Toastmasters Meet Won By Lejeune Men

The Marines had the situation in hand at the Area 1 Toastmasters International speech contest here last Monday night, when representatives from Camp Lejeune and Cherry Point captured top and runner-up honors.

Capt. William L. Nelson, Paradise Point Toastmaster, speaking on "It Pays to Advertise," took home the huge winner's trophy, and MSgt. Noble A. Eddins, Cherry Point Staff NCO club, was a close second with "I Set the Stage."

The contest, attended by nearly 200 club members, guests and distinguished visitors from nearby Carolina communities, was a prelude to the District contest next month.

Capt. Nelson, who highlighted his speech with humorous asides, brought forth the theory that "we should advertise ourselves—by expressing ourselves," and "we are constantly selling ourselves to those around us with our everyday actions."

Sgt. Eddins looked at his subject from a parental attitude and mentioned the way in which a child's future is formed by the action of the parent. He went on to call the Golden Rule "still the basic fundamental of good living," and asked that parents should dedicate their efforts to building a stage on which the child may follow the parent in playing the part of a good citizen.

The winner and alternate were presented their trophies by Col. Frederick E. Leek, assistant chief of staff, 2nd Marine Air Wing, Cherry Point.

Kiddies, Cubs View Marine Air Show At Peterfield Point

Four hundred members of the third and fourth grades, Camp Lejeune school annex, and Cub Scout Packs 90 and 190, were guests at an air show Friday at the Marine Corps Air Facility.

Highlight of the show was a demonstration by an FJ2 jet "Fury," which zoomed across the field, then corkscrewed its way up until it was almost out of sight.

The show also included a parachute drop from a "Flying Boxcar," piloted by Col. John W. Stage, commanding officer of the facility; an aerology display; a helicopter display by Col. George Hollis, a message drop and pickup and a crash fire demonstration. The show was concluded with a static display of aircraft.

Howling Success

It's Corporal Archibald Now; Camp Mascot Gets Warrant

Sir Archibald of Solarium is now an NCO.

The stubby, rugged English bulldog, official Camp Lejeune mascot, got his corporal's warrant at ceremonies in the Camp Special Services office Tuesday.

He sat at attention on a chair while receiving the coveted

Ex-POW Stowers, Skeet Gun Expert, Promoted To Capt.

Captain Henry B. "Hank" Stowers, renowned shooter and captain of last year's National Championship skeet team, has been promoted to his present rank at the 2nd Combat Service Group, where he is serving as supply officer, supply battalion.

The veteran marine, who was taken prisoner by the Japanese while on embassy duty at Peking, China, in December, 1941, enlisted in March, 1930. After spending a year at the University of Florida.

Following his release from POW camp in 1945, Stowers served at posts and stations in the U. S. until September, 1950, when he landed at Inchon, Korea, with the 1st Division as supply officer, 1st Motor Transport Bn.

Returning to the U. S., he was assigned to Lejeune, where his prowess with a skeet gun has added laurels and 17 championships to local skeet team records.

Among his personal decorations the captain holds two Letters of Commendation; three Presidential Unit Citations; and four Marine Corps Good Conduct medals.

paper from Lt. Col. Sidney J. Altman, Camp special services officer.

Afterwards, he shook hands with the colonel and other well-wishers and scowled furiously at wags in the audience who noticed he was shaking with the wrong paw and who commented that after almost a year in the Corps he still hadn't learned his left from his right.

Cpl. Sir Archibald wore dress blues for the occasion. He now is required to add the red stripe of an NCO to the uniform.

The mascot is officially attached to Hq. Co., H&S Bn., Marine Corps Base. He has an official record book, ID card and pay record. He is entitled to wear the National Defense ribbon.

He holds an advanced special services "spec" number, and his chief duty is to appear at athletic contests as a morale booster.

A check through his record book revealed that he was over the hill shortly after entering the Corps and that he served 30 days in the brig to pay for it. When interviewed at Tuesday's ceremony, he refused to comment on this.

He is currently stationed at the Wallace Creek boat house and is under the watchful eye of SSgt. Paul B. Barger who keeps him squared away.

Cpl. Sir Archie joined the Marines in April, 1953. He was presented to the Marine Corps by Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Kellie after the death of their son, SSgt. Eugene A. Kellie, Sixth Marines.

Chaplain's Corner

There is a story told of a Navy chaplain who was travelling by train. After going aboard, he walked down the aisle of the day coach and sat next to a marine. While they were chatting, the Chaplain asked, "Where do you go to church?" The marine replied, "I don't have to go to church, I'm a marine!"

This is the natural attitude of a well-indoctrinated fighting man. He must always have "the situation well in hand." This means having confidence in his abilities to the extent where defeat is only a word in the enemy's vocabulary. This art of depending upon oneself is priceless, until it causes an individual to refuse outside help when it's needed.

I can hear the voices of thousands of marines' minds saying, "Don't go to church. Don't drop by to talk to the chaplain. This is admitting you're weak." If that's true, then it's just as valid to say that marines haven't got any guts because they rely on M-1's, BAR's, and howitzers! Strangely enough, God's policy has been never to help anyone unless they were incapable of helping themselves.

When I see men who need help (and how many of us don't need help?) shying away from the chapel and the chaplain because they think that this represents weakness, I visualize God's Son on a cross and vehemently ask—that's weakness?"—Chaplain P. F. W. Piper.

- Short Rounds -

The Training Schedule

Leathernecks are not just sitting out the uneasy truce in Korea.

As a veteran Marine officer told a newspaper correspondent last week, they are busy "putting the Gung Ho back in the Corps."

Like their stateside brethren, they follow a rigid training schedule, currently highlighted by a series of amphibious landing exercises, to refresh themselves on their primary mission—beachhead attacks.

And they have added the new "Sunday punch"—vertical envelopment by helicopter.

Troops of the 1st Division make assaults on the Korean coast in battalion strength. Meanwhile, men of the 3rd Division, based in Japan, use a small island in the Yellow sea as their objective.

Said the veteran officer:

"After this series, the marines will be able to crack any beach."

New Strategy, Old War

The Corps last week was uncorking a punch at an old, old enemy of all field marines—the mighty mite.

And the result may be uniform changes and another shot in the arm for all hands.

Fifty-seven men at Camp Fuji,

Japan, came down with scrub typhus last November while on maneuvers. The disease is caused by the pestiferous insect known as a "chigger," "red bug" and various and sundry unprintable titles.

Navy researchers have decided that the best defense would be tighter fitting elastic sleeve and trouser bands for field dress. Zippers may replace the old button fly.

Meanwhile, the researchers are also working on an immunization shot which would make the sometimes fatal bite of the insect harmless.

However, they haven't yet come up with a way to make the bite of the mite less itchy.

New Info Chief

The Corps got a new director of information last week. He is Brig. Gen. Joseph C. Burger, veteran of nearly 30 years' service. Col. Raymond F. Crist Jr., who had held the post since Brig. Gen. J. McCaul was assigned to the 1st Marine Air Wing, resumed his duties as assistant director.

telecommunications system of the Red Cross and through Western Union. The local office last year handled 20,558 incoming and outgoing telegrams free, according to Allen.

Other reports include detailed summaries for discharge boards or commanding officers working with the serviceman on a given problem. Twenty-five cases per month involve government benefits like allowance for quarters, allotments and insurance.

The remainder of the reports and cases involve personal counseling.

At the Naval hospital the local office provides these services as well as a recreation program which includes diversional crafts, parties, hobbies and 16mm movies for the wards.

The hospital staff last year served 1,508 cases. Financial assistance, $2,332.75.

Allen said the 58 "Gray Ladies"—who last year worked 2,618 hours at the hospital—"point up the volunteer nature of the Red Cross organization. There are 100 volunteers . . . for every paid worker."

Red Cross staffers go along on large-scale maneuvers from Lejeune. There currently are three staff members with TRAEX II-54 and two with TRAEX III-54 on Vieques.

Marines Cop Prizes In Essay Contest

Four marines and a sailor were among the 41 award winners in the Freedoms Foundation Essay contest last week.

Three of the marines and the sailor won $100 prizes and George Washington Honor medals. The fourth marine won a medal.

They were:

Maj. Robert B. Moore, Glenview, Ill.

SSgt. Ronald J. Calhoun, Barstow, Calif.

SSgt. Hugh C. Sherwood, Headquarters, Washington, D. C.

Sgt. Peter H. Engler, Camp Pendleton.

PN3 Nicholas Harrington, serving with Commander Service Force, Atlantic Fleet.

The Old Corps

Ten years ago this week:

Mrs. Henry L. Larsen, wife of Maj. Gen. Larsen, Lejeune commanding general, broke a bottle of champagne over the prow of the victory ship SS Memnon at a Wilmington shipyard. Maid of honor at the ceremony was Maj. Katherine A. Towle, senior woman officer at Lejeune. (She was later director of WM's.)

A number of husky marines attended their regular Monday night fudge-making meeting at the Camp school. They donned aprons and whipped up a batch of goodies for later distribution to men in the Naval hospital.

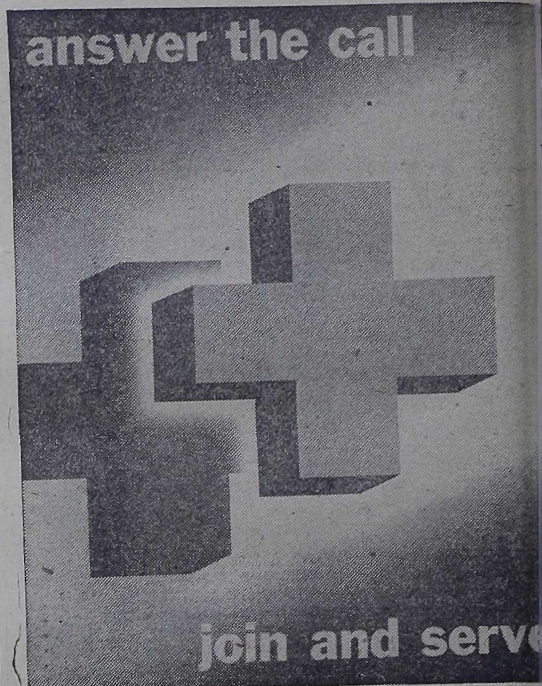

A Camp memorandum said: "It is noted that some enlisted men are wearing the cloth belt with service winter uniform in lieu of the leather belt . . . The cloth belt is not authorized . . . and will not be worn . . . Military Police will confiscate any such belts."

In the GLOBE's Curious Camera-man" column, the question was "What is your pet peeve?" Answer of Sgt. Robert L. Bounds, Pocomoke City, Md.: "My pet peeve is the whiskey situation in North Carolina. Naturally I use it for medicinal purposes only, but I have been feeling sick for the last couple of weeks." In the same column a WR answered: "My pet peeve is people who won't take no for an answer." (Honest.)

Movies making the rounds of Camp theaters:

"Higher and Higher," with Frank Sinatra; "Girl Crazy," with Mickey Rooney, Judy Garland; and a Bowery Boys picture titled "Mr. Mugg Steps Out," with Leo Gorcey. (How old is that guy?)

WM Maneuvers

BY CPL. BECKY CARPER

Appearing for a debut with the
WM cagers in the Cherry Point game last Friday was Pfc Margaret Cotrufo, a 5' 10½" forward with a yen for sports and six years' experience on the court.

Margaret, whose home town is Indian Head, Md., became a top-notch netter in junior high school and held a star spot on the varsity team in senior high.

She tallied a total of 42 points in one game when her team played LaPlata High school in 1950.

As a civilian, Margaret was also an apt softball, volleyball and tennis player, as well as a champion swimmer with many trophies.

She hopes to study physical education in college following her discharge in 1956.

Jan Flynn and Lou Madeau have adopted a new pastime. Where-ever they feel the need for exercise they don tennis shoes and run around the block.

Our loss is MCI's gain. Renee
Tettoni, former GLOBE typist, with Joanne Olney of the Camp Legal office, was transferred to D. C.

Another Legal office reporter
Cpl. Myra Figverro left for duty in Philadelphia.

The male marine's "best friend" is his M-1, but WM's have another mainstay. It's the ever-faithful steam iron which served double duty during preparations for the past general's inspection.

Bonnie Hester Russo was discharged Tuesday.

For the benefit of those who never clocked their civilian life by video, the apparatus you see perched atop the Service club is a television antenna.

Plans to have an inter-barracks softball and volleyball tourney in March are being advanced.

The recreation council also has dreamed up a talent show to be staged in the Service club. All you thespians take heed and sign the list.

NCO Wives To Hold Bake Sale Saturday

23 Rookies Included On Squad Of 25

Seven pitchers, seven infielders, seven outfielders and four catchers make up the 1954 Camp Lejeune baseball team.

After two months of intensive screening, Managers William Jones and Ralph Russo cut a squad of 75 hopefuls to the present 25 man complement.

The early tryouts started Jan. 7 for the benefit of Division candidates, who otherwise would have missed out because of Vieques maneuvers.

Of the 25 players only two were on the 1953 team. Manager Infielder Ralph Russo and Pitcher Chuck Chronopoulos are the only returnees from last year's squad.

Captain Jones, no newcomer to the Lejeune sports scene, has taken over the managerial reins from Lt. Harry Hill. Hill will soon be discharged.

Jones, besides serving as Camp Athletic Officer, has a career of coaching experience covering a span of 15 years. He was line coach for the 1953 gridiron aggregation.

The newcomers making the 1954 rookie club are pitchers, Clyde Monroe, Don Brown, Stan Horvatin, Marv Mick, Freeman Rooth and Joe Tafuri; infielders Tom Britton, Farrell Mitchell, Bill Garrett, Bill Pope and Ken Rainier; outfielders John McKernan, Ed Myer, Tom Perez, Dave Petros, John Colbert, and Ed Veltin; and catchers Steve Reich, Ted Martin, Bob Menard, John Petty and Dan Rodriguez.

Force Troops Cage Champs Honored

Force Troops honored its Camp intramural basketball champions, the 2nd Combat Service Group team, at a banquet in the Chinese room Wednesday night.

Brig. Gen. Francis B. Loomis Jr., commanding general, Force Troops, presented the championship plaque to Col. Earl S. Piper, commanding officer of the Group. The general also presented individual trophies to members of the team.

Team Captain Robert Southwick presented Coach Harold E. Martin with a silver pen and pencil set on behalf of the entire squad.

Belton also won the Navy Guide Award as the Most Popular Boxer in the show (Official USMC Photo).

LEATHERNECK All-Marine Team Lists Boggan, Graham

East Coast Gridders dominated the Seventh Leatherneck All-Marine football team named by the magazine in their March issue.

Camp Lejeune's Rex Boggan and Glen Graham were selected for first-team honors by a poll of marine sports writers.

Boggan, the giant Lejeune tackle, made the All-Marine team for the second year in a row. He was named to the offensive team in 1952.

Boggan also was chosen the Most Valuable Player of the Year in sea service football this year by "Navy Times." Rex starred for four years with Memphis (Tenn.) Tech High school and won two letters at the tackle slot at Mississippi university in 1949 and 1950. In 1951 and 1952, he played for Parris Island.

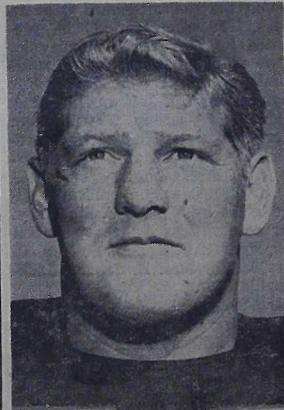

Rex has now returned to "Ole Miss" to finish his college career and will probably play pro ball afterwards.

Graham had little trouble winning his center slot on Lejeune's first team. A terror on defense, he rarely made mistakes while over the ball on offense.

He hails from Florence, Ala., where he lettered three seasons at the center post. Graham won a letter the year he attended Florence State Teachers college before signing up with the marines.

He had previous service ball experience, playing with Camp

Four members of the varsity boxing team took part in the 1st March of Dimes boxing show at Portsmouth, Va., Saturday night.

The Leathernecks won three of their four bouts.

Belton, besides having the only KO of the evening, copped the Navy Guide award as the most popular boxer. He floored Butler with a combinations left hook and right to the jaw in 50 seconds of the first round.

The 177-pound All-Navy Champ reached his feet at the count of nine, but the referee stopped the bout.

Belton now has five first-round knockouts, all this year. His overall record shows 16 victories, including eight KO's, and four losses.

WM Title Hope Fade After 41- Cherry Point Victory

FOOTBALL?—Nope. It's Camp Lejeune vs. Cherry Point in basketball. Atlantic Fleet Tournament Starts Mon.

BY CPL. VINCE RAFTI

The annual Atlantic Fleet basket- ball tournament will start in Nor- folk Monday. FMFLant, the defend- ing champion, will be represented by a team of cagers from the 2nd Division, Cherry Point; Force Troops and Miami.

Other Fleet commands expect- ed to enter teams in the double- elimination tourney are Mine- Lant, DesLant, PhilLant, Air- Lant, BatcruLant and ServLant. Capt. Frank Frates, USN, coach of the Lejeune varsity five, will handle the FMF squad. Lt. Col. Mar- vin C. Stewart, Division Special Services Officer, is the co-ordina- tor for this year's Marine entry.

The tourna- ment ruling restrict- ing compet- ing teams to the use of one officer playing at any given time has put a crimp in Captain Frates' squad selection plans. From the Lejeune varsity quintet he will probably use Skip Whitaker, Newt Jones, Reggie Lee, Tom Campbell, and Whitey Langerud. Leroy Smith is a doubtful performer due to a hand injury he suffered in a late season game.

Cherry Point's John Spanbau- er, Ben Meyers, Don Cramer and Frank Kerker will wear the FMF colors and the Flyers' ace center, Larry Thompson, may also be a late entry.

Miami sent up a strong contin- gent of 15 hopefuls and the selection committee, composed of Lieu- tenants Prater, Scott, Hunkele, of Lejeune, and Sergeant Kaiser of Miami, each of whom made separate lists on demonstrated player abili- ty, came up with Schnoz Nugent and Ben Brown as members of the squad.

Three intramural hoopsters are expected to round out the team. They are Denis O'Brien from the Division, and Force Troops' Willie Noye and Red Barry.

PhilLant and DesLant should be the teams to beat for the Fleet crown but AirLant is also expect- ed to make a strong bid.

A Sea Monster in New River

Mrs. Lowe, wife of Capt. Robert W. Lowe, "T" Co., 3rd Bn., Eighth Marines, tells her story like this:

Bob took Dad and me fishing in New river last fall. We were near New river inlet when "the thing" appeared—thirty feet from our boat. I was spellbound. Bob must have seen it at the same time I did, for as he cut the motor, I heard him say, "Look!" Slowly and inaudibly a creature of eight or ten feet in length, weighing several hundred pounds, raised its grotesque head out of the water. It apparently came up to breathe, for I could see its nostrils dilate. Its thick bulbous lips were covered with a dark, bristly moustache. The upper lip, deeply cleft, seemed to move as two independent parts. "Bob, Bob," I gasped, "what is it?" The thing, sluggishly, with hardly perceptible effort, now disappeared beneath the surface. "It's a sea-cow, dear," Bob said. "I've seen them in Florida, but I wonder what it's doing this far north?"

Marvelous deduction, Captain Lowe! Your wife gives a splendid description of the Florida manatee or sea cow. Her first glimpse of this almost extinct creature must have been frightening. However, the beast is a harmless vegetarian protected by law. The Indians, who considered its flesh a delicacy, used to kill them for food and hide and oil. And it is an oddity to see one this far north! Rarely are they seen above Daytona, Fla.

Question: During squirrel season in N. C. the taking of "boom- ers" is authorized in some locales. What is a boomer?

Answer: It could be several things according to Webster but it's obviously a red squirrel. See mountain boomer in Webster's New International.

That conspicuous "winter red bird," the cardinal, is an all-year resident of North Carolina and was adopted as the state bird several years ago. Both male and female are excellent singers—an oddity amongst our feathered friends.

You've undoubtedly heard this statement—"You eat like a bird." Thank the Good Lord that you don't buy groceries for the person that eats like a bird, proportionately, that is. His daily requirements might run something like this: 12 loaves of bread, ten pounds of hamburger, six pounds of vegetables, and half a gallon of ice cream.

TROPHY ROOM—Maj. Arthur O. Weddell, Force Troops' Special Services officer, looks over some of the trophies won by Force Troops intramural teams during the past two years. Units representing that command have won eight Camp championships and placed second in the Atlantic Fleet softball tournament since Major Weddell took over the athletic reins at Camp Geiger two years ago (Official USMC Photo).

Force Troops Winning Right Along Under SSO Maj. Arthur O. Weddell

Since his assignment as Force Troops' special services officer two years ago, Maj. Arthur O. Wed- dell, has compiled an enviable record in the intramural athletic field.

During his tenure, Force Troops teams have captured eight Camp championships, were runner-ups in three and finished second in the Atlantic Fleet softball play-offs last year.

The winning streak began in 1952 when Force Troops units won four championships. 2nd Combat Service Group took first in both basketball and softball. The Automatic Weapons Bn. won the baseball play-offs and a picked boxing team from the command proved to be the best in the Lejeune area.

Automatic Weapons represented Force Troops in football that year but lost to the Tenth Marines in the final game.

In 1953 the 2nd 90 mm AAA Bn., 2nd AW Bn. and the 8th Engineers won Camp championships in basketball, baseball and football. The 8th Tank Bn., were runner-ups in softball and the boxing team also copped a runner-up slot.

The basketball championship has been decided. The 2nd Com- bat Service Group took the Camp title after racing through a 22-game schedule and the annual in- tramural tournament without a de- feat.

Weddell, who was recalled to active duty from his post as principal and athletic director of Medora (Ind.) High school, grad- uated from Indiana Central col- lege in 1940. He has his masters degree and has completed three years graduate work on his doc- tor's degree at Indiana universi- ty.

As an undergraduate, the 36-year- old major was an outstanding base- ball and basketball star. At Medora his athletic teams were among the strongest in Indiana interschol- astic circles. In 1940 Major Wed- dell coached the school boys to the State Southern Sectional basket- ball crown.

Major Weddell was commission- ed a second lieutenant in 1942 and served 30 months in the South Central Pacific during World War II. He served with the 14th AAA Bn., during the recapture of Guam.

County Cage Crown Worn By Devilpups As Wildcats Lose

The Camp Lejeune Devilpups won a hard-fought contest over the Richlands High Wildcats last Saturday 71-68 to bring home the On- slow county basketball champion- ship.

The game, played before a capacity crowd at Jacksonville High's new court, went into overtime when Richlands tied the score 64-64 in the last few seconds of regulation play.

The first quarter ended with the Pups on top with an 18-7 lead.

Poe Cox and William Humph- rey of Richlands netted seven apiece to cut Lejeune's lead to 32-26 at the half.

Humphrey hit the hoop for nine of Richland's 19 points in the third period, while Lejeune only gathered 13, to go into the fourth frame on the tail end of a 49-45 score.

Lejeune's Bobby Peele swished in two field goals in the first forty seconds of the last session to tie the game at 49-49. He repeated the feat a minute later to tie the game at 55-up, and sank another to take the lead 57-56.

Poe Cox raced down the court and laid one up to tie the score in the last eight seconds.

Billy Hudson scored six of Lejeune's seven points in the over- time to seal the game. In a tussle for a rebound between Lejeune's Boy Royster and Richlands' Jim Jarman, Jarman was knocked unconscious and removed from the floor at 1:08 of the overtime. With 51 seconds to go Lejeune froze the ball. Kendall Whaley of Richlands couldn't contain himself and grab- bed Jimmy Barker around the waist and was ejected from the game.

Bobby Peele led Lejeune with 18 points. Bob Royster netted 16, Johnny Mugford 13, Billy Hud- son 11 and Charlie Sells 10.

William Humphrey tallied 25 points for Richlands, Poe Cox 15.

SALLY SWEETLAND AND SHIRLEY JONES

Vocalists Jones, Sweetland To Feature Beneke, Sauter-Finegan Dates Here

Vocalists Shirley Jones and Sally Sweetland will get feature billing when they appear here later this month with the Tex Beneke and Sauter-Finegan orchestras.

Both bands will do 7:30 to 8:30 p.m. shows at the Camp theater and will play dance dates at Marston Pavilion from 9 to 12 p.m. Beneke will appear Thursday, March 11, and Sauter-Finegan will play St. Patrick's day, Wednesday, March 17.

Beneke brings his band to the Lejeune stage still with a strong flavor of the old Glenn Miller touch. A top sideman with the late Glenn before World War II, Beneke is said to have often refused Miller's backing for a solo stint, saying he'd rather stick with the maestro.

After Miller's disappearance in 1944, the Miller men decided to stick together and Beneke was chosen to lead them. Following the plan Miller had already drawn up for his postwar band, Beneke was a success from the start and still is going strong.

Sally Sweetland is an accomplished singer in her own right who interrupted a successful career to go with the new Sauter-Finegan orchestra. Possessed of a well-trained classical voice, the versatile Miss Sweetland is a fine complement to the S-F technique.

Called "just the greatest" by their fans, Sauter-Finegan has become the "most exciting thing in music in years." Both accomplished arrangers and musicians, the duo already had established a solid reputation as the men behind the music of Benny Goodman, Tommy Dorsey and Glenn Miller.

This Week's Movie Review

CREATURE FROM BLACK LAGOON (2 Bells)

This is another one of those horror film dreamed up for three-dimension, but which is shown here in regular old-fashioned flat style. It should still prove exciting enough to the fan who gets his kick from monster and science fiction stories. Cast not available.

GO MAN GO (4 Bells)

This is the story of the Harlem Globetrotters, famous clown team of basketball. Dan Clark plays the role of Abe Saperstein, the team's fiery owner, with Pat Breslin as his wife. Other members of the cast are Sidney Politer, Edmon strongly reminiscent of "Lassie Come Home," which starred a dog. Ward

GYPSY COLT (2 Bells)

Here's another horse story. This one's about a colt who braves all dangers to get back to his mistress, Donna Corcoran, after being taken away to be trained as a race horse. The plot is strongly reminiscent of "Lassie Come Home," which starred a dog. Ward

Ladies' Golf Group Host To New Bern, Cherry Point Clubs

Thirty-eight golfers from New Bern, Cherry Point and Camp Lejeune took part in a tournament held here Feb. 23 by the Camp Lejeune Ladies Golf association.

Winners were: New Bern, Mrs. J. Gay, 96 low gross; Mrs. B. McCotter, 100-28-72 low net and Mrs. M. Volney, 28 feet in a match for the nearest tee shot to the 118 yard No. 3 hole.

Cherry Point: Mrs. B. Carter, 89 low gross; Mrs. E. Quesberry, 98-27-71 low net and Mrs. B. Terrin, 28 feet. Camp Lejeune: Mrs. E. W. Murphy, 86 low gross; Mrs. B. J. Erwin, 92-19-73 low net and Mrs. A. J. Everett, 34 feet.

Mrs. Erwin won a draw after a three-way tie for the low net score.

FT Volleyball Race To Start Monday

Bond and Frances Dee, in supporting roles, add strength to the picture.

TORCH SONG (2 Bells)

Joan Crawford gives a dramatic performance as a selfish star who conceals the fact that she is giving by talent and vitality. Her conflict with Michael Wilding, who plays a blind pianist; humbles her, helps her find love, happiness. Although the story is not too original, Gail Young and Marjorie Rambeau do a capable supporting job.

JIVARO (2 Bells)

Here's a tale of the adventure, lover. It's crammed with action and spiced with romance and hair-raising incidents. Centered around conflict between treasure seekers and head hunters in South America, it stars Rhonda Fleming, Fernando Lamas and Richard Denning. It's in Technicolor.

SHOW BOAT (4 Bells)

This is the second time around for this film. It's big, technicolor and tuneful. The lineup of stars includes Ava Gardner, Howard Keel, Kathryn Grayson, Joe E. Brown, Marge and Gower S. Chamberlain and William Warfield. All the Champion and Jerome Kern songs are included and Warfield stops the show with "Old Man River."

RETURN OF THE PLAINSMAN (1 Bell)

The only information available on this one is that a couple of people named Garry Rafferty and Jeanette Elphick play the lead roles. Maybe you've heard of them, we haven't. Anyway, it can't be too bad. The whole thing is only 67 minutes long.

THE MAN BETWEEN (3 Bells)

This is a spy thriller which takes place in the Eastern and Western sectors of Berlin. The conflict arises when Claire Bloom, mistaken for Hildegard Neff, is abducted by Russian secret police. James Mason attempts to free her in an exciting chase interlarded with suspense and intrigue. It's an English movie.

DRAGON'S GOLD (1 Bell)

If you can't find anything better to do, you might drop in on this one. It's got plenty of action which sweeps from New York to China. Joan Archer is a bonding company investigating a million dollars. Hillary Brooke adds romance and complications to the overly complex plot.

RETURN TO PARADISE (3 Bells)

Gary Cooper plays a soldier of fortune who tries his luck on a small Pacific isle. He clashes with Barry Jones, a white missionary, who forces the natives to accept his strict moral principles. Cooper finds romance and tragedy when he falls in love with a native girl, Roberta Haynes. The Technicolor is tops and the picture was actually filmed in the South Pacific. It's based on the book by James A. Michener.

SONG OF THE LAND

This is the documentary-type film. It has no professional actors, and no plot. It's a panorama of nature in color. Scenes range from volcanic eruptions, mountain ranges, pastures, to animals, fish and fowls. Nature in one big conglomeration.

YESTERDAY AND TODAY

This one's in the same category with the one above. It contrasts scenes from old movies with what the modern theater-goer get to see. George Jessel narrates this one. It lasts only 57 minutes, but it's amusing, but don't expect too much.

AN AMERICAN IN PARIS (4 Bells)

It won an Academy award a couple of years ago and it's worth seeing again. The Technicolor is wonderful and so is the dancing by Gene Kelly and Leslie Caron. If you like musicals on a big scale, this is for you. George Gershwin's music makes it well-nigh perfect.

RIOT IN CELL BLOCK 11

This is a prison drama, but definitely above average. New stars by Edison Marshall and Leo Gordon recognize names, but you'll recognize a takeoff on an actual outbreak in a prison. The picture holds its own by its realism, mounting suspense. Researcher who served time in the prison who served time in the prison who served time in the prison.

YANKEE PASHA (2 Bells)

Jeff Chandler and Rhonda Fleming star in this Technicolor movie. The novel by Edison Marshall is a word-fighting, harem-themed time with an America through it makes love to a ty.

KILLERS FROM SPACE

Swiss fiction addicts will twist in this story which delves into the fantastic. Stripped from another world have rivers and are concealed in earth's surface. They are energy given out by atoms create enormous repulsive and eliminate the earth's inhabitants. The lead role is played by Joanne Lincoln, who falls into the hands of Good for kids.

IT STARTED IN PARADISE

It's an English film in Technicolor. It is sometimes of one big fashion show with a lot of reminiscence of "All About That Girl" and "The Girl Who Came to Supper." This case is fashion design. It lacks the clever dialogue and acting of the former. Cast includes Graham, Ian Hunter and M. J. Baker.

BAIT (2 Bells)

In this one, Hugo Haas, locate a gold mine he discovered another in a desert. He helps him find it. When the discovered Haas regrets the plots murder, using his wife. The plot is fairly convincing and nice.

VOLCANO (3 Bells)

This one is for adults. It's Italian, but English dialogue dubbed in which sometimes joined effect. The star is Italian actress Anna Magnani. Also includes Geraldine Brooks, a villainous dabbler. Slave market, becomes inner younger sister, she nobly off in an unusual manner. A cinematic rendezvous with volcano.

DRUMS OF TAHITI

Here's another one of those South Pacific island jobs. This O'Keefe plots to overthrow control on Tahiti. He sets into the island, Patricia and the romantic interest, which led to pose as O'Keefe's. L. Sullivan, member of the police attempts to expose the plot. It comes to a climactic can erupts and a tropical island at the same time. The picture was originally photographed in almost see the most thrilling but far-fetched.
