Camp Lejeune Observes 173rd Marine Corps Anniversary

Above—Admiral W. H. P. Blandy cuts the first of cake at the Staff NCO Club last Wednesday at 2200. "I'm sure that the same fighting and unflinching courage that has carried the Marine Corps through 173 years of glorious achievement will remain as long as there is a Marine Corps," were the Admiral's words as he spoke briefly during the ceremony. Left to right: Brig. Gen. Linscott; Adm. Blandy; Maj. Gen. MSgt. Rader; and MSgt. B. E. Hudson, manager of the Staff NCO Club.

Below—Admiral Blandy prepares to give the first piece of cake to the young lady on the left during the cake-cutting at Marston Pavilion at Camp Lejeune. The giant 600-pound cake was the largest ever cut during the evening and was viewed by an immense crowd—as were the ceremonies at Montford Point Camp.

Below—Maj. Gen. Franklin A. Hart, Commanding General, cuts the cake at the Officers' Mess at 2300. In addressing the Marines and their families, Gen. Hart said, in part, "I think that each of you must feel as I do. I have served the Marine Corps for 32 years. Why? Because of the loyalty of each Marine to the other and the loyalty of each man to his officers."

Above — Commander in Chief, Atlantic Fleet, Admiral W. H. P. Blandy, and Maj. Gen. Franklin A. Hart, Commanding General, Camp Lejeune and 2d Marine Division, salute the Colors during the parade last Wednesday morning. Personnel of the 2d Division and Marine Barracks participated in the parade at 1000 in honor of Admiral Blandy. This was the first scheduled event on the anniversary program.

Below — The first cake-cutting ceremony took place at Montford Point Camp at 2130. Admiral Blandy cuts the first piece of cake as, left to right, Lt. Col. R. M. Hanna, MPC Commanding Officer; Maj. Gen. Hart; and Brig. Gen. H. D. Linscott, Deputy Camp Commander, witness the ceremony. MSgt. G. H. Johnson, sergeant major of Montford Point Camp, is in right foreground.

Admiral Blandy and Gen. Hart spoke briefly at all ceremonies which were complete with immense cakes, a small drum and bugle corps, and procession including four Marines attired in the uniform of 1775.

Invaluable Possession of Marines

Esprit de Corps

During his recent trip to Camp Lejeune, Admiral W. H. P. Blandy, was very favorably impressed by the high morale and "esprit de corps" of the Marines stationed here. In the Admiral's opinion, Marines have such a fine "esprit de corps" because they do not merely think they are good, but rather because they know—deep down in their hearts—that they are the finest fighting men on earth. To illustrate this, he told, in good sailor fashion, the following yarn.

It seems that the CO of the Marine Detachment of a certain ship of the Navy had kept the Marines in formation for a few minutes after the rest of the crew had been dismissed from quarters. The captain of the ship noticed this, and asked him what he had told the Marines in that extra time.

The lieutenant's reply was that he had been telling them about some ruins that were being dug up in the old Roman city of Pompeii. This ancient seaport had been entirely covered by molten rock from a near-by volcano in the year 79 A.D., and had only recently been uncovered. In the gateway of one of the ruined buildings was discovered the body of a Roman sentry who had permitted himself to be buried alive by the red-hot lava rather than desert his post. In his right hand he still held his sword and on his left arm hung his shield bearing the motto "Semper Fidelis".

"I told my men", the lieutenant said, "that although most people think this was a Roman soldier, he was actually a Roman Marine off one of the warships in the harbor."

The ship's captain chuckled for a moment and then asked the Marine officer, "That's a good story. Did your men fall for it?"

The Marine glared at him with a hurt look. "Whatta you mean 'did they fall for it'—That story's true!"

The Marine Corps, of course, has a thousand such stories. It is perhaps on account of having so many good sea-stories that we have never been forced to attend long lectures or dull movies on "Why We Fight".

Most of us are (whether we like the word or not) mercenaries. We are in the Marine Corps either for money or for the benefits we will accrue when we are discharged. Our tradition has always been so. But our tradition has also been to work long and to fight hard for our pay, and we have demonstrated that, whatever our motives, we maintain a morale and an esprit of which all Americans may be proud. The men who fought on Wake Island were mercenaries fighting for money, yet they possessed a spirit which kept them resolute at their post until they were overwhelmed.

His Cross Is Also Ours

During the summer of 1943 my ship, a light cruiser, was operating in the Mediterranean. Two or three days after the successful landing of troops on historic Sicily, we received on board a young Italian prisoner of war. He had been wounded in the shoulder and therefore was confined in the ship's sick bay under a Marine guard. With the help of our ship's company "experts", we learned considerable about the prisoner, including his reaction to the Marine guard, whom he assured us, was entirely unnecessary as he was so happy at being safe on an American ship that nothing could have induced him to try to escape. One thing the prisoner was most anxious to have returned to him while he was in sick bay was his rosary. As this was a harmless and reasonable request, the rosary was obtained without difficulty and returned to its owner. When he received it the youngster pressed the rosary to his lips and then volubly expressed his appreciation.

I shall remember this incident in the years to come when many other more important experiences have been forgotten. The Italian lad and his rosary will be remembered because in this story is a vivid reminder of how close to the human heart are the symbols of Faith. Moreover, behind the symbols, whatever they may be, is Faith itself. Granted, men are not always conscious of those values which give life its meaning, for the world is too much with us. We are so pre-occupied with getting and spending that we do indeed lay waste our powers. But, given an experience of failure, discouragement, or loneliness, most of us find ourselves turning back to God, desperately hoping that we may find Him again. It has been said that there is a Cross at the heart of life, and, if we should ever stop playing around the fringes of living, this truth will confront us. The eternal question over which God ponders, we may believe, is why do we wait so

A Word To The Wise

The Provost Marshal's office reports that recent spot checks by road blocks for compliance with Camp Memorandum 109 have indicated that many personnel are not familiar with the memo, or have not had their vehicle checked by a State Motor Vehicle Mechanical Inspection Lane in compliance therewith.

The directive has previously been widely publicized by Camp Memorandum, Camp Bulletin, and through the Globe. It is believed that sufficient time has been given all hands to comply with the memorandum; and, in the future, the provisions of paragraph 4 thereof will be carried out. Pertinent parts of the memo are quoted below. DON'T BE CAUGHT NAPPING!

Legion Of Merit Medal Posthumously Awarded To Maj. Gen. C. D. Barrett

WASHINGTON, D. C., November 4—Posthumous award of the Legion of Merit to the late Major General Charles D. Barrett, USMC, was made yesterday at Headquarters, Marine Corps.

Mrs. Emily H. Barrett, widow of General Barrett now residing at 211 South Pitt Street, Alexandria, Virginia, received the medal and citation from General C. B. Cates, Commandant of the Marine Corps.

Also among those present at the ceremony were Major Charles D. Barrett, Jr., son of General Barrett and the Major's wife of 3622 Greenway Place, Alexandria. Major Barrett is presently stationed at Headquarters, Marine Corps.

General Barrett, a leading figure in Marine development of amphibious tactics prior to World War II, held command of the First Marine Amphibious Corps at the time of his accidental death in New Caledonia in 1943.

The citation commended General Barrett for establishing important air and naval facilities necessary to protect the vital line of communications to Australia while in command of the Third Marine Brigade in 1942.

He was further credited with developing the Third Marine Division into a powerful striking force, later to blast the enemy at Bougainville and Guam, and for strategic planning for the assault on Bougainville.

Veteran of World War I, the deceased Marine officer had served as Director of Plans and Policies and as Assistant to the Commandant of the Marine Corps here just prior to 1942.

General Barrett was born in Henderson Kentucky August 16, 1885, moving to Virginia as a child. He made his home at the present address of his widow until his death. He was appointed a second lieutenant in the Marine Corps in 1909.

Floral Eagle, Globe, Anchor Memorializes Marines On Birthday

WASHINGTON, D. C. November 10.—Marines honored their dead today as Col. Melvin J. Maas placed a wreath on The Tomb of the Unknown Soldier in Marine Birthday Memorial ceremonies.

A floral eagle, globe and anchor was framed against a color guard at the Tomb as Father J. J. Twiss, Lt. Cmdr., USNR, (ChC), prayed that all living Marines be granted "a true sense of fidelity to God and country."

"Ever faithful to the great tradition of the United States Marine Corps," he said in his invocation, "we gather on this anniversary at this august spot to honor all the Marines who have given their lives for our great country. We can hardly count these heroes or measure the amount of blood shed. But we do not forget them and do recommend their souls to God."

The ceremonies were sponsored by the Marine Corps Reserve Officers Association of which Col. Maas is National President. Representatives of the 5th Reserve District, 5th Reserve Battalion, VMF Squadron 321 and the Marine Corps League were present. Brig. Gen. J. T. Selden, USMC, represented the Commandant of the Marine Corps. The color guard and drum and bugle corps were detailed from the Marine Barracks and Corsairs from VMF 321 dipped low in salute on two flights.

Congratulations From Jacksonville NCCS On Marine Birthday

The following congratulatory message from Mr. George Sec, Executive Secretary of the Jacksonville NCCS, was received by the Commanding General:

"At the regular meeting of the NCCS Operation Committee, it was unanimously voted to accord heartfelt congratulations to you and your personnel upon the one hundred seventy-third Anniversary of the United States Marine Corps and the extended offer to assist or cooperate. All members were asked to attend these ceremonies. Best wishes for a successful program."

Lejeune To Tackle USS Coral Sea Eleven In Final Home Game Saturday At 1430

The Camp Lejeune Marines, victorious in their last two starts, will try to make it three in a row this Saturday when they face the USS Coral Sea on the Main Camp Field at 1400.

Hardly anything is known about the Coral Sea eleven. They should have a good ball club, however, for the Navy air arm is known for its high physical standards. Apparently lack of practice had a lot to do with their defeat at the hands of the USS Mississippi, a team Lejeune beat handily.

That game was early in the season and they can be expected to give the local lads a run for their money from start to finish in the coming game.

The Lejeune squad will be in excellent condition for the battle; aside from a few bruises they came through the Cherry Point game in fine shape. Coach Missar will probably use the two-team system which proved itself in the last game with the Flyers.

The Commanding General, Major General Franklin A. Hart, will witness the game, and a large crowd is expected to be on hand. The Second Division Band and Drum and Bugle Corps will again present another demonstration of spirited music and snappy marching, and the Lejeune cheerleaders will add to the football spirit.

NC State Wolfpack Scrimmages Local Hoopsters Here Sat

The Camp Lejeune Basketball Team will open the current season at Camp Lejeune Saturday when they scrimmage the North Carolina State College Wolfpack in Gym No. 201 at 2000.

An added feature of the game will be the Basketball Clinic to be conducted prior to the game by Mr. Everett Case, Head Basketball Coach at State, for all Intra-Mural Basketball League coaches. Several coaches from nearby high schools have been invited to attend the clinic also.

The Wolfpack was second in the nation among college teams last year in offensive scoring. They scored a total of 2409 points in 32 games for an average of 75.3 per game. This was their overall average, including tournaments. During regular season play they maintained an average of 77.1.

This year the State College quintet will be the defending Southern Conference Champions, and pre-season reports pick them to repeat. They will be pointing for another chance in the National Invitational Tournament, where they were beaten out last year by DePaul University, one of the nation's basketball powers.

Camp Lejeune will have an opportunity during this scrimmage to test their offense and defense against the finest college basketball team in the South, and perhaps in the United States.

Next week, on Tuesday, 23 November, the Camp Basketball Team will have another opportunity to scrimmage one of the better teams of this section when they take to the hardwood against Wilmington College, of Wilmington, for a scrimmage under game conditions. The time is 2000, at Gym 201, and all hands are cordially invited to witness the workout.

Lejeuners Smash Cherry Point Flyer Local Line Big Factor In 40-13 Win

BY PFC. DAVE SHARPE

Led by the elusive running of Claude "Big" Hipps, who partially accounted for four tallies, the Leathernecks of Camp Lejeune overwhelmed a stubborn but undermanned Cherry Point eleven in a full house at the Flyer's field to the tune of 40-13. The Marine Lejeune tried the famous two team system of Michigan for the first time this season and used it very effectively in their corner of the Cherry Point team.

Claude "Big" Hipps reeled off runs of 80 and 67 yards, both going all the way to the end zone, scored two more from the 23 and the 16, and passed to Leo Moody to contribute five of the six scoring plays of the afternoon.

The line play of both teams was exceptional, with Umberto Gigli and Tom Dawson the chief threats to the tricky Flyer backs. Erickson, a great end, and Vavrek, the rough and ready center were standouts in the Cherry Point forward wall, while the passing arm of Sloan, the head coach who donned the pads to check the Scarlet tide, and the sensational broken field running of Patrias, the Flyer's left half, made trouble for the Lejeune defense all afternoon.

The initial Lejeune score came in about two minutes of the first quarter when Big Hipps went through his own right tackle on the Flyer 23 and continued on to score. Stein kicked the first of four successful conversions.

Lejeune gained possession of the ball immediately after the kickoff when Gigli recovered a Flyer fumble on the Cherry Point 38. Stein and Moody carried the ball to the 16, where Hipps went around right end and, behind excellent blocking, cut back to the center and over for the second score of the game. Stein's boot was good for the extra point.

Near the end of the first quarter the local lads gained another scoring chance when Steepe snagged a Flyer pass on his own 40 and galloped down to the Cherry Point 12, picking up blocking along the way. Stein made two yards over center, and then Hipps faded on the first Lejeune pass attempt of the day, completing to Moody in the end zone. Stein's third conversion boot was wide, and Lejeune led, 20-0, at the end of the first quarter.

During the second period the Flyers came back with a rush as Patrias took Steepe's kick on his own 10, and made a spectacular run back to the Lejeune 35 before being caught by Dawson and Romero. An exchange of punts gave the Flyers the ball on the Lejeune 28, where Sloan passed to Jones on the 10. Sloan scooted around end to the two on the next play, and then went over center to score on the following try. Cervin kicked the extra point.

The next Cherry Point score was set up in the middle of the second quarter when a pass ruled complete because of interference was combined with a 15 yard penalty to give them the ball on the Lejeune 12. From there Simmons plunged through the line for five yards, and then, after having been set back 6 yards by Gigli, Cervin passed to Jones for the second Flyer score. The conversion was no good, and the score remained 20 to 13, with about two minutes remaining in the half.

As the half ended Cherry Point again deep in Lejeune territory after two successful plays from Sloan to Patrias and Hipps.

Cherry Point suffered a setback on the second half kickoff. Big Hipps took the boot on his own twenty and sprinted down the line for his third and Lejeune fourth score of the game. Hipps had beautiful blocking on the run, as every member of the local squad carried out his assignment perfectly. Stein's punt was good, and Lejeune led 27-13.

On the return kickoff Patrias the Flyers made another long run back as he made his way to the midfield stripe, but he dropped the ball as he was tackled. Lejeune took over. In turn local Marines fumbled, and Cherry Point regained the ball. Two plays went incomplete, and Hughes punted out of bounds to the 33. On the first play from point Hipps took the ball, through the line, whirled pass secondary, and went 67 yards for a score. Stein kicked the conversion and Lejeune moved ahead more: 34-13.

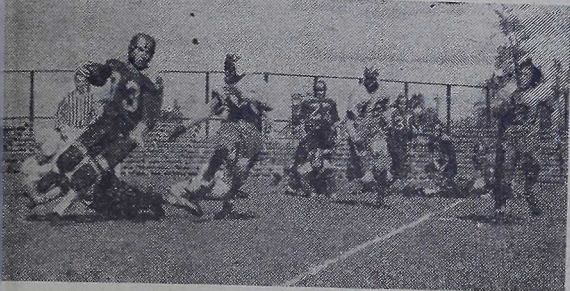

Steepe kicked off to Shipps on the Flyer 20, and the Cherry Point back fumbled as he hit hard. Gigli, Canzona, Dawson covered the ball, on 20 and Lejeune was once again in position to score. Hipps ran for 9 yards through the line, Moody made a first down on Flyer 9. He picked up 3 yards through the line, and then Hipps carried to the Flyer 1 foot. On the next play fullback Steepe crashed over for the score. Stein's attempt at the extra point was unsuccessful, and Lejeune led 40-13, with about two minutes remaining in the third quarter.

During the fourth period Lejeuners lost two chances to score when they fumbled deep Flyer territory, as the Camp line contained all Cherry Point efforts to advance. The Flyers sounded on Sanchez' interception of a desperation pass by the Flyers.

Upon the establishment of the Marines by Congressional action in 1775, Captain Samuel Nolas was ordered to recruit battalions of Marines.

Down went Cochran, No. 33, left half for the Engineers as Kmetz, AlMar quarterback, made a nice tackle when the big back tried a sweep around end. Coming up to assist Kmetz is Geter, No. 17, AlMar back. The AlMars ended their intra-mural league play on a triumphant note in this Marine Corps Birthday game when they made the only touchdown in an otherwise scoreless game. Boondockers Play ComSerGrp Trojan Sun. At Main Field

The 21st Marine Boondockers, playing the next to last game of the current intra-mural season, will meet the ComSerGrp Trojans Sunday, 1430, at Hadnot Point in an attempt to enter the win column for the first time.

The Trojans have one of the best defensive record in the league, and as an added feature they brought into the open in their last game a pass attack which the Deacons found irresistible, and which almost won the game for the Trojans.

The Boondockers proved that they too, have a defense, when they held the Division Deacons scoreless for three quarters in last Sunday's game. Serres, hard-running Boondocker back, is a hard man to catch once he is through the line of scrimmage, and the Boondockers will be doing everything in their power to break him loose in the coming game.

AlMars, Deacons Finish Season By Beating Bulldozers And Boondockers

AlMars End Season By Beating Bulldozers, 6-0

The Marine Barracks AlMars departed from the Intra-Mural football scene on the Marine Corps Birthday with a triumphant note as they squeezed a 6-0 victory out of the reluctant Engineers at the Main Camp Field.

Coached by WO. B. F. Krohn, the AlMars have taken their last two games, in a show of strength that surprised those who had them figured for an easy mark after their early season defeats. It should be remembered, however, that those defeats were at the hands of the undefeated Deacons, the ComSerGrp Trojans on a sea of mud, and, more recently, by the 10th Marine Gunners.

Last Wednesday's game was on a field made slippery by the recent rains, but the AlMars nevertheless broke hard running full-back Craig away for the lone score of the game late in the third period.

The AlMars took advantage of the first break in a tight game to score — Palmer, Bulldozer fullback, threw a pass from his own 25 that was intercepted by McCullough, AlMar back, on the 35. From this point Craig went to the 20 on a lateral around right end, Hubany advanced the ball to the 15 on a drive over center, and then Craig crossed the goal on an off tackle sweep to score standing up. The conversion attempt was no good.

Play during the first half was marked by an outstanding show of forward wall strength by both teams, the longest single gain of the first part of the game was a 15 yard end run by Craig in the middle field section. The Bulldozer offensive bogged down against the hard charging AlMar line, and the AlMars had the same trouble.

The third period, when the AlMars scored, was almost exclusively an AlMar quarter. Although they made no sustained drives, they kept control of the ball, and excellent blocking was evident during their touchdown push.

It was touch and go for the AlMars during the fourth quarter as the never-say-die Engineers fought a losing race with the clock. Cochran, Palmer, and Oneeto skirted the ends and smashed through the line in a drive from their own 25 to the AlMar 10 that seemed certain to end in a touchdown, but Taylor, AlMar guard, set the Bulldozers back for two successive losses from which they never recovered, as they lost the ball on downs with less than a yard to go for a first down, and a chance to win the game.

Wycoff, captain of the AlMars for the day, was outstanding with his steady and dependable line play, and Craig, AlMar fullback, teamed with Kmetz, Hubany, Geter and Hawkes to give his team an offensive punch. Hoppe, Albers, Bennett, and Hmay, anchored the Bulldozer line at the ends, and these four played a terrific game throughout. Cochran, Farrell, Palmer, and Terrell were backfield dependables for the losers.

Deacons Undefeated; Top Boondockers 12-0

The Division Deacons retained their unblemished record last Sunday when they overcame the 21st Marine Boondockers at Midway Park to end their intra-mural competition with a 12-0 victory.

Holding the Boondockers scoreless, the Deacons won the intra-mural trophy by pushing across two touchdowns in the first quarter and then fighting off repeated Boondocker efforts to cross the goal during the remaining three periods.

During the current season the Deacons have been the scourge of the league, rolling up 77 points in their five games while holding the combined opposition total to 19. Division opponents were held scoreless twice.

The Deacons concentrated their power early in the game. In fact, less than four minutes after the opening kickoff, Gorman, speedy quarterback, broke through over left tackle on his own 35 and went all the way to paydirt. The conversion attempt failed, and the Deacons led, 6-0.

A second opportunity to score was given the Deacons a few minutes later when Serres got off a nice punt, from his own 30 to the Deacon 35, and Gorman, playing safety, made an even nicer run-back, carrying the ball to the Boondocker 45 before he was tackled. Doyle and Tomolavage took the ball to the 30, and then Black and Tomolavage made a first down in two plays on the 20.

Black passed to Drayton over center for six yards and then Black drove over center to the Boondocker 4 yard line. Two plays later Black took the ball on the same play and scored the second Deacon touchdown. The conversion kick was low, and the score remained 12-0, with about a minute left in the first quarter.

The remainder of the first half was highlighted by the defensive work of Belluzzi, Boondocker tackle, who held the left side of the line firm, and was outstanding as he stopped the Deacon line plunges directed towards his side of the line.

Bergjans, husky center for the Deacons, did more than his share of work in the line, and, along with McGrath, tackle and captain for the game, kept the Deacon line steady and strong throughout the game.

When the Boondockers came out for the second half, it was to face the same strong defensive game which had stumped them in the first half. They penetrated to the Deacon 5 early in the third period when O'Connor blocked Gorman's punt on the Deacon thirty and the Boondockers recovered on the 10, from where Serres gave the ball to Rollins on an end around which carried to the 7, but Westlie, Deacon end, set Misko back with a 5 yard loss, and on the next play Doyle intercepted a pass from Serres on his own 5 and went to the 25 before being brought down.

The only other Boondocker break was a forty-yard dash by Serres from his own 5 late in the fourth quarter, after the Deacons had pushed deep on runs by Mangine and Schlicher, and had a touchdown by Mangine called back. The game ended a few plays after the run by Serres, with the Boondockers still in possession.

The Marine Corps insignia, substantially the same as that now in use, was adopted in 1858.

Civilian Personnel Guide

INSTRUCTOR TRAINING
The Instructor Training has been reactivated with two classes now on their third session. This is the first of this type of training that the Training Section has started. The personnel assigned to these classes have been "hand picked" by their supervisors and it is everyone's opinion that some highly beneficial results will be obtained from these classes.

IVB CLERICAL TRAINING
With the cooperation of Mr. Hall of the Supply Depot, it has been possible to start the IVB clerical training program. Mr. Hall has assigned fifteen IVB personnel to attend this course. The first class got under way this week, and it is hoped that another class can be started in the near future. The next class will be composed of personnel assigned to camp activities. More information will be published when the time draws near. Watch for it, those of you who are interested in attending.

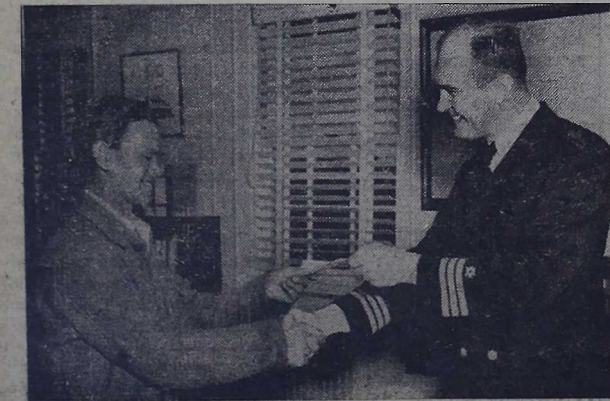

INDOCTRINATION TRAINING
Again it is pointed out that any civilian employees of the base who have not previously attended the Indoctrination Course may attend by getting the permission of their department supervisor and then notifying the Training Section.

PERSONNEL CHANGES
During the period November 1 through November 8, 1948, the Industrial Relations office effected the following personnel actions:
Thirty-One Accessions: Twenty for Camp Maintenance, seven for Supply Depot, two for Camp Motor Transport, one for Camp Property and one for Camp Lejeune School.
Seventeen Conversions: Six for Camp Labor Pool, two for Camp Lejeune School, one for Electric Power Plant, seven for Camp Maintenance and one for Supply Depot.
One Promotion: For Camp Maintenance.

Three Periodic Pay Increases: One for Camp Motor Transport and two for Camp Maintenance.
Eleven Separations: Three for Supply Depot, five from Camp Maintenance, one for Camp Motor Transport, one for Camp Lejeune School, and one for Camp Labor Pool.

SAFETY NOTES
HINTS FOR HUNTERS
Guns that go off unexpectedly injure thousands of persons every year in the United States. Some 2,400 of the injured die.
Among the victims are many children to whom a gun has an irresistible attraction. Very few firearms accidents which involve children are the fault of children.

Happy Day! J. C. Robson of Camp Maintenance has reason to be pleased as Comdr. G. S. Robinson presents him with a check in recognition of the value of his Beneficial Suggestion. Mr. Robson suggested that the latest orders placed on a bulletin board be located on a colored background to enable employees to keep abreast of changes without reading all of the old notices first. (Photo by Pfc. Ayers)

They are the fault of the adult.
Take the hunter that hurries home and leaves his gun lying around. He's hungry or he wants to tell the "missus" about his hunting. There is nothing vicious about him. But leaving that gun around for the children to play with may be vicious in its effects.

There are two rules about firearms in the house that would prevent most if not all accidents with them. The first is keep it unloaded. The second, keep the gun locked up.

Firearms accidents occur in the field too. Here are some precautions suggested by the National Safety Council:

Carry your gun "soldier fashion."

If you fall with your gun, remove the shells and check the barrels for dirt or snow. A blocked barrel will explode.

Train yourself to release the safety catch while bringing your gun up to your shoulder for shooting. The "safety" will then be on your gun at all other times.

Keep your gun in its case while traveling to and from the "hunting country."

CLEFT ROCK by Alice Tisdale Hobart, a human narrative based on the Reclamation projects in California Central Valley.

The Dodd family, wealthy and snobbish, controlled large power companies and rich acreage in California. The favorite son of the family defied his parents and married a Russian girl whom he met in China. On his return to the States his parents succeeded in breaking up the marriage and again bringing young Dodd back under their domination.

The story is concerned principally with the son of this marriage and his mother and their struggle as small land holders.

FOURTH POSTMAN by Craig Rice—The first Craig Rice mystery in three years. Our old friends John J. Malone, Helene and Jake Justus arrive on the scene in time to prevent the fourth postman from going the way of the first three (all have had their heads bashed with a blunt instrument) and to defend the innocent man accused of the murders.

Funny as are all of Craig Rice mysteries.

BREAD FOR THE LIVING by Mary Lasswell—By the author of "Suds In Your Eye" but completely different.

This is a novel of the early years of the Texas border. Irish-Spanish Raquel O'Riordan married Fausto Hidalgo only to discover they had nothing in common. Finally the realization of the need of her daughters gave her the courage to break away from this unfortunate marriage.

BY GORT WILBUR

The only way that I know fall is coming most certainly isn't built around the way the robins fly in the maples or the moon shines at midnight. My way of telling is with the passing of the major league All-Star baseball game and the wire reports that spell grunts and groans in the campus of the pro gridders as they start to grind off the lard for another autumnal campaign.

The only way that I know winter is right around the corner is with the playing of the Minnesota-Northwestern football game, the national elections and the Army-Navy game.

Now it can be told that the Army-Navy clash will be aired as it was last year by WJNC and Mutual on the afternoon of Nov. 27 beginning at 1:15.

'Growler' Tournament At Paradise Point Golf Course This Weekend

Camp Lejeune golfers will have another opportunity to participate in an unusual tourney this weekend when the Paradise Point Golf Club will feature a "Growler's Tournament".

Each golfer must play 18 holes of golf with at least one other tournament player. Net scores will be determined by deducting 3-4 of the golfer's handicap from his gross score. Prizes will be awarded on the basis of lowest net scores.

The "Growler" feature of the tournament comes to light in the rules: When a golfer makes a disappointing shot, which is quite often, to listen to the stories, he is allowed to make the shot over, but must continue playing the ball from this second shot. This is allowed only once on each hole.

Tournament play will commence Saturday morning, November 20, and continue through Sunday, November 21. All players are requested to register at the Pro Shop before starting play.

requires that motor vehicles pass inspection by one of its Department of Motor Vehicles Mechanical Inspection Lanes in accordance with the following schedule:

All motor vehicles of year models 1936, 1937, 1938, 1939, 1943, 1944, 1945, 1946, 1947, and 1948 must have been inspected by October 31.

"The additional REQUIREMENT OF SATISFACTORILY PASSING THE NORTH CAROLINA MOTOR VEHICLE MECHANICAL INSPECTION TEST, OR A SIMILAR TEST CONDUCTED BY THE STATE IN WHICH THE VEHICLE IS REGISTERED, is required of all vehicles registered in Camp Lejeune after August 31, 1948. Vehicles registered in Camp Lejeune prior to that date are required to pass this test on the same schedule as is required by the State of North Carolina.

"It is realized that this new requirement may work a hardship on individuals reporting for duty in view of the fact that the vehicle inspection station may not be immediately available in the vicinity of Jacksonville. Therefore personnel reporting for duty will not be refused camp tags, if they are otherwise qualified, for the sole reason of not having passed the mechanical inspection test. It is required, however, that those vehicles pass the required safety tests during the next visit of the inspection station to the Jacksonville area. If this test is not passed at that time, it is incumbent on the owner of the vehicle to report that fact to the Camp Provost Marshal, at which time his camp tags will be revoked.

PARAGRAPH 4

Paragraph 4 — "The Provost Marshal will assure compliance with the provisions of this Memorandum by spot checking vehicles for a current state inspection sticker. WHEN CASES OF NON-COMPLIANCE WITH THE PROVISIONS OF THIS MEMORANDUM ARE ASCERTAINED, THE OWNER'S BASE TAGS WILL BE REVOKED.
