Report From Washington

A new uniform screening and scoring system for measuring qualification for enlistment and induction will be introduced into the recruiting services of the Armed Forces on January 1, 1950, to replace the three different types of tests now in use.

The new system employs a percentile method of recording qualification scores. It will not change the present classification and assignment procedures used by the Army, Navy or Air Force.

The Bureau of the Budget has suggested to the Defense Department that bachelor officers quartered at military installations be charged $1.80 per day or $54 per month for meals. Present charges range from $30 to $40 per month.

Gen. Carl Spaatz, retired Air Force Chief of Staff, will head a board to select a site for a new Air Force Academy which Congress will be asked to authorize.

In recent selections for promotions of Army officers to captain, major and lieutenant colonel, only 64 officers were passed over for the second time. They are subject to discharge or retirement. A total of 70 officers were passed over for the first time.

The Army-Air Force custom of releasing prisoners serving court martial sentences prior to Christmas when their terms are nearing completion will not be followed this year. The new Joint Clemency Board which reviews deserving cases has made the amnesty practice unnecessary and many who under the Christmas custom were released much earlier under the new system.

For Meritorious Conduct

Captain J. F. Hooker, USN., Commanding Officer, U. S. Naval Hospital, Camp Lejeune, presents a letter of commendation to Commander Peter J. Glotta, Medical Corps, from the Commander, United States Atlantic Fleet. The Commander receives Commendation for meritorious conduct during a German air raid on the south coast of England on May 30, 1945. Commander Glotta came to Camp Lejeune in July 1949 to assume duties as Chief of the E. E. N. T. Service.

Xmas Party To Be Held At Theater

Because of the probability of bad weather, the children's Christmas Party which was scheduled to be held on the Camp Parade Ground, will not be held outside as originally planned. Instead, it will be held as follows:

Place—Camp Theater.

Time—1300.

Date—Friday, December 23.

Program—1300-1330 Band and Christmas carols; 1330-1445 Movies, "Bill and Cog"; 1445 Santa Claus; 1450 Breakup of party with all kids receiving presents from Santa Claus at the Front Door.

The number of children who are registered to attend this party is about 1250. As the Camp Theater has 1959 seats, this leaves about 700 seats for adults. Where possible it is requested that smaller children double up in seats or occupy the same seat with a parent. It is also requested that only one parent attend the party, unless there is reason for both to be present.

In order to avoid a jam at the doors when leaving, those occupying the balcony will leave first.

Parents please remember that children under two are not eligible for this party. The reason they are excluded is because the program is beyond their comprehension, it is too long for them to sit through, and they would add greatly to the confusion.

Ice Sale Notice

Effective as of the sixteenth of December 1949, Ice Sales at the Cold Storage Building (No. 1300) will be from 0930 to 1430 inclusive.

1st Marine Cannoneers Cop Unit Marksmanship Honors 1949 Target Year; Win Three Of Six Unit Trophies

Three of the six trophies awarded for unit marksmanship qualification during the target year 1949 went to the Cannoneers of the Tenth Marines as Major General Franklin A. Hart, Commanding General of the Second Marine Division and Marine barracks, presented awards to winning units at a parade here Friday afternoon. Laying down a barrage of bull's-eyes for a 91.62 qualified percentage, the 2d Battalion, Tenth Marines, captured the Battalion Marksmanship Trophy for attaining the best combined percentage after firing all weapons on the rifle range. An even high-gure of 97.36 was posted by the 4.5" Rocket Battery, Tenth Marines, in winning Company Marksmanship Trophy for firing, in the Company level competition, the best combined percentage after firing all weapons on the range. The third award, merited by the artillerymen went to the 2d Battalion, Tenth Marines, for a perfect 100% qualification with the pistol.

For compiling the highest percentage with the M-1, the rifle trophy was awarded to the 2d Tank Battalion, which qualified a percentage of 90.81 with the infantryman's M1 Garand rifle. The 2d Amphibian Tractor Company took carbine honors with a perfect 98.86 qualification. An 87.14 qualification figure for the 1st Battalion, Sixth Marines, in the company marksmanship competition, as a feature at Camp Lejeune announced by Division Memorandum No. 55-49 on April 12, 1949. The 1st Battalion, Sixth Marines, had established a definite lead in the race for the Company category trophy, blasting out a 97.01 qualification figure at that point that was never surpassed by any competitor during the remainder of the year.

The trophies for individual weapons were awarded for the highest qualification percentage fired by any battalion with that particular weapon.

All units got off to a rapid start in April and when Aug. 12 rolled around, the 4.5" Rocket Battery had established a definite lead in the race for the Company category trophy, blasting out a 97.01 qualification figure at that point that was never surpassed by any competitor during the remainder of the year.

In the Battalion category competition, the struggle was nip-and-tuck, with the lead held by first one unit and then another from week to week. On Aug. 19, the 2d Battalion, Tenth Marines, held a slim margin of 91.79 over the 2d Tank Battalion's 91.13, but lost the lead on Sept. 9 when the 1st Battalion, Tenth Marines, took over from their brother cannoneers with a 91.83 figure. By Sep. 23, however, the 2d Battalion, Tenth Marines, had boosted their percentage mark to 91.83 to resume the lead as the 1st Battalion, Tenth Marines, slipped to 89.77. Throughout the remainder of the range season, the 2d Battalion, Tenth Marines, held grimly to the top position over their closest rivals, the 1st Battalion, Tenth Marines.

Competition for the rifle, carbine, pistol, and Browning Automatic Rifle trophies was equally spirited. However, the 2d Battalion, Tenth Marines, found no difficulty in taking the pistol trophy with a 100% qualification figure and the 1st Battalion, Sixth Marines, was far out in front with their 97.14 qualification in the Browning Automatic Rifle phase of the competition.

Although no individual trophies were awarded to high-scoring shooters, a search of the Rifle Range records for 1949 revealed that CWO Orval E. Adams, of the 2d Combat Service Group (Medium), led the M-1 shooters with a score of 238. Staff Sergeant Raymond B. Byars, of the 1st 90mm AAA Gun Battalion, fired a 265 to top the carbine shooters, and Sgt. Raymond Nielsen, of the 2d Amphibian Tractor Company, justified his Distinguished Pistol rating by hanging up a 385 score with the .45. On the last day of the range season, PFC. Frank J. Mulligan, of the 3rd Battalion, Sixth Marines, fired a blistering 235 with the Browning Automatic Rifle to mark up the year's high score for that weapon.

After firing the known ranges of the standard record courses, Second Division shooters were given the opportunity to sharpen their range estimation by firing a 30-round individual field course at "E" targets over unknown ranges. Instructions for this firing were issued in a Division training memorandum on April 26, 1949, as a further step in keeping the Division razor-sharp and ready to take the field in fighting trim.

Since the days when Marines were stationed in the rigging of early American Naval vessels as sharpshooters during boarding actions, the Corps has been noted for its marksmanship. In World War I it drew high praise from General John Pershing, commanding the AEF, and a wary respect from crack German Army units, while the Marine rifle teams of the '20s and '30s gained international fame in match firing.

The 1949 target year just ended was a decided improvement over 1948 and indicates that we are on the right road.

Patient Of The Week

Thomas Malle has been a patient at the U. S. Naval Hospital since Oct. 18. On that day, PFC. Malle figuratively slipped on a cake of soap while washing down a plane at the Cherry Point Naval Air Station, and was picked up off the ground with a fractured femur. On Oct. 21 he was operated on by Dr. Heffernan of the U. S. Naval Hospital and placed in a body cast. That was two months ago, and the doctor says that Malle has another month to go before he will be out of the cast. In all this long time, not once has Malle complained, gripped, or in general made a nuisance of himself. Instead he simply smiles and says "I'm here—better I make the best of it."

Malle is typical of the kind of fellow that makes the work of a volunteer hospital worker, worth while. A very merry Christmas, and the hope that you will be up and at em' soon.

What Do You Make Of Christmas?

What does Christmas mean to you and how do you observe the day? Does it mean merely a struggle through crowds of weary shoppers seeking a few material gifts for family and friends? Does it mean a day off from the usual routine work, with some good food, an exchange of gifts around a lighted Christmas tree, and the following day a tangled mass of colored paper, tinsel and wrapping cord? If this is all, is the game worth the candle and haven't you missed the point—the real spirit of Christmas? Christmas is what we make of it.

No one knows where the first Christmas celebration was held or when it was first celebrated on December 25th, although it was probably sometime in the fourth century. For centuries the Christians of the East and the West could not agree on the date for the celebration of the Nativity. The dates advocated were December 25th, January 6th, and February 2nd. The Christ-Mass or Christmas came to be a much heartier festival time in England and other Teutonic countries than elsewhere in the earlier stages of the celebration. In 1664 the English Parliament attempted to abolish the celebration, but the will of the people nullified the act of their legislators and the celebration survived and grew. So we see how Christmas Day, or the celebration of it, has had its ups and downs. Even today, in many parts of the world, China, South America, and Moslem lands, Christmas is not the celebration we make of it here in the United States.

To us it means much. We cannot get away from it if we want to and we would like it if we did. But what do we make of Christmas and what should it mean to us?

No matter how we celebrate in an external way, the heart, the core, the true meaning of Christmas is this—Christ was born and we are celebrating His birthday because He was God's greatest gift to all mankind who will accept Him as such. The message of Christmas is humanities' hope. Through the gift of the Christ child, "man's horizon is widened so as to include God." The Christmas story teaches that God is love and man is divine. It's key words are Love, Fatherhood, Peace, and Hope. With this divine love singing in his heart, man can go forth with renewed courage and run with patience the race that is set before him, looking unto Jesus, the grown up, the adult Christ child, in whom alone lies the remedy for the world's tribulations. This is the real meaning of Christmas.

What do you make of Christmas? Well if we make anything less than this, we are guilty of fraudulent intent and careless action. Let us this Christmastide strive to keep the very heart and core of the celebration in mind. Let us keep the true spirit of Christmas. Let it warm our hearts as we think of love ones at home and face the duties at hand. God cares for His own. You can make Christmas what it should be, for you, if you follow the Star of Bethlehem.

Chaplain's Corner

By WILLIAM J. MEAGHER
Chaplain, USN

"FEAR NOT, I BRING YOU
TIDING OF GREAT JOY"

On that first Christmas Eve, along the old road that led from Nazareth to Bethlehem, trudged two silent pilgrims, Joseph and Mary. As they neared Jerusalem they rejoiced that the journey was about at an end. But, when they reached the town, they found that there were no rooms for the weary travelers from Galilee. Through the streets of the village they went, stopping at every house that might give them lodging. Hope died as they surveyed the crowd—relatives and acquaintances would not help them. There was no room for them.

So, away from the inn they went, out to a stable, a crude cave, where Shepherds drove their flocks in storms. And, in that little haven with beasts as companions, the Word was made flesh. That desolate shelter, abandoned by man, was good enough for one alone, and that Christ Our Lord. There the Blessed Virgin brought forth her first born, wrapped Him in swaddling clothes and laid Him in a manger.

Yes—the time is fast drawing near. Everybody's thinking about Christmas. In what spirit do you approach this happy day? What are the plans uppermost in your mind at this time? Many interests crowd together, of course. Does attending Church, as a preparation for Christ's Birthday enter into these interests? Or is Christ Crowded out.

Human interest are legitimate, reasonable, and just, but they should not occupy all the room in our lives.

Remember that there was no room for Christ in the inn—a pathetic fact. Remember that the happiness of Christmas is simply this—making room for Christ in our hearts.

And so then in these troubled times, when the clouds of bitterness and hate hang darkly over so large a part of the world, forgiveness, love, and peace should become a living reality. Then Charity and love take on heavenly glow and rise like pillars of light to illuminate the pathway of a troubled world. Then do our hearts respond to higher and holier aspirations and we find in everyday duties and cares of life a fuller realization of the peace of which the angels sang—

"Glory to God on the highest; and peace on earth to men of good will."

'Why The Bells Rang'

Shown above is one of the many scenes from the one act play "Why The Bells Rang" which was presented at the Protestant Chapel on Sunday, 18 December.

Under the direction of Pfc. W. E. Kain, the thirteen members of the cast wore 11th century costumes made by the members of the Protestant Chapel Women's Guild, with Mrs. L. W. Carmichael in charge of the designing and making of the costumes.

Sixth Reg Military Ball Huge Success

One of the best dances of the season was given by the Sixth Marines at the Officers Club a week ago last Saturday. Record attendance fully occupied the dining room, beautifully decorated with the Sixth Regiment's colors and guidons. Officers of the regiment took advantage of the occasion to entertain their guests at dinner and dancing. Music by the Divisionaires played for the event and the guests were all delighted with the diversified program with boogie and jive blended with familiar waltz tunes for the enjoyment of the dancers.

Entertainment depicting the "hazards" of Marine foreign duty developed through a four part playlet brought much laughter and amusement to the audience. The skit, written and directed by Captain Dermott H. McDonnell was the highlight of the evening.

The guests lingered until the orchestra's final note, and all who attended voted it a most successful and pleasant evening.

The event had been preceded by numerous cocktail parties given by the many hosts and hostesses who took advantage of the occasion to entertain their guests at the Sixth Marines Military Ball.

USNH Highlights

In an attempt to enable the U.S. Naval Hospital to completely fulfill its mission to Camp Lejeune, Captain J. F. Hooker, Commanding Officer, is directing several changes in staff personnel.

The staff is being expanded and will continue to be so until such time that each department is headed by a specialist in that particular field. It is also Captain Hooker's aim to have the hospital surveyed by the American Council of Education in the hope that it will qualify as an institution for internship training.

Capt. Hooker expressed his hope that there will soon be a full time specialist in neuro-psychiatry, and also an optometrist to be added to the E.E.N.T. staff.

A permanent chaplain has been added to the hospital compliment, but as yet no one has been named for the post.

The doctor's new secretary, a conscientious girl, was puzzled by an entry in the doctor's notes on an emergency case: "Shot in the lumbar region," it read. After a moment she brightened and, in the interest of clarity, typed into the record: "Shot in the woods."

Cherry Point Extends Invitation To Lejeune Teen-Agers To Attend Dance

The Commissioned Officers' Mess, at Marine Corps Air Station, Cherry Point, North Carolina, has extended an invitation to all teen-agers at Camp Lejeune to attend a formal dance for teen-agers to be held at the Commissioned Officers' Mess, at Cherry Point, on Wednesday, December 28, from eight to twelve o'clock.

Midway Park

By Recreational Director

The Housing Manager, Office Staff, Maintenance Department, and Mrs. Heavey wish to extend their best wishes for a happy holiday season to all residents of Midway Park and Camp Lejeune.

There will be no Midnight Mass at Midway Park this Christmas Eve. There will be Midnight Mass at the Camp Chapel and in Jacksonville. Watch other items as to bus schedules for Camp Chapel.

Listen in to WJNC on Wednesday night at 9:00 P.M. for the Christmas Choir of Midway Park. This is a fine musical program rendered by almost 60 residents of Midway Park, under the direction of Miss Dorothy Hoskins and accompanied by Mrs. Clyde Bartley.

We'll be seeing you at the Christmas Party on Friday, December 23 at the Camp Theatre at 1:00 P.M. Be sure to come on time.

Lionel Barrymore, whose annual portrayal of the miserly "Scrooge" in Charles Dickens' famous "Christmas Carol" is a "must" for holiday listeners, will broadcast his interpretation of this classic character over the coast-to-coast Mutual network on Christmas Day from 3 to 3:30 p.m., EST over station WJNC.

The MBS broadcast of "Christmas Carol" will mark the sixteenth time that the famous actor has portrayed the Ebenezer Scrooge role, the character created by Dickens effectively to demonstrate the meaning of Christmas. Most authorities credit "Christmas Carol" as the best of Dickens' many Yuletide stories.

Parents who have teen age dependants wishing to attend this dance please notify Lieutenant Colonel G. P. Groves, USMC, phone 3678 before noon Wednesday. Bus transportation will be available as follows:

—Leave Camp Lejeune Bus Terminal at 1800; Leave Trailer Park school bus stop (Sentry Trailer) at 1810; Leave Midway Park Shopping Center at 1825.

Cherry Point to Camp Lejeune —Leave Commissioned Officers' Mess in Cherry Point at 1220 and deliver passengers to homes in Midway Park, Trailer Park, and Paradise Point.

The word "formal" is interpreted to mean long dresses for girls, coat and tie for boys.

P-TA Notes

The Christmas program at the Camp School Auditorium, evening of December 14th broadcasted over WJNC was more lovely than ever. The junior and senior glee clubs, directed by Miss Dorothy Hoskins, sang many old favorite carols, with a beautiful rendition of "T Was The Night Before Christmas" as the finale.

The auditorium was decorated with lighted trees, pointsettias, greens and holiday trimmings.

After the program, a "Bake Sale" was held of Christmas cakes, candies and cookies. It was a great success. A complete sellout with PTA realizing $114.80.

PTA wishes to congratulate and express their gratitude to Miss Dorothy Hoskins and the children who participated. It was a lovely performance with the true Christmas spirit.

To Mr. B. A. Barringer (the school principal), the faculty, Mrs. Violet Heavey (the monedeator), Mr. Lester Gould (for the time on the air), Mr. Sam Norman, all the women who made the bake sale possible, the NCO Club for their truck and very patient and cooperative driver, who with Mrs. P. C. Killeen, picked up donations in Midway Park, and Major C. A. Lipot and his budget and finance committee who organized the sale, may we thank you whole heartedly one and all.

Merry Christmas and Happy New Year.

Santa Claus
North Pole, USA.
Dear Santa:

We know that you will receive this letter on the eve of your departure to spread good will among countries of the world as you have done for years, but if it isn't too late we would like to be put on your list.

First of all let us thank you for the swell presents that we received from you last year, the two All-Navy Boxing Champs, the Sixth Naval District and South Central Group Basketball championship's, a better than average baseball team, the All-Navy swimming titleholder, and last of all one of the top football teams on the East Coast. We also appreciate the new teams that you saw fit to bring us, Judo, Fencing, Wrestling and etc.

It is understood that you have to go down your list in order that it is made up, but below you will find what the sport fans of Lejeune would like most of all:

(1) A BOXING team that will give an account of themselves as well as the squad did last year. A replacement for All-Navy titleholder Dorsey Fears, would also be welcomed.

(2) If you happen to have another "Whiz" Bishop in your bag, you could put him in our stocking. Also bring the BASKETBALL team a record like last season.

(3) The BASEBALL team is going to be hit hard by transfers this coming year. If you could send us a big box with a hitter like Ted Oslie inside of a couple of top-notch pitchers, Lejeune could be a big threat in baseball this coming season.

(4) The SWIMMING team still has space for another John Garrett, and a man to fill his shoes would be a big help.

(5) The HUNTERS and FISHERS of the base would also like to have a few deer (not yours) to keep the supply up to par.

(6) A big red box labeled "BERMUDA GRASS" would be just the thing for the GOLF COURSE.

(7) For the BOATHOUSE, a crash boat could be used.

(8) As you know the WRESTLING team got off to a flying start last week against Quantico. A undefeated season would be the gift for them.

(9) A FOOTBALL team just as good as the past one, you couldn't ask for a better one. A punter like Dick Stein, who will be discharged when the season rolls around again, is about all that will be needed.

(10) For the column, you could bring us a little better luck in PIGSKIN PICKIN'S and a few more readers.

Santa, that should take care of us for this coming year. Anything that you may find that we could use, put it in the stocking for we will always find a place for it.

In closing, we would like to remind you that Camp Lejeune is located between Cherry Point and Parris Island. Please don't mix up our presents and put them in the wrong stocking.

Wishing you a Merry Christmas,

Results of the bear hunt held Saturday on the reservation are shown with the men who shot them. Mr. Major Meadows of Maple Hill, N. C., (left), got the cubs with two shots each. Mr. John Gordon, Rayford, N. C., got the big one with one shot. Mr. Gordon's bear makes four for him in three weeks. Both hunters were using 12-gauge shotguns with No. 1 buckshot and made their kills before noon. Other results of the hunt were two wild hogs killed and one weighing three pounds captured. Lejeune Grapplers Defeat Quantico Opening Match Of The Season 23-13

The Lejeune wrestling team won its first scheduled match of the season last Saturday afternoon in fine style by dropping the Quantico Marines 23-13.

Some 300 fans watched the matches held at the Quantico Post Gym.

The grapplers from Lejeune captured five of the matches while Quantico was able to gather in honors but for three. Lejeune took the lead from the opening match and held a game but fruitless attempt by the Quantico "grunt and groan" men in the losing two matches.

It was more than a victory for Lejeune's coach, Capt. Nick Shields, as he watched his team defeat the same wrestling squad that he had coached to the All-Navy East Coast championship last year. Lejeune will meet the Quantico team in a return match to be held here at the base on February 11.

Lejeune started the matches with a 5 point lead due to Quantico's forfeit of the 121-pound class. Charles Barnhart added 5 more points to the Lejeune cause as he pinned Gerald Merna in 8 minutes flat in the second match. Quantico captured the next two events in a row with James Laydon pinning Lejeune's Robert Cincin in one minute and 25 seconds, and Robert Hess pinning Edmund Berridge in four minutes 21 seconds to tie the match up at 10-10. Lejeune's Roger Rainville, runner-up for the 1948 scholastic crown of New Jersey, broke the tie by pinning Richard Hazuka to the mat in 8:15 of their match. Gene Hocker, Lejeune's entry in the 165-pound class, defeated the 1948 PRNC title holder, Philip Recchia, by coming back in the closing minutes of their tussle to gain a two to one decision. Lejeune's lead, Quantico's Jessie Whitemen added Jack Carter in the 175 class to give the Marine Schools their points. Senese added the final point for Lejeune by coming back in the final minutes and pinned George Tice, 212-pounds, to the mat in 5:51.

Lejeune Cagers Take Two Wins; Bell College JC's And Seahawks

Lejeune cagers had entirely power here this week and the Wilmington Seahawks Bell Junior College by points.

Charlton's boys from Junior College got their warm beds last evening, rushing to Lejeune as a substitute for the scheduled Langley Force Base team was due to inclement weather.

The Marines won by a 37 to 23 halftime ad-

McNaughton and Bob Friesen followed with 13 points apiece.

Friesen followed with 13 points apiece.

Lejeune Defeats Parris Island

ers (5) of Parris Island recovers the rebound after Friesen of the misses on a lay-up shot. Corbett of PI and Hurst (12) of Lejeune come up on the wrong side to cover the shot. Friesen, who missed on this one, hit the strings for 13 points as he continued in scoring honors in the clash with the Recruits here on 14 December, which was taken by the local cagers for their ninth win in 12 starts.

Local Five Downs PI For Ninth Win

The powerful Lejeune basketball team, sparked by Bull Friesen and George McNaughton, ran up their ninth win of the current season here Wednesday night as they downed their rival Parris Island Leatherneck brothers, 60-53.

Friesen, who fouled out in the second half, scored 13 points while McNaughton ripped the cords for 17 markers to equal Parris Island's ace, Sammy Galal, total for the contest.

Nofsinger, Lejeune guard, also had a good night from the scoring column standpoint as he dropped 11 points through the hoop.

Little Bucksbot Peters, 5'6" Parris Island forward, received the spectator's applause as the most spectacular player, setting up repeated plays and sinking the ball time and again in shots that called for near-perfect coordination.

Lejeune jumped to an early 3-0 lead but a long shot by Sammy Galal and two charity tosses made good by Peters soon turned the game into a see-saw, give-and-go ball game.

Before the whistle ended the contest, Parris Island and Lejeune tied the score three times and the lead had changed hands eight times.

Lejeune held the upper hand throughout the first half but with only three minutes of play remaining, field goals by Galal, Meyerson, and a spectacular over-the-head shot by Peters put the Robbins-men in the front at the intermission, 30-27.

McNaughton opened the second period with a hoop shot for two markers. Lejeune center Bob Coyle went out of the game via the foul route and Meyerson made good a charity shot to put the score at a 31-29 count. Bull Friesen laid up a shot to tie up the score at 31-all. Corbett made good a double free throw and McNaughton retaliated with a basket to tie it up again at the 33 count. A long set shot by Benner put the P.I. boys in the lead again but it was short lived as Friesen sank two free throws to tie it up at 35-all. Parris Island started a scoring spree that slowly carried them to the front as Benner sank a charity, and goals by Galal, Peters, and Benner stopped the clock at 43-39. Bull Friesen went out of the game on fouls, but Howie Reese entered the game for him and combined with George Lister to push in two goals against one charity shot by Benner. The score was 44-41 with Parris Island still leading. McNaughton started the scoring for Lejeune on a set shot as Lister, Reese, and Nofsinger followed through with three straight goals before the P. I. quintet again found the hoop. Nofsinger made good a single free throw shot, and McNaughton added a double marker on free throws to put Lejeune out ahead, 52-44. Parris Island added three field goals and three free throws against two field goals and four charities for the locals as the game ended. Score: Lejeune 60, Parris Island, 53.

Lejeune Marines Lose Close Contest To Norfolk Navy Flyers; 62-56 Count

Tying the score seven times in the final half, the Camp Lejeune Marine quintet lost a heartbreaker as the Norfolk Navy Flyers, last year's All-Navy Champs, squeezed out a 62-56 win.

It was anybody's game as the contest went into the final minutes of play. Neither team had held more than a six point margin in the game, but in the final three minutes with the score standing at 53-52, favor of the Navy, Jim Castano sank three goals and Ace Blatcher added three free throws to end the contest.

McNaughton was undoubtedly the outstanding player of the night tallying 25 points. On the boards, he consistently outjumped the 6'3" Norfolk center, "Cass" Castano, and on the offense was a threat with his deadly hook shot.

"Ace" Blatcher and Casano carried the brunt of the attack for the Flyers, garnering 16 and 22 points, respectively, for a total of 38. The deciding game points fell to their hands as they sank the final 11 points, breaking the deadlock that had held the two teams in a near tie throughout the contest.

Fast ball handling and the typical East coast give-and-go ball made popular in professional ball clubs kept the game moving at a rapid pace and was responsible for the high number of personal fouls being called. Lejeune had 26 personal fouls called against them while 17 was called against the Flyers.

Jim Castano took the tip-off opening the game, passing it to Ace Blatcher who in turn shot it off to Hooks Woods made good a free throw called on Friesen and Norfolk took the lead, 1-0. Lejeune took the ball out and passed off to Bob Coyle who ripped the cords on a two-handed long and McNaughton immediately followed with a hook shot, pushing the locals in the front, 5-1.

With 7:40 to go in the first half, Blatcher scored on a wide-open shot and Ted Tomlin made good a charity to tie-up the game for the first time, 17-11.

McNaughton put the Marines back in the scoring column with two baskets in succession as Nofsinger scored on a fast break. Castano made one, then McNaughton sank a tip-in to make it 25-19, Lejeune leading. Nofsinger sank a foul shot, with Castano adding a free throw and Woods and Doc Cruise pushing in two goals. Nofsinger scored on a one-handed push shot. Blatcher charged through the defense for a goal, McNaughton made good another hook shot, and Woods and Blatcher ended the period with a charity point each. Halftime score: Lejeune 30, Norfolk Flyers 28.

The Flyers tied it up on the first shot, opening the second stanza to a 30-30 tie. The mania for a close game persisted and with 16:30 left in the contest, the score was tied at 35-all. The Navy lads went ahead on a three charity shot streak and the game was tied-up again at 38-all as Nofsinger sank a charity and McNaughton came through with a goal. In a minute of play, George Lister was out of the game on a knee injury, and the game was at a 40-40 count.

With 6 minutes and 15 seconds to go, the score was standing at 51-49 in favor of the Flyers. Nofsinger scored on a free throw and McNaughton tipped one in to head off the Navy boys, 52-51. Nofsinger left the game on fouls and Blatcher made good his charity shots and went on to sink another basket. Jim Castano added another basket. Hurst countered in the last second duel to stop the scoring column at 57-54 in favor of Norfolk. Friesen went out of the game on fouls and the Navy began a freeze as Lejeune made a desperate attempt to recover the ball. Blatcher added a free throw and the Navy took the ball out. Gennett made the final goal for the Marines on a fast break and Jim Castano jumped the ultimate victory to a six point margin as he pumped in two goals to end the game, 62-56.

Fort Jackson Tramples Lejeune Cagers 78-64

The Lejeune basketballers made a desperate second half rally to overcome a 20 point margin last Monday night, but the Fort Jackson Red Devils never relinquished the lead as they won hands down, 78-64.

Bull Friesen, Lejeune center, topped the scoring for the night with 27 points. Will Gennett, Lejeune Forward, collected a 10 marker for 14 minutes of play.

Del Cearley, a gangling 6'9" Red Devil center, was the deciding factor as he threw the logic off with his lanky build and a deadly hook shot to collect 23 points.

Seasons Greetings

THE PERSONNEL OF THE INDUSTRIAL RELATIONS OFFICE EXTENDS SEASON'S GREETINGS TO ALL EMPLOYEES OF CAMP LEJEUNE.

Scouting News

Camp Lejeune Cub Pack No. 90 held their December meeting in the Community Building at Midway Park last Tuesday night the 13th. There was a good turn out of both Scouts and parents. Each den sang a Christmas Carol, and Den No. 5, under the able direction of Mrs. R. F. Gotko, also produced some very enjoyable music on a xylophone-type of home made instrument made with glasses containing various amounts of water.

Three very fine stamp collectors sets were awarded by Col. R. L. Denig, Jr., for the outstanding collections and scrap books.

Colonel R. L. Denig, Jr., turned over the duties of Chairman of the Cub Scout Committee to Lt. Col. G. E. Matheny who was also asked to serve in this capacity by Chaplain Sassaman who was recently appointed by General Hart as Chairman of Scouting to supervise all Scouting at Camp Lejeune.

Civilian Notice

The Industrial Relations Office needs applications for reinstatement from individuals who have acquired competitive status and are now seeking employment at Camp Lejeune. It is requested that all employees who have information of such persons inform them to submit their applications immediately. There are several vacancies open for Clerk-Typist at the present time and the Industrial Relations Office does not have enough applicants to fill them.

Conserve Fuel and Heat

Whether you are in your office, warehouse, or home, conserve lights, fuel and heat. On a clear bright day, don't have all the office lights on unnecessarily. When you secure your office, warehouse or home in the evening turn off all unnecessary lights. Don't have stoves and radiators on in your warehouse unless it is absolutely essential.

Conserve fuel, light and heat.

BEDSIDE MANNER

By D. J. YOUNT

'Tis the night before Christmas—well almost, but at the U. S. Naval Hospital it is not as quiet as a mouse. In fact there is so much stirring especially in the vicinity of the Red Cross, that anyone entering is sure of getting a job right then and there. Paint brushes are brushing, scissors are scissoring, and paste is pasting—the result of all of this-decorations-the biggest and best yet for both Main and Family hospital.

Of course the objective of Red Cross and its many volunteer workers at Christmas time is to keep the patients happy, occupied and entertained. This year the festivities will start off in good musical manner with a program given by the combined Girl Scouts troops of Midway Park, Jacksonville, and Camp Lejeune. The girls will carol through the wards on the 21, from 6 to 7 p.m.

On the 22 the Christmas broadcast of Hospital HiLites will be presented for the enjoyment of the patients in the hospital auditorium. Christmas Eve brings Santa and a group of carollers to the wards and on Christmas morning everyone who is able joins the group in the Recreation Hall for coffee and doughnuts.

And then comes noon and that festive meal of meals, Christmas dinner! The hospital mess is going all out to bring you:

Cream of Tomato Soup-saladines, Roast Turkey and Oyster Dressing, Snowflake Potatoes, Cranberry Sauce, Buttered Green Peas, Hot Rolls, Lettuce with Thousand Island Dressing, Pie-lice Cream-Fruit Cake, Mixed nuts-Hard Candy-Cigarettes-Coffee.

It won't be like home we admit, but everyone is going to try their darndest to give you a reasonable facsimile.

Safety Precautions For Xmas Trees

Keep your tree outdoors until ready to install.

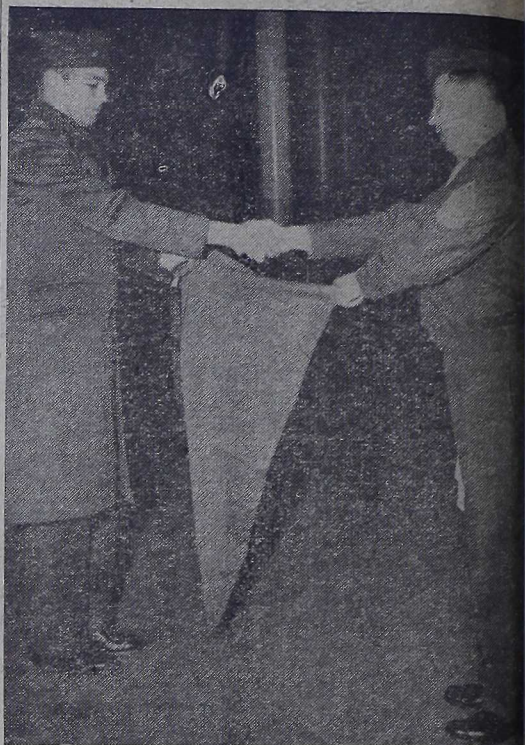

Keep trees away from stoves. Put container of water at base of tree.

Do not use cotton or paper for decorating tree.

Don't use CANDLES. When you leave the house turn off tree lights.

In case of fire call the Fire Dept. at 7070.

Mess Pennant Award

Colonel F. P. Hager, Jr., Commanding Officer of the 2nd Party Battalion, presents the Mess Efficiency Award to MSgt. Smith, mess sergeant of Messhall 424. Sergeant Smith has won Award ten times since being stationed at Camp Lejeune. He praises the various cooks and messmen under him who have worked so hard to help him achieve the Mess Efficiency Award. ON LEAVE

With MSgt. J. J. Fredericks taking a 30-day leave, to practice some of that hunting and fishing he has been preaching to you, I'm going to pinch hit for him until he returns. Guessing from the trip that he's planning on taking, he should have plenty to tell you when the leave is over.

BEAR HUNT NETS THREE

Mr. Willie Henderson, Camp Lejeune game warden, report that there was bear on the reservation, was taken to heart last Saturday morning, when two hunters left about 0630 to see what would be done about the situation.

When the final count was made, BEAR HUNT was made. Weighing about 465-pounds it was counted. One of the cubs was full grown, while the other were classed as "cubs".

Mr. M. Meddows, a civilian, weighed the two small ones, while Gordon, another civilian, weighed the big 275 pounder.

DEER HUNT THIS WEEK

For those who would rather "version" for Xmas dinner, turkey, you'll have a chance coming Saturday. A deer has been scheduled. If you want a few stands are still open, Capt. Shuddle, 3182 or MSgt. Anderson, 5345 and make reservations. MERRY XMAS TO ALL.

Movie Review As It Appears This Week

CAPTAIN CHINA
Paramount-97 Minutes-John Wayne-Gail Russell-An adventure picture of the China Sea. It is filled with action and excitement and has for its hero a dashing fellow who faces romance and typhoons, without batting an eye. It is a picture of the raging storm at sea presenting a vivid picture of the problems that arise at sea and how they are overcome by good seamanship.

UNDERTOW
Universal International-90 Minutes- John Russell-Dorothy Hart. From a somewhat thin story, director William Castle here has fashioned a bold solid crime thriller, complete with hero and loving heroine, double-cross, alley sluggings and the inevitable hunt. It is routine in many ways, but good entertainment nevertheless.

THAT FORSYTE WOMAN
MGM-114 Minutes- Greer Garson-Walter Pidgeon and Earl Flynn. This is a box office picture because it has a wonderful cast and is filmed in technicolor. The story set in London in the last quarter of the 19th century, deals with the impact of a lovely woman played by Miss Garson, on a very rich and conservative family. Full of excitement and highly dramatic.

FLAMINGO ROAD
Warner Bros-90 Minutes-Joan Crawford-Zachary Scott. This film is candidly, vigorously and with detail amounting almost to documentation a story of machine politics practiced in an unnamed state in the Union. Miss Crawford turning in her best performance of recent years, portrays a carnival entertainer who, stranded in the desert, falls in love with Scott the deputy sheriff.

MOTHER IS A FRESHMAN
Fox-81 Minutes-Loretta Young and Van Johnson. This a light-hearted romantic comedy, shot in excellent color and guaranteed to give anyone's spirits. There is a laugh every minute from beginning to end with a tear mixed in here and there and romantic sighs to give the balance.

DOWN TO SEA IN SHIPS
Fox-119 Minutes- Richard Widmark and Lionel Barrymore. By nature of story, "Down to the Sea in Ships" could not have been made into a pretty picture. To be anything at all it had to have guts. This is a picture and preferable for adults.

KID FROM TEXAS
Universal-92 Minutes- Gail Storm-Audie Murphy. There is no information available about this picture, but it is a Western and should be very good.
