Johnny Mack Plays Action On Armed Forces Pay Raise Off Until 1 May

ford Point Marines and friends will have a chance to see and hear Johnny Mack and his saxophone and band tonight from 2000 to 2100. At the same time, the 2nd Division Band will play out with their melodious tunes at Marston Pavilion.

Johnny's success can be attributed to his fine personality, appearance and his ability to listen and understand. He has a host of friends throughout the country, by his pleasantness, both on and off.

It is the fact that the general public is still divided in their preference for swing and sweet music, that Johnny prides himself on playing a varied program to suit the choice of his audience. Johnny prides himself on the fact that he has never faced a listener who didn't have something to say about the music.

USE, N. Y. — (APPS) — The end of the season for the 46-year cycle of Syracuse University crew coaching ended with the death of Coach Ned E. Eick. Ned succeeded the Grand Old Man of Syracuse, Tim Ten Eyck in 1938. The coach had been Syracuse's crew coach since 1903.

With the exception of action on revised sections pertaining to disability retirements the House Armed Services subcommittee has practically completed action on the Kilday Pay Bill for the revision of Service compensation. In view of the Easter recess, however, it is unlikely that the measure will be reported to the House of Representatives prior to 1 May, stated this week's Army-Navy Journal.

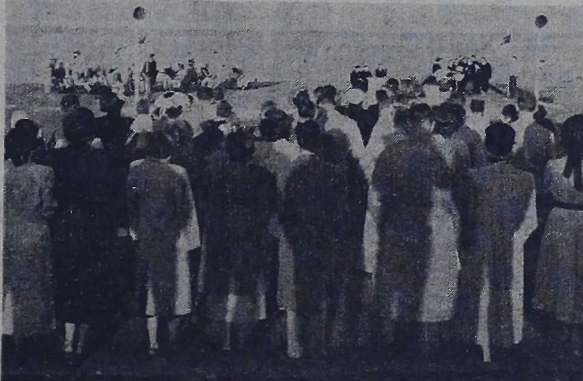

If this legislation passes the House it will probably reach the Senate about 15 May and even with expedited committee action it is unlikely that it will be considered by the Senate prior to 1 June. As Congress plans to adjourn by 30 June this bill is in danger of being caught in the last-minute legislative log jam characteristic of the closing weeks of a Congressional session. However, representatives of the Armed Forces and members of Congress are hopeful that action will be completed prior to adjournment.

The bill as it will be reported by the House Armed Services Committee will be much simpler than as introduced. It will be shorn of provisions relating to voluntary and involuntary retirement, and death and survivor benefits. The text will be limited to pay, allowances, special compensation for hazardous, arduous and sea and foreign service duty, and disability compensation and severance pay. The elimination of the sections relating to voluntary and involuntary retirement has the effect of continuing the PAY RAISE On Page 7

Thousands Attend Chapels As Lejeune Observes Easter

Welcome Happy Morning

Despite the early morning cold and wind this hardy group of worshippers (pictured below) turned out for the sunrise service Easter Sunday. Held in a naturally beautiful setting behind Building No. 2, and conducted by Chaplain Harold A. MacNeill, the inspiring program was a fitting prelude to Christianity's greatest day. The Midway Park Choir (upper right) and the 2nd Division Band (upper left) further enhanced the service with their fine singing and playing. (Photo by SSgt Powers).

Lejeune To Turn Clocks Ahead Next Sunday

Daylight Saving Time will go into effect throughout Camp Lejeune at 0200 April 24. Remember, that's next Sunday, so you had better turn those watches ahead an hour before turning in Saturday night. See CLOCKS On Page 3

Gala Easter Fashions Displayed By Ladies

Although Easter Sunday dawned crisp and cool, the temperature rose with the sun giving Camp Lejeune a sunny, comfortable day. Taking advantage of the ideal day, thousands of men, women and children made their way by foot, car and bus to attend the church of their choice.

Prominent among the worshippers were milady's latest creations of Easter fashions. There were gay bonnets decorated with flowers and feathers, and colorful dresses that added sparkle and brilliance.

Many marines switched to civilian clothes for the festive occasion, and there were quite a few snappy looking outfits on display. However, the clean, starched marine khaki rated highest.

Hundreds of relatives, or both marine and civilian personnel, came from cities and towns throughout the state and nation to spend the sacred day with their loved ones. All had something to add to the glowing day.

For most, the afternoon was spent quietly, some happy to be near those they hold dear and others, less fortunate, in thoughts of their homes and families.

The many varied forms of entertainment around the camp were taken full advantage of, from the Camp Theatre to the Paradise Point Golf Course. It was indeed a Happy Easter.

Going To Church

The young and the old, the fashionably dressed ladies and the khaki and civilian clothed marines, all formed a constant stream to and from the various services around Camp on Easter Morn. On their way to pay homage to their risen Savior are: (Below, left to right), Marcia Flake, daughter of Major and Mrs. Wm. L. Flake, one of the youngest; Mrs. Susan A. Hudson, mother of MSgt. B. E. Hudson, one of the oldest; and Miss Sarah Hudson of Midway Park, one of the more fashionable. The picture on the extreme right was taken in the Camp Chapel during the 1030 a. m. service. Notice

Course number two of the Paradise Point Golf Course will officially open next Saturday with a Swatfest Tournament. All golfers and interested spectators are cordially invited to attend.

Motor Vehicle Accidents

During the calendar year of 1948, the cost of damages to Camp Lejeune equipment and property as a result of motor vehicle accidents amounted to $2,071.66. The estimated cost of damages to private equipment and property, as a result of these same accidents, amounted to $2,031.22 for the same period.

Motor vehicles driven by Camp personnel, not including the Fleet Marine Force and naval activities stationed at Camp, traveled 2,079,519 miles during 1948. This distance is equivalent to driving 83 times around the earth at the equator. In accumulating this mileage, our vehicles were involved in 40 accidents, resulting in personal injury and/or property damage. The number of miles driven per accident during 1948 was 51,912, as compared with 43,163 miles per accident in 1947.

The majority of our accidents were caused by unaware driving practices on the part of chauffeurs. Unsafe backing was the most predominate cause. This type of accident can be eliminated if chauffeurs exercise caution when backing up and, when practicable, have another person guide them during the operation.

Mechanical defects accounted for only two of our accidents. This achievement is the direct result of the excellent preventative maintenance program conducted at this camp. Driver personnel can aid in this program by promptly reporting any mechanical deficiencies noted in the operation of their vehicles to their immediate supervisor.

It is imperative that in view of the cost of motor vehicle accidents, both in this Camp and throughout the Navy Department, that every effort be expended by all chauffeurs, both military and civilian, to reduce to an absolute minimum the needless expenditure of funds for repairs to equipment and property as a result of avoidable motor vehicle accidents.

Chauffeurs must be constantly aware of their responsibilities to: (1) their employer, by driving in a manner that will prevent any criticism of the United States Marine Corps; (2) their community, by driving in a manner that will adequately safeguard the lives of our families against injury or death from motor vehicles; (3) themselves, by driving in a manner that will publicly indicate their skill and ability as a motor vehicle operator. When these responsibilities have been fully accepted by all driver personnel, without any mental reservations, accidents due to unsafe driving practices will be eliminated.

God's Confidence In You

We have always been taught that God is to be trusted and that we should go to Him for help in time of difficulty and need. Yet how many of us ever realize that there is another side to our relationship to God?

Now that you are thinking about it you can easily see that God needs men to work out his plans in the world. He has given us a world, an orderly world, with countless natural resources. We have had to discover and develop them. Primitive civilizations knew only a few of these gifts but as man has used his mind, he has made use of thousands of facts and materials to better his life. God had confidence in man's power to do this. You have been given these same gifts.

Knowing that you would need a healthy body to carry out any type of work, God gave you a wonderful "machine". If you stop to consider how your body acts and reacts you will stand in awe at its unreplaceable value. God has confidence in you and expects you to make the right use of it by caring for it and intelligently developing it.

The greatest proof of God's confidence in you is that He has given you the capacity of fellowship with Him. This is in every man. God does not force upon you the use of it. Yet, when you are at your best, you seek to know God's will and to live your life in accordance with it. God has confidence in you when he gave it to you.

You are free men; free to use these gifts. Feeling the challenge, you will prove by your life that God's confidence in you was not misplaced.

Lejeune High Nine Defeats Southport

Camp Lejeune High had a field day on April 16th, as they trounced a hapless Southport nine 11-3 on the Midway Park diamond.

Lejeune pitcher Joe Barringer sent the first three batters down swinging and started his team rolling by knocking a long triple to score Barker and Sutherland. Southport opened up in the second inning with three hits but failed to score until the third frame when they gathered two runs on a double by MacDonald and a single by Brendell.

In the fourth inning, after base blows by Barker and Sutherland and a double by Barringer, Richard Trucci poled a long four-bagger and the score was 11-2. The Lejeune nine scored another run on a walk and an error.

night. (Those lucky 12-4's). Camp Lejeune's sporting element in particular will appreciate the extra hour of daylight the new time schedule will give. The golfers will be able to get in that extra nine holes and the tennis players another set. It will afford the baseball team the precious time needed to complete their home games before darkness forces a halt. Those with gardens will be able to spend more time in them, and that part of the lawn that couldn't be cut each week before can now be trimmed again.

As the paper goes to press, information has been received that Jacksonville and other parts of North Carolina will remain on Eastern Standard time, so if you are planning a trip by bus or train, you'd better check on the times.

WJNC will broadcast the news and sports roundup from 0700-0710.

22nd Marines, Reinforced, Awarded Navy Commendation For Eniwetok

It was recently announced by the Navy Department that the 22nd Marines, reinforced, have been awarded the Navy Commendation Ribbon for outstanding heroism in action during the assault and capture of Eniwetok Atoll.

Personnel who served with the regiment and reinforcing units February 17 to 22, 1944, may now wear the Navy Unit Commendation Ribbon.

Major General John T. Walker, Commanding General of Troop Training Unit, Amphibious Training Command, Pacific Fleet, Coronado (San Diego), California, commanded the regiment at Eniwetok, and received the Navy Cross for gallantry here.

The Twenty-Second Marines was originally activated in June, 1942. Following the Eniwetok Campaign, the regiment participated in the recapture of Guam as part of the First Provisional Marine Brigade. The Brigade subsequently was awarded a Navy Unit Commendation for that action.

As a unit of the Sixth Marine Division, the regiment went into action at Okinawa and was included in the Presidential Unit Citation, awarded to the Sixth Division for that battle.

The Twenty-second Marines also participated with units of the Sixth Marine Division in the Occupation of North China, before being disbanded in March, 1946.

Reactivated at Marine Corps Schools, Quantico, Virginia, in September, 1947, as a battalion landing team, it is now commanded by Colonel Joseph C. Burger, USMC.

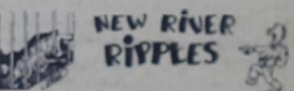

At the time of the Eniwetok Campaign, the reinforced regiment consisted of these units:

Twenty-second Marines; Second Pack Howitzer Company; Second Separate Medical Company; Second Separate Motor Transport Company; Fifth Amphibious Corps Reconnaissance Company; Company D, Fourth Tank Battalion, Fourth Marine Division; 104th Field Artillery Battalion, U. S. Army; Company C, 766th Tank Battalion, U. S. Army; Company A, 768th Amphibian Tank Battalion, U. S. Army; Company D, 768th Provisional Amphibian Tractor Battalion, U. S. Army; and the Provisional DUKW Battery, Seventh Infantry Division, U. S. Army.

The commendation from the Secretary of the Navy was for service as follows:

"For outstanding heroism in action against enemy Japanese forces during the assault and capture of Eniwetok Atoll, Marshall Islands, from February 17 to 22, 1944. As a unit of a Task Force, assembled only two days prior to departure for Eniwetok Atoll, the Twenty-second Marines, Reinforced, landed in whole or in part on Engebi, Eniwetok and Parry Islands in rapid succession and launched aggressive attacks in the face of heavy machine-gun and mortar fire from well camouflaged enemy dugouts and foxholes. With simultaneous landings and reconnaissance missions on numerous other small islands, they overcame all resistance within six days, destroying a known 2,665 of the Japanese and capturing 66 prisoners. By their courage and determination, despite the difficulties and hardships involved in repeated reembarkations and landings from day to day, these gallant officers and men made available to our forces in the Pacific Area an advanced base with large anchorage facilities and an established airfield, thereby contributing materially to the successful conduct of the war. Their sustained endurance, fortitude and fighting spirit throughout this operation reflect the highest credit on the Twenty-second Marines, Reinforced, and on the United States Naval Service."

Editor: Did you write this poem yourself?"

Contributor: "Yes, every line of it."

Editor: "Then I'm glad to meet you, Edgar Allen Poe. I thought you were dead long ago."

"If Shakespeare were here today, he would be looked on as a remarkable man."

"Yes. He'd be more than 350 years old."

Father: "And what did you learn at school today?"

Little Joe: "I learned to say 'yes, sir' and 'No, sir' and 'Yes, Ma'am' and 'No, ma'am'."

Father (greatly pleased): "You did?"

Joey: "Yep!"

Losing better: "How in the world did your horse happen to win the race?"

Jockey: "Well, I just kept repeating into his ear, 'Roses are red, violets are blue—horses that lose are made into glue.'"

"You know, I've been having trouble sleeping lately?"

"How is that?"

"I don't know. I sleep pretty good at night, and in the early morning too, but in the afternoons I just twist and turn."

Tiny Tim: "Little zebras."

Swiftest Tourney Will Open Golf Course No. 2

By MSGT. ADAMS

Officially Course No. 2 opens on Friday, 22 April, but to celebrate this event the Tournament Committee has scheduled a novelty event in the line of tournaments to open the course in good fun and cheer on the 23rd of April.

The name of this tourney will be SWATFEST TOURNAMENT with all kinds of noise makers allowed as well as yelling, screaming, hooting and hollering.

This Swatfest Tournament means that all golfers will tee off together and play together as much as possible.

At the end of each hole, high scorers on that hole will be eliminated from the tournament. Such as: On number 1 hole, there are six 8's and one 9, then those seven golfers are retired.

Everyone who has an established handicap is invited to attend. Golfers must be on number 1-tee of Course 2 at 1315 on Saturday, 23 April.

Handicap strokes are taken as they appear on the scorecard and are deducted on each hole. 3-4 Handicaps are allowed with no one getting more than one handicap stroke per hole.

A couple of tips: Write your name on your golf ball somehow, as failure to identify your ball means a lost ball and a penalty occurs. Do not interfere with any golfers' swing or line of flight.

Tournament directors will be present as we play so please follow their instructions as rapidly as possible.

Naturally the winner of this tournament will be the lone survivor with five prizes being awarded to the last five golfers still playing.

Camp Lejeune Boxing Team Defeats PI 7-1; 6th Naval District Tourney Next

The Camp Lejeune boxing team motored to Parris Island last week and completely outclassed the Island's ringmen, winning seven out of eight bouts in a primer for the forthcoming Sixth Naval District Championships, to be held in Charleston, this coming weekend.

In the majority of the bouts, the Lejeunemen displayed much more ring savvy than their opponents, and were obviously the better conditioned team. Most of the Parris Island fighters were dazed and showed signs of arm-weariness in the final rounds, while the locals were still going strong.

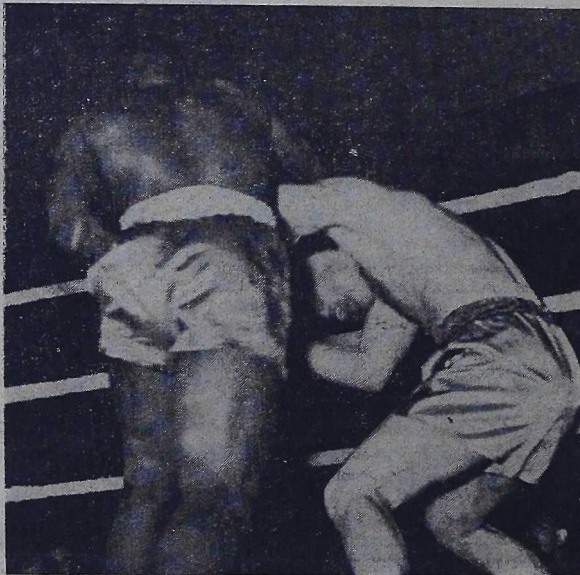

Lejeune's supremacy in general tactics of fighting was also particularly noticeable. Most of their opponents fought in spurts, making wild rushes and throwing hay-makers at the wind, whereas the Lejeune fighters adhered to a deliberate style, much nearer professional methods.

Featherweights Pete Schiro of Camp Lejeune and Otto Aliffi provided the outstanding bout of the card, fighting a knock-down-drag-out three rounds from beginning to end. Hard-fighting Aliffi proved an opponent to be respected, but couldn't cope with Schiro's consistent body punches. A short left to the stomach sent Aliffi to the canvas as the bell ended the second round, and the same left to the mid-section set the Parris Island boy on his ear for a nine count in the third round. Schiro received a unanimous decision. Previous to his loss to Schiro, Aliffi had been beaten only once since joining the Marines, that at the hands of Joe Pinelli, another local fighter.

Lejeune's Chalky Fears had little trouble outpointing Larry Alkofer in the bantamweight division. Alkofer became well acquainted with southpaw Fears' stinging right jab, while hardly landing a blow in the first round. The second and third rounds were more active with Fears em-playing a two-fisted attack which evoked a little more resistance from Alkofer, but it was Fears' fight all the way.

Lightweights Lee Damon of Camp Lejeune and Reggie Harrison provided one of the best-contested bouts of the evening, Damon fighting a steady, calculating style against the speedy Harrison's jumping-jack tactics. Harrison had a slight edge in the opening round, with Damon mastering the second round, and dazing his opponent in the final round with a flurry of hooks and uppercuts. Damon came out on the long end of a split decision.

Football Spring Drill

Camp Lejeune's gridsters held their first official full equipment scrimmage last Thursday on the Camp Football Field. Major Missar, Head Football Coach of the Lejeune eleven put the men through plays on the offense and worked up a lot of sweat for the football team contenders on the defense. (Photo by Sgt. H. D. 2d Combat Service Cops Championship

The Second Combat Service Group has been proving a worthy opponent on any field of sport this year. They have formed an organized team to the peak of proficiency.

Their bowling teams have won each of their leagues this year. Members of the championship team and the second place squad received trophies from their team captains.

All members of the Ladies Bowling League received silver bowling label pins for their effort and skill on the hardwood.

Mrs. R. W. Schutt was presented a trophy for high average throughout the season. High thirty honors went to Mrs. P. H. Mikkelsen, who piled up an impressive 510. Honors for the highest single game went to Mrs. G. A. Sharit, who rolled a high game of 211.

Mrs. W. R. Harrington, President of the League, made the presentation.

The championship match was played in the Commissioned Officers Mess.

Navy Relief Offers Many Services

The Chaplain's phone rings. A company commander says that he wants to send a man to see the chaplain. In a little while the man goes into the chaplain's office with a telegram in his hand. The contents of the message states that the man's wife in Oklahoma City had to be rushed to the hospital. He needs money to go home. He also needs assistance with the hospital bill. When he is granted an emergency leave, Camp Lejeune Auxiliary will make a loan for transportation, and help him with his hospital bill.

As to procedure, chaplains do the preliminary paper work. They interview the applicant and discuss the case with the Executive Secretary via phone. After this telephone introduction, the man goes to the Navy Relief Society Office and gets his loan.

Assistance is given on the basis of NEED in the form of a loan, a combination of loan and grant, or an outright grant.

Navy Relief is not a small loan corporation to make loans to pay personal debts, purchase non-essentials such as automobiles, radios, etc. or for business purposes. The Society assumes that every Marine wants to be self-supporting and financially independent. It stands ready to help when a person has a real emergency such as described above or when a Family Allowance check has not been received. It gives assistance to widows and children of deceased naval personnel pending receipt of government benefits.

The society is a semi-official organization of the Navy, incorporated in Washington, D. C. with a private charter. Its National Board of Managers consists of high ranking Naval and Marine Officers, and outstanding civilians of national reputation.

The society is an organization of which every Marine and Navy man can be justly proud. There is never an excuse for a Marine or Sailor to be "behind the eightball" financially because of circumstances over which he has no control.

Game Fish Running In Coastal Waters Near Morehead City

MOREHEAD CITY, N. C.—The game fish run has started in waters adjacent to and near Morehead City. For several weeks local and visiting anglers have been making good catches of bottom species including trout, sea mullet, flounder and sheeps head. Last week the first channel bass to be taken from the surf at Drum Inlet here on the Carteret coast were reported. At the same time the first catch of channel bass to be made in the surf at Ocracoke Island was reported.

Skippers of Gulf Stream sports-fishing boats have made a few exploratory trips to the Gulf Stream on recent week-ends but to date no species have been taken from blue water. Some of the offshore fishermen have had fair luck landing sea bass with rod and reel while fishing over the coral reefs off Cape Lookout and near the western edge of the Gulf Stream.

Unsettled weather conditions recently have been blamed for the delay in making game fish catches far off shore. As the weather abates and the sea becomes smooth the first blue water species of the season are expected to be landed. Capt. Ottis Purifoy owner of several Gulf Stream fishing boats here stated this week that it was time for the first albacore to be taken with rod and reel.

Monument Erected Honor Of 1st Marine Aviation Force

Standing on a mound in the way between lanes of a dual way near Miami Springs, Fla., is a recently erected memorial to the First Marine Aviation Force. Placed by the Miami Chapter of the First Marine Aviation Veterans Association, the memorial rests close to the original camp of the First Marine Aviation Force first formed in 1918.

The memorial was dedicated the "First's" Thirtieth Anniversary last November and during the association's Annual Convention for General William J. Waller, rector of Marine Corps Aviation, gave the dedication speech.

This twelve-foot memorial, constructed of slump brick, tile and base of stone, is set with a bronze tablet and the emblem of the "Fighting First". The bears the inscription, "Erected in Memory Of First Marine Aviation Force By Members Of First Marine Aviation Force Veterans Association, November 13, 1948"

The memorial was erected through voluntary subscription of 102 members of the Association, a fitting tribute to the memory and spirit of the First Marine Aviation Force.

Easter Egg Hunts

Easter is not only a happy day for the grownups, but the children as well. The small fry seem to realize that the Eastertide is a happy occasion and they lost no time in getting into the spirit. Of course, the egg hunt, as usual, is the highlight of their day. Pictured below, left, are a group of children from Paradise Point that had their hunt Sunday, and right, a group from Trailer Park who found the eggs of the Easter Bunny on Saturday. Both hunts were successful as the well known rabbit layed his eggs abundantly and in not too secret places. The parents look as though they had some fun too.

Ribnick ended any Parris Island hopes for a team victory by soundly trouncing Larry Reed for Lejeune's fourth straight victory. Reed came out strong in the first round, but a succession of hard uppercuts from Ribnick seemed to knock the wind out of his sails. Ribnick spent the last two rounds hammering away at will, trying to open up Reed who kept clinching and covering up to elude the Lejeune's devastating attack. Unable to get Reed open long enough for a shot at a vulnerable spot, Ribnick had to be satisfied with a unanimous decision.

The Lejeune team sustained its only loss of the evening in the fifth bout, when South Carolina Golden Gloves Champion, Charlie Baggett of Parris Island decided Lejeune's Bucky McHugh in another welterweight fracas. A left-hander, McHugh's unorthodox style puzzled Baggett during the first round and the fight see-sawed back and forth, both boys fighting hard. Baggett began finding his range in the last two cantos, piercing McHugh's defenses often enough to win the decision. Both fighters were aggressive, but Baggett seemed to have a better defense than McHugh.

Parris Island's Jim Bond gave Frank Jackson, Lejeune middleweight, more than enough trouble in the first round, only to fade out and lose a TKO in the final. Bond came out like a whirlwind, flaying with both arms, and upset Jackson for a five count early in the fight, but Jackson came back strong, dishing out punishing blows with both hands and flooring Bond with a right hook to the head in the third round. Bond was literally out on his feet when the referee awarded Jackson a TKO in 1:48 of the final round.

The next bout was much the same with Ted Kowalski, Parris Island light-weight, showing up strongly in the first round and Lejeune's Don Veburst mastering the situation in the second and third rounds. Veburst was caught on the ropes and took some punishment in the first round, but became the aggressor in the final rounds, landing consistent left jabs and right hooks before Kowalski was unable to go on, and the Lejeune entry was awarded a TKO in 1:40 of the third round.

Light-heavyweight Willie McClendon of Camp Lejeune completely outclassed Parris Island's Gene Smith in the final bout of the card. A fast right cross set Smith on his ear for a toll of nine early in the fight, and the same lightning right kept Smith dazed all through the fight. The Parris Island fighter kept after McClendon with a series of wild rushes, only to run into a flurry of jarring left jabs, until McClendon's right flashed out to set his opponent back on his heels again. A unanimous decision was awarded McClendon to conclude the card, seven bouts to Camp Lejeune and one for Parris Island.

Tent Camp Nine Offers Stiff Competition

With the forthcoming baseball season well on its way, the curriculum for the Camp Lejeune Baseball Tournament sees the 2d Combat Service Group, (Medium) Tent Camp nine off to a challenging start. So far this season the team has played three games coming out on top in two of the three. They suffered one defeat at the hands of the competent varsity nine.

The first game played this season was with Courthouse Bay, when the "Bears" defeated their opponents by a score of 3-2. The second game was played with the well-formed Camp team. In the

Marine Shooters Compete For Berths On S. E. Division Match Teams

Marine Pistol and Rifle experts are competing for berths on the squad of sharpshooters who will represent Camp Lejeune in the forthcoming Southeastern Division Matches to be held during the week of 16 April here on the base.

Besides being active in various sports during the spring and fall months, Marines are justly famous for their fine rifle teams. Camp Lejeune is carving a niche in the service world as the training base for expert riflemen and pistolers as well as being the World's Largest Amphibious Training Base.

It takes a Marine a long time to set his sights on a crack at the 6th Naval District Championship and eventually the All-Navy. It also requires long hours of labor to mold a team who will prove positive the fact that all Marines are good shots.

Whether in qualifying with a weapon for record, or firing for the coveted Elliot Trophy, a guided light must be supplied the Marine in this case and in all cases, it is the coach and the pupil himself who mold and affirm the Marines right as the best shots in the world.

Here on the Lejeune Rifle Range, men are continuously streaming into the unit to qualify or compete for marksmanship honors. At the present, men from Division and Marine Barracks functions are firing for record and a select few are competing for the squad of Marines who will attempt to cop the Southeastern Division Matches, and eventually the All-Navy.

third game with the Midway Park Team, the "Bears" came through with a rally in the third inning to defeat the Park by a score of 6 to 3.

Among some of the new outstanding players of this year on the Tent Camp Nine, Pfc John F. Gilmore and SSgt. Coney are showing great promise and poise on the mound. The Battalion Executive Officer, Major R. Perkins, is playing left field with the ease of a veteran.

Over The Counter

NEW COFFEE SHOP

Your Camp Exchange announces the opening of a new Coffee Shop in Area Two. This new activity, which will duplicate the items now sold in the Post Troops Coffee Shop near the Camp Theater, is located in Building No. 203. Opened on the 19th of April, the Area Two Coffee Shop has already become a popular spot for after-movie snacks. You will find this pleasant place less crowded, and the service equally good. Drop in this evening and look the place over.

ANOTHER SERVICE CLUB NOW OPEN

Area Two Service Club is now open to care for the increased population at Camp. This will be an added convenience for the men quartered in the vicinity, and will take some of the strain off the Fourth Area Club, which has recently been filled to overflowing. Visit the Area Two Club—it is conveniently located, and you will find the same items offered for sale.

MOTHER'S DAY

Mother's Day falls on the second Sunday in May—the Eighth, this year. That leaves very little time for the selection of that gift which will mean so much from the son who is far from home. There is time to take care of the mailing, if you act quickly. Remember—mails are crowded because of recent express strikes in the North. Do your mailing a bit in advance this year, to allow for the necessary delay.

Your Camp Exchange will take care of all the needs associated with gift giving for this occasion. Central has the gifts, everything from compacts to vacuum cleaners, and you may have your choice wrapped at the Cobbler Shop. There are hundreds of items which will be sure to offer pleasure on this special day—boxed candy (an advantage because it is easily mailed), perfumes and colognes of all descriptions (also easily mailed), a new assortment of blouses, pajamas, silverware (both plated and sterling, in table settings and holloware), costume jewelry in all styles and price ranges, pearls and chokers, books, toasters, mixers, clocks, and table linen. Whatever your mother's taste may be, it's an almost certain bet that Central has something which will please her. Drop in and look the situation over while the stock and assortment of these items is still at its Spring freshest.

GAS STATION

Now that Spring is upon us, and the family car becomes more than ever an evening and week-end companion, give a thought to that check-up which will get winter's kinks out of its system. At the Camp Exchange Gas Station you will find expert service, courteous attention, and all manner of interesting accessories to add to your driving pleasure. And don't overlook the considerable saving on gas and oil. Tank up at this activity—over the course of your stay at Lejeune it will amount to enough to buy you a new set of tires.

Pay Raise

existing statutes. This kills the discriminatory proposal of the Hook Commission whereby former enlisted men and warrant officers who served as temporary officers during the war, and voluntarily relinquished their commissions, would have received less retired pay than other officers who also held temporary wartime rank. Under present laws which would continue applicable, the retired pay would be uniform for the same rank and length of service.

New disability retirement sections were prepared by the Services and are now before the sub-committee. The new provisions are much simpler than the Hook proposals, but the conditions of retirement and compensation are approximately the same. The applicable sections now provide that in most cases, except where permanent disability is obvious, the incapacitated individual would be placed on a temporary retired list for five years, during which he would submit to periodical medical examinations. If at any time the disability is eliminated the individual would be restored to the active list, if a permanent member of the Military Establishment, or placed in a Reserve component or discharged, if a Reserve, National Guard or temporary member of the Uniformed Services.

Gripe Of The Week

Many of our well-behaved Marines are disturbed by the senseless actions of a few other marines who insist on whistling and making uncouth calls everytime a young woman appears on the screen in our theatres.

This annoying habit is certainly indicative of poor breeding. It is embarrassing to your buddies who are escorting their girl friends, wives or mothers. Your reputation is at stake, be gentlemen.
