

Division March Today Marks 12 Years' Service

Over 10,000 combat-clad members of the 2nd Marine Division will virtually cover the parade field today in a review of the division's 12 years of service.

The largest show of the strength since Maj. McC. Pate took command September, three of its four regiments and supporting battalions in review this afternoon Maj. Gen. Field

Harris, deputy commanding general, Fleet Marine Force, Atlantic, and commanding general, Air, Fleet Marine Force, Atlantic, who will be the reviewing officer.

The only division unit not participating in the grand review is the 6th Marines, currently training in the Caribbean.

Combat Array

Led by Col. Bruno A. Hochmuth, assistant chief of staff, G-1, commanding officer of troops, the division units will be in full combat array as they stand side by side across the vast parade field facing Holcomb Blvd.

Wearing utilities, steel helmets, field boots, field jackets, and marching packs, the thousands of armed Marines will stand stiffly at attention as the colors, carried by Headquarters Bn., are presented to the Commanding Officer of Troops.

The colors will then, in turn, be presented to the reviewing officer, General Harris. On the reviewing stand besides Generals Harris and Pate, will be Brig. Gen. John A. Hart, deputy commanding general, Air FMFLant; and Col. Carson A. Roberts, chief of staff, Air FMFLant.

General's Staff

Also present will be General Pate's staff: Col. Robert E. Luckey, chief of staff; Lt. Col. James D. McBrayer Jr., assistant G-1; Col. David W. Stonecliffe, assistant chief of staff, G-2; Col. Charles M. Nees, assistant chief of staff, G-3; and Col. Charles L. Granger, assistant chief of staff, G-4.

As the sea of fixed bayonets stretches across the parade grounds, the men of the division will hear the National Anthem, a prayer by the Division Chaplain, Cmdr. Eric H. Arendt, and a dramatic narration of the unit's history read by Maj. Francis E. Blake, staff secretary.

The climax to the colorful ceremonies will come when the entire division passes in review in a final tribute to its own 12-year record of service to the nation.

Less than a week later, after a battle of unquestioned ferocity, the Marines had secured Belleau Wood—woods that later were renamed "Le Bois De Brigade de Marine" by a grateful French government.

From Belleau Wood, the Leathernecks fought on to win victories at Soissons, Mont Blanc, and the Meuse-Argonne, with the cry of the 6th Marines sergeant still ringing their ears: "Come on, do you want to live for ever?"

In the years between the two world wars, Leathernecks who were to become a part of the division were hardly idle. The 6th, with an apparent affinity for trouble, turned up in the Dominican Republic and at Guantanamo Bay in 1924.

Three years later the regiment was rushed to Shanghai, under the command of Maj. Gen. Smed-

March Of Dimes Concludes With More Than $36,000

Special Traffic Regulations In Effect Today

Special traffic regulations will be in effect today in the Hadnot point area because of the parade this afternoon by the 2nd Division in commemoration of its twelfth anniversary.

Holcomb Boulevard from Molly Pitcher Drive to River Road will be closed to all traffic except emergency vehicles or vehicles participating in the parade, from 12:30 until 2 p.m.

Holcomb Boulevard, from the Main Service Road to River Road, will be closed from 3:30 until 4:30 p.m. The Main Service Road from Post Lane to "N" Street will be closed from 12:30 until 2 p.m., and from 3:30 until 4:30 p.m.

Also D, E, F, G, H, I, K, L, M, and a streets will be closed from noon until 2 p.m., and from 3:30 until 4:30 p.m.

Parking areas in front of Bldg. 15 will be reserved for official cars carrying general officers and their guests. Also, 40 spaces in the parking lot behind Bldg. 1 will be reserved for invited guests.

There will be no parking on the southeast lane of Holcomb Boulevard between River Road and the Main Service Road.

Reserves Granted Travel Deductions

According to a recent Treasury Department ruling, Reservists will be allowed to deduct their travel expenses to and from Reserve training from their income tax. It was decided that travel expenditures to and from training are "ordinary and necessary business expenses" and therefore deductible.

Uniform costs for reservists, however, are not deemed a legal deduction, although the cost of uniform insignia can be deducted.

Camp Lejeune's month-long March of Dimes campaign ended Saturday with a grand total of $36,216.66. These funds were turned over to Z. L. Riggs, chairman of the Onslow County March of Dimes, by his Camp Lejeune representative, A. J. Lewis.

A breakdown of collected funds shows that civilian personnel here averaged $1.22 per person, Marine Barracks $5.99 per person, Force Troops $8.88, and the 2nd Division $6.71.

This makes an approximate overall average of $80 per person aboard the base.

Chairman's Thanks

Col. Samuel S. Ballentine, chairman of the campaign, praised all unit chairmen for an excellent job during the 1953 drive, and conveyed his thanks to all personnel here for making it a success.

In an attempt to keep funds flowing in throughout the campaign initiative was employed by many units here.

For example, members of the 2nd Division Band serenaded personnel at chow halls during meals to solicit added contributions to the drive.

Children at the Camp Schools staged a contest to see which room could raise the largest donation. Children in the winning room were given free theater tickets as reward for their efforts.

CUBMASTERS

Persons interested in acting as cubmasters or assistant cubmasters are requested to call Lt. Col. M. E. Ireland, 2nd Ordnance Bn., or Lt. Col. L. G. Coutts, Joint Landing Force Board, Colonel Ireland's office and home phones are 5574 and 6549; respectively, while Colonel Coutts' are 3658 and 6697.

THE WEATHER

Tomorrow a 15-knot wind will buffet this area along with rain and temperatures from 49 to 55 degrees. Saturday will be partly cloudy with late afternoon showers. Sunday morning is forecasted cloudy with clearing skies later in the afternoon.

What Moment Of Your Life Would You Like To Relive?

CPL. JOE HOVANEC, H&S BN. SPECIAL SERVICES—I would like to relive my wedding day. It's a once-in-a-lifetime experience. Standing there, waiting for her father to give her away it seems as if your whole life passes in front of you and through my mind passed the wonderful hours that we spent together planning for that day. I thought of the days that were ahead of us. The moment in the ceremony that I would like to relive is when the priest pronounced us man and wife.

PFC ARTHUR KOENIG, HQ CO., H&S BN. MB—I would like to relive the night of my college graduation. The ceremonies were so impressive. There were about 10,000 people in the grandstand of New York's Lewisohn Stadium, watching our graduation from City College. Everything about the music, the speakers, the presence of parents, relatives and friends, the play of the footlights around the stadium makes that moment the one I would like to relive.

ROBERT J. MURRAY, 2ND MED. BN.—The moments in my wedding day are the ones that I would like to relive. They are really the happiest moments of my life. The moment waiting for my future wife to come up the aisle escorted by her father will always be a part of me. During that time I thought of the happy times we would have in the days to come. I would like to relive my reception. We had our families and relatives there, and everything seemed so perfect that day.

DTP3 M. M. ROSENTHAL, H&S BN. 2ND MED. BN. 2ND MAR. DIV.—My graduation from the New York Institute of Applied Arts and Science. I would like to relive that moment because then I thought that I had finally achieved my goal, which was to obtain some sort of a degree and also to have a trade which in future years would allow me to earn a livelihood.

SSGT. FRANCIS E. BARTLETT, WPNS. CO., 3RD BN. 8TH MARINES—Getting married is the moment I would like to relive, because it meant the most to me. I would like to relive that moment because it gave me the woman I loved and now that she is down here with me we have set up an apartment and being that I am in the Marine Corps, what more could a fellow ask for. I would like to relive my whole honeymoon.

Maryland Lauds Depot's Highway Safety Exhibition

A certificate of appreciation for "Outstanding Contribution to the Highway Safety Program" was awarded to Supply Depot's Special Services for its safety display section here Saturday by Paul E. Burke, director of the Maryland Traffic Safety Commission.

The exhibit, which was unveiled January 26, has been extended to next Sunday by popular demand and is presently located in Bldg. 1209, Industrial Area. Visited by more than 4000 people since its opening, the show is open from 8:30 a.m.-9:30 p.m. Monday through Friday, and 1 p.m.-9:30 p.m. Saturday and Sunday.

Representing Governor Theodore R. McKeldin of Maryland, Mr. Burke presented the certificate to Colonel P. W. John, commanding officer of the Supply Depot. The certificate read, "In recognition of your unselfish devotion in the interest of your fellow man in helping to reduce the loss of life on Maryland's highways."

Speaking informally to members of the Special Services section following the presentation, Mr. Burke said: "I have seen displays throughout the country but this is the best display in the interest of traffic safety that I have seen thus far, in every detail, including the national safety show."

In gathering material for the display, TSgt. James A. Watson, Supply Depot Special Services section chief, wrote to each state in the country requesting material. A total of 39 states sent photographs, posters, and other graphic illustrations of the toll taken by traffic accidents in life and property.

Many of the pictures show the maimed and broken bodies of accident victims, the sight of which, says Watson, "should make anyone think twice before stepping on the accelerator."

Opportunity Shop To Canvass Camp

February 19 an all-out drive covering all housing areas here will be conducted to secure articles to be resold in the Opportunity Shop, according to an announcement made by Cmdr. R. F. Erdman, chairman of the drive.

The housing areas will be divided into sections. Committee members in each section will contact residents and will accept by donation or consignment, used clothing, furniture, or miscellaneous items to restock the Opportunity Shop.

Funds obtained from sales made by the shop are turned over to the Parent-Teacher Association and are used primarily for work in the kindergarten.

Head Chinese Marine Here Next Tuesday

Maj. Gen. Chow Yu-Huan, commandant of the Chinese Nationalist Marine Corps, will arrive at Peterfield Point, Tuesday for a two-day visit of Marine facilities here.

He will be welcomed aboard with full military honors at the camp parade ground at 9:30 a.m. that day.

Following his official welcome, General Chow, with his American aide, Col. B. T. Holcomb, and Maj. Gen. Henry D. Linscott, camp commander will tour Engineer School Bn. Rifle Range, Onslow Beach, Supply School Bn., the Camp Chapel, and the Naval Hospital.

Wednesday, elements of the 2nd Division and Force Troops will be visited by the commandant.

Navy's Guest

General Chow arrived at San Francisco from Formosa February 2. Following a brief visit at West Coast Marine installations his party flew on to the East Coast.

The 42-year-old Chinese commandant is a career military man whose education was supplemented by three years of training and duty in Germany. Since 1940 he has held important posts in the Chinese Marine Corps. On August 16, 1950, he was promoted from deputy commander to commandant.

Following his visit here, General Chow will return to Washington and, later in the month, fly to San Francisco and thence to Formosa.

WELL DONE—TSgt. James A. Watson, Supply Depot Special Services chief, receives congratulations from Paul E. Burke, director of the Maryland Traffic Safety Commission, for his work in preparing the safety display which, according to Mr. Burke, surpassed the National Safety Show (Official USMC Photo).

In the fall of 1941, the 2nd Engineer Bn. was detached from the remaining units at Camp Elliot and sent to Honolulu to build a new Marine Camp. So it was that on December 7, 1941, Leathernecks of the division were among the first to fight back when Jap planes played havoc at Pearl Harbor. The bat-tion ultimately received a commendation for its actions on that day.

Immediately after the Pearl Harbor attack, units of the Division deployed along the West Coast to face the possible threat of a Japanese attack on the mainland.

Parts Unknown

But it wasn't long before its units were on the move. A month after Pearl Harbor the 8th Marines, with a battalion from the 10th Marines and companies from the 2nd Tank, Engineer, Service and Medical Battalions, sailed out of San Diego for "parts unknown."

Two weeks later the Leathernecks were on the island of Samoa, ready to attempt to stop the march of the Japanese across the Pacific.

On the Pacific coast the 2nd Marines along with many other division units trained intensively and provided cadres for the formation of still more Marine divisions. It wasn't long before they too made the long voyage across the Pacific.

Released to the 1st Marine Division for the attack on the Solomon Islands, the 2nd Regiment was soon on its way. At 0740 on August 7, 1942, "E" Co. of the 1st Bn., 2nd Marines became the first American outfit to land on enemy held soil in World War II when its men splashed ashore at Tulagi.

With the first shots fired at Guadalcanal and Tulagi, the 2nd Marine Division began to compile one of the most impressive combat records ever achieved by an American fighting unit.

With its units finally joined under its colors little more than a year later, the Division made combat history when it stormed the beaches of Tarawa. In 72 bloody hours, it conquered the "unconquerable" island. It was for this epic battle that the 2nd was awarded the Presidential Unit Citation, which division Leathernecks proudly wear today.

Close To Nippon

Swiftly the division clawed its way ever closer to the Japanese homeland. With the 4th Marine Division, the men of the 2nd toppled the Japs off Saipan. A month later the two divisions did a repeat performance at Tinian.

Victory was near when elements of the division fought side by side with the 1st and 6th Marine Divisions in the last bitter infantry offensive of the war at Okinawa.

the 2nd brought to a close its impressive World War II combat record.

Still Ready

Since World War II the 2nd Marine Division has never relaxed its combat readiness. Constantly training here at Camp Lejeune and in the Caribbean, the division has been, and remains, a major cog in the nation's vast wheel of defense—and offense.

To Mark Boy Scout Birthday Sunday

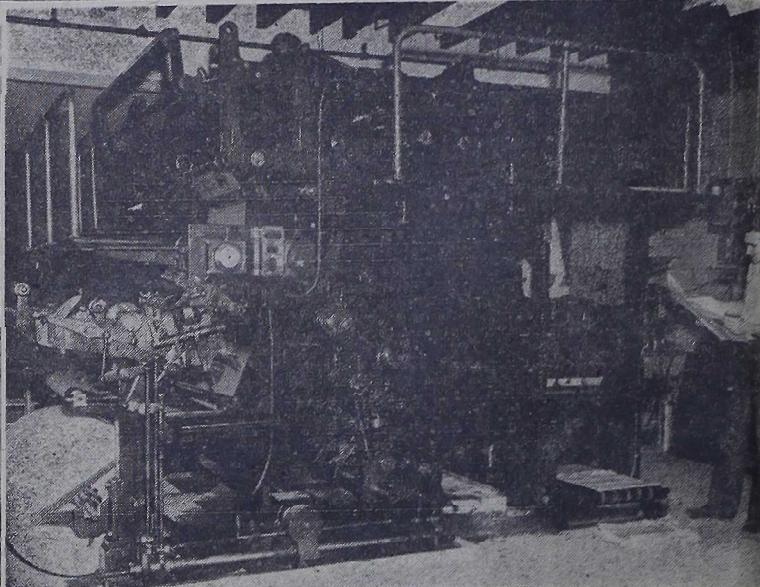

The Boy Scouts of Camp Lejeune will give tribute to their organization on its forty-third birthday this Sunday, Boy Scout Sunday, by attending religious services at the camp's Catholic and Protestant Chapels.

The services, held in honor of the Boy Scouts, will be at 8:30 a.m. in the Catholic Chapel, with Mass celebrated by Chaplain Godfrey Reilly, and 10:30 a.m. in the Protestant Chapel, with services conducted by Chaplains Eric Arendt and Abbot Peterson Jr. Chaplain Glynn Oglesby, officer-in-charge of scouting at Lejeune, will preach the sermon at the Protestant Chapel.

All scouts have been requested to assemble in uniform ten minutes prior to each service. Parents are invited to attend these services.

SHIPPING OVER—Sgt. Richard B. Kuszmaul (left), a forward observer for a 4.2 mortar company of the 2nd Marines, takes the oath of enlistment for an additional tour of duty. Kuszmaul's commanding officer, Major N. C. Manley Jr., administers the oath. The sergeant, who directed mortar fire in Korea, re-enlisted under the new program allowing men who ship over to pick an area for duty. He has requested Southern California in order to be near his wife, who lives in Anaheim, Calif. (Official USMC Photo).

PRESS TALK—Sgt. Charley Dullea, editor of the GLOBE, and Wade Higgins, shop foreman News and Views Printing Co., study the first copies of the GLOBE off the huge Hoe rotary press, recently installed at the Jacksonville plant, where the GLOBE is printed. The new press, working at capacity, can print the 20,000 copies of the GLOBE within an hour (Official USMC Photo).

Dependents' Chest X-Rays Offered Now

As part of the national program for control of pulmonary tuberculosis and other chest conditions, dependents of service personnel are urged to report to the Camp Infirmary, Bldg. 15, between the hours of 8:00 a.m. and 4:30 p.m. on all week days and between 8 a.m. and noon on Saturdays during February to obtain chest X-rays.

Persons whose initial X-rays show disease will be called back for further study. Failure to receive such recall may be accepted as evidence of no disease.

Early diagnosis resulting from mass national X-ray screening have been responsible for many cures of chest lesions which, if left until symptoms were produced, would not have responded to modern therapy, according to Infirmary officials.

Little time loss and no inconvenience will result if persons desiring chest X-rays will report to the registration desk in The Dependents' Clinic stating they wish X-rays.

Chaplain's Corner

Well, the New Year is getting on and our good New Year's resolutions are not only broken, but, I expect, already forgotten. The bad part about resolutions is that we only think about them before they are made and then do not really make them a part of our life.

After being home for Christmas and going to the church we were raised in, I expect a lot of us made the resolution, while sitting there in church feeling good about it all, to do a lot better about attending church every Sunday when we got back to camp.

Like the rest of our resolutions, we have probably broken it and fallen back into our old pattern of forgetting.

Most of us realize the importance of attending church every Sunday, and we all realize that as individuals we need the worship experience to strengthen us. When Paul was writing to one of the very young churches in Asia, he wrote, "Let us not forsake the assembling of ourselves together," since it stressed the things that they needed to grow closer to God in their daily life.

You hear a lot of fellows say that they can worship God just as well without ever going to church, and they may well be able to do so. But as you watch them, the simple fact is—they don't. And you don't either, do you?

No, history has adequate proof that the only way most of us can worship and receive the benefits God offers us is to be regular attendants at His services on Sunday.

So, let's pick up the pieces of that broken resolution from the rubble of New Year's and make it a part of our life in the service, just as it is when we are home. See you in Church Sunday! —Chaplain Malcolm W. Graham, 10th Marines.

GUILD MEETS

The regular monthly meeting of the Protestant Chapel Guild will be held Monday night at 8 in the Jewish Chapel, Bldg. 67. Guest speaker for the evening will be Chaplain Samuel R. Hardman, who will speak on the meaning of Lent.

WM Maneuvers

BY CPL. ELOISE TURNER

There are two former women sergeants who have civil service jobs on the base. Sgt. Billie Thoreson, now Mrs. James Lee, worked on subsistence in the Supply Depot prior to her release from active duty under the marriage bill July 31. As a civilian, Mrs. Lee now works at the Naval Hospital where she is secretary to seven doctors of the neuro-psychiatrists service.

Former Sgt. Connie Ouellette was a reserve release in February 1952. As a Marine she worked as secretary for the Provost Marshal and now, as a civilian, she is continuing that job as a civil service worker. Although her home is in Turnbridge, Vt., Miss Ouellette plans to keep on with her work here and maintain residence in Jacksonville.

Sgt. Billie J. Sides of the Camp Chaplain's Office is now Mrs. Ross Allan Wright. She was married recently to Marine Staff Sergeant Wright of Camp Pendleton, in Hollywood, Calif.

Aide To Lejeune Commander Weds Lt. Gloria Yeager

In a formal ceremony Saturday morning in the Camp Catholic Chapel, Woman Marine 1st Lt. Gloria C. Yeager, Joint Landing Force Board, and 1st Lt. Marvin J. Fournier, aide to Maj. Gen. H. D. Linscott, were united in marriage.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Yeager, of 631 West 207th St., New York, N. Y., parents of the bride, were here for the wedding. The bride was given in marriage by her father. Her cousin, Miss Ruth McDonnell, also of New York, was maid of honor. Mrs. Gerald Reynolds and 1st Lt. Jane Connell were bridesmaids.

Howard Brennan, of Minneapolis, Minn., served as best man. Ushers were 1st Lt. James A. Stevens and 2nd Lt. Gerald Reynolds. The groom and ushers wore dress blues.

Satin And Lace

The bride's gown was white satin and chantilly lace featuring a ruffled bouffant outer lace skirt rising to the waist in back in an open bustle effect. The bodice was fitted and the long sleeves ended in a point at the wrists. She carried a white orchid mounted on a matching prayer book with white satin streamers.

Her only ornament was a single strand of matched pearls. A fingertip veil of illusion was gathered to a beaded halo.

Lt. Cmdr. G. J. Reilly performed the ceremony. Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast and reception was held in the Paradise Room of the Commissioned Officers Mess. The couple will make their home at Tarawa Terrace.

Supply Depot Sergeant Marries Maysville Girl At Protestant Chapel

Miss Yvonne Holland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fredrick Holland of Maysville, N. C., and Sgt. Ronald Meyer, from Long Island, N. Y., presently attached to the Supply Depot, were married Saturday afternoon at the Camp Protestant Chapel.

Miss Holland, previously a civilian employee of the Camp Cafeteria, is now working for the Spangler Realty Co. at Tarawa Terrace II.

The couple was attended by the bride's sister, Miss Euzella Holland as maid of honor; Sgt. Douglas Gruelle, best man; and Sgt. Ronald Gledisch and Cpl. Steve Marcia as ushers. Miss Holland was given away by her father.

The bride was dressed in a gown of lace and net with flowing veil, white satin slippers and a large white orchid on her prayerbook. The maid of honor was in an ankle-length gown of foamy blue net and carried an old fashioned bouquet of pink carnations.

After the double ring ceremony, performed by Chaplain G. L. Barger, a small reception was held at the Club Famous in Wilmington. From there, Sergeant and Mrs. Meyer journeyed to Washington, D. C., on a 16-day wedding trip. They expect to make their home in Jacksonville.

WM Scholars Get Rounded Curriculum

Field trips as well as classroom work are part of the curriculum set up for students attending the Staff NCO Leadership School for Women Marines here. Monday afternoon students and instructors went to Peterfield Point to observe helicopter operations.

Averaging one field trip per week, students have visited everything from the functioning of Machine Records Installation to a general court-martial proceeding.

This is the third week of instruction in the newly organized school. Each class is four weeks in duration and has 25 students and four instructors. First Lt. Jane Connell is officer in charge of the school.

On February 13, the birthday of the Women Marines, the current class will graduate. Col. Katherine Towle, director of Women Marines, will be here for the graduation.

On completion of the course, each student and instructor will submit a written critique as a re-evaluation of the schooling. Lieutenant Connell states, "The critiques will govern any changes to be made in the next class. Some subjects may be dropped and others added, and we may decide to spend more time with certain subjects."

BRIDE AND GROOM—First Lt. Gloria C. Yeager, Joint Landing Force Board, and 1st Lt. Marvin Fournier, aide to Maj. Gen. H. D. Linscott, leave the Camp Catholic Chapel after their wedding Saturday morning. (Official USMC Photo).

SKY HIGH—Lejeune's Joe DiGilio leaves his feet to make a jump shot against Fort Jackson last Thursday. Lejeune handed Fort Jackson its second defeat in 14 games, avenging an early season loss to the Army five (Official USMC Photo).

Tonight Pugs Collide With Mitchel AFB

Coach Glenn McComas' pugs wind up their dual meet season here tonight, tackling the Mitchel Air Force Base Bombers at the Field House, starting at 7:30.

A nine-bout card is planned for tonight's festivities, the last time the Marine belters will be seen in action here.

Mitchel, a newcomer to the Lejeune schedule, should prove to be one of the toughest ever faced by the Campers.

Look Good

Recognized for years as one of the top service boxing aggregations on the East Coast, the Bombers have always shown well in Golden Gloves competition.

Jimmy Powers in his New

JOE BROWN

York "Daily News" column of last Monday stated that "the Mitchel Air Force Base team has been reorganized," showing that the air base boxers are shuffling their team to get the maximum talent for the forthcoming tournaments.

Lejeune will be gunning for its fourth win. They have tied one and lost one.

McComas will start his regulars in his bid for victory number four. John Ortiz will handle the flyweight bout; Norm Williams, bantam; Ev Galligan, feather; Levi Washington, lightweight; Julius Griffiths, welter; Joe Davis, light-middle; Al Hood, middleweight; either Joe Brown or Ed Gustin, light-heavyweight; and Bud House, heavy.

Jacksonville High Edges Devil Pups

Camp Lejeune's Devil Pups came from far behind here last week, knotting the score at 50-50 with less than a minute to go, only to lose it on two free throws by the Jacksonville High Cardinals' Tommy Warren, 84-90.

Jackson Arrows Downed By Quint In Second Meeting

The Camp Lejeune cagers avenged an earlier defeat here Thursday night by stopping the Fort Jackson Golden Arrows, 92-76. Jackson had won a previous contest, 90-79.

Lejeune held a 23-19 advantage at the end of the first period and was never headed or tied the rest of the way.

Guard Leroy Smith was high for the evening with 26, followed by Jackson's Lloyd Sandstrom who tallied 22.

Smith Scores 36 As Langley Takes Nosedive To Camp

Leroy Smith scored 36, and everybody got to play, as the Lejeune five routed Langley AFB 86 to 74 on the Flyers' court Saturday night.

In the first quarter the game was fast and tight, with both sides fumbling the ball at crucial moments and missing many point-making opportunities. Lejeune led, 12 to 8, at the end of this period.

The second quarter saw the Marines settle down and Leroy Smith tally 17 markers to pace the field and lead the Marines to a 39-27 intermission margin.

At the start of the second half, the Leathernecks opened fast and Smith again led the scoring, this time with 15 points. Langley, unable to muster a scoring punch, was behind, 69 to 52, at the end of the third frame and was 36 points in arrears at one time during the last quarter.

Starters for Langley were Fisher Nelson, Bill Patrick, Geren Millen, Dick Bechtel, and Ken Kihlfefer, while the starting five for the Leathernecks were Bob Ruoff, Conrad Gaskin, John Anderson, Joe DiGilio, and Rod Mansker.

Lady Leathernecks Ground Langley Air

The Woman Marine hoopsters met the Langley Air Force six at the Virginia air station Saturday evening and clipped their wings by a score of 25-19. Undefeated by service teams, this is the sixth consecutive victory for the Lady Leathernecks, who sport a record of nine wins.

Keeping out front from the start, the WM's outmaneuvered their rivals until the last of the third quarter when the Langley girls tied the score, 19-19.

Spurred to action, Laverne Robertson bucketed the ball easily from under the hoop as the last quarter got underway. A beautiful interception by Carol Lau brought the sphere back to the Scarlet and Gold, who made good for two score tallies.

Fighters Split With Army Ring Crew

Camp Lejeune's Joe Brown and Bud House registered back-to-back knockouts in the evening's final two bouts to give the Marines a 3-3 draw against the Fort Jackson Golden Arrows punchers at the Army station Thursday.

Brown scored his second knockout of the campaign, belting out Dave Sutton in a light-heavyweight match. Brown decked Sutton for an eight-count in the first and then put him away in 2:35 of the second round with a left hook to the head.

House, after working over Leais Holmes for two rounds, tore into his opponent at the beginning of the third and the ref, Dom Fusci, stopped the fight after one minute and seven seconds of the final stanza.

Duden TKO's

Lejeune's other win, and the first of the evening for the Marines, also came on a TKO. Art Durden, Lejeune 150-pounder, mauled George Kelly until Fusci stopped the bout at 1:36 of the third. Durden floored Kelly for an eight-count in the second.

Only one of the six matches went the distance, Levi Washington dropping a decision to Arrow Tom Jackson. Washington took the first round, 28-25, but dropped the last two.

Sterling Spady, Lejeune's welterweight, suffered his first loss of the season, in the night's quickest knockout. Spady fell before Leon McCollin in 1:44 of the first round.

In the opening bout, Don Davis was TKO'd in the second round by Ernest Butts.

CAMP PROPERTY

The Camp Property Section is now open for business, having completed its audit and inventory Monday.

Virginia Soldiers Rout Camp Brigade, 91-61

Paul Gerwin, former Cornell University star, led the Lee Travelers to a 91-61 basketball victory over Camp Lejeune at the Virginia base Tuesday night.

Pl, Langley Next On List For Cagers

Back from a three-game trip, the Camp Lejeune cage team meets Parris Island in a Marine conference tilt Saturday night and plays a return engagement with Langley Air Force Base Tuesday evening.

Lejeune, having dropped four without winning in conference play, will assume the role of spoiler in Saturday's tilt.

With Quantico virtually unbeatable, a Parris Island loss would put the "Boots" out of contention for the East Coast Marine title and boost Cherry Point's chances for the runner-up spot.

In the initial contest between the two Marine teams, P.I. came out on the far end of an 87-69 score. Since then Lejeune has improved and should give the South Carolinians a tough tussle.

Langley fell before the Marines, 86-71, on the first leg of the recent road trip, with Leroy Smith dumping 36 points.

March Of Dimes Alley Tournament Taken By Lejeune

Fourth in the qualifying rounds, Camp Lejeune's five-man bowling team upped its pace in the finals to take first place in the March of Dimes Bowling Tournament at Charleston, S. C., last week.

Presentation of awards will be made at the Charleston Rifle Club February 14.

The C.C. Amusement Co. placed second, Esso Oil third, Parris Island fourth, Quantico fifth, Charleston Naval Receiving Station sixth, Georgia's Kohler Furniture Co. seventh, and Cherry Point eighth.

TSGT. Ray Obloczynska, 10th Marines, paced the division bowlers with an over-190 average for six games. Other division bowlers were: Cpl. Fred De Marco, 2nd Medical Bn.; HMG Donald Brumeister, 2nd Marines; MSgt. Al Hora, Division Special Services; Pfc Charles Davidson, 10th Marines; and Cpl. George Campomenosi, 10th Marines.

Gerwin, a 6-3 forward, ten of 13 field goal attempts, four tries from the free throw line, paced the scoring field with 22 points. Second high on the floor was Cooke, All-American from State, who hit for 23 marks the Travelers.

Lejeune fell behind early in the first period, 27-10, the end of the first period. Army broke the game wide in the next quarter. They led, 51-27, at intermission.

From the opening of the second half, the Marines stepped drive but were only able to hold the Travelers for a short while before the home boys got hot. Lee managed to build up point lead in the middle of the third period. A short rally, led by Lejeune's Leroy and Skip Whitaker, cut the 20 markers but there the held, winning by the final of 23 points.

Face Marines Whitaker and Smith were point-makers for Lejeune with 13 points, respectively, were followed by Vince Gal who got into the game late, fourth period, to rack up the the losers.

Personal fouls accounted the big Traveler lead in the period. Fort Lee had not charged to it while Lejeune called on 16 in the same amount of time. The final tally on was 26 for Lejeune, 18 for Most of the winners' pen came in the last period.

Sam Miranda, Lee guard, former All-Big Ten star at Indiana, tallied 17 points. Army quipped, most of the time on an amazingly accurate shot from almost mid-court.

Pups Top Richland For Fifth Triumph

Camp Lejeune's Devil Pup notched victory number five Friday night, toppling the lands Wildcats, 58-53.

The Pups took the lead in the first quarter and held it the third period, when Richland came from behind to knot the at 39-39. The game stayed 40-40 and then Lejeune took head to lead, 47-43, at the third quarter.

Lejeune's Bobby Peele was scorer with 21 points, while land's Bill Smith netted 14.

Starting this month and continuing into March and early April, intramurals take over the service sport scene.

February 11-14, Woman Marine basketball tournament at Camp Lejeune. The WM's have won nine straight in service competition, including two over Cherry Point. The other two teams, P.I. and Quantico, have not played Lejeune. Lejeune should take this one, with P.I. the big threat.

February 16-21, Middle Atlantic Inter-Service Athletic Conference boxing tournament at Fort Myer, Va. Lejeune has entered 19 men in its tournament, two in every weight class except fly and heavyweight. Lejeune punched their way to top spot last season, and should repeat with an improved team. Over 100 boxers are expected from Lejeune, Bolling AFB, Fort Belvoir (second in 1952), Fort George Gade, Andrews AFB, Fort Myer, Fort Eustis, Langley AFB, Fort Belvoir, and others.

Fleet Kegling Tourney

February 16-20, Atlantic Fleet Bowling at ComServLant, Norfolk. This tournament, like all Atlantic Fleet events, is limited to FMF personnel. The 2d Division team, which won the March of Dimes tournament last week, will be reinforced by Cherry Point keglers and should repeat rolling.

February 23-28, Middle Atlantic Inter-Service Athletic Conference basketball tournament at Camp Lejeune. No entries as of Tuesday morning, and prospects for a big turnout are slim. Out of a possible 35, only six or so are expected and even less may come. Lejeune, with an improving team, may win but they will have to reverse earlier losses to Fort Eustis and others.

March 4-11, Atlantic Fleet basketball tournament here. The Cherry Point team, reinforced with Lejeune's Leroy Smith, Skippy Whittaker, and George Leiby will represent FMFLant in this tourney. Opposition will be provided by Norfolk area teams like SubLant, DesLant, CruLant, and AirLant. Caliber of the tournament will not be as high as that of AISAC and an FMF victory would come as no surprise.

Grapplers At Bainbridge

March 9-13, 5th Naval District wrestling tournament at Bainbridge. The grapplers are headed for some good tune-up bouts before the tournament and should do well.

March 13-14, North Carolina AAU wrestling, at Davidson College, Davidson, N. C. Same as above.

March 23-27, 5th Naval District boxing tournament at Bainbridge. Lejeune should do as well as in MAISAC against lesser opposition.

March 31-April 5, Atlantic Fleet Boxing at Norfolk, Va. This will practically be the same team as in the MAISAC, going under the AFLant standard, because all but one of the boxers are from the division or Force Troops. Cherry Point's Rudy Gwinn, defending welter champion, will be added.

As the desire of certain people to fish—to await the shock of a strike, to contend with taut lines and straining rods—has incited these piscatorial patriots to clamor through the woods of Canada; creek through the jungles of Africa; mush across ice caps; brave wind, tide, and sea; spend fortunes; and, generally, give the fish no quarter.

A man living on a superb trout stream will struggle through miasma and clamor over mountain to catch a trout from another stream, probably no better than the one he lives on. To find good fishing it takes a lot of looking and a lot of luck.

The nature of fishermen being what it is, many anglers here won't content with the fine waters found on the base, some of the finest waters along the North Carolina coastline. So, here's some dope on fishing territories that hold a high rating on the Tar Heel fishing lists.

What Swansboro Offers

Swansboro, some 20 miles north of Camp Lejeune on Highway 24, rich in croaker, trout, sheepshead, channel bass, blues, Spanish croaker and kingfish in the nearby Bogue or Bear Inlets. Surf casting channel bass (called red drum locally) is good from early spring till late autumn along the beaches of Bogue and Bear Island. Beyond the inlet, offshore fishermen cope with dolphin, sailfish, amberjack, sea, and king mackerel.

Fresh-water fishermen will find the White Oak River, a few miles north of Swansboro, choked with large mouth bass, perch, bream and pike. The river flows into the Inland Waterway at Bogue Sound next to Swansboro. Numerous skiffs are available for rent and the waterfront is studded with deep-sea fishing boats for parties.

South of Camp Lejeune, just across the New River bridge, is the all and restive community of Sneads Ferry. Principal fish taken in this sector are channel bass caught by still fishing or surf casting. Under fishing is unexcelled in the New River. Also a large deep-charter boat fleet is stationed at Sneads Ferry, as well as an armada of skiffs.

Inlets Good Bets

Along the coast between Sneads Ferry and Wrightsville Beach are numerous inlets, all good bets for channel bass surf casters. These inlets include Rich, Topsail, and Queens Inlets. They wash through a narrow strip of land which is divided from the mainland by the Inland Waterway on its southward course.

Best known of the inlets are Topsail and Rich. These inlets are seasons to surf-casters. Between the two are Surf City and New Topsail Beach, which can be reached by turning east at Holly Ridge, located on Highway 17.

Trekking further southward, the fisherman next comes upon Wrightsville Beach, a gay summer resort, and a CP for summer fishermen. Wrightsville Beach features a sound and Masonboro Inlet. It also has a fishing bridge, two ocean fishing piers, charter boats, skiffs, and, most important, good hauls.

South To The Beaches

South of Wrightsville are Carolina, Wilmington, and Kure Beaches, reached via N. C. 421 from Wilmington. From Masonboro to Corneal Inlet there are numerous good spots for surf fishermen who wish to fish rugged channel bass with heavy gear, or Virginia mullet, blues, croaker, and other species with light rigs.

These many fine angling locales are all punctuated by a big exclamation mark in the all-fish town of Southport, reached by highways 130 or 303, which branch from Highway 17 after you cross the Cape Fear River south of Wilmington.

Southport is not a place to be mentioned lightly, or at the end of a line. It is a true fishing mecca. Big-game fisherman Kip Farrington says that the Flying Pan Shoals, near Southport, could make the town the most famous fishing spot along the Atlantic coast.

AAA Quint Heads Pack In FT Play

Force Troops' 2d 90 AAA ran its unbeaten streak to 20 games last week by victories over Amtruck, 89-53, and Amtrak, 65-51.

Surprisingly, the only other undefeated team in the league's second half is Aggressor Co., which finished the first half in a next-to-last place tie. The Aggressors' most recent triumphs were over 8th Motor Transport Bn., 63-53, and 8th Signal Bn., 51-46, increasing their new record to four victories.

Charles Clark, Amtruck's sturdy pivoter, maintained his individual scoring lead last week as he registered 93 digits in three games to boost his over-all aggregate to 470 in 19 contests, a per-game average of 24.7, which also tops the league.

Oliver Next

Behind Clark is Combat Service Group's 6-6 center Roy Oliver, with 397 tallies and a per-game mark of 19.8.

John Recher of Hq. Co., F.T., fills the third spot with a 359 total and is averaging 18.9 points a game.

Other scores—Monday: Combat Service 77 Hq. Co., F.T., 56; Amtruck 80, 8th Tank 60; 8th Signal Bn. 68, Reconnaissance 57; 155 Gun Bn. 65, Amtrak 51. Tuesday: 4.5 Rocket 39, Armored Amphib. 37; Automatic Weapons 70, Hq. Co., F.T., 48; Combat Service 43, Reconnaissance 42; Amtrak 57, 8th Tank 48.

Wednesday: 8th Engineer 51, 8th Signal 48; Automatic Weapons 63, Recon 53. Thursday: Combat Service 68, 8th Engineer 39; 8th Tank 58, 4.5 Rocket 40; 155 Gun Bn. 70, Armored Amphib. 54. Friday: 155 Gun Bn. 55, 4.5 Rocket 41.

Anti-Tank Gridders Given Trophies For Intramural Victory

Ten proud members of the Anti-Tank Co., 2nd Marines, touch football team received trophies last Friday for winning the 2d Marines intramural championship.

The gold statuettes depicting a football player, were presented by Lt. Col. John H. McMillan, regimental executive officer.

The team was undefeated in seven games scoring 137 points to their opponents' 17.

AAA's Fred Barry Player Of Week

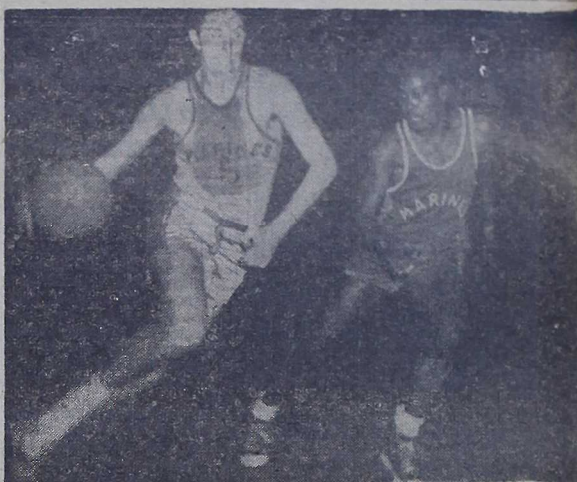

A dangerous scorer, a well-qualified ball handler, and an all-round hustler is team captain Fred Barry of the 2d 90 AAA basketball quintet, Force Troops leader. The 21-year-old Player of the Week has racked up 219 points in 20 games for a per game average of 10.9.

From his guard position, 5-10, 165-pound Fred both drives through the bucket to score and passes off to set up other scorers.

Pfc Barry is a native of Worcester, Mass., where he was an All-Catholic selection on the St. John's High School team, which won 24 games straight in 1950.

WM Cagers Stage Hoop Meet Here

The Women Marine hoopsters will play host to the Cherry Point, Quantico, and Parris Island Lady Leatherneck quintets February 11 through the 14, during the East Coast Women Marines Basketball Tournament here.

The double-elimination tournament will begin next Wednesday, while the drawing for the first match and ensuing schedule will take place on the preceding day.

The Lejeune cagers have thrashed the Cherry Pointers, 76-49 and 53-23, in two previous meets, but have not yet faced Quantico or Parris Island.

Undefeated by service teams, the Lejeune WM's boast a record of nine victories and such players as "Tennessee" Kitts, who has scored 155 points in eight games.

Concluding the tourney will be the awarding of a trophy to the champion of the tournament and runner-up. Individual awards also will be given to the championship squad.

2nd Marines Sergeant Top NCO Scholar

Leading the 62 members of the second class in 1953 to be graduated from the Non-Commissioned Officers Leadership School, Sgt. John P. Atherton, 2nd Marines, compiled a 90.79 average over the three weeks of intensive training at Triangle Outpost.

The sergeant received his certificate noting satisfactory completion of the course from Col. Thomas A. Coulthart Jr., assistant G-3 officer, who was guest speaker at the commencement exercise.

Sgt. Harold A. Johnson, 10th Marines, finished second with a 90.66 average, and Cpl. William E. Pierson, 2nd Engineers, was third with 90.44.

Rounding out the top ten were Cpls. Richard L. Taylor and James F. Hamilton, 8th Marines, fourth and fifth, respectively; Cpl. Percy L. Cook, 2nd Tanks; Sgt. Joseph L. Selfridge and Cpl. Lawrence J. Ruchaczewski, 2nd Marines; Sgt. Frank E. Lauritzen and Sgt. Dean F. Winkels, Force Troops, in that order.

FT Shooters Aim For Team Berths

One hundred twenty-four officers and men of Force Troops led by team captain Maj. Lloyd O. Williams, started firing Monday to qualify for 65 positions on the Force Troops Rifle Team and 38 spots on the Pistol Team.

The present competitive firing will be climaxed February 20 when the teams are chosen. The men with consistently high scores will make up the teams that represent Force Troops in the Southeastern Divisional Matches April 6-11.

CP Quintet Dumps AAA In Exhibition

In an exhibition game at Cherry Point Friday night, 2d 90 AAA Force Troops top intramural basketball team, dropped its first decision of the season, 74-71, to a fast-breaking, rebounding MAG-24 quintet, considered the best of 44 CP intramural clubs.

The game, knotted ten times throughout, was decided in the dying moments of play.

With three minutes remaining in the see-saw tilt, the Ninetymen held a slender 69-68 lead. From this point on, they were held scoreless until shortly before the final buzzer. Meanwhile, the Flyers took advantage of the 2d 90's lapse to score five points, all from the free-throw line, which were enough for the victory.

The strange court and a height disadvantage handicapped the Force Troopers. Once 2d 90 ignited the game evened off.

Cornette, a 6-2 jump-shot specialist and Brown, a 5-11 set-shot man, paced the winners with 25 and 20 points, respectively. Rich Keller, former Long Island University hoopster, garnered high-scoring honors for 2d 90 AAA with 23 points, while Fred Barry, team captain, followed with 15.

Here's More Info On State Income Tax Payments

Section 514 of the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of 1940, which is still in force, provides that a member of the Armed Forces, living in a state other than his legal residence, by reason of naval or military orders, is not liable to that state for income taxes with respect to his service pay.

The continuing list of states and territories that have state taxes but make specific regulations concerning servicemen are:

Louisiana—$1,500 of active-duty pay is exempt until March 20, 1952. No exemption thereafter.

Maryland—$1,500 of active-duty pay is exempt starting January 1, 1951.

Minnesota—$3,000 of active-duty pay is exempt.

Missouri—$3,000 of active-duty pay is exempt from taxes.

Montana—$200 per month on all income is exempt while on active-duty from January 1, 1951 to July 1, 1953.

New York—All active-duty income is exempt until Dec. 31, 1953, or the termination of the National emergency, whichever comes first.

North Dakota—All active-duty pay is exempt.

Oklahoma—$1,500 of active-duty pay is exempt during the national emergency.

Oregon—$3,000 of active-duty pay is exempt.

Vermont—Income subject to the same computations as federal returns.

Virginia—Income subject to same computations as federal returns; combat zone exemption retroactive to 1951.

Wisconsin—All active-duty pay is exempt for 1950, '51, '52 (ARPS).

Ray Anthony Plays Marston Pavilion, Theater Feb. 16

Ray Anthony, famed "Young Man With The Horn," and his nationally acclaimed orchestra, will appear at the Camp Theater February 16 from 7 to 8 p.m. and hold a dance session at Marston Pavilion from 8:30 to 11:30 the same evening.

Presently recording for Capitol Records, Anthony boasts such hits as "Autumn Leaves," "Tenderly," "I'll See You In My Dreams," "Mr. Anthony's Blues," and a score of others. He has won the nationwide juke-jockey poll as America's top dance band and has been hailed as America's greatest musical name since the days of the late Glenn Miller.

"The Young Man With The Horn" and his 17-piece aggregation have been featured in such spots as New York's Paramount Theater and Cafe Rouge, Frankley's Meadowbrook in New Jersey, and the Hollywood Palladium, besides appearing in several Universal and Columbia films and radio and television shows.

CARD PARTY

A card party, sponsored by the Officers Wives Club, will be held Wednesday at 1 p.m. in the Parade Room, Officers Mess. Tickets are 60 cents, and will be sold at the door. Table and door prizes and refreshments are included in the admission price. The nursery will be open.

Jacksonville, New Bern USO's Form Anniversary Plans

The USO began its twelfth anniversary celebration yesterday and the festivities continue through this week end ending Sunday night.

At the Poplar Street USO in Jacksonville tonight there will be a Birthday Ball. The dance will be held from 8 to 11 p.m., and music will be played by Jesse Shaw and his orchestra. Student nurses from Wilmington will act as hostesses for the affair. Uniform of the day or civilian coat and tie must be worn.

The Salvation Army USO Club at New Bern, N. C., will participate in the ceremonies by having an anniversary ball tomorrow night. A Cherry Point orchestra will provide the music and dancing will be from 8 to 12. An invitation has been extended to servicemen and women in this area to attend these celebrations.

900 Attend Annual H&S Bn. Festivities At Marston Pavilion

Approximately 900 guests attended the annual H&S Bn. dance Monday night at Marston Pavilion. The soiree featured the music of Claude Thornhill and his orchestra, a buffet supper, door prizes, and dance contests.

Major Gen. Henry D. Lincoff, commanding general, Marine Barracks, presented the first door prize, $10 PX merchandise gift, to TSgt. Dorothy Tolson, Camp G-1.

Three judges, Brig. Gen. W. S. Fellers, Mrs. R. J. Straub, and WM Sgt. Constance Waymon, unanimously agreed the winners of the jitterbug contest were Pfc Iris Cross Camp Special Services, and Cpl. Elmo Norton, Guard Co.

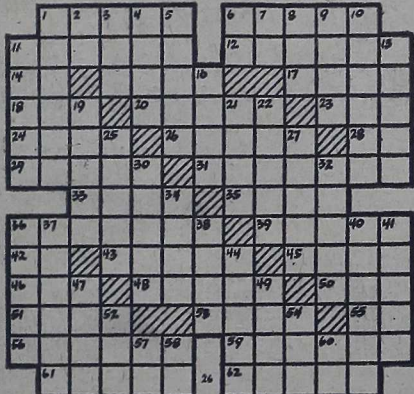

When the waltz contest ended it was Navy Chief C. H. Thompson and his wife, a WAVE chief, both of Preventive Medical No. 3, who walked forward to claim the prize.

VALENTINE DANCE

A Valentine Dance will be held at the Goldsboro Community Center Saturday from 8 p.m. to midnight. All personnel are invited to attend.

This Week's Movie Review

(4 Bells: EXCELLENT; 3 Bells: VERY GOOD; 2 Bells: GOOD; 1 Bell: FAIR)

GUNSMOKE Western—With Audie Murphy and Susan Cabot. No further information available.

ALL ASHORE Musical—Starring Mickey Rooney and Dick Haymes. No further information available.

SAVAGE MUTINY (2 Bells) Jungle adventure, of the "Jungle Jim" series, pits Johnny Weissmuller against an atom bomb spy nest in the heart of Africa. Remains as good as the original.

THE STARS ARE SINGING (3 Bells) Musical—Anna Maria Alberici stars away on a ship to New York to find an old family friend, Lauritz Melchior, whom she mistakenly believes to be an opera star. She finds him a broken-down hatbeen, surrounded by struggling performers, Rosemary Clooney, Tom Morton, and Bob Williams. Color by Technicolor.

ROGUE'S MARCH (3 Bells) Adventure Drama—The story presents Peter Lawford as a captain of the Royal Midland Fusiliers who innocently gets caught in the toils of an alien espionage plan. This ruins his romantic position with Janice Rule. The story wavers between seriousness and comedy and does it with enjoyable success.

NIAGARA (3 Bells) Melodrama—At Niagara Falls, Joseph Cotten learns that his wife, Marilyn Monroe, loves another man. The two lovers plan to murder Cotten, but their scheme backfires as Cotten kills the man. Two innocent bystanders, Jean Peters and her husband, become involved when she becomes suspicious of Cotten.

SILVER WHIP Western—Starring Dale Robertson and Rory Calhoun. No further information available.

SEMINOLE Starring Rock Hudson and Barbara Hale. No further information available.

THE MEMBER OF THE WEDDING (3 Bells) The story of a girl who is too old for her younger playmates and too tom-boyish for her more feminine friends. In short, a girl's painful entrance into adolescence. Leading stars are Ethel Waters, Julie Harris, and Brandon DeWilde.

NEVER WAVE AT A WAC Rosalind Russell, Paul Douglas and Marie Wilson star in this GI comedy. Things start to happen when Miss Russell and Miss Wilson, an ex-chorus girl, meet going through basic training.

With George Raft and Sally Gray. No further information available.

TULSA Susan Hayward and Robert Preston in this Technicolor re-issue. No information available.

STARS IN MY CROWN Stars Joel McCrea. No further information available.

FRANCE OF PIRATES Starring John Derek and Susan. No further information available.

FACE TO FACE (4 Bells) Two distinguished stories are up in one entertainment package.

FACE TO FACE (4 Bells) One story, "The Secret," stars James Mason, and the other Bride Comes to Yellow Sky, stars Preston. A package, the prices four bells. Individually, the two come to Yellow Sky is the better.

THE HITCH-HIKER (2 Bells) Within the framework of a simple as its title, "The Hitch-Hiker" manages to create a great deal of suspense, the credit for this going to Ida Lupino. The story of an escaped convict and his flight from the U.S. Central America stars Edmund and Frank Lovejoy.

SANDS OF IWO JIMA John Wayne stars in tale of epic World War II campaign.

PROFANE (2 Bells) Barbara Stanwyck, Barry Sullivan, Ralph Meeker join forces to break-breaker audience into suspenseful of a wife who, while attempting to lure husband from a rooming house, is out of a psychopathic killer.

CRIMSON PHOENIX (3 Bells) A vigorous and outstanding picture. The Crimson Phoenix is everything you want in a picture, including suspense, lighter-than-air, pretty girls, and Burt Lancaster, up in a roomboat and a story in which a tongue-in-cheek without coming completely absurd.

SNOWS OF KILIMANJARO (4 Bells) The ingredients of superior entertainment are here. Despite a episodic quality which has the showing down the pace there is a those ingredients into a consistent with stars Gregory Peck, Susan A. Gardner, and Hildegard Ne-the combination of Hemingway nuck. It's a production of the order and a story of pace, po-assassination.
