected their third win in four starts here Friday afternoon by defeating hard-running Greensboro Agricultural and Technical College, 67-24, 45-1/3.

This Saturday, the locals will have a return match with Quantico here starting at 1:30.

Marine Swatmen Face Camp Pickett, ServLant Combos

Service Forces, Atlantic, and Camp Pickett provide the opposition as Camp Lejeune's big winner baseball team closes its second home stay of the season this week.

ServLant comes in for a two-game stay, today and tomorrow, both games starting at 8 p. m. Chuck Chronopolous (3-1) and Ben Johnson (4-0) will get the starting nods in that order.

Week-end games are carded with the Pickett Chargers, the Saturday game under the lights at 8 p. m., and Sunday's game commencing at 2 p. m. Bob Grim (8-0) and Bob Reich (5-0) will be the Marine hurlers. Barring some unforeseen occurrence, Grim will pass the 100 mark in strikeouts Saturday, going into the game with 98.

On Thursday Lejeune starts playing away, and will not play at home until June 2 for a game with Fort. Lee.

Personnel Needed To Form Lejeune Weight Lifting Team

Experienced weight lifters are needed to form a team for possible entry in the Carolinas AAU Championships in mid-May.

Cpl. Wallace B. Underhill, 1st Bn., 2nd Marines, 1951 Carolinas AAU champion in the 198-pound class, is forming the team, and will be in the Area 1 Gym every Monday, Wednesday, and Friday to direct workouts. He would like all interested lifters to contact him there or at Bldg. 115 (Tel. 3658), during the day.

In addition to winning the 1951 championship, Underhill took second place in 1952, was eleventh in the 1952 U. S. Senior Nationals (Olympic trial finals), second in the 1952 New York City Seniors, and first in the 181-pound class in the 1952 New York City Junior Olympics.

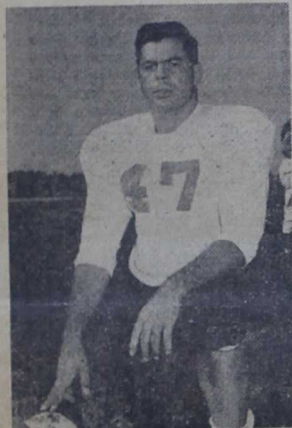

M-1 Authorized

In connection with the policy now in effect in the Fleet Marine Force, Reserve units will replace all carbines with M-1 rifles during summer training this year.

Reservists carrying carbines to summer training will have them replaced upon arrival.

Nastro Back

In the Gold backfield two newcomers, Leon Robinson and full-back Don Scardimi, will team with one of Lejeune's brightest 1952 stars, Frank Nastro. The tremendously fast Nastro led Lejeune in scoring last season.

The Scarlet backfield, with either Scanlon or De Chard at the controls, has Jerry Fours and Ron Mazaroppi at the halves and Jerry Schropp at full.

Scarlet Line

Also expected to see action are: Ends Glenn Sak, Billy Kemp, and John Dietz; tackles Larry Boursassa, Joe Conroy, and Clayton Skinabore; guards Joe Kubala and Henry Doak; center Gonsalves; and backs Howard Hostettler, Allen Armstrong, and Matlick.

Links Action Booming At Paradise Pt.

Tournament activity pervades the Paradise Point Golf Club with the first of a series of weekly tournaments getting underway, plans for this week-end being made, and the Staff NCO Tournament set to start.

Golfers holding cards for the number one course can enter the Match Play versus Par Tournament this Saturday and Sunday. Prizes will be offered for the top three finishers.

Last week-end TSgt. W. G. Miller collected ten dollars' worth of golfing goods by shooting a 61 with a Peoria handicap to take first place.

In a Peoria Handicap the tournament directors pick two par three, two par four, and two par five holes without the contestants' knowledge. The score on the six holes is then multiplied by three and the par for the course, 72, is subtracted from the total. The subtracted result is then taken from the golfer's score, giving him his score with the Peoria handicap.

Four players, C. B. Drake, D. F. Shuffler, baseball player George Dingle, and C. L. See, scored 62 to tie for second place and five dollars worth of merchandise. G. M. Olezewski and G. E. Jerue carded 63 to tie for third and a prize of one dollar.

Steve Burek led a field of 47 golfers who qualified for the Staff NCO Tournament, the first round to be held from May 9-15 inclusive. Burek toured the course with 77.

Match Play
Contestants will be allowed to vie with their opponent in the match play tournament at any time within the dates specified.

Top Berth Shared By Five Teams In FT Softball Play

The Force Troops softball league enters its fourth week of competition this week with five teams still undefeated.

Eight Tank Bn. has won three games against no defeats while Hq. Co., 8th Signal Bn., and 4.5 Rocket Co. all have won two games. Reconnaissance stands right behind these teams with one victory without defeat.

Eight Tank won the game of the week by defeating Automatic Weapons, 4-3. Tank pitcher Art Schimmoeller relieved Anderson in the third and held the AW team scoreless over the last four innings.

Other games saw Hq. Co. blast 8th Motor, 22-12, for its second straight victory. Eight Engineers downed the 2nd 90 AAA team, 13-4, and Recon won a victory by forfeit from Amtrac.

Women Golfers End Tournament Series

The Ladies Golf Association completed a 54-Hole Medal Play Tournament April 28. The event was played in classes, using full handicaps. The winning ladies with their total net scores were: Class A, Mrs. Hansel Ray, 229; Class B, Mrs. A. L. Everett, 214; Class C, Mrs. J. S. Reamy, 217.

April 21 the Ladies' Day nine-hole event was a Points Tournament played on the back nine of the No. 2 Course. Mrs. H. Ray was winner in Class A, Mrs. G. R. Lentz in Class B, and Mrs. R. S. Stoner in Class C.

Ladies Day, April 28, featured the best score on three blind holes on the front nine of the No. 2 Course. Mrs. H. Ray again took the prize in Class A with 13 points. Mrs. J. H. Reddick was winner in Class B with 15 points, and Mrs. R. S. Stoner repeated her win of the week before with 18 points in Class C.

THE LONG AND SHORT of it all in the 2nd Division is exemplified by Pfc Donald E. Clabaugh and Cpl. Bobby G. Dane, both cooks with the 1st Bn., 10th Marines. Pint-size Clabaugh measures an even five feet in height. Buddy Dane stretches the tape to six feet six inches (Official USMC Photo).

home by walking, stealing second, and getting home as Brown bounced to the pitcher and the first baseman's peg to third went wild.

Grim, working for the first time in nine days Monday, walked two batters in the first, gave up a single in the fifth, and let in the lone DesLant run in the seventh.

Jack Lippeatt lined a hit that was played into a double, but was thrown out at third as George Kurz bounced to short. Mike Campanero lined a hit to left, that took a bad bounce and went for a double, Kurz scoring.

In Bunches

Lejeune bunched two runs each in the third and eighth, only the first run being earned.

With two away in the third, Rodriguez slapped a single to left and went to second on a wild pitch. Krings topped the ball in front of the plate, Rodriguez coming home, as Krings beat the throw, and went to second on the catcher's error. Krings scored on Brown's single.

In the eighth, two errors by the shortstop, Walt Lataweic, two walks, and an infield cut by DesLant scored the other two runs.

Some of them come in from the deep sea, some come up the coast from the warm southern waters, and others just "come to" after a long winter lethargy. But, however they come, they get here every year by the hundreds of thousands.

Bluefish, channel bass, tarpon, mackerel, trout, drums, croakers, eels, spot, sailfish, dolphin, amberjack, sharks, rays, and mullet come in huge writhing clusters. These fish can be caught. Often they will overlook every mistake an angler can make. Whatever their model or their moods, they all combine to make this area of the eastern coast a famous fishing center.

Now the summer migration of fish is on. At Southport, N. C., a salt water fishing mecca south of Wilmington, vast catches of bluefish were reported over the week-end. One party caught nearly 100 head of blues in two hours' fishing near the Frying Pan Shoals.

Croaker, sea trout, and channel bass fishing forged ahead this week-end also, and throughout the earlier part of the week surf casters here enjoyed well-rounded catches.

Spear Catches Good

Even the spear fishermen, men who descend into the green depths of the ocean and hunt fish down on their own terms with spear and spear gun, did a little business last week-end. Pfc. D. C. Anderson, a lifeguard at the Area 2 Swimming Pool and Lt. Ralph Rumstead, USN, visiting from Parris Island, bagged several fish in the Inland Waterway near Onslow Beach.

According to Anderson the underwater visibility was poor. Yet the aquatic gunners spotted plenty of targets. They used homemade compressed air diving apparatus, including compressed air spear guns.

And while hundreds of anglers tossed a weird variety of baits and lures at an equally weird variety of fish, a group of Marines, small in comparison, continued to gather names, drum up enthusiasm, and organize their disciples into forming a Camp Lejeune Sportsmen's Club.

Still Seeking Names

A nucleus of outdoorsmen comprised of Maj. William R. Hopkins, TSgt. Eugene A. Myers, SSgt. Ronald L. Lowe, and TSgt. John A. Miller is still soliciting names of sportsmen who are actively interested in backing a general sportsmen's club here for men and women interested in outdoor wildlife activities.

Already a sizeable list of names, representing almost every part of the base, including Woman Marine Co., has been gathered, and many noteworthy plans for the future have been discussed, such as a clubhouse, fish fries, crow hunts, and movies pertaining to the outdoors.

However, the proposed club has not at this moment been organized on paper and presented to the proper authorities for approval.

Next Wednesday evening the Onslow County Wildlife Club is giving a fish fry at Lake Cole, and all interested sportsmen are invited to attend. More information can be obtained by calling 2101 or 2102 and asking to speak to Chief S. C. Jackson.

Quantico Takes 2nd Slot In All-Service

The Quantico Marines took runner-up honors in the recent All-Service basketball tournament held at Offutt AFB, Neb., by defeating the Air Force champion, Sampson AFB, 79-60, and dropping the final to Los Alamitos NAS, 91-77.

Consolation prize went to Sampson, which defeated Fort Belvoir, 86-76.

Paul Arizin, the Marines' ace, went the route in both games, tallying 29 points the first night and 30 the second, only to see the champions' possession type of play work to perfection.

HAM'S BONER

There's a "ham" hamming up TV in Jacksonville.

The GLOBE has received reports that an amateur radio operator, who has the call letters W0EYR and calls himself "Portable Four," has been cutting in on the local television reception.

According to his overheard conversations with other amateurs, he's unaware that TV can be received locally. Recently arrived from Quantico, he usually tries to contact W0FFB in St. Louis, Mo.

No-Hitter Hurlled By AW's John Drivick

It was only a practice game, but John "Murph" Drivick, six-foot 167-pound Automatic Weapons right-hander, pitched the first no-hitter of the young Force Troops baseball season. Drivick turned in the feat against Amtrac, blanking the Tractormen, 1-0, in eight innings. He retired 21 men in a row and struck out six.

With last year's Force Troops and Camp Lejeune champion A/W nine, Drivick saw limited duty, principally as a reliever. However, he seems now to have won himself a starting role.

From Woodhaven, Long Island, N. Y., 19-year-old Drivick attended Bishop Loughlin High School, where he pitched for two years.
