Hold Em, And Squeeze

"commence firing" sounded last Monday morning, this group of men, pictured above on the 200 yard line, began the competition in the annual Southeastern Rifle and Pistol Matches.

Dusty Of Dreadnaught Wins Two More First Place Ribbons

The Camp Lejeune mascot, Private Sir Dusty of Dreadnaught, USMC, stole the hearts of many dog lovers at the dog show held last week end at the Armory in Wilmington. He also walked off with the first prize in his class in breed.

Dusty wasn't satisfied with winning the first place ribbon in his class, so he captured the ribbon for being best in the ring of dogs of his opposite sex.

Private Sir Dusty has four first place ribbons and one second place ribbon to his credit so far in his career as a dog. His ribbons and decorations are kept in his Service Record.

The crowd seemed to fall in love with the amiable Marine from Camp Lejeune. In one instance, a man approached the keeper of the dog and said, "I have been waiting to meet Sir Dusty of Dreadnaught for a long time." Believe it or not, they were introduced.

Private Dusty and his handler, Cpl. E. Lindsey, plan to leave this week end for the dog show at Wilson, N. C. We know that this representative of the Marine Corps will continue his showing of true Marine Corps loyalty and faithful-

New Regulation Will Govern Household Effects Shipment

(SEA)—Shipment at government expense of household effects of naval or marine personnel injured, dead or missing will be made only when such status results from "military or naval operations."

This new regulation is based on a decision of the Comptroller General which nullifies previous entitlement to free shipment of household effects by the government for dependents of service personnel whose death, injury or missing status was while "on active duty."

The Navy's interpretation of the decision, contained in Alnavsta 4-49, (NDB, 31 Jan. 1949), indicates that legislation is being asked to permit shipment for all persons who died while on active duty regardless of whether the death is caused by military or naval operations.

(SEA)—The first global merchant-dispatching flight was made by a Douglas DC-4 from 13 January to 15 April 1948. The flight covered 50,000 miles. Landings were made on five continents, in 28 countries and 45 cities, and the equator was crossed six times enroute.

Annual Southeastern Rifle And Pistol Shoot Underway

Over 100 Crack Shots
Vie For 28 Medals

BY CPL. JIM GRIFFITH

Over a hundred proficient rifle and pistol marksmen filled the air with gunsmoke at Camp Lejeune's rifle range this week as the annual Southeastern Rifle and Pistol Matches got underway. At the completion of the matches, Major General Franklin A. Hart will present the trophies and individual medals in ceremonies to be held at the range the latter part of this week.

M. C. To Distribute Occupation Service Medal June 1

The Marine Corps will start distribution of the Navy Occupation Service Medal June 1, to members and former members of the Marine Corps and Marine Corps Reserve, eligible to receive the award.

The Navy Occupation Service Medal may be given to personnel attached to and serving with organizations of the United States Naval Service in occupation of enemy territories during World War II.

Occupation duty in the European-African-Middle Eastern area is credited to organizations for duty performed on and subsequent to See MEDALS On Page 7

Competing for individual honors, some 80 riflemen and 42 pistol shooters toed the firing lines, representing Marine Corps activities, both active and reserve, from the Panama Canal Zone, Caribbean area, Bermuda and the entire southeastern United States. Beginning last Monday, the matches will continue through this Saturday.

The Second Marine Division holds the highest entry quota of all activities with 40 riflemen and 20 pistol shooters, while Marine Barracks and other Lejeune-based units entered 21 riflemen and 10 pistol marksmen.

Lt. Col. George T. Fowler, USMC, directed the choice and training of the Second Division candidates and also is competing in both the rifle and pistol competitions. Last year, Col. Fowler captained the Southeastern team which took the All-Marine Corps championship and set a new match record with a team aggregate of 2811 points.

Other notables firing in the contest are: Tech. Sgt. Percy Hawes of MB, Camp Lejeune, who fired a 562 out of a possible 600 to break the Marine Corps pistol record at the Southeastern Matches last year; M. Sgt. W. E. Fletcher, Parris Island, past winner of the highly-coveted Lauchheimer Trophy, a special award in connection with the Marine Corps Matches; Tech. Sgt. John Fowler, captain of the 1948 Wirgman Trophy Team; and CWO Emmett Orr, team captain of 2nd Combat Service Group who won the Elliot Trophy in 1948 set a match record in that tournament.

Many newcomers to match-shooting have qualified for the event, and though lacking in collection of medals for past achievement, they've served notice they plan to figure heavily in the tournament by virtue of impressive scores during practice-firing.

Three of the best-known marksmen in the annals of Marine Corps competition, who have played a large part in maintaining the Corps' high prestige on the rifle range are on hand for the event—Captain Claude Harris of Headquarters Marine Corps, Match Executive Officer; M. Sgt. Edward Seeger, Parris Island coach, and CWO Raymond See RIFLES On Page 7

How It Serves You

Camp Lejeune Auxiliary
Navy Relief Society

Many men know from experience with Navy Relief that it is a friend at a time a friend is needed. To acquaint every one with Navy Relief Society policies, the following is quoted from BuPers Circular Letter 235-48:

"2. The Navy Relief Society has for its purpose the rendering of assistance, in time of need, to Naval (including Marine) personnel and their dependents and to the dependents of deceased personnel. Although closely affiliated with the Naval Service, it is a private organization supported entirely by private funds, chiefly the income from investments, the proceeds of benefits, and the voluntary contributions of service personnel and civilian friends of the Navy and Marine Corps.

"3. Although the Society is able to assist Naval personnel in many ways not involving the expenditure of funds, much of the aid which it is called upon to provide lies in the field of financial assistance in times of distress. In this respect, however, it is obviously necessary that the readiness and availability of its aid be governed by consistent policies.

"(a) General Policy:—The society recognizes its obligation and stands ready and willing to aid financially, either by loan or grant as appropriate, in situations of real necessity which cannot be met from an individual's own family resources.

"(b) Assistance to dependents of deceased personnel:—When an officer or man (active or retired) loses his life, the Society is informed by the Bureau of Naval Personnel. If there is a widow, minor children, or parents who were in fact dependent on him, they are immediately written to or visited and the assistance of the Society, if needed, is offered.

"(c) Assistance to living personnel and their dependents:—Financial assistance to living personnel and those truly dependent upon them is governed by the general concept that personnel of the Navy are expected to provide, for themselves and their dependents, the essentials of everyday living. The role of the Society is to relieve financial distress occasioned by the abnormal, nonrecurring emergencies which cannot be met, at the time, from normal income. In every case, real necessity for the expense is a controlling factor. Financial assistance, either by loan or by gratuity, cannot be granted for purpose of convenience, greater comfort, or the purchase of non-necessities."

This briefly covers the work of Navy Relief Society. However, anyone desiring further information, or having an emergency need, will find the Camp Lejeune Auxiliary in Building No. One, ready to help.

Program Planned

Camp and Division Chaplains are planning a joint program of service and good fellowship for the Camp Protestant Chapel.

An Executive Council has been formed and will meet on the first Thursday of each month at 2000 in the Camp Chapel. In order to facilitate the program, a special meeting will be held tonight at 2000 in the Camp Chapel.

Objectives, set by the Council at its initial meeting May 5, include a parish dinner, regular monthly Communion Breakfasts, the establishment of a parish library (containing current books on religion by outstanding modern writers), an effective program of religious education, and an increased attendance at the Chapel. It is also planned to have musicals, movies, and other interesting entertainment at a later date.

EXECUTIVE COUNCIL

Your Tracks

It is very interesting to study the tracks of animals, both from the standpoint of pattern, and ultimate destination. One usually thinks of a deer as confined to wooded areas, yet the sands along the shore of Virginia show that numerous deer come to the edge of the sea where there is neither food nor drinking water. The fox makes slender tracks, while those of the dog are round. The muskrat leaves a trail of webbed feet impressions wherever he goes. The old skunk doesn't seem to worry about friend or enemy so he pounds his feet solidly on the ground. The tracks of birds remind one of delicate etchings.

The founder of critical philosophy, Immanuel Kant, did not travel very far. Rumor has it that he never left his native city of Konigsberg, yet his mind encompassed vast areas of thought. From this point of view he was a world citizen. The footsteps of the average mother are confined to the small territory of the home, yet she profoundly influences the personalities of those entrusted to her care. The feet of Jesus traveled within a territory about the size of Vermont, yet he changed history. People said of Him, "He went about doing good."

What kind of tracks do you make? Are your liberty tracks worthwhile? Are your tracks influenced by the right kind of leader? P. T. Stevens says, "It is well to follow a leader, but wise to make certain the leader is going the right way." The best way to get ahead sometimes is to stop, study the way we are heading, and then start up again, making sure that we are on the right track.

Chaplain Harold A. McNeill

Reserves Begin Annual Summer Training At Camp Lejeune

Last Sunday and Monday, the Citizen-Marines began streaming into Camp Lejeune for their annual two week training. The different reserve organizations have been divided and will report to the base at two week intervals.

The men will come from points all over the United States and will cover such states as Texas, Minne- sota, Iowa, and many others.

Some are high school students and some are college professors. Many have combat knowledge taught them during the bitter war days in the South Pacific. They are from all walks of life but will spend the two weeks doing the same thing . . . keeping up with the Marine Corps activities and changes.

Approximately 81 Officers and 130 Enlisted Men have reported into the base so far for their train- ing. They have been assigned to different organizations such as the Amphibian Tractor Battalion, In- fantry companies, and many other Marine Corps activities. Some will receive on-the-job training during their two-week stay on the reser- vation.

Camp Lejeune will play host to the Citizen-Marines until the fall when the reserves will leave the base full of new Marine Corps knowledge ready for any type of emergency.

Governor Of Arkansas Gets Legion Of Merit

Governor Sidney S. McMath, of Arkansas received the Legion of Merit last week for outstanding services as a Marine officer in World War II, presented by General C. B. Cates, Commandant of the Marine Corps, in his offices, Headquarters, Marine Corps.

Governor McMath, a lieutenant colonel in the Marine Corps Reserve, was cited for meritorious conduct as Operations Officer, Third Marines, Third Marine Di- vision, prior to and during opera- tions against enemy Japanese forces on Bougainville, Solomon Islands, September 15 to December 17, 1943.

Previously, Governor McMath had received the Silver Star Medal for gallantry in action at Bougainville and the Navy Unit Commenda- tion, awarded to the Third Marines and Twelfth Marines for that cam- paign.

His military career began in 1936 with appointment as a second lieuten- ant. Following World War II and on January, 1946, he was re- lieved from active duty.

New Book Features Former Commandant

NEW YORK, N. Y.—General A. A. Vandegrift, USMC (Retired), is featured in the new book, "Eleven Generals" by Fletcher Pratt, it was announced by the New York Marine Corps Public Information Of- fice.

A 32-page chapter gives a com- plete account of the General's ser- vice career from his early days as an officer candidate at the Univer- sity of Virginia in 1900 to his many and varied assignments in Cuba, Haiti, China, Nicaragua, the Pa- cific, and throughout the United States. Highlight of the chapter is a complete report of the First Ma- rine Division's battle for Guadalca- nal under the command of General Vandegrift.

Fletcher Pratt, considered to be one of the best military historians today, is well known for his many military books which include "The Marines' War," "Navy's War," "Em- pire And The Sea," and many oth- ers.

Onslow Beach Mess Hall Wins Pennant

The Onslow Beach Mess Hall won the mess efficiency pennant for the first time last week. Colonel W. J. Whaling, Chief of Staff, M. B., presented the pennant to MSgt. James L. ## Marines Demonstrate Air Ground Tactics To Members Of Congress

The Marines demonstrated some of their combat tactics and tech- niques, featuring tactical air support of amphibious operations, at Ma- rine Corps Schools, Quantico, Virginia, last week before members of the 81st Congress and some of the top generals in the Marine Corps.

The all-day show was highlighted in the afternoon by a demonstra- tion of a lightning raid into "ene- my" territory by combat Marines flying in helicopters from a simul- ated carrier far out at sea.

Several Piasecki HRP-1 transport helicopters swooped into the tar- get area, landed a reinforced pla- toon of troops, and were gone quickly while Marine Phantom jets and Corsair fighter planes laid covering smoke screens and ham- mered "enemy" positions with strafing, rocket, and bombing at- tacks.

Other helicopters slipped in at tree top level behind the smoke screen and delivered light artillery with its crew to support the troops on the ground, or laid tele- phone lines, landed supplies, di- rected artillery fire, and evacuated "wounded" from the field of action.

Live bombs, rockets, and artillery fire added realism to the show which was staged to be clearly vis- ible from specially placed grand- stands in the Quantico maneuver area.

This action was followed by an- other demonstration of an attack by an infantry company on a heav- ily fortified position of concrete pill boxes and gun emplacements. In this closely-timed maneuver, combat units from four-man fire teams to platoons and companies demonstrated tactics in the employ- ment of rifles, bazooka rocket launchers, flame throwers, gre- nades, and demolitions in destroy- ing one strong point after another.

Members of the Senate and the House of Representatives attended the demonstration. Members of Congress who served in the Marine Corps, General Clifton B. Cates, Commandant of the Marine Corps, Major General Lemuel C. Shep- herd, Jr., Commandant, Marine Corps Schools, and other top rank- ing Marine leaders were present as hosts.

Bridge Tender Catches 72 Blues With Chicken Bones Left From Lunch

Morehead City, N. C.—Best fish- ing story of the week here in More- head City was the one about the bridge tender who saw a school of bluefish passing by and how he caught 72 of them with leftovers from a chicken dinner he had just eaten.

Sam Willis was the bridgetender and his job is to open the draw on the span which connects Morehead City and Atlantic Beach when sig- nalled to do so by the skippers of boats passing through the Intra- Coastal Waterway.

He sighted the fish just as he quit knowing the flesh from a chicken bone. It was a tremendous school and the water was so clear he could easily recognize them as blues. What to do in order to catch some of the fish was a problem for only a moment. Bridge Tender Wil- lis had a rod and reel but no lures for blues. So what did he do?

He adjusted one of the chicken bones left over from lunch, on the shank of a hook and cast it over- board. The tide was running strong so the effect of trolling was created as the chicken bone swished along with the tide. The effect of a small bait fish was also presented and that is what attracted first one and then many more bluefish to the lure until the final score for Bridge Tender Willis was 72 fish and they weighed up to one and a half pounds each.

The blues from which Sam Willis made such an excellent catch were in the first school to show up in the Morehead City area this year. Since then, however, school after school of the blues have been sight- ed, especially near the Inlet, off Shackleford Banks and in Cape Lookout Bight. Every party of an- glers going trolling since Bridge Tender Willis opened the season with an unusual catch have brought in the blues—and they have been averaging a good size.

Lejeune Nine Defeats Cherry Point In First League Tilts

By PFC. DAVE SHARPE

The Camp Lejeune Marines made it four wins in a row over the past weekend, as they smothered the Cherry Point Flyers twice, 8-2, and 14-11. The two games were as different as night and day, with Blood Burns hurling a moundsman's masterpiece to take the opener, and the whole Lejeune squad outsmashing the Flyer nine at the plate to win game number two.

Outstanding for the local Leatherneys in the two game series were a number of athletes, but especially brilliant were Blood Burns, who pitched his second straight win in equally great form, striking out sixteen batters and giving up only two hits; Jim Cawley, who rocketed his batting average from .251 to .333 in the two game series, and Len Spencer, shortstop for the Marines, whose all-around play at short and wailing willow at the plate earned him the number one position in the team batting department.

Lejeune got off to an early 1-0 lead in the opener when Bishop walked in the first inning, and scored on Gallagher's single. The locals scored two more in the third on Bishop's single, a fielder's choice, and coach DeJohn's towering fly ball to right-center. Lejeune made it 5-0 with two runs in the sixth, with Cawley's triple to right spearheading the drive, and got two more in the seventh on a double, an error, a base on balls, and Spencer's base knock, and added another in the 8th.

Burns got Romanak, the first Cherry Point batter in the ninth, on a ground-out, Bishop to Cawley, and retired the next on a called third strike. The next two batters worked him for walks, however, and Schmagel, who had nothing to show for his three trips to the batter's box until then, blooped a Texas Leaguer over Spencer's head into short left center field, letting in two runs, and setting the score at 8-2. Blood fanned the next man on four pitches, and that was the ball game.

The second contest was a wild affair all the way, with the Flyers starting off with three big runs in their first time at bat. Lejeune

Tennis Trouble

The Tennis Tournaments have had various difficulties the last four weeks of tournament play.

The spring rains caused play to be temporarily discontinued, personnel on leave also hindered the play.

It is expected that the doubles and singles tennis tournaments will be well underway in the near future.

Complete results of the matches will be published in the GLOBE upon termination of the play.

SEA)—Before the morning paper, telegraph, or telephone, don't coffee houses offered a place for obtaining and exchanging news on social, business and political affairs.

Swimming Team Continues Pre-Water Conditioning Exercises

By LT. DONN DRAEGER

Swimming is one of the most exacting if not the most exciting of sports. Not only must a competitor train himself in fundamentals, endurance, form, as in other sports, but he must train himself to coordinate his breathing with his expending of energy. Unlike most sports, his entire efforts are dissipated in a different element than normally—namely water.

Actual swimming training covers a period of 5 months. A rigid training schedule is maintained, and only with strict observance can efficient swimmers be developed.

For the Lejeune swimmers, a pre-water conditioning exercise period of 6 weeks is now in session. Exercises and light weights are used to develop and strengthen muscles necessary in efficient speed swimming. Flexibility is of prime importance, so tendons, joints, and muscles receive series of stretching exercises designed to make long elastic tendons, muscles, and joints flexible.

From these exercises, the swimmer will develop good body position in water, enabling him to kick and arm stroke more effectively. Legs and arms are strengthened to a high degree, giving power to the coming stroke in the water.

Once in the water, fundamentals are stressed, coordination drills, swimming for form, and endurance swimming begins. Gradually the swimmers build up to a total distance of four to six miles swimming per day. During this period, racing starts, turns and pushoffs are practiced constantly.

In the latter stages of the training, the swimmer is taught pace and final polish is put on all fundamentals. The final product is an efficient speed swimmer who is ready for competition.

The Camp Lejeune Swimming team will continue these pre-water conditioning exercises and will wind up their current training with time trials in the local gym in Area 2. Interested personnel may still report to the Area 2 or 5 gym after working hours and compete for remaining berths on the squad.

All-Navy Tennis Matches To Be Played 17 July

(SEA) — Winners of Navy-wide group elimination tennis matches will take to the U. S. Naval Academy courts the week of 17 July in competition for the 1949 All-Navy championships.

All officer and enlisted personnel on active duty in the Navy, Marine Corps and Coast Guard may compete in the fleet, shore and air activity preliminaries pointing to the finals at Annapolis.

The Commandant, Severn River Naval Command, again will act as host for the All-Navy tourney.

All netmen sent to participate in the final playoffs will be eligible for selection on the team to represent the Navy in the Leech Trophy Tennis Matches to be played at the Army-Navy Country Club, Arlington, Va., 29-30 July. The Navy, by virtue of last year's 6 to 1 victory over the Army, will be defending the Leech cup in the 1949 competition.

BuPers Circ. Ltr. 52-49 (NDB, 21 March 1949) contains complete details concerning the All-Navy tournament.

Joe Hubany Hits The Deck Too Late

Joe Hubany, ace Lejeune catcher slides into third base in the game played last week against Servant but is too late to stop the Servant third sacker from tagging him out. The Lejeune nine went on to defeat the sailors 11-5. In last Saturday's game against Cherry Point, Hubany hit a homer with two men on base. (Photo by Pfc. Cole, Division Photo Lab.)

Camp Lejeune Swimming Team is preparing for their swim-but by training intensely on pre-water conditioning exercises. I continue the exercises for three weeks under the guidance of 1st Lt. D. Draeger. The team works out nightly in the Area 2

The Paradise Point Golf Course will hold another bi-monthly golf tournament the 21st and 22nd of this month.

The Throw-Out Tourney will get underway at 1300 this coming Saturday, with all interested personnel participating. Visitors are invited to witness the play.

The play will be conducted as follows: Medal Play, using foul handicap. The player may throw out his three worst holes.

grabbed one in the second and two in the third to tie it up, then left the visitors in the dust with an eight run onslaught in the fourth inning. Tom Hubany, leading off for Lejeune worked Fitzgibbons, Flyer moundsman, for a walk to start off all the trouble. Washington slapped a ground ball to the mound, and Fitzgibbons waited too long with his throw, putting two men on with nobody out. Bishop slapped a single to load the bases, and St. Amant came in to pitch for Cherry Point. Cheval worked the Flyers' Frenchman for a walk, forcing in Hubany. Gallagher walked, forcing another run across the plate, and Spencer's ground ball to second went right on by Adams, letting in another Lejeune run. De John's clothesline single brought in another tally, and a passed ball made it 8-3. Frezza was set down without a hit, and so was Jim Cawley, but Tom Hubany, who had started all the fireworks, finished it off with a home run blast to deep left field.

Cherry Point came back with four in the fifth and four in the sixth to tie it up, but Lejeune wrapped it up in the seventh when Len Spencer clouted a base hit to center field with the bases loaded to give the Lejeune Marines three runs and the ball game.

Uncle Sam Says

In February we observe the birthdays of two very famous Americans, George Washington and Abraham Lincoln. Practical men, they understood the value of thrift, the necessity for a well-ordered method of saving. They had no ready-made plan such as is now offered by the U. S. Savings Bonds program. They had no automatic Payroll Savings Plan or Bond-a-Month Plan which today provides a golden opportunity to save money before you spend it. And it's very simple. You specify the sum to be allotted each payday, where you work. That is the Payroll Savings Plan. If self-employed, use the Bond-a-Month Plan at your bank. And in 10 years, you reap the reward—$4 for every $3 you invest.

Would Allow Shift Of Officers Within The Three Services

WASHINGTON (AFPS)—A shift of officers from one Armed Service to another as a means of promoting inter-service unity would be possible under a plan recently submitted to Congress by the National Military Establishment.

Any such transfers would have to be made with the consent of the officer concerned and with the approval of his original service and the branch to which he would be assigned.

President Would Appoint

The bill, which already has been introduced in the Senate (S. 1740), also provides that the transferred officer would be appointed by the President, without Senate confirmation to such temporary and permanent grade and such promotion list position as the President might determine.

Administrative action also would be taken to prevent the Services from exercising discrimination against any officer in the matter of promotion, assignment, elimination or retirement when the officer either refused to accept a transfer to another Service or submitted an application for transfer which was rejected.

Air Secretary Symington, who is handling the bill before Congress, said that, "it is believed that the system envisioned in the proposed legislation would increase the efficiency of the National Military Establishment by providing for an exchange of professional concepts and experience."

Beach Notice

Onslow Beach and recreation facilities at the beach will be closed on Saturday, Sunday, and Monday, the 21st, 22nd, and 23rd of May, 1949, during the period of scheduled landing exercises conducted by the Marine Corps Schools.

Marine Corps League Notes

At a special meeting held on the 16th of May it was decided to move the New River Detachment to new quarters on Route No. 24 on the main base side of Jacksonville, just outside the city limits.

This is not to effect the clubhouse now located in Holly Ridge. But, it will be run by a committee instead.

It is hoped that all Marine Corps League members will become active and will aid in the establishment of the new club. Due to transfer orders, our club will soon be short one of the best Commandants the League has ever had.

Commandant C. A. Fisher will soon be West Coast bound.

JOB OPPORTUNITIES

Announcement No. 170 for Architect, $3727.00 to $6,235.00 a year is now on file in the Industrial Relations Office. It is unassembled and applications must be received in the U. S. Civil Service Commission, Washington 25, D. C., not later than June 7, 1949. Probational appointments will be made to fill vacancies in departmental and field positions in Washington, D. C., Alexandria, Va., Arlington County, Va., and Montgomery and Prince George Counties, Md.

NEW IDEAS

New ideas are important to the Navy and Marine Corps. All employees can help minimize costs and improve quality and quantity of service at Camp Lejeune by submitting constructive ideas as beneficial suggestions.

The Navy and Marine Corps do not ask you to make constructive suggestions for nothing. We know that sound ideas for improvement of work methods and tools, and reduction of costs, waste and accident hazards, require thought and work. Therefore, cash awards up to $275 are made for adopted ideas, and additional awards from use of a beneficial suggestion in other naval activities.

If you have any idea which will result in improvement or economy in the operations of this camp through monetary savings, increased efficiency, conservation of property, improved working conditions, better service to the public, etc., send in that idea to the Beneficial Suggestion Committee at the Industrial Relations Office.

Marine "Surgeon" Has Full Time Duty Being Doctor To Ailing Hawaiian Trees

"Doc" Barrington is probably the only person in the entire Marine Corps who never gets any complaints from his patients. The "doctor" is Private First Class Richard L. Barrington, USMC, whose full time is devoted to caring for neglected trees in the Camp Catlin and Pearl Harbor, T. H. areas.

So far as Barrington knows, he's the only full time tree surgeon in the Marine Corps and one of the few in the armed services. He comes by his unique occupation naturally. He learned secrets of tree surgery from an older brother, William D. Barrington Jr., a tree surgeon of Long Island, N. Y., and also a former marine.

Little enthusiasm greeted young Barrington's request to care for the much neglected trees in the vicinity of the Marine Barracks when he arrived in Hawaii in February 1948. His persistence won out, however. Private Barrington was given the nod of approval and assigned to duty as a tree surgeon.

Repairing and protecting the health of trees is satisfying to Private Barrington. Barrington spends much of his time spraying the monkey-pod, balboa, spruce and ironwood trees as well as the many date palms dotting the Pearl Harbor Navy Yard. His fight to rid the trees of insects and bugs which destroy foliage and bark is continuing as he sprays, fills cavities caused by decay, removes dead branches and prunes the trees for longer life and added beauty.

USO 'Ready To Go' With 170 Centers Planned For U. S.

New York (AFPS) — "The U.S.O. is ready to go," Harvey S. Firestone Jr., new president of the reactivated United Service Organization, has notified President Truman.

In a telegram to the President, Mr. Firestone said: "In response to your request may I respectfully report as president of the United Service Organization, Inc., that the directors, officers and membership of the U.S.O., in cooperation with the established national agencies, now stand ready to assume the leadership on behalf of the American people in helping to serve the religious, spiritual, welfare and educational needs of the men and women of the Armed Forces."

The organization plans the establishment of 170 U.S.O. clubs, lounges and service centers in this country, the organization of Hospital Camp Shows for more than 100,000 patients in service and Veterans' hospitals and other operations in Alaska, Puerto Rico, the Canal Zone, Hawaii, Guam, China, Germany, Italy and the eastern and western Mediterranean area.

'Truculent Turtle' In Historic Flight

By Armed Forces Press Service

Flying non-stop from New York to Lisbon, Portugal, in 16 1-2 hours, the Navy's record-breaking patrol bomber, the "Truculent Turtle," bettered by more than 18 days the first trans-Atlantic flight, made 30 years ago, over a similar route. The flight of the "Turtle" was to commemorate the 1919 feat, made in a Navy NC-4 which was hailed as a marvel of men and flying machines.

Aboard the "Truculent Turtle" were two Navy "old-timers" who made the 1919 flight in the NC-4. They were Rear Adm. A. C. Read (retired) and Chief Aviation Pilot Eugene S. Rhoads. This time, they said, they "went along for the ride." Thirty years ago, they were Commander and mechanic of the NC-4 which was the only one of three starting planes to complete the flight.

Miss North Carolina To Be Selected From Pageant At Dog Track

MOREHEAD CITY, N. C.—Miss

North Carolina of 1949 will be selected from a pageant to be held here at Carolina Racing Association's greyhound race track on Saturday night, July 9. The race track site was selected for this part of the three day program because it is the best place in this coastal section with facilities for the thousands of spectators expected to be present for the combined beauty and talent show.

The Miss North Carolina pageant is sponsored by the State Association of Junior Chambers of Commerce and the local Jaycees will be the hosts at the event this year. Several clubs throughout the state have already notified Walter Morris, local chairman of the event, that they would have sponsors present for the pageant.

The newly landscaped dog track, completely landscaped with evergreens on the properties and flower beds in the center of the oval, will make a most unusual setting for the pageant. The pageant will be held early in the evening in order that the scheduled races for that night take place. This will probably be known as "Miss North Carolina Derby Night." The race track, under present plans will open for the season about June 1st.

Camp Lejeune's First 1949 Fishing Excursion A Huge Success

By W.O. KOHL

Last Saturday, Camp Lejeune's fishing fleet officially to open the 1949 season. One of the Division's two avy-type picket sail from Courthouse Bay with eight eager sportsmen aboard, patting a real catch. Capt. E. E. Gebhard, Camp Adjutant was of the party.

The Division boats were well equipped with special services' boat rods, reels and lures. All the party was required to bring along was their lunch and bait.

After trolling off Onslow Beach for an hour or so, the party hooked onto several good size 'Blues.' King mackerel were not in evidence during the day.

Bottom fishing was terrific. Sea Bass kept striking in good size lots, in fact Pvt. Cortes caught the largest fish of the day along with its mate, who weighed about a pound and a half. They were two choice sea bass, one weighing over the two and a half pound mark.

The total catch for the day was over 350 varieties. Blues, Sheepshead, Brim, Sea Bass, pin fish, and hog fish.

The Second Marine Division Special Services section has two of these fine picket boats which are scheduled every weekend ing trips. Every unit of sion and Camp have trips during the next few months fishermen in Camp should vantage of this new recreational which was inaugurated approved by the Command eral.
