Supply School Battalion Graduates

Two Courses; Bakers, Truck Drivers

The soldiers of Tamerlane the Earth Shaker, feated no farther than today's Marines do, due to the vastly new and improved baking methods invented for the pleasure of our modern troops.

Graduation exercises of 24 men, of the 42nd Basic Bakers and the 8th Motor Vehicle Operators Class, a 12 and a 4-week course respectively, were conducted on Monday, November 21 at the Supply School Battalion.

Speaking to the combined graduation classes among who was Pfc. C. F. McRae, an outstanding baking scholar, was Captain M. D. Grush, Commanding Officer of Battalion Motor Transport School. He discussed the high costs in purchasing and the keeping-up of Government-owned vehicles, emphasizing the men's responsibility in keeping their equipment in good condition.

"Today you cease being school-boys," said WO D. R. Lebsack, Officer in charge of the Food Service School, speaking to the men about the value of studying, in getting higher positions and in getting promotions. "Be glad you didn't pick up some, but sorry you didn't pick up more," said Mr. Lebsack referring to knowledge and its uses, while discussing the problems the men would be confronted with and with which they would have to cope with during

No Change In Premiums On Service Insurance

Washington—Servicemen and veterans of World War II who are holders of National Service Life Insurance policies will go right on paying the premiums at the same rate.

Due to the recently declared insurance dividend payable to all policy holders in January, 1950, many inquiries have been received by the Veterans Administration asking when reduced premiums might be expected.

In answer to these queries, the V. A. said recently: "Any change would have to be established by law. Furthermore, each insurance contract could be changed only by mutual consent. There is no likelihood of a change."

Thanksgiving, Legacy Of Pilgrims Cherished By A Peaceful Nation

Of all the holidays observed in the country, there is none so distinctively American as Thanksgiving. It is a legacy of the Pilgrims, cherished because of the traditions that surround it.

Registrations Slow; Dependents Act Now; Register Your Child

Registrations for the teen agers dance and childrens Christmas Party have been disappointing. Only four hundred thirty-nine names of children and thirty-eight teen agers have been received. Camp records indicate that at least twice that many should be present for these two events.

In order that no one is left out, and that adequate supplies can be purchased, it is urged that everyone, who has children not registered for one or the other Christmas Parties, take steps to do so immediately. For those who possibly do not know of what is being planned, the following pertinent data is republished:

Children's Party (2 to 12 years)

Time....1330

Date....23 Dec. 1949

Place....Camp Drill Field, Marston's Pavilion in case of bad weather.

Program...Band; choral group singing; fifteen minutes of outdoor acts; Santa Claus by air; presents.

Teen Agers Dance (13 to 20 years)

Time....2000 to 2400

Date....23 Dec. 1949

Place....Marston's Pavilion
Program...Music by Divisionaires, Dancing, Refreshments.

Kink In Bofors Puzzled Experts, Veteran Solves It

Philadelphia—Eddie Robinson first met the deadly Bofors 40mm. antiaircraft gun in 1942, but the pair didn't become good friends until this year.

As arms plant inspector enlisted instructor at Aberdeen, and later with a South Pacific Fire Control Team, Robinson learned to rely on this weapon which is so accurate it once knocked down 81 out of 150 Stukas at the Dunkirk evacuation.

But he maintained a cautiously careful relationship with the Bofors because he knew it had foiled every effort to harness it with a foolproof safety device. As recently as 1948, a member of the National Guard was killed while operating the Bofors in Washington.

That's when Robinson—now a civilian at Philadelphia's Frankford Arsenal—returned to the problem again. And this time, despite two previous failures, a solution dawned on him. It was a solution so simple he wouldn't even discuss it till he tried it out.

He made the parts by hand—and the idea worked. A life-saving idea that costs only $2.69.

As a result of Eddie Robinson's know-how acquired the hard way, the mighty Bofors has been tamed—but only for the men on the firing end.—(AFPS)

The origin of the day is attributed to Governor Bradford of Plymouth colony. In 1620, the Pilgrims landing in New England, suffered a winter of privation, which the coming spring turned into paradise. The abundant spring harvest gave joy to the pioneers of the new world, and a day of Thanksgiving was proclaimed with an appropriate festival of food, games and merriment, thoroughly enjoyed by all.

President Washington issued a proclamation in 1789 to honor the Constitution, appointing Thursday, November 26, "as a day of General Thanksgiving for the establishment of a form of government that would make for the safety of happiness." Through his, and President Lincoln and Wilson's efforts, a national holiday was inaugurated to celebrate the thing for which to be thankful not only in times of plenty and crisis, but in the seemingly uneventful years between.

Thanksgiving is observed by church services, family reunions, dinner, and home festivities. Schools, clubs, and various organizations observe the day widely, but none more than the military service, as it too can be thankful.

Militarism can be utopianist in its future destiny of ultimate elimination, due to the peace-loving nations of the world uniting together in brotherly love and worship of God. The military today only awaits the world's final stages of instating world law rather than war as an instrument of preserving peace. When these ideals are established, armies will be no more.

The meaning of Thanksgiving is clear to all of us then, that of reaffirming the great bond which makes us all children of God, and to keep that bond firm from this day forward.

Haste Makes Waste

The word for safe driving in bad weather is SLOW.

With the passing of the fall season and the arrival of winter months, there comes a twin bugaboo to all motorists, inadequate traction and reduced visibility.

Inadequate traction is caused by snow and ice and, on certain types of pavements, rain. This condition, paired with careless or faulty driving, creates a deadly combination.

Reduced visibility, particularly in winter, involves longer hours of darkness, the inability to see distant objects because of fog, snow or rain, and the clouding or frosting of windshields.

In the year 1948 there were 28,500 fatal accidents caused by fog, rain, and snow, with 990,000 non-fatal accidents due to the same reasons.

Using this for just a little reminder, don't forget the word for safe driving in bad weather, SLOW.

THANKSGIVING THOUGHTS

Our national holiday for the giving of thanks has arrived once again. Looking over the broad expanse of our land and its possessions, we are inclined to paraphrase the words of a noted radio commentator and exclaim, "Ah, there's good news this year!"

Despite the uncertainty of how long it may last, for the fourth consecutive year we have been enjoying the manifold blessings of peace. And during this period we have drawn from the soil such harvests as the world has never seen and have made the wheels of industry turn to the astonishment of all nations, including ourselves. The weather has been favorable, and there have been no major physical catastrophes. The thoughtful man will see in this abundance of good physical things the kind hand of an all-wise Creator. The grateful man will render thanks.

Thanksgiving Day comes down to us from the Pilgrim Fathers who sailed to the new world to found a land of spiritual freedom. The winter that closed the year 1620 was a devastating one of privation, sickness, and death. But in 1621 God granted them a bountiful harvest, and the colony began to prosper. Seeing their barns well-stocked and their larders full did not mean simply an occasion to sit down to an unaccustomed feast. It meant that the smile of Heaven was upon their efforts, and there was gratitude in every Pilgrim heart. And so a day was appointed for the public expression of thanks to the Giver of every good and perfect gift.

Looking back over the years, we see a tremendous contrast between the measure of material blessings for which they gave thanks and the astronomical figure of our own accumulation. If our thanks were in proportion to the increase, on this Thanksgiving what a chorus of God's praise would rise from shore to shore! What was for them the small I has become for us the full triage. We are heirs of a land made great by God as a result of prayers and the faith of our fathers. Their dream has become a reality in our time.

If we think rightly upon matter, this year there will gratitude in every service man's heart. This will not be primarily material blessings like the raise in pay, as welcome and useful as that is. But there will be a warm glow of satisfaction in this nation of ours is still the land of the free and the home of the brave. There is plenty of opportunity for each man to labor a distinguish himself. Americans have a liberty of thought and distinction found in few other countries today. Americans have a liberty of thought and expression that and which lends dignity and worth to the individual. Above all, the freedom which our pioneers sought and won, whereby every man worships God according to the dictates of his own conscience.

For these and kindred blessings we lift our hearts this day a reverently breathe our thanks to the Creator and Redeemer of the world.

ROBERT L. MURPHY, Lt., ChC, USNR.

EDUCATION BENEFITS FOR PERSONNEL

In a previous issue, we published a squib on the ignorance of two men wishing to enlist in the Marine Corps in Maryland, Conn. This week we will clarify the education privileges extended to Marines and Naval personnel attached to the Camp.

The Camp Education Officer and Office are located in Building No. 1005, directly opposite the Civilian Cafeteria. General Education Development Tests for both high school and college credit are administered in the Education Office each morning except Friday morning.

Men are reminded to bring their Identification Cards with them each test day. Any man failing to do this will be turned away from the testing room.

For high school credit or diplomas, five tests are given to the United States Armed Forces Institute in Madison, Wis., to be graded. After grades have been computed and recorded, they are returned to you by mail.

If you desire credit or a diploma from your respective school, you must forward the grades to your school and the decision of the principal or board of judges. A majority of the schools will accept credit from the GED Test, or for further information regarding your state, consult the Education Office.

College credit is much the same as high school, with the exception that you cannot be graduated by successfully passing the tests. A certain number of college credit hours will be recorded for you if you make passing marks, but again in this case much depends on the locality of your school.

Check with the Education Office on your state's rules governing education rights for servicemen.

Courses are offered by the Marine Corps Institute free of charge to all personnel. A wide variety of subjects is covered. The MCI offers an excellent opportunity to study for the GED. Courses offered by USAFI are not free, but for a nominal sum you may study high school and college courses and be credited upon successful completion of these courses. The school you were attending prior to enlisting in the Marine Corps or the college you wish to attend at the termination of your enlistment.

Consult your Education Officer today for an advancement in your mental powers that may mean advancement for you in the Marine Corps or in civilian life.

The Education Office is not accepting applicants for testing periods until December 1. After this date, you will be unable to attend to your education problems.

UNHAPPY DAY

A veteran Marine sergeant, while witnessing an Armistice Day parade in Charleston, S. C., experienced a very unhappy day for himself and the Marine band at Parris Island.

When the leading element in the parade, the Fifth Infantry Division band from Fort Jackson failed to play while standing the reviewing stand, the grizzly sergeant said, "Isn't it just like the Army?" "Just you wait until the Marines get to it."

"What are they going to play?" he was asked. "The Marine Hymn, naturally. They always do."

Then the Parris Island band moved into sight, playing a march.

They halted just before reaching the stand and the band leader told them to mark time. They tucked their instruments under their arms.

When they started again the instruments were still under their arms. They didn't play.

The tough old Marine looked as if he could cry. The bandmaster hadn't even given "Eyes right" and the sergeant ignored the reviewing stand. The bandmaster had not noticed it.

Every other band played as they passed in review.

FIELD HOUSE PROGRESSING

The $700,000 Field House, directly behind the Protestant Chapel, is looking more and more like it is cooked up to be. The girders are being fitted into place and work on the interior should not be too far in the distant future. While you are witnessing the Lejeune Marines' gridiron clash with the "Boots" from Parris Island today, take a look at Lejeune's "House of Champions" and pass your judgment on the latest contribution to Lejeune Marines.

Colonel R. H. Houser Shore Party Bn Gets Permanent Commission

Lieutenant Colonel Robert H. Houser, Executive Officer Shore Party Battalion, was promoted to his permanent rank last Wednesday afternoon in an informal ceremony in the Battalion Commanding Officer's office.

Colonel Houser was graduated from the University of Michigan (1940) prior to being commissioned in the Marine Corps in 1940. During World War II, he participated in the Bougainville and Iwo Jima campaigns and later served on Guam.

Colonel R. H. Houser

The Colonel has been awarded the Silver Star Medal and the Bronze Star Medal.

Prior to reporting for duty with the Second Marine Division, he was stationed at the Marine Barracks in Pearl Harbor.

Many Lives Saved By Chute Riggers At Naval School

Lakehurst, N. J.—A Navy school with 18,000 cases of life saving to its credit is now well into its Silver Anniversary year.

That's the record set by the 8,000 men who have graduated from the Parachute Riggers School during the 25 years since two chief petty officers started it out by moving a packing table and sewing machine into an old warehouse at the Lakehurst Naval Air Station.

As in the days of sailing ships, the men in the riggers' school must become experts with needle and thread. A sewing machine is perhaps their most important weapon in their specialized campaign to save lives.

Today's classes also learn to care for oxygen equipment and life rafts sometimes attached to the parachute harnesses. And their final examination is the toughest ever devised. Because of it no student at the riggers' school ever lets up on his studies.

To graduate from this institution of specialized learning, each one has to jump from a plane in a parachute he has packed himself.—(AFPS)

Mess Pennant

MCI Offers Excellent Opportunities In Art Through New Commercial Course

Manufacturers and retailers are facing and looking forward to a highly competitive era of extensive advertising, thus creating attractive employment prospects for well-trained, experienced commercial artists, reports the Department of Labor in its latest Occupational Outlook Handbook.

Sergeant General Is Brother To Colonel Who Is Naval Officer

Fort Jackson, S. C.—"Where ya think yer goin'? To a fire?"

"No," came the meek reply from the civilian-clad driver as he pulled over to the curb. "From Fort Jackson to Camp Gordon." Then he produced his license identifying the driver as: "General Jackson." "You General Jackson?" asked the officer.

"Yes, I am."

"Well, I'm sorry to have delayed you, General. Very sorry indeed. You can go ahead now."

And off drove MSgt. General Jackson. It wasn't the first time his name had come in handy. Now a chief clerk at Fort Jackson, the 15-year veteran recalls the time an Army telephone exchange operator told him he'd have to wait two hours to put through a call to his wife.

"OK," he said. "When you get through I'd like to speak to Mrs. General Jackson."

"Oh," said the operator. "Who did you say is calling?"

"This," said the Sergeant, "is General Jackson."

Ten minutes later a colonel also in line for a call answered the phone and began calling for General Jackson. There was a moment

Most artists, the bulletin continues, begin their training in high-school art classes or vocational courses. Among the Marine Corps Institute's vocational courses is Commercial Art, especially prepared for the beginner who has had no previous training or experience.

The MCI's Commercial Art instructor explained that the course is particularly suitable for Marines who are considering advertising art as a career. "The course leads the student through the fundamentals of layout, design, perspective, pen and pencil techniques, color and an analysis of the various reproduction processes used in advertising production," he commented.

The Occupational Outlook Handbook points out that many artists are employed by advertising concerns, department stores, magazines and newspaper publishers, while some work as free-lance artists, implying that the artist has an excellent chance to make additional money in his spare time.

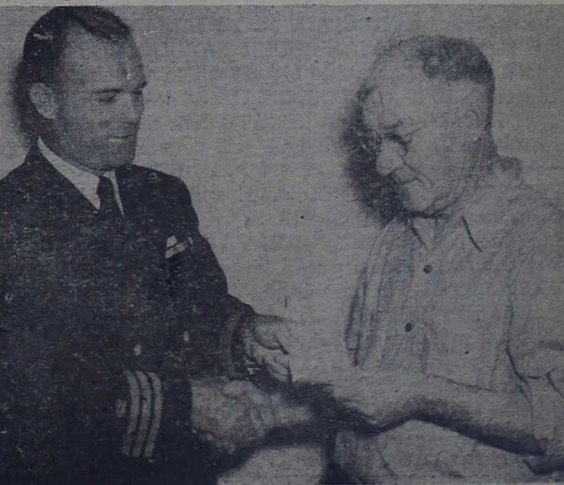

Here is an excellent course taught on a professional basis, and offered to all Marines free of charge through the Marine Corps Institute.

of tension as the master sergeant, this time in uniform, began talking to his wife. But the colonel and the rest of the line had a sense of humor.

The brother's name is Colonel Jackson. He's in the Navy.—(AFPS)

Beneficial

Comdr. E. R. Bennett, Public Works Officer, presented a $10 check to Mr. E. S. Barbour last Monday morning in Building No. 1005, for a suggestion that proved beneficial to the Motor Transport Field. Mr. Barbour, an electrician attached to Camp Motor Transport, suggested the use of a mirror when a vehicle is backing up onto the wheel alignment rack. This would do away with the use of an extra man, who is normally used to guide the vehicle to its position on the rack. In the Photo, Commander Bennett is shown on the right congratulating Mr. Barbour. (Photo by Sgt. J. W. Sage.)

Lejeune Clashes With P. I. Today

By PFC. HORACE MYERS

WHAT A LINE

Last Saturday afternoon as the Lejeune tidal wave continued to roll against Little Creek, it was again the "Little Maginot Line", the defense part of the two-platoon system, that took the spotlight. According to statistics the Amphibs rolled up a total of 42-yards rushing for the afternoon, and were held to four downs. Each time that the Amphibs would go for a first down, the Lejeune line would look as if they had been insulted, and on the next play would toss the Amphibs' backs for a loss. So far this season with nine games out of the way, the line has held their opponents to a total of 527 yards rushing, which gives them a 58.5 average per game. Bad?

A GAMBLE THAT PAYED OFF

The football game between Notre Dame and North Carolina is history now, but news of one play in that game just leaked out the other day.

North Carolina led 6-nothing early in the first quarter, and Notre Dame had a last down on its own 19-yard line. Instead of punting, quarterback Bob Williams threw a screen pass to Larry Coutre for 18-yards and a first down. That was the turning point of the game, and the Irish went on to win, 42-6.

The other day, the story of what Williams said in the huddle came out. "Listen," He told his Notre Dame teammates. "We ought to punt, but we're not going to. You guys be on the alert, 'cause if this doesn't work, I'm going right out through the nearest exit. I'm not even going back to the bench."

The plan worked, and Williams was calling them as the Irish beat Iowa 28-7 Saturday.

CHERRY POINT UPSETS FORT BRAGG

We lost to Fort Bragg 28-0. We beat Cherry Point 29-0. Cherry Point turns around and beats Fort Bragg 21-20. Compare scores, you can't. By Cherry Point's victory over Bragg, it looks like Lejeune didn't really start rolling until the switch to the two-platoon system was made. Can we beat Fort Bragg if we play them now? There's only one answer—play 'em.

Well it's finally here the last full week end of college football, it's been a good season for some, and a bad one for others. But everybody can't win. And the same goes for little old PIGSKIN PICKIN'S, we have had some good weeks and also our share of bad ones. This being the last big week end, we're going to try and bring our percentage up a few points, so here goes:

First of all LEJEUNE will nip PARRIS ISLAND to take the South Central Group Championship . . . DAVIDSON will roll over little CITADEL . . . UNC will kill all hopes of a bowl game for VIRGINIA . . . WILLIAM & MARY will edge N. C. STATE . . . SOUTH CAROLINA will surprise WAKE FOREST . . . and big old ARMY is going to stomp little old NAVY . . . BOSTON U. will take HOLY CROSS . . . BROWN will give COLGATE their second defeat in as many weeks . . . CORNELL will bounce back after last week's upset to take PENN . . . DETROIT will crush WHICHTA . . . NOTRE DAME will revenge last year's tie, by beating CALIFORNIA . . . OKLAHOMA will make it ten in a row over OKLAHOMA A & M . . . AUBURN will close out their season with a victory over CLEMSON . . . GEORGIA TECH in one of the oldest rivals, should have no trouble with GEORGIA . . . TULANE just getting back into form will take LSU . . . TENNESSEE over VANDERBILT . . . RICE over BAYLOR . . . SMU tied TCU last year, but should walk all over them this year . . . QUANTICO will ease pass NORFOLK NAVY BASE . . . ALABAMA vs FLORIDA—ALABAMA . . . That should take care of the major games of the week end.

PIGSKIN PICKIN'S SCORE—188 RIGHT—56 WRONG
—7 TIES—775.

Locals Coast To 49-17 Win Over NHHS In Swim Meet

Jim Reid Breaks Pool Record For 50-Yard Freestyle Event

Pfc. C. F. MATHIEU

Although the swimming season is somewhat out of date in the cool clime of North Carolina, the Camp Lejeune Swimming and Diving Team, coached by Captain Donn Draeger, competed in an inter-scholastic meet against the New Hanover High School Team of Wilmington at the Wilmington YMCA last Saturday night, and came in to take the meet by a score of 49 points, to Hanover High's 17 points.

The eleven man team of Lejeune was, to say the least, up against an inexperienced team, but a team with a surprising amount of talent. The New Hanover High Team, coached by Adam Smith of Wilmington, showed speed and stamina for such a young aggregation.

On the other hand, the Lejeune team, having been in the water for only three days prior to the meet, showed the usual smooth winning form of experienced swimmers and divers.

Although the pool was small, 16 yards long, and 6 yards wide, the Lejeune mermen took 6 out of 8 events with Jim Reid breaking the pool record with 25 seconds flat in the 50 yard freestyle event. A failure to make the required turn at the end of the 100 yard freestyle by former All-Navy champ Mick Mirayes, resulted in the loss of that event for Lejeune.

Jim Talbot of the Lejeune team fouled Tom Covington of Wilmington due to the small width of the pool in the 100 yard backstroke event, which resulted in the loss of first place which was given to Esmith Jewel of Wilmington.

In the diving department, coach Donn Draeger introduced a new man to the team, Carl Hachey, who placed second in the one meter diving event. Ralph Richenbach placed first for Lejeune, showing perfect diving form for the conditions of the pool.

Joe Fallon, who placed second in the 220 event, gave an exhibition during intermission. Dressed in a woman's one piece bathing suit, he was announced as Minnie the Mermaid. His Irish antics gave the spectators their full amount of laughs and chuckles.

The next meet will be against Cherry Point at as yet an unknown date. New Hanover High has asked for a rematch which may be held here on December.

Results of the meet:

220 yard freestyle: 1. Bill Chain, CL, 2. Joe Fallon, CL, 3. Tom Covington, NHHS.

Little "Maginot Line" Out To Record For Having B Scored On In Games

Camp Lejeune winds up the regular scheduled football season after noon when they meet the 6th Naval District Marines here at 1400.

This will be an all important game for both teams in the winner will be crowned for champs of the Sixth Naval District and also champs of the South Central Naval Group. This latter includes the sixth, seventh, and ninth Naval Districts. The ner of today's contest will advance in the All-Navy playoffs and be host to a team from the Navy east Naval group.

Camp Lejeune will be a determined underdog when they take the field to several injuries by key players. The game last Saturday with Little Creek took its toll might well hinder Camp Lejeune prospects for any spot in the Navy playoffs.

With this handicap, coach N. Andruska and his staff have busy all week molding a combination to take the field against P. I.

Season record's show that clubs have lost but one game. Fort Bragg administered the defeat.

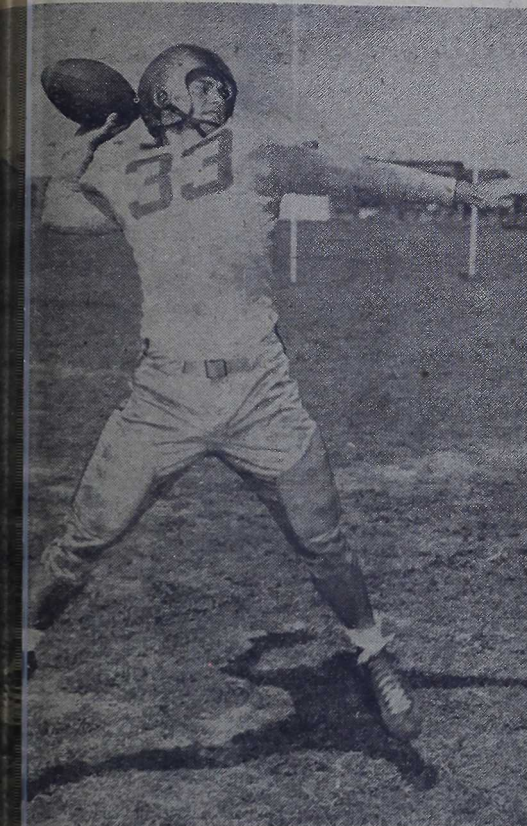

Following the game, Major General Franklin A. Hart, Commandant of Camp Lejeune, representing the Commandant of the Sixth Naval District, will present individual and team trophies to the victorious squad.

Future Fullback Little 15-months old George Glen Williams, son of Pfc. & Mrs. W. A. Williams of Camp Lejeune. Shows that he too "tug the pigskin". The photo was taken at a recent Varsity game by Pfc. Cote, H Co, Headquarters Bn, Second Marine Division, FMF.

Wash Him Quarterbacking the P. I. football team this afternoon will be Cpl. Russell Piston of Wilkes-Barre, Pa. Piston played for Hanover Township High School in his home town. This is his third year with the Parris Island eleven. He was chosen for All-Navy honors in 1948 as second quarterback.

Lejeune's Tidal Wave Rolls On As Little Creek Falls 21-0

Locals Held Scoreless For First Half; Dick Stein's Field Goal Breaks The Ice

By TSgt. EDWARD M. GREEN
In what could be termed the worst scare since the Fort Bragg game, Lejeune trounced the Amphibs of Little Creek last Saturday 21-0. The scare was not from the offense of the Amphibs, but rather from our own failure to roll in the first three quarters of the game.

Lejeune got off to a slow start and blew several scoring chances in the first half. In the third period Dick Stein kicked a field goal from the 23, and from that moment Lejeune took complete command to drive to the hard fought victory.

Fullback Stone of Little Creek kept Lejeune's defensive line pressing hard to maintain their record of not having been scored through for the season, as he carried for 43 of the total 46 yards rushing allowed the Amphibs.

Leo Moody and Tex Serres, Lejeune Halfbacks, bore the brunt of the ground attack accounting for 102 of Lejeune's 141 yards rushing.

Dick Stein again kept the opposition in their own territory with his brilliant punting, averaging 44 yards per try.

We kicked to open the game and after advancing to their own 33, Bailey punted for Little Creek and the ball went to the Lejeune 46. Minihan's second pass in the game was intercepted and the Am-phibsdrove to Lejeune's 44 before punting out on the 13. Stein, Serres, and Moody moved it up to Lejeune's 36 and just as it looked as though the machine would go all the way, Moody ran wide around right end and fumbled and Navy took over on the recovery on Lejeune's 37. Stone moved it up to the 25 and after Hancock hit the line for no gain and passed incomplete, Mitchell attempted a field goal which went wide and rolled out on Lejeune's 7. Serres carried for a yard and Stein punted to Navy's 45 and after returning to Lejeune's 47 Little Creek punted out on Lejeune's 28. Stein hit center to the 38 and a first down as the quarter ended.

SECOND PERIOD

Moody went off left guard to Lejeune's 49. Serres and Stein carried to Navy's 46. Minihan passed to Darnell on Navy's 40 and he scooted to the 32. Serres was thrown back to the 34 in attempting skirt right end. Minihan's pass to Darnell was intercepted on Navy's 12 ending our first scoring threat. After failing to gain the Amphibs punted to Hickoff on Lejeune's 49 and he returned to Navy's 35. Maksin cut through to the 29, and Moody swept the end to the 22 and a 1st down. Stein pulled through to the 17. Maksin picked up a yard to the 16 and Stein came back to the 12 and another 1st down. Moody carried to the 10 and Maksin lost to the 11. Minihan passed twice to Darnell both dropping incomplete in the end zone. Little Creek moved it up to their own 25 before Klinepeter intercepted on Navy's 36 and got back to the 33. Minihan's pass to Darnell fell incomplete at the goal line. Moody made it 1st and ten on the 17. Maksin was thrown back to the 20. Serres ran wide to the right and fumbled at the line of scrimmage, recovered by Little Creek. Stone carried to his own 26, and Lejeune was penalized to the 41 for a personal foul. Hancock went to the 47 where he was brought down hard by Zakula as the half ended in a scoreless tie.

THIRD QUARTER

The third quarter progressed with neither team threatening until Lejeune with a yard to go for a first on Navy's 37 refused to punt and Stein bucked center for the needed yard. Serres went to the 32 and Stein carried again to the 31. Minihan ran wire and teased to Serres who ran to the 27 before stepping out. Serres ran wide to the right and fumbled, recovered by Morrow on Navy's 33. Bailey tried a quick kick which was blocked and recovered by Mariades on Navy's 17. Moody went to the 14, and Minihan passed incomplete to Darnell in the end zone. With 4th and 7, Dick Stein dropped back to the 23 and layed a perfect end-over-end ball through the uprights for a field goal, and the turning point of the game. Stein kicked off to Kelley on the 10 and Navy moved it back to their own 37 at the quarter. . . . Lejeune 3. . . . Amphibs 0.

FOURTH QUARTER

Striving hard to even the score Little Creek battered at the line but failing to gain took to the air. Fred Tullai intercepted their first try on Lejeune's 40. Moody ran wide to the right and got to Navy's 31. Stein hit for no gain, and was so badly injured on the play that he had to be carried off the field after having played an inspired game. Minihan passed incomplete to Darnell in the end zone, and then repeated the same pass which was taken by Serres for the score. . . . Lejeune 9. . . . Amphibs 0. . . . Serres failed to convert on a bad pass from center.

Serres kicked to the 5. Hinkle carried the first try to his own 15, and on the next play was thrown back to the 5 by Hennelly. Stone punted to his own 26 where the ball was grounded. Minihan passed to Serres on the 20, and he darted to the 5 before being pulled down. Stone, the Amphibs full back, who played a great game for almost 55 minutes was injured and had to be helped from the field. Moody then swept wide to the left to score standing up. . . . Lejeune 15. . . . Amphibs 0.

Serres kicked off and after failing to gain Navy punted to Maksin on Lejeune's 30, who returned to his own 46. Lejeune failed to gain and Serres punted into the end zone and it was taken by Hancock who fumbled when hit hard by Darnell. Charley Dawson recovered in the end zone for the TD. . . . Serres again tried the conversion, but failed on a bad pass from center. . . . Lejeune 21. . . . Amphibs 0.

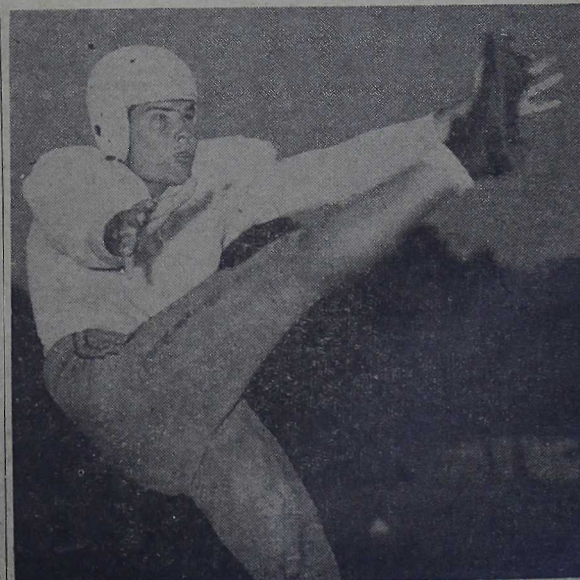

Serres kicked to Villaroja in the end zone, who ran it back to the 15. Tullai again intercepted on Navy's 20 and ran it back to the 15. Minihan's second pass to Hargett connected on the 8, but with 4th and 3 Serres failed to make it and Navy took over. The game ended on their first play as Orlando hit the line for no gain.

New Villanova football coach Jim Leonard, who played under Knute Rockne at Notre Dame, won football letters both as a back and a lineman.

Tim Curley, eastern intercollegiate welterweight boxing champion, is captain-elect of the Syracuse University cross-country team.

Basketball was introduced at Michigan State College in 1899. Since then the Spartans have won 457 games and lost 324.

Bad Leg Dick Stein, Lejeune's top scorer and punting ace will be watching the game from the sidelines this afternoon. Dick twisted his knee in last week's encounter with Little Creek and from all indications will be lost for the rest of the season.

Basketball And Boxing Teams Sweep To Victory In Bermuda

On State Teachers' College Meet Local Boxers Here Sat. Night In 1949-50 Basketball Season Opener

Note: The following were taken from the Mid-Ocean News.

CAMP LEJEUNE (62) vs. BERMUDA (40)

The Army Air Force Base team was defeated Wednesday night in their first game in the season by the Camp Lejeune team 62-40. The Marines went out after the first two minutes of the game and the half ended 20-0. The game was played in the gymnasium.

L. P. Norfolf led the Marines with 12 points while Jack Norfolf, the air base was high scorer.

ONE BOXING TEAM (3) vs. BERMUDA (NOB) (1)

Lejeune's boxing team, by the best amateur squad seen in Bermuda, pounded out an easy victory over local boxers last night at the Base Auditorium. The tournament was contested between George Trahan and Paul Ribnick, with the winner gaining the decision in the final bout. At the conclusion, Smoot, Officer Commanding, N.O.B., presented a trophy to Willie McClendon who retained the Camp Lejeune team.

Lejeune team are in excellent shape, and fought with determination. Jumping into the ring from the sound of the bell, the boys lose no time in their trade punches.

Lowry knocked out Harris (Bermuda) in the first round, a lightweight contest, and Jones (middleweight) T.K.O. over Paul Fisher (Bermuda) when the latter sustained a cut near the right eye, and an old injury. Schiro, a featherweight (N.O.B.) in the featherweight bout, and George Trahan of N.O.B. outpointed Paul Ribnick in a welterweight clash.

CAMP LEJEUNE (55) vs. N.O.B. BERMUDA (32)

The Camp Lejeune Marines gained an impressive 55-32 victory in their initial basketball game of the season here tonight, trampling the Naval Operating Base quintet before a large crowd at the Base auditorium. The victors grabbed the lead from the start and outplayed the local team all the way, leading 30-17 at half. The Camp Lejeune team had experienced a tiresome journey, having left Cherry Point at midnight on Sunday. Lack of sleep, however, did not seem to handicap the players greatly, as they displayed keen understanding of the game which combined with good shooting ability to chalk up a clear-cut victory.

Although Whiz Bishop is missing from this year's Lejeune quintet, the all-over balance of this team is remarkable as best evidenced by the fact that twelve of the thirteen players who participated in the game broke into the scoring column. Shinning for the Lejeune was Howie Reese, who scored eleven of the fifty-five points scored by his team. Also turning in excellent performances were Ira Norfolf who was second high with 10 points, and Ralph Nofsinger. Nofsinger had the misfortune to wrench his shoulder early in the second half and retired from the game.

CAMP LEJEUNE (54) vs. N.O.B. BERMUDA (37)

With Ralf Nofsinger contributing a spectacular floor game as well as being high scorer with 11 points, the Camp Lejeune Marines walked off with their third straight victory. Ace Parker also played an excellent game clipping for 10 points. Every man in the Lejeune's line-up scored.

CAMP LEJEUNE WINS FOUR

The United States Marine Corps boxing team from Camp Lejeune, North Carolina, scored an impressive victory over a local team last night in a series of amateur bouts at No. 6 Shed. A crowd of capacity proportions saw the Marines out-box the local contingent and win all four of the bouts in which they participated.

Al Lowry, Camp Lejeune lightweight twice floored Ronniw Gwinnett, light and welterweight champion of Bermuda from H.M.C. Glasgow to gain a decision. The Marine dropped Gwinnett in the opening round for two counts of nine, both blows which stunned Gwinnett.

In one of the best fights of the evening, Louis Acevedo, local Marine Corps Boxer, dropped a close decision to Paul Ribnick, who had lost to hard hitting George Trahan on Thursday night at the N.O.B. The experience of Ribnick counted most and the local boy was doomed to defeat although he put up a game fight.

Johnny Jones, colored middleweight from Camp Lejeune stopped Stone Good of the H.M.S. Glasgow in what promised to be one of the best fights of the evening when the referee ordered a halt to proceedings between the first and second round due to a cut over the sailor's eye.

Don Veberst, Camp Lejeune Marine, proved too experienced for Harry Watts, light-heavyweight champion of Bermuda, scoring freely with both hands to win the unanimous verdict.

Watts tried hard to make a fight of it but his opponent had too much "know-how" at his disposal and countered with two blows for each landed by the sailor.

In between rounds, each competitor was presented with trophies by the referee.

Cops Watch Watchmen Watching Each Other

ST. PAUL — The police report said a suspicious looking character was standing in an alley.

Investigating, they found he was really a night watchman. "Just keeping an eye on that suspicious looking character at the other end of the alley," he told the officers. "Keep it up," they told him. "We'll circle around and get him from behind."

But suspicious-looking man number two explained: "I'm a night watchman, just keeping an eye on that suspicious looking character at the other end of the alley."

Finally convinced everything was being properly watched, the cops went home.—(APFS)

By D. J. YOUNT

Thanksgiving Day is much more than just an excuse to down a tremendous meal. It would be more to the point to say that it is a chance to give thanks because you have a meal to eat! We've all many things for which to be thankful, but one thing which we at the U. S. Naval Hospital are especially thankful for, is health. We either have it, haven't it, or are getting it back. So as a patient of the hospital, why not pause a moment this season and take stock of oneself. If you are healthy, be thankful and take care of yourself. If you aren't, be thankful you have the opportunity to be in such a fitting place as to be able to receive the best in care. And if you are in the process of regaining your health, you well know that you can be doubly thankful.

And now after that more serious note, lets all settle back in our seats and enjoy the third Hospital Hi-Lites amateur radio show, coming to you over WJNC this Thanksgiving evening, at 9:00 p.m.

To those of you who were looking forward to hearing Abner Freeman sing, "Trees", please accept these regrets: "Abner has went." Yes, Camp Lee has called him back and it's much to our loss. Ab felt badly about going as he'd worked up a stack of enthusiasm for the radio show. So much so that he even offered to try to get a three day pass and come back here to sing, but we doubt he'll make it.

We're also going to miss Abner in chapel, for he was the backbone of the music department. Without him we are, to say the least, weak in voice!

You bed patients who have been chewing your fingernails worrying about how you are going to get that Christmas shopping done, can now relax and breathe easy. Just get to work and make out your list and the Red Cross social workers and Gray Ladies will be around to help you. These gals will shop anywhere within reason for you and also gift wrap and mail your parcels. Their working days and hours are Monday through Thursday, and from 1300 to 1600. We might also remind you that when the present stock of supplies is gone from the PX shelves, they will not be replenished so lets do our Christmas shopping early!

Pool enthusiasts, take notice. Special Services is giving the Red Cross Recreation Rooms a new pool table. Treat it lovingly too; no one knows when we'll get another. The date of the Gray Lady Graduation has been set as Nov. 29, says Miss Patricia Thompson, Field Director for hospital Red Cross. Pictures and story will follow in next weeks issue of the Globe. How many of you have observed a trim little Wave about the hospital of late? She is Reserve Lt. Miss Margaret Clark, who came to the U. S. Naval Hospital for two weeks of occupational therapy work in the Red Cross Craft Shop. She was sent here from McGuire General, in Richmond, Va.

PATIENT OF THE WEEK
CPL. LEON G. MICHAUD

Those of you who are familiar with the patients of the hospital will find it hard to recognize our patient of the week by his picture. He's Cpl. Leon G. Michaud, of Dearborn, Michigan, who up until a week or so ago, wore the fanciest head cast I've ever seen.

Michaud, the owner of a fractured jaw, has been literally all "strung up," for his cast was wired to his jaw by a really fancy bit of mechanics. But, he's well on the way to recovery now, and enjoying his recuperating hours "fooling around with photography." He hands a bouquet to the hospital and Red Cross, in that he says they've both done everything to make him comfortable. Michaud maintains that any service man who steps inside the Camp Lejeune Naval Hospital, has everything for which to be grateful. Compared to civilian hospitals this "has everything."

Movie Review As They Appear At The Camp Theater

MASKED RAIDERS

* RKO, 60 minutes. This new Tim Holt Western is up to par with the others of this series and should prove satisfactory. Holt is a member of the Texas Rangers who, with his pardner, is sent to uncover a masked bandit who robs from the rich and gives to the poor. Holt finds the real villains and cleans up the mess. There is the usual amount of hard riding and straight shooting while Holt, Richard Martin, and Marjorie Lord perform their acting assignments in a routine manner. One short and a Paramount News.

THE GREAT LOVER

Paramount, 80 minutes. Bob Hope, Rhonda Fleming, and Roland Young. Hope's name, of course, guarantees a good comedy. There's nothing in this one that hasn't been in other Hope films, but the comedian handling the leer, the gesture, the grimace, the double-take, the gag, and the wise-crack—they're still as fresh and laugh-provoking as if they had never been done before. This picture provides the comedian with sufficient humorous situations and lines to keep the chuckles coming at a steady pace. A good family picture. One short.

IN THE GOOD OLD SUMMERTIME

MGM, 102 minute nostalgic Musical Romance with Judy Garland, Van Johnson, and S. Z. "Cuddles" Zakall. This picture is delightfully simple, yet at times up roarsomely funny, spiced with some top-notch numbers and blessed with an array of stars that is something to shout about. Filmed in excellent Technicolor that comes through with unusual softness, it has all the ingredients of a hit. Its songs will take the older folks back a few years, while its comedy and romance will appeal to all audience sectors.

THE STORY OF MOLLY X

Universal-International, 82 minutes. Prison Psychology with June Havoc, John Russell, and Dorothy Hart. The production of the Story of Molly X emerges as an interesting film analysis of a new type of penal servitude. Tied together with the story thread of a woman sent there to serve time for her crime, it centers around the California Institution at Tehachapi, shows the way of life of the inmates (which closely parallels life on a college campus) and goes a step further in showing that liberty is far more valuable than any kind of prison life, no matter how modern. This picture presents a cast of little-known players who perform with al the ease and conviction of more experienced screen veterans. June Havoc as the girl sent to prison for theft—but who lives in the constant (SEE MOVIE PAGE 8)

Entertainment By USO Provided Patients By Your Kind Donations

"Hey, fellows, here comes a USO show."

The men in the beds grinned as their buddy raced his wheelchair through the wards to spread the news. Little conversational knots and penny ante poker games broke up. Men who could walk made their way down the hospital corridors toward the sound of the music. Behind them trailed others on crutches and with canes. They all knew the show would play every ward, but they wanted to see it as many times as possible. It was a welcome break in the hospital routine.

This is a scene which occurs regularly in 120 Army, Navy and Veterans Administration hospitals as USO-financed Veterans Hospital Camp Shows make their tours throughout the country.

Since January, 1948, this organization—successors to the old USO Camp Shows, has moved regularly over a circuit of 23,000 miles to bring music, drama and variety shows to hospitalized veterans.

For 1950 ashore of the money USO raises will go to finance the work of Veterans Hospital Camp Shows. This money and the activity it will support is a small payment on the debt of remembrance that we owe to the 100,000 veterans who are in hospitals throughout the country.

NEW RIVER RIPPLES

Pfc.: "Why are you wearing those glasses to bed?"

Cpl.: "Well, I want to get a better look at that girl I dreamed about last night."

Visiting Delegate (to hotel clerk): "Why didn't you call me at 7:30 this morning?"

Clerk (politely): "Because you didn't go to bed till eight."

Two buzzards were lazily soaring over the desert when a jet-propelled plane zipped by them, its exhaust throwing flame and smoke. As it whizzed out of sight, one of the buzzards remarked: "That bird was really in a hurry."

"Listen," said the other, "you'd be in a hurry, too, if your tail was on fire."

Traffic Cop (producing notebook): "Name please?"

Motorist: "Aloysius Demopolis Zybryscowicz."

Traffic Cop (putting book away): "Well don't let me catch you again."

USO Notes

The USO Club will celebrate the Thanksgiving Holiday with two festive Parties. On Wednesday evening there will be a semi-formal dance, with music by the Marine Orchestra and additional hostesses from Wilmington.

On Thanksgiving Night the married couples will be entertained especially with a Dance, Cabaret style, with refreshments. There will also be an orchestra for this event and special novelties to introduce the couples. Single men who wish to bring their special "dates" will be welcome, too.

Roller Skating will be dispensed with for this one evening, but otherwise will be scheduled every Tuesday and Thursday evening. It is hoped that there will be enough interested participants to resume the sports tournaments on Friday evenings.

"Dancing to discs" on Saturday evening, but for those who do not dance, a fourth for bridge, or partners for pinocle can always be found. The feature movie on Sunday will start at 7:30 p.m., and during the day the badminton court, shuffleboard court and ping pong tables are available for practice, together with all-day snack bar service, books, magazines and classical records for your enjoyment.

Movie Review

fear of being exposed as a murderer—does an excellent job. John Russell, a partner in the crime, and Dorothy Hart, seeking to solve the murder of a gang member by tormenting Miss Havoc, both vie for top acting honors. Individual discretion should govern bringing the children to this one. One MGM News Reel.

INDIAN SCOUT

United Artists, 71 minutes. George Montgomery and Ellen Drew. No available information on this print. However, with George Montgomery and Ellen Drew heading the cast, it should prove tops in entertainment for the entire family. The title would seem to indicate an old-line Western. One cartoon and one musical short.

TENSION

MGM, 91 minutes. Audrey Totter, Richard Basehart, and Barry Sullivan. Murder Mystery. The plan of a husband to murder his wife's lover goes astray when his pains-taking details lead him to another woman with whom he falls in love. With a complete change of heart, he is appalled that he could have ever even contemplated murder. Matters really become complicated when the rival is actually murdered by parties unknown. Detective Sullivan finally unravels the tangled snarls and finds the real murderer with the usual film detective's aplomb. Due to the deep drama of this one, it would seem to be too involved for the younger set. No comedies or shorts.

FRONTIER OUTPOST

Columbia 60 minute Western. Charles Starrett and "Smiley" Burnette. No detailed information on this picture. However, the usual run of Starrett-Burnette films provide good entertainment for those who like their horse operas. Appropriate details have been provided to pick up the brass after each showing. One Warner Brothers short and one RKO short.

NSLI Refund Free of Tax

If there's anybody in the crowd who figures he may have to pay more income tax because of the prospective premium refund from his National Service Life Insurance, rest at ease.

The NSLI payment is not subject to income tax, according to word received by the Navy from the Bureau of Internal Revenue. While no official ruling has as yet been made, internal revenue officials point out that so-called "dividend payments" actually are a refund of the policyholder's own money (premiums paid) and cannot be classed as "earned income," and therefore are not taxable.

Meanwhile, to clarify another point regarding NSLI rebates, naval personnel were advised that the payment, due sometime in early 1950, cannot be left on deposit at interest with the Veterans Administration. The refund also cannot be applied directly to the payment of premiums.

Proceeds from the rebate, however, may be used to pay monthly premiums after receipt from the VA. They also may be used to reinstate lapsed insurance provided all other reinstatement requirements can be met.

Napoleon Wasn't Napping When He Ordered Big Dig

Paris—Napoleon Bonaparte ordered a plan drawn for a canal across Central America 100 years before the United States opened the Panama Canal. Documents in the National Archives have revealed.

The canal plan, the work of a French navigator, Louis de la Moignon, was a 21-page detailed plan that called for a canal across Nicaragua instead of Panama. The project was meant to plan to attack Britain, France to strike at India, the back door and his fleet from the rear. Napoleon dropped the scheme.

Joke's Not A Joke To New Secretary
Milwaukee—District Attorney William McCauley briefly met with the press to announce his appointment as the new secretary of the State Bar of Wisconsin.

He realized his omission to speak to the press was a "war" and asked to be placed to "the war department" of the State Bar.

A few minutes later he was interrupted by McCauley's secretary, "Washington is on fire."

Spice Of Life
By Joe Howard

Overheard while strolling around: Camp Lejeune has such beautiful grounds and is so well kept, some of the boys walk around with candy wrappers in their pockets for days looking for a GI can instead of throwing them on the ground. It's better to have dirty pockets than a dirty camp. -- Now that the 9th Marines are back, their girl friends are having trouble getting rid of their new boy friends (Those maneuvers are tougher than you think). -- Look for some big time bands appearing at Marston Pavilion during the next four or five months. -- Colonel Gordon Hall, USMC (Ret.) about to take up residence in nearby New Bern. Can probably hear the Marine Corps Hymn being played at Cherry Point on a clear day.

Queries from passers by: Q. Is there any restriction on Marines bringing their dates to Varsity football games at their guests? A. No indeed - a shrill soprano voice might give the lads some extra encouragement on the gridiron. -- Q. Will Lejeune Marines play Quantum again in football this year? A. Not decided yet, but the hope will be out soon. -- Q. What is all the construction work going on by the Parade Ground? A. A new steam line tunnel is being installed. Could this mean no more parades for a while? -- Q. What is it on the Jacksonville Highway? A. You got me - I owe you a stogie.

I wonder -- Where all the good looking gals that work here on the base go after 1630. They sure do disappear. -- Who is the Marine with the most continuous service here at Camp Lejeune. I'll tell you right now it isn't Corporal "Pop" you see at all the football games or Harry Cohen. -- If the perfect job wouldn't be snow plow Maintenance NCO in the Canal Zone? -- There seems to be a scarcity of marriages on the base the past four months. Can it be the boys are waiting for leap year? -- Up to the Quantico Sentry - When Lejeune defeats the Quantico Marines in Football the net time they play, if you use any smaller type you'll have to supply magnifying glasses. -- One reason for such spirit in the P.I. games is that the boys on the team playing P.I. think their D.I. is directly opposite them on the line of scrimmage. Such blocking!!

At Little Creek on Saturday it was impossible to place a bet unless you gave the Amphibs plus 14 to 15 points. Three days before that you could take Lejeune and get 10 points. -- I wonder who scared them off. -- Stone, the Amphib back looks like sure money for Lejeune. -- You could really hear the groans and oh's and ah's when Dick Stein was hurt in the 4th quarter. -- Lets all hope for a quick recovery. -- Talking about all-their career.

LtCol. C. W. Shelburne, Commanding Officer of the Supply School Battalion, next outlined the basic fundamentals of the interdependence of the various units of a military organization, especially of bakers and motor transport men, the former depending upon the latter for supplies to do his work. Three points he mentioned, were to maintain the pride and appearance of Marine, to say in a "continual drive to do a job better", and to maintain a "spirit of cooperation."

Major Alfred H. Peterson, Assistant Camp Supply Officer, guest speaker, told the men that the Marine Corps today has a great need for specialists within its ranks. As Colonel Shelburne remarked, we all part of a team, and we are the vital part of that team, said the Major, emphasizing the importance of a baker and a motor transport man in the Marine Corps. On equipment, "it is only as good as the personnel operating it," he added.

The essentials of being a specialist, are not overrated by a Marine's first duty, that of being a Marine. Four basic fundamentals of achieving the high aim of being a good Marine are, the Major maintained, to do a job well; to live up to the tradition of the Marine Corps; to present an appearance at all times of being a first-class fighting man; and to do the best you can with the best you have to work with. "The Marine Corps is the least expensive of America's fighting men, due to the training the Marine gets in conservation of clothing and equipment," the Major affirmed. After presenting the men with their well-earned diplomas, the Major congratulated them, they reporting then to their first Sgt. for new assignments.

Navy honors, do you think that this year the Leatherneck will give up our fair share, as is our due? -- We were a real second-half team Saturday and let's hope we'll not have to go through the strain on Thursday. -- There weren't many Lejeune rooters at the game Saturday but what were there sure had the right spirit. -- That includes Lieutenant General Hunt, who sat with Major General Hart during the game and seemed real pleased with his FMF delegates. -- By the way, how long will it take me to get out to L. A. around December 17th and I wonder if tickets for the all-Navy football game will be hard to get. -- The band again showed the crowd some plain and fancy drill work and sounded off for the Little Creekers Saturday. If we ever lose a game, at least we'll have the best band. -- By the way, can anyone tell me how Cherry Point beat Fort Bragg 21 to 20. Please don't say they scored more points. I'm running out of Spice - Let's go home.
