USS Mississippi Swamped; Army Here Sunday

Powerful Ft. Bragg Team Slated For Grid Tilt

Camp Lejeune Marines put an impressive display of football last Sunday at Hadnot when they swamped a gallant band of sailors from the USS Mississippi by nine touchdowns to their third football game of the year.

In preparation for the game the powerful Fort Bragg Americans here Sunday at the local eleven took advantage of the Navy team to test passing game, and completed six of the first eight passes in before going wild late in second period.

Before 6,000 spectators, including the Commanding General, Gen. Franklin A. Hart, and guests of the officers and men of Camp Lejeune, the Lejeuners put out their newly developed passing attack for the first time in the year.

The Mississippi elected to receive the opening kick and Ward, Lejeune tackle kicked to Adams, quarterback, on his own 40-yard line, where he was stopped in tracks by Gallo and Burnett. On one play the Navy kicked the fifty, where Ptak returned the ball to the Navy 45. Maksin ran 5 through right guard, and Stein went forty yards over the tackle for the first score of the game. Stein also kicked the point successfully.

The next score was set up when the Navy fullback, attempted to punt from his own 30, but the kick when he was blocked hard by Romero and Gallo, Gallo recovering on the Navy 40.

Army To Honor Dead With Traditional Water Service

United States Naval vessels will observe the traditional memorial service for Navy and Marine war dead on 24 Oct.

Following dockside ceremonies at date, flowers received from wives and friends of the war dead will be placed aboard Naval vessels at various bases in the United States and overseas. The flowers will then proceed to sea where the flowers will be scattered in the water in memory of those buried at sea.

Twenty-six ports in the United States and overseas have been designated to receive the memorial services from relatives and friends of the war dead and from veterans patriotic organizations.

Top-Flight Band Brings 'New Look' In Dance Music

The famous creator of the 'Dipsy Doodle' style in dance music, Larry Clinton, brings his orchestra to Marston Pavilion tonight for an engagement from 2000 to 2400. Featuring a 'New Look' in music that is rapidly gaining popularity throughout the nation, the Clinton aggregation will be the top attraction on the entertainment schedule at Lejeune tonight.

Charming hostesses from Kingston, Wilmington, Morehead City, Beaufort, Jacksonville, and probably New Bern will attend the dance as the guests of Lejeune Marines.

From 2200 to 2230, the music of the Larry Clinton orchestra will take to the air waves from beautiful Marston Pavilion via the facilities of radio station WJNC.

Regular dance night bus transportation from Midway Park and Trailer Park will be provided according to the schedule below.

Like everything else, music must change with the times. A 1928 arrangement of Stardust is as outmoded as one of Clara Bow's daring creations of the early cinema period. But, unlike stylists, musicians are stubborn when it comes to changing their modes. Most musicians, that is.

An exception is Larry Clinton. The maestro has devised a 'New Look' for modern dance music. And from the initial reaction during engagements at the hotels New Yorker and Pennsylvania, it appears that the public is going to accept it as readily as long dresses and diving neck lines.

Fully qualified to lead an orchestra, Clinton is already established as one of the greatest arrangers in his field. Long before he ever thought of taking up the baton, Clinton was turning out scores for See LARRY CLINTON On Page 6

Meeting Of Parents Tonight To Discuss Plans For Cub Pack

If you have a son 9, 10, or 11 years of age, you should be interested in the Cub Scouts. Both parents of boys that age are urged to be present at a meeting in the Community Building at Midway Park today at 1945 to discuss plans for the Cub Pack and its various dens.

Too few parents were present at the meeting last week to accomplish the desired business.

Interest of parents in the Cub Pack is mandatory if it is to be a success.

Decision

This is the hour of and for decision, as it always is. The decisions of this hour control the hour following. This is a year for decision — and our decisions, both on a national and world front, will mark our destiny.

Into the life of every person there comes the time when he is confronted with decision. The ability to make decisions is highly important in the ultimate happiness and welfare of the individual. Frustration, depression, and unhappiness is the result of not being able to face up to the decision of the hour.

It has been stated that the three most important decisions with which one is confronted in his lifetime concern vocation, marriage, and religion. We mention religion lastly, not because it is least important, but because it is most important. Many of you made your decision regarding religion long before you decided on your vocation or your marriage, and your religious decision had more influence on your vocational and marital decision than you have realized. For those who have minimized the importance of religion let me quote the statement of E. P. Whallon, "Religion is the most practical and sensible thing in life. It is not dreamy or visionary. It deals with realities. God is an actual person. He is real, not vague or far away. Our spiritual life is the most real thing there is about us. It is to last forever, and it deals with the most real matters, here and hereafter."

The problem of every age has been to persuade men to choose wisely in matters of importance, and to follow their choice by action in conformity with it.

The matter of choosing or deciding for a certain particular always implies the elimination of one or more contradictions: reluctance or refusal to eliminate the contradictions leads to consternation and frustration.

Joshua admonished the tribes to put away foreign Gods and to follow Jehovah, or to choose the one and forget the other. The indecision as to whom they were serving was not healthy. It is an eternal verity that you cannot serve God and Mammon; you cannot have two masters!

In this matter we sin not only as individuals but as Nations. Practically every nation in the world today has made her blood sacrifices to Mars and has gone all out for the bloody rites of war.

We will wake up, and we will learn that we must act to the demand of "Choose ye this day." Peace will never come through war, peace is not won by waging war. It is not the intention of war to establish peace. Peace comes through devotion to those principles which remove the cause of war.

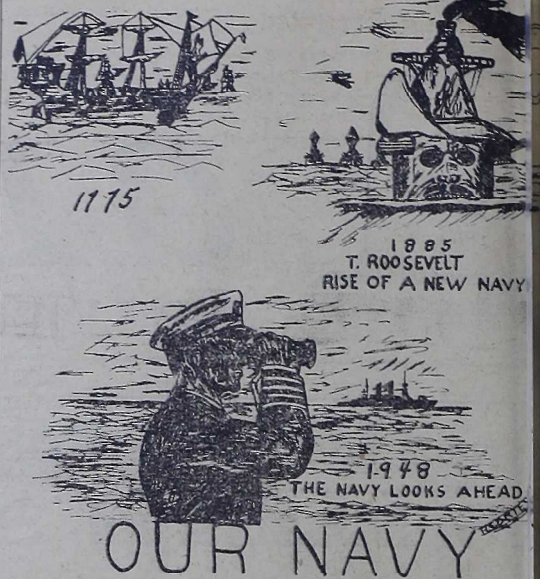

Our nation does not hesitate to state that—"In God We Trust." Backed by this national choice, let our individual choice for today be one for God as we answer the challenge of "Choose ye this day." And let us give witness to our choice by living in conformity with our decision.

Twenty-Sixth Annual Observance

Navy Day

Navy Day, October 27th, will mark the 26th annual observance of two significant anniversaries—In 1775, the first legislation providing for the establishment of a fleet of warships was proposed to the continental Congress and in 1858, Theodore Roosevelt, the twenty-fifth President of the United States and father of the modern Navy, was born in New York City.

From a modest beginning of thirteen frigates, our gallant Navy has developed into the most powerful and mobile air-sea fighting force in the world. Imbued with the courage and bravery of its earliest leaders, it has defeated all our enemies on the seas. Its accomplishments since its humble beginning have been resplendent with heroic deeds. We can be justly proud of the part our Navy has played in the development of our Nation, its valuable services in peacetime in support of our commercial and political policies, its reinforcement of diplomacy and stabilization of our overseas commerce.

Our Navy will maintain its honored position in United States history, and its recognized place in the eyes of the world by the thoughtful attention to duty, honor, and efficiency of its members.—W. B. K.

Forty Hours Devotion

Church is this exposition of the Blessed Sacrament, lasting through three days, which we call Forty Hours Devotion. Its first origin is in the mediaeval custom of watching by the Easter sepulchre, later connected with special prayers of expiation. The common explanation of its duration through forty hours is that it is in memory of the forty hours during which our Lord's soul was separated from His body between His death and resurrection.

The husky boatswain's man had only a light lunch and ed with undisguised envy a sirloin steak that had just placed before his lean friend. "Don't tell me," he ed, "that you're going to eat huge steak all alone!" "No," ned his companion, carefully ing a napkin into the V jumper. "With potatoes."

Officer Of Marines' Enlisted At Age 13 In 1873

"Officer of Marines", Irvine Nor-Wharton, 89, who enlisted in the Marine Corps in 1873 when only 13 years of age, was buried today with full military honors in Richmond, Virginia, his native city.

Until his death Monday night, he claimed to be the oldest man alive. Wharton enlisted at Washington, D. C. and was discharged five years later at the Marine Barracks, Brooklyn, New York.

A brief inspection of the "old-timer's" life is contained in two faded records of his service, his enlistment contract and discharge papers.

The enlistment papers show he entered the Marine Corps on August 5, 1873, as a minor of 13 years, 11 months, 27 days, with his father's consent, to serve a period of seven years and seven months. The document stated that he was four feet, seven inches tall, having grey eyes, brown hair and dark complexion.

Also included in the contract was an agreement to consent to a monthly deduction from his pay of $1.00 for his education. The document also stated that he was to be paid $1.00 for his education and $1.00 for his board and lodging.

Mechanical Drawing Course Available; Essential To Many

Mechanical Drawing, the language by which the designer speaks to the workman, is included in the roster of especially prepared self-study courses offered by the Marine Corps Institute. It is generally accepted as the basic course for all mechanics and engineers.

A brief inspection of an accurate, well-executed drawing gives a better idea of a machine than a lengthy written or verbal description. The better and more clearly a drawing is made, the more intelligently the workman can understand the ideas of the designer. Thorough training in the principles and practice of this subject are required of all men entering the service.

Lt. Cockrum's Gold Star In Lieu Of 2nd Award

Second Lieutenant James E. Cockrum of the 21st Marines was presented with a Gold Star last Wednesday in lieu of his second Bronze Star Medal. He is the coach of Camp Lejeune's new boxing team.

The citation was presented by Colonel Paul D. Sherman, commanding officer of the 21st Marines, for heroism at Iwo Jima. He had received his first Bronze Star last year for meritorious service as an ordnance officer on Saipan.

As a warrant officer on Iwo in 1945, he was awarded a Bronze Star. See BRONZE STAR On Page 7

Maj Hudgins Decorated For Guadalcanal Serv.

Major Louis E. Hudgins Jr., executive officer of Division Headquarters and Service Battalion, received the Bronze Star Medal last Wednesday for meritorious service at Guadalcanal.

The award was presented by Lieutenant Colonel John A. Saxten, commanding H&S, during a weekly inspection of troops on the area 3 recreation field.

While serving as a weapons company commander with the First Marine Division during the battle of Tenaru River, Guadalcanal, Major Hudgins rendered invaluable aid in the salvage and repair of vitally needed anti-tank weapons. During the period of his outstanding leadership, 20 August to 22 December, 1942, canister was used for the first time in the South Pacific.

Maj Kelly, Lt. Cockrum Awarded At ComSerGrp

During a ceremony at the Second Combat Service Group last Tuesday, Major Irving N. Kelly received a Bronze Star Medal for heroic achievement in action against the enemy on Saipan and Major Wayne L. Edwards was presented with a permanent citation for a Bronze Star Medal previously awarded for meritorious achievement at Okinawa.

The awards were made by Colonel John F. Hough, commanding officer of the 2d ComSerGrp.

Major Kelly's citation read, in part, "For heroic achievement as Commanding Officer of Weapons Company, Sixth Marines, Second Marine Division, in action against enemy Japanese forces on Saipan, Marianas Islands, 3 July 1944. When his battalion's advance was delayed by a strongly fortified hostile position and two Marine offensive weapons were blown up in a mined area, Captain Kelly voluntarily braved the hostile barrage to proceed through this region and lead the only remaining 75mm weapon to a firing position on the front lines."

As Acting Operations Officer of the Second Battalion, Fourth Marines, Sixth Marine Division during operations against enemy Japanese forces on Okinawa, Ryuku Islands from 27 May to 7 June 1945, Major Edwards was cited for coordinating "the attack on the rifle companies over very difficult terrain and against strongly defended cave emplacements and ably leading his forces during the hazardous advance on Oroku Peninsula under intense enemy fire, enabled his Battalion to annihilate the hostile forces."

The Combat "V" is authorized for both awards.

Lunch for visitors will be available at the Civilian Cafeteria, Bldg. 1006, at the usual prices.

UNIFORM

The uniform for all personnel on Navy Day will be Winter Service "A" with garrison caps, except for those persons whose duties specifically require other uniform.

Hofmann Forest Offers Opportunity For Hunting During Current Season

Each year a large number of deer hunters come to the Hofmann Forest in Jones and Onslow Counties and join the parties of the local sportsmen. These hunts are called "Divide-the-Game" hunts because the game is divided equally into "hunter's shares," thus giving to every member of the party a piece of venison. The hunter making the "Kill" gets the head and hide, in addition to his hunter's share.

The local deer hunters are always glad to have a sportsman join their parties and share equally in all game taken. Deer hounds are owned by hunters adjacent to the Hofmann Forest and are available for all hunters who join in the hunts. Deer, bear, quail, squirrel, fox, rabbit, turkey, raccoon, opossum—all are found on the Hofman Forest. Military personnel are cordially invited to join in the hunts.

PERMITS

Daily permits for legal voters and residents of Jones and Onslow Counties are $2.00 per person; for non-residents $3.50. Permits are required of all hunters. They may be secured from the following:

W. I. Mallard, Game Protector, Maysville, N. C.

Riverview Hotel, Jacksonville, N. C.

George Kellum, Kellum Station, Jacksonville, N. C.

Lonnie Koonce, Special Game Protector, Richlands, N. C.

The following local party leaders may be contacted if you would like to join their hunting

Gunners Smash ComSerGrp Trojans 25-0 In Intra-Mural Contest Saturday

The Tenth Marine Gunners over-rode a fighting ComSerGrp eleven on the Hadnot Point gridiron last Saturday afternoon with a combined passing and running attack that scored 25 points in the first half, but was held scoreless in the second half as the Trojans stiffened their defense.

The game opened with a series of fumbles by both teams, followed by an exchange of punts that finally saw the Gunners settling down for their first touchdown drive from their own 40.

Running the ends behind excellent blocking, Evans and Semons took the ball to the Group 40, where the Gunners surprised everyone with a nice end around, with Davidson, right end, scooting wide to the left to the 19, where, on third and five to go, the Gunners pulled a pass from Evans to Ostergen, to the Trojan 5. Evans made 4 over right guard, and Ostergen plunged over for the score on the next play. Cackowski kicked the extra point.

Late in the first quarter, the Gunners went on the march again when Semons went 20 yards around right end to the Group 25 before being stopped by Angus. Sewass went for 11 through right tackle on the next play, and then passed to Ostergen for 7 yards to the Group 16. Evans and Taylor then took the ball to the two yard line on a series of line plays, and Evans went off right tackle to score. The conversion was no good.

On the kickoff after that touchdown, the Gunners found themselves in scoring position when Se-

Two of the largest military bases in the world will clash at Hadnot Point gridiron Sunday at 1430 in the "Military Bowl of Carolina" when the Fort Bragg All-Americans meet the Lejeune Marines for what promises to be the game of the year here at Camp Lejeune.

Football Tickets

Applications for all remaining Wake Forest football games are available at the Camp Special Services Office located in Bldg. 1005. These are applications only, and they must be submitted at least two weeks before the game desired.

Further information may be obtained at Bldg. 1005, in the Special Services Office.

LOS ANGELES, Calif. (AFPS)—A shorter playing schedule for 1949 will be discussed at the winter meeting of the Pacific Coast League baseball directors. The officials will also discuss plans for seeking relief from the major league draft.

George William Sparks, right guard for Lejeune, is a spunky lad from Malaga, Washington. When not in training for the football game he is police and property sergeant for Headquarters Company, 2nd Combat Service Group.

Born in Los Angeles, he joined the Marine Corps in 1937, spending some time in China and Guam. During the war he was a Prisoner of War. Among other awards, he wears two Presidential Unit Citations and a Purple Heart.

Although not first string, "Sparky" Sparks has played in all of the games with the team. What he lacks in size, he makes up in aggressiveness and spirit. Husky and well-built, he has the necessary stamina needed to finish out a ball game.

The All-Americans, who defeated thus far this year, bring a 45-man squad to Camp Lejeune, and the team will be accompanied by over 2,000 rooters, and several of the officers from the 82nd Airborne Division and Fort Bragg. Among invited guests is Governor of North Carolina.

The Fort Bragg team is composed of players from both 82nd Division and the Troops of Fort Bragg. Coached by Lts. Chester, Hayes, and Lins, the Army team is expected to give the Marines a battle to that of Quantico.

Most of the Lejeuneers will be for the game, but Overholt, for the locals, will probably be sent due to a bone infection leg.

Lejeune can be expected again employ their newly developed passing game, and it is the same degree of effectiveness reached as was displayed in their last game they will the Army a rough time.

Also on hand for the game will be the famous 82nd Airborne with over 100 pieces, to alternate with the Second Division Band supplying football music.

A capacity crowd is expected for the game, and with the weather the football spirit should be raised considerably. Referees will be available, and again the Lejeune cheerleaders will be on hand to encourage local rooters.

Fifty Candidates Show For Opening Basketball Practice

Over fifty candidates turned up for the opening basketball practice Monday at Gym 201. Coach C. Semons was pleased with the turnout. The new candidates will still be coming any afternoon at the practice gym.

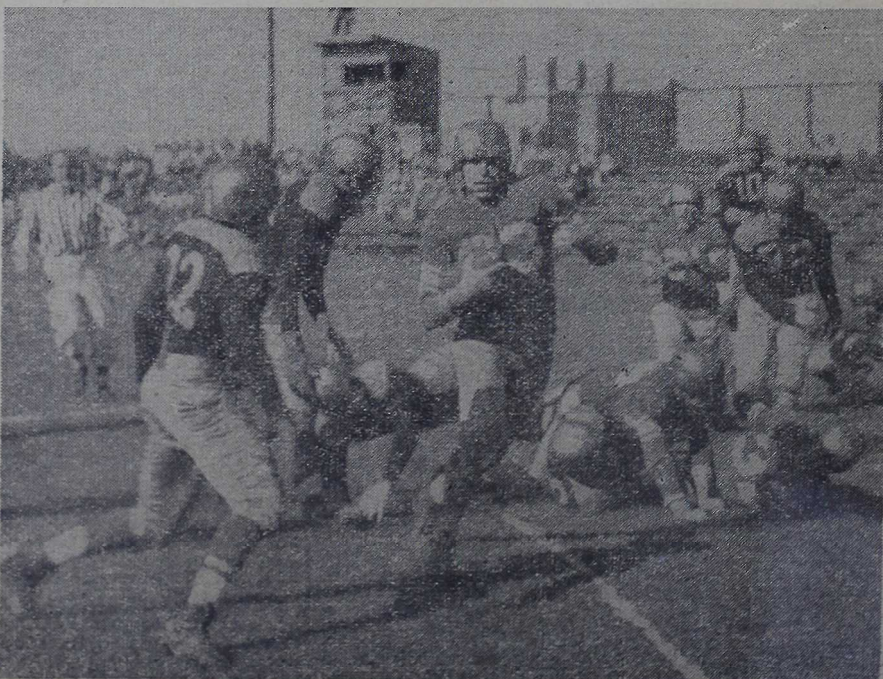

Men desiring to try out should contact their unit Special Services Officer to make arrangements regarding transportation from outlying detachments. Camp Lejeune has been making arrangements for practice, and equipment will be furnished at the practice gym.

The first game on the schedule is a scrimmage on November 26, at the center of the College at Williamsburg, Va. The tentative schedule includes several games with various teams during a five-day stay at Bermuda.

BUFFALO, N. Y. (AFPS)—San Francisco '49ers' quarterback Frankie Albert, recently completed a pass to Frankie Albert in the fourth quarter, Albert's pass was batted into the air by Vito Mazza, opposition Buffalo end. Albert dashed a few steps forward, snagged his own pass and gained a yard.

Hipps went for six off right to 23, Maksin ran through guard for seven yards and a down, and then went around end for a touchdown. Stein kicked the extra point successfully.

After a Mississippi punt to the line 49, Ptak passed to the Navy 28, threw a pass which fell incomplete, and then connected with a touchdown pass. Stein ran the ball off right for the extra point.

He earned their first 1st down the kickoff when Kapushky over left guard for five, and gained five on a penalty at Lejeune. They were forced into three downs later when and Bradfield threw them for a loss of two and four.

Early in the second quarter he passed to Westfall on the yard line from the Navy 7, and Westfall drove over the score with three would-be tacklers clinging to him. He's try for the extra point no good.

At the end of the half Lejeune scored again when Burnett scored a fumble on the Navy 12, Steepe went around left end and standing up from the 20 Lejeune had been penalized clipping on a touchdown pass Martin to Steepe.

The remainder of the half was marked by the large number of passes attempted, producing a thrill after thrill as they close but seldom connected.

Steen, Mississippi quarterback, outstanding throughout the half as he provided most of the punch the Navy showed, made many steps in the second zone.

In the last half of the game was a titanic battle, almost, of the first, Lejeune again smashed through the Navy line almost at the Navy 42. Hipps started the second parade from his own 42, he smashed through left end, cut to his right, and went to the center of the field to the score 40-0. Stein's conversion attempt was no good.

After the score was set up when he intercepted a Navy pass on the Navy 45 and returned it to the Maksin took the ball again for a yard gain through the center line, and then went over for a touchdown on an off tackle play. He kicked the extra point.

Early in the third quarter, he continued the touchdown parade when he went through guard on the mid-field stripe to the 10 behind beautiful play, and then went over to

Boxing Candidates Are Still Welcome At 4th Area Gym

The Fourth Area Gym resounds to the unmistakable blows of gloved fists on punching bags these days as the Camp Lejeune boxing team trains for the coming season.

Under the supervision of Lt. J. E. Cockrum, the hopeful pugilists are working hard to prepare for the series of matches which lead up to the All-Navy finals next May.

Last year they earned a fighting reputation in matches throughout the Carolinas and in the Atlantic Fleet and service competition, and it can be expected that this year they will make an even better showing, provided, of course, that more heavyweights show up for workouts.

Already entered in the Golden Gloves tournament in Charleston, several more matches are pending official notification.

Positions on the team are open to everyone, regardless of previous experience, so long as the candidate has no professional bouts on his record. Coach Cockrum would appreciate anyone who wants to try out, especially in the light-heavy class and up, reporting to Gym 401 after 1500 on any weekday.

Bowling League To Commence Soon At Officers' Mess

All commanding officers are invited to submit representative team entries consisting of not more than ten team members for a man's bowling league and a woman's bowling league to be conducted at the Paradise Point Officers' Mess; entries to be placed in the suggestion box at the Officers' Mess not later than 25 October, 1948. Any number of teams may represent a unit. Any person entitled to the privileges of the Officers' Mess may participate.

It is requested that the team captain be indicated. A bowling committee consisting of team captains will draw up the rules for conduct of the leagues. Suitable prizes for competition will be awarded, as recommended by the bowling committee and approved by the Board of Governors, Officers' Mess.

10th vs 21st At Midway Park Saturday; Trojans And Bulldozers On Navy Day

Saturday, 23 October, the Tenth Marine Gunners will face the 21st Marine Boondockers at Midway Park in the initial grid tilt for the 21st Marines. The other intra-mural game of the coming week will take place on Navy Day, Wednesday, 27 October, at Hadnot Point, when the ComSerGrp Trojans will take on the Engineer Battalion Bulldozers. Both games will commence at 1400.

mons intercepted a Trojan pass on their 40 and returned it to the 12 before he was brought down by Snider. Evans made his second touchdown from the one yard line after he had carried the ball up there on two line plunges. The conversion attempt was no good.

The final score of the game was again set up by a pass interception when Settimio took a Trojan pass on their 40 and returned it to the 30 before Thompson stopped him Schwass connected with Taylor for a 10 yard pass gain, and then another end around by Cackowski took the ball to Trojan 5, where Schwass went around right end for the touchdown. Lively and Lynn blocked the conversion attempt.

The half ended as Menifee returned a Gunner punt for 40 yards to the Gunner 20. Lynn, Wiggins and Lively were line standouts for the ComSerGrp Trojans during the first half, and Szwecuga and Menifee, Kishel and Schoener did well in the Trojan backfield.

The second half opened with a determined Trojan drive that was interrupted when Settimio intercepted Schoener's pass on his own thirty and twisted his way up to the Group 34 before he was tackled from behind by Reyes. A penalty set the Gunners back to the 40, and the Trojans gained possession of the ball on their own 35 when Siarricco intercepted Ogden's pass. The favor was returned two plays later when Novotny intercepted Kishel's pass on the Group 41. Evans made a first down on three successive off-tackle plays, and a play later Semons went around left end for a touchdown, but it was called back. After another first down by Evans, the Trojans held with Zidn and Hawks displaying good defensive work.

Late in the third quarter, the Gunners threatened again, but penalties and a couple of backfield tackles by Lynn and Zidn gave the ball to the Trojans on their own 15. After three incomplete passes, a bad punt, and a penalty set the Group back to their 25, but a stiffened line and standout line play by Wiggins and Smith finally held the Gunners on the Trojan 8 yard line. As the game ended, the Group was staging a desperate pass attack which had gained them 35 yards on three attempts.

The Gunners' success was due in large part to the excellent line work of the offensive and defensive teams of Cabral, Cackowski, Ostrander, Pierce, Ustaszewski, Shiner, and Downs, on the offense, and Shea, Hykes, Reschke, Risser, Kuzelow, and Mitchell on the defense. Davidson, a recent addition to the Gunner line, played an excellent game at end, while Novotny, Ogden, Ostergen, Evans, Settimio, Schwass, Semons, Taylor, and Ward were all Gunner dependables in the backfield.

Romey, Schoener, Kishel, and Menifee played well in the Group backfield, and Wiggins, Hawk, Reyes, Angus, Smith, Lively, Lynn, and Zidn were very aggressive in the Group line.

SYRACUSE, N. Y. (AFPS)—Syracuse holds an 11 to 8 edge over Columbia in a football series which began back in 1901.

The rejuvenated Gunners, one of the most powerful teams in the league, as shown by their latest win over the Trojans, will be without the services of a first string back and two starting linemen, who are being transferred shortly to the dismay of their coach.

With their combined passing and running attack which proved so successful in their last game, however, they should be able to face the Boondockers with some degree of confidence, as the latter will be operating under the handicap of a short training period and no previous games.

The Trojans will be trying desperately to add another win to their ledger, but coming up against the Bulldozers, who have the smallest squad but the biggest men of any team on the base, they will find that it will be a battle all the way.

This game should be about even—the Engineers tied the Gunners early in the season, and lost to the league-leading Deacons in their first game. The Trojans have beaten the AlMars, and lost recently to the Gunners.

A large crowd is expected for the Navy Day game, and with "Open House" on the base that day many visitors can be expected. Refreshments will be sold at the game, and the Division Band will supply music.

San Diego MCRD Band Takes Highest Honors At Football Festival

SAN DIEGO, California (October 13).—For the second consecutive year, the Marine Corps Band from the Marine Corps Recruit Depot at San Diego, walked off with top honors at Berkeley's Annual Football Festival, winning against strong competition Friday, September 17, 1948.

The hour-long spectacle, highlighting the day-long homage to King Football, was sparked by dazzling bands.

The Marine Corps Recruit Depot Band won the trophy last year, competing against almost 50 other bands, and duplicated the feat this year. Only one more win is required to permanently gain possession of the Perpetual trophy.

At the game held recently between Santa Clara and the University of California, the Marine Band again played a major part in entertainment. A tremendous ovation greeted the band when they entered the field before game-time to present a mass band rendition of the National Anthem in conjunction with the band from the University of California.

During the half-time, the Marine band marched the length of the field and saluted the University of California with the "Big C", then went to the other side of the field to honor Santa Clara with a rendition of the Santa Clara "Fight Song."

STATE COLLEGE, Pa. (AFPS)—There'll be another Hamas at Penn State soon. Steve Hamas, one of the two five-sport athletes in Lion history, and a former heavyweight title contender, declared his son, now a senior in high school, will enter Penn State a year hence.

Any civil service employee is eligible to submit beneficial suggestions which have resulted in or will result in improvement or economy to the operation of the Navy through monetary savings, increased efficiency, conservation of property, improved working conditions, better service to the public, etc. If you have a useful idea, turn it in now to the Recorder of the Camp Beneficial Suggestions Committee at the Industrial Relations Office. You may win an award up to $275.

PEONY by Pearl Buck. Peony, pretty Chinese bondmaid, lived with a Chinese-Jewish family. She loved David, son of the house, whom she had known from childhood, but she knew they could never be married. David was faced with the problem of whether to marry Leah, beautiful daughter of the Rabbi, as his orthodox mother wished, or Kuelian, Chinese daughter of his father's business friend.

This novel presents a good picture of China a century ago but its main theme is the acceptance and absorption of the Jews by the Chinese.

SO DEADLY FAIR by Gertrude Walker. Reviewers say this novel could establish this new author as the American woman novelist who writes most like James M. Cain.

Here is a story of a woman named Elizabeth and the men whose lives she influenced. One man, the narrator of the tale, spent the years in prison for her murder. But he never stopped looking for her after his parole—he knew she was still alive.

A compelling story about the seamy side—highly recommended for men readers.

It is made up of sound truths and helpful suggestions on how to overcome the worry habit.

RAMBLING ON A ROYAL

This isn't for the GOPers or Demos or any other "vote for me and I'll give you" crowd. Likewise, these opening slides aren't for the followers of Charlie Justice or the punt and pass paragraph gleamers of Northwestern and Texas. It's mainly for the gents and their ladies who have small fry around the house.

Remember sometime back we had Fred Fletcher aircasting his Fairy Tales over WJNC? Fred really had a good show for the little tots and they used to live on every word. Well, we now have another show for the little ones and it's beamed out each and every Tuesday and Thursday from 4:30 to 4:45. The title of the program is Aunt Virginia's Fairy Tales and if your small fry haven't heard it yet, whisk on 1240 at these periods and let them ride with Aunt Virginia on her magic carpet into the land of make believe.

Whether it's by habit or what, we just can't seem to let a column get by us without paraphrasing something or other about who is playing who and when on the week-end grid field. This week WJNC will bring you the Louisiana State-Carolina pigskin tussle Saturday at 1:45. This Carolina grid club as we dot out it's and cross our t's is the number one club in the nation. L. S. U. is hardly a push-over. With Ray Reeve at the mike, it should make good listening.

Emcee Bob Shepard, of the WJNC-Mutual "Take A Number" quiz show heard each Saturday from 5 to 5:30 P. M., is a bit squeamish these days when approached about doing the quiz show from a country fair. A recent aircast of Take A Number originated from the Danville, Va. State Fair, with emcee Don flanked on the left by a roaring, though tamed lion, and with a high-wire trapeze set-up behind him. His audience, to boot, was seated on planks placed across hay bales spaced twenty feet apart. Whoops, no place for this author.

Important Events In U. S. History Are Commemorated By Navy Day

(AFPS)—Navy day, October 27, will commemorate two important events in American Naval history. On this day, the Continental Congress established the nucleus of today's Navy. This day, too, marks the birth of Theodore Roosevelt, 25th President of the United States and father of the Navy.

October 27, 1775, saw the first resolution to authorize American warships for the defense of the Colonies introduced in the Continental Congress and passed three days later.

Soon after—on November 10, 1775—the Marine Corps also came into official being.

But the Navy came under the Department of War, and it was not until April 30, 1798, that Congress established the Department of the Navy. The Act called for a chief officer titled Secretary of the Navy, "whose duty shall be to execute such orders as he shall receive from the President of the United States relative to the procurement of naval stores and materials, and the construction, armament, equipment, and employment of vessels of war, as well as all other matters connected with the military establishment of the United States."

Approximately 300 mattresses, $4500 worth, as well as 50 pillows, at $2.00 each, were burned in Barracks 205 last Friday morning. This alarm was turned in at approximately 0225 by the sentry patrolling the area. Well done, Sentry!

The probable cause was spontaneous combustion BUTT it could have been caused by a smoldering cigarette butt left by the working party that had been in the building during the day. WATCH YOUR CIGARETTE BUTTS!

If it is necessary to use a barracks for stowage, unit commanders are requested to stack mattresses in the center of the barracks using folded metal cots, three high, as platforms.

One third of the above loss was caused by water on the deck.

Before leaving buildings, look around—it might save lives and property.

Reason For Repeat Pictures At Camp Theaters Explained

Many movie-goers wonder why they are treated to a fifth-rate production instead of a good picture at Camp Lejeune theaters. The answer is simple and easily explained.

The Special Services Section strives to present the best in motion pictures. All films are obtained from Exhibition Service of Charlotte, North Carolina, the largest booking agency in the South, and are pre-released here several weeks before the commercial theaters receive them.

Hollywood only releases 238 new motion pictures a year and of

Marine Bn., Band In Parade At Raleigh 21st Marines Unit At Legion Convention

Miami, Florida Scene Of Nat'l Convention

Marching through the palm-fringed streets of Miami, Florida this week were approximately 274 officers and men of the 21st Marines who carried the Marine Standard to the American Legion Convention in that city.

The detachment, under the command of Lt. Col. F. E. Gallagher, Jr., executive officer of the 21st Marines, left by plane Sunday and returned to Camp Lejeune Wednesday afternoon.

The Marines participated in several of the activities during the national convention and were present during President Truman's brief visit to Miami prior to his stop in Raleigh.

clarinet. Other members of the orchestra include Arbel Carrier, tenor sax and bass clarinet; Tommy Mills, tenor and baritone sax and clarinet; Bernard McCulloch, pianist and librarian; "Bill" Smiley, drums, novelty vocals; and Johnny McCrory, trumpet and novelty vocals.

course Special Services has to obtain 365 films in order to show a different film every day. About twenty percent of the annual releases are poor or mediocre pictures. Fifty of the 238 are westerns or "horse operas". That leaves less than 150 top-flight productions for showing at the Camp theaters. It is, therefore easily understood why it is necessary to use repeat runs.

Requests, signed by a large group of individuals, asking for the repeat showing of a top quality first-run picture will be welcomed by the Camp Special Services Officer.

President Leads Parade Through N. C. Capital

Tuesday morning, in a parade by the President of the United States, the Second Marine Division Band and a Marine band marched through Raleigh's thoroughfare to Capitol Square exercises dedicating a bronze to three native Tar Heels who came President—Andrew Jackson, James K. Polk, and Andrew Johnson.

The special battalion was posed of 1 company, 1 platoon and 2 squads from the 10th Marines; 1 platoon from the 2d Engineer Battalion; and 1 squad from the 21st Marines. The band was commanded by Lt. Col. F. Mallard, commanding officer of the 1st Provisional Artillery Battalion.

The 2d Division Band was the direction of 1st Lt. E. G.

The parade was one of the events scheduled during President Truman's visit to the North Carolina capital city and included the Marine units, troops from the 82d Airborne Division, the senior ROTC unit band from N. C. State College, Wake Forest College band, Raleigh High School band, and Negro drum and bugle corps. Charles T. Norwood Post, American Legion as well as representatives of veterans organizations and other patriotic groups.

The 2d Division units left Raleigh early Tuesday morning and returned the same day.

Fashion Show

A Fashion Show, first in a projected series of programs designed to entertain and benefit all wives of officers and men stationed at Camp Lejeune, was presented by the Officers' Wives Club at the Camp Theater last Wednesday afternoon. Members of the club modeled the gowns which were supplied by the MacDonald Dress Shop, owned by Mesdames Evelyn MacDonald and Sarah E. Pierce of Wilmington. Hats were by Lelia Corbin of Wilmington and flowers were by Mr. F. D. Edwards of the Midway Park Beauty Salon and Mr. Gardner created the make-up. Fashions were displayed in five categories: casuals, for street and sport; suits and coats; cocktail dresses and costume suits; evening clothes; and maternity fashions. The Fashion Show offered an excellent opportunity for the wives of personnel stationed here to view the latest in Fall styles and fashions and interest was apparent by the fine attendance. Below right are, left to right, Mr. F. D. Edwards, Mr. Sarah Pierce, Mrs. Evelyn MacDonald, and Mrs. Lelia Corbin, whose wholehearted cooperation made the show a complete success. (Photo by Cpl. Mrs. Franklin A. Hart, President of the Officers' Wives Club, welcomed the members of the club, wives of personnel stationed at Camp Lejeune, and their guests to the Fashion Show during a short introductory talk.
