Harry Clinton Band Play For Dance Pavilion 21st

The famous recording band of Harry Clinton was engaged yesterday to play for the next dance at the Pavilion one week from today, the 21st. The dance will be a highlight of the week's recreation program with music from 2000 to 2200.

In addition to the top-notch music of this well-known dance orchestra, there will be a broad range of food from 2200 to 2230 as well as many hostesses from local cities and towns. Plan now to attend.

More States Consider Bonus To World War II Vets

WASHINGTON, D. C.—Ten more states will decide in November whether to clear the legal path for bonus payments to veterans of World War II. Bonus programs already are in effect in Connecticut, Illinois, Massachusetts, Michigan, New Hampshire, New York, North Dakota, and South Carolina.

Greens Uniform Of The Day Tomorrow; Liberty Uniform Blues Except Locally

The green uniform, Marine harbinger of winter, becomes uniform of the day tomorrow at Camp Lejeune according to a Camp General Order published this week. Blue undress will be the uniform for the day except in the immediate vicinity of Lejeune where the uniform of the day with jacket, service, may be worn.

Following are excerpts from the complete quotation of the Camp General Order. All hands are enjoined to read and comply with Camp General Order No. 94.

ENLISTED

Uniform of the Day
Winter Service A or B (as determined by organization commanders) with winter service cap. The overalls will be worn when prescribed appropriate. The coat or jacket may be dispensed with during working hours. The field, M-1943, may be worn during cold or inclement weather within the limits of the reservation (including Midway Park). The jacket, field, M-1943, may not be worn on liberty.

Uniform For Liberty
Undress. In the immediate vicinity of Camp Lejeune the uniform of the day with the jacket, winter, may be worn. (See paragraph below for definition of immediate vicinity). White cap will be worn with blue undress until 1 December. On that date it will be changed to blue cap covers.

"Immediate vicinity" of Lejeune is defined as being the area within fifty miles of the nearest gate of Camp Lejeune. This will include such places as Morehead City, New Kingston, and Wilmington.

North Carolina. Shoes

Dress shoes will be worn for leave, liberty, during attendance at clubs, chapels, Marston Pavilion, and when prescribed by organization commanders. Dress shoes are optional at theaters and when working in offices. Field shoes will be worn when prescribed by organization commanders.

Uniforms for Drill, Instruction, and Working Details

In lieu of the uniform of the day, organization commanders may prescribe appropriate regulation articles of clothing, including utility garments, and may permit scarfs to be dispensed with and shirts to be worn open at the neck.

GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS Formations

All men in formation will be in the same uniform.

The uniform of the day will be worn for all evening mess formations, and for all holiday mess formations except breakfast.

Wearing of the Uniform

The uniform of the day will be worn while attending theaters, athletic events and in Service Clubs, hostess houses, soda fountains and coffee shops.

The wearing of utility garments when commuting to and from the reservation is not permitted. Wearing of utility clothing when commuting between Midway Park and any other area of the reservation is likewise prohibited. Personnel on a commuted ration status may eat the breakfast and noon meals at the Civilian Cafeteria in utility clothing. The wearing of utility garments in lieu of the uniform of the day is not authorized, and the utility garment is to be considered only as a special garment for special wear. When the utility uniform is worn it will be definitely prescribed for the occasion by the unit commander, such as for field drills, gun park work, mechanics, etc.

Final Appearances Of Snake Show Tonight At Camp Theater, Hospital

The new and completely different show which opened at Court-house Bay Monday makes its final appearances at Camp Lejeune tonight when G. Tex Worthe, prominent herpetologist, gives a demonstration and lecture on reptiles at the Camp Theater at 1800 and at the Naval Hospital at 2000.

Brought to Lejeune by Camp Special Services, the show has proved highly interesting as well as educational during its appearances so far this week.

Tex is renowned for his familiarity with all species of reptiles, and has spent the past three and one half years touring various Army bases giving instructions to personnel on the subject of herpetology.

Next Tilt Sunday At 1430 Against USS Mississippi

A well-oiled Camp Lejeune football machine rolled over the fighting Norfolk Marines to the tune of a 42-0 score at the Hadnot Point gridiron last Saturday before 5000 spectators.

Sharpening up for their contest with the USS Mississippi here next Sunday at 1430, the Lejeuners scored twice in every period but the first with a strong ground attack that was seldom stopped by Norfolk.

Guests at the game included Maj. Gen. Franklin A. Hart, as well as many families of officers and men from Camp, and civilians from Jacksonville. The Second Division Band and Drum and Bugle Corps gave an outstanding performance at half time, in addition to periodic music during the game. Adding to the football spirit were the Lejeune cheerleaders, in colorful uniform, to guide rooting for the home team.

After two first quarter fumbles deep in Norfolk territory, the local lads settled down and completed the remainder of the game without a bad handle. Lejeune took the ball late in the first quarter on their own 35 to start the first scoring march as "Big" Hipps and Stein ripped off long gains, to carry the ball to the Norfolk 9, where Stein took it through guard for seven yards, and Maxsin went over center on the next play to score. "Big" Hipps kicked the extra point.

Lejeune spent the remainder of the half deep in Norfolk territory as play was marked by excellent Norfolk defensive work by Melanson and Kimmel. The visitors held

3rd Nation-Wide Exam For College Training Program December 11

The Navy announced recently that the third nation-wide competitive examination for its College Training Program has been scheduled for December 11, 1948, and will be open to high school seniors or graduates within the age requirements. Successful candidates will be given a four-year college education at government expense and will be commissioned as officers of the Navy or Marine Corps upon graduation.

Mr. B. A. Barringer, Principal of Camp Lejeune Schools, who is acting as the Navy's local civilian representative, will be pleased to provide specific information about the program, including the time and place of the competitive examination, the method of making application, and the specific age and scholastic qualifications.

The program is open to male citizens of the United States between the ages of 17 and 21, and quotas have been assigned to each

Men Of The Corps

Our Heritage

America is not only made up of land and rivers, homes and factories. It consists of people—men and women who use the abundant resources of America in the pursuit of happiness. It is made up of individuals who join together both for the pursuit of happiness, and for the preservation of the great democracy which is theirs.

The U. S. Marine Corps—venerable and well-established as it is—depends also on the character and loyalty and ideals of the personnel in its ranks. The history of the Corps is certainly glorious and inspiring. This history has been made not by a mechanical organization, but by the United States Marines.

So, to understand their life in the service, and their devotion to the spirit and traditions which have come down through the years, it's necessary to discuss the men and women who make the organization what it is.

The good Marine has many special qualifications. He is carefully selected, thoroughly trained, and throughout his service exposed to the high esprit and traditions of the Corps.

Marines come from farms, small towns, cities; or from the North or South, East or West and represent the cross-section of American life.

Marines do not derive their special character from their geographical source, nor from a background of life on the farm, or in a factory, or in any special pursuit. The average American boy has in him the makings of a good Marine.

For the new recruit, first comes "boot training" where he acquires the new skills and military virtues of the Corps. The object of this training, which is thorough, is not to destroy confidence but to instill confidence. They have been taught to stand erect, to keep their clothes in order, neatly pressed, and to wear their uniforms proudly and properly.

They have learned more about competition. That the wishes of the individual sometimes must be subordinated to the object in view; but they have also learned the value of whole-hearted cooperation.

Working and learning and living with young men of other background or creed, they have acquired new horizons and new maturity.

The effect of Marine training is to make a good citizen a better citizen. The basis for the character of the Corps is the character of the American people, whose sons and brothers fill its ranks. The basis for the traditions of the Corps is personal integrity and selfless service.—W. B. K.

Chaplain's Corner

Fat As Grease

One of the common judgments of the world today is that religion is dull. And because of this attitude many people feel like the Marine that said to his buddy, "Let's go to Church Sunday, just for the heck of it." But in spite of such attitudes, we know that religion does contain an inspiration for many.

Our Psalmist tells us that he delights, yes thrills to religion. That's news! A thrill in religion? How fantastic, says the world.

This common conception of religion is illustrated daily in some phase of life. A good illustration might be found in our brig hospital. At times, in both of these places, men become despondent and lonesome because of their plight. And it isn't a rare occasion when men feel in such straits they turn to prayer or Scripture reading. If and when this does occur, others in the vicinity will wonder whether or not the man is losing his sanity. This certainly is an ironic comment on our ideas of religion, that a man in the hour of trial, looking for assistance in religion, should be considered peculiar.

Such a view of experience certainly is not worthy of consideration. Our Psalmist also tells us, "Their heart is as fat as grease," and the Revised Version has an alternative reading, which is, "Their minds are as fat as grease." This certainly is a realistic picture of people that suffer from mental fatness. Mental exertion is smothered by layers of fat. The best they can do is waddle through life with a distorted picture of life.

We can mention case after case of people whose minds are not mere grease stains and who find a thrill in a faith in God, a thrill not comparable to any other stimulation. It is a thrill of finding a high meaning to the world. The world is not blank, there is a plot, a meaning to it. And its highest meaning is found in that "face divine that haunts the hopes of men."

It is this zest, this thrill, which minds that are "coarse and dull," "fat as grease," can never know. Let us find this thrill, at least look for it. We can start in the right direction by attending the Chapel services regularly. Do you care whether or not your mind is as "FAT AS GREASE?"

NEW RIVER RIPPLES

A young Chinese student living in a boarding house was anything but clean. In one of the dirty premises he was greatly surprised one day to find a card tacked on the front door of his landlady.

CLEAN YOUR FEET, it said in big letters.

The Chinese student took a pencil and on the same card, immediately underneath, he wrote, GOING OUT.

The curfew tolls the knell of parting day,
A line of cars winds slowly through the lea,
A pedestrian plods his aimless way
And leaves the world quite unexpectedly.

Zeke was dead. A wonderful funeral was in progress. The preacher talked at length of good traits of the deceased but, what an honest man he was, what a good provider he was, a loving husband and a father.

At length the widow whispered to one of her offspring: "Go, take a look in that corner and see if that's your pa."

A young lawyer was arguing his first case. "Gentlemen of the jury," he declared, "there were twenty-four hogs involved in this suit—just exactly twice the number in the jury box."

The flag-pole sitter felt quite alone. His wife had passed away. And so he climbed the pole and at half-mast all that day.

A minesweeper is a guy who walks around a ship and all the officers open their cabin doors and yell, "Hey, you, come here and sweep mine."

"For managers and overseers," proclaimed a great Chinese owner, "always give me managers."

"And for what reason?" asked the inquirer.

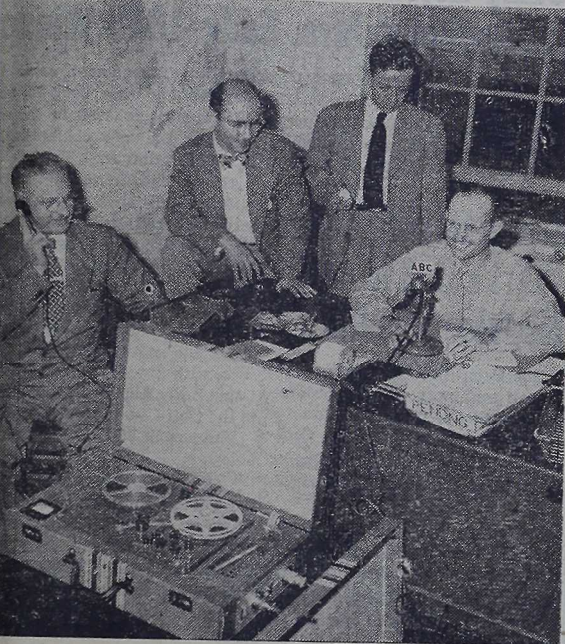

"Because," said the wealthy Chinese, "I abhor the muddled unreasons that have been sent to me by bachelors. They have never to explain anything to a wife."

Broadcast To Mark Corps' Birthday; 2d Div. Spotted

On November 9, in observance of the 173rd Marine Corps Anniversary the following day, the American Broadcasting Company will originate a 30-minute aircast over a national hook-up featuring the voices of men of the Corps at posts and stations throughout the United States and at Guantanamo Bay, Cuba.

Last week, a three-man team from ABC visited Lejeune to record interviews with Lt. Col. George T. Fowler, Ass't G-3, 2d Division, and seven men of the 21st Marines. Upon completion of the tour, the network will edit the tape to pack the most interesting facts into the 30-minute program. When the program takes to the air, the voices of the Lejeune personnel will be heard coast-to-coast for approximately three minutes.

Lt. Col. Fowler has just returned from Palestine where he served on the truce commission of the late Count Folke Bernadotte. Brig. Gen. W. E. Riley, ADC of the 2d Division, is still in Palestine as Chief of Military Observers in the Palestine area.

The seven men of the 21st Marines, Sgt. Coulter, Cpl. McMeney, and Pfc. Crehan from "A" Co.; S/Sgt. Johnson and Sgt. Gross from "B" Co.; Pfc. Bisson and Pfc. Scott from "C" Co., have just returned from duty in the Mediterranean.

The three staff members of the ABC network were Ira Marion, writer; Charles H. Powers, producer; and J. J. Boureier, engineer.

MCI Military Geology Course Can Help In Advancement, Decision

Hannibal's legions in crossing the Alps surmounted adverse terrain conditions and incredible hardships to defeat the Romans in the Valley of the Po. The history of land warfare indicates that military commanders have from ancient times given serious consideration to terrain factors in formulation of campaign decisions.

WO D. M. Taylor Awarded Silver Star For Gallantry In Action At Peleliu

Marine Warrant Officer Dennis M. Taylor of Division Headquarters and Service Battalion, received the Silver Star Médal last Wednesday for gallantry in action at the invasion of Peleliu.

The decoration was presented by Colonel John A. Saxten, commanding H&S, at a battalion formation on the area 3 recreation field.

WO Taylor was serving as a Captain in the Marine Corps Reserve when the First Division initiated the Palau Islands campaign. During the invasion of Peleliu, September, 1944, he landed his company on the center of the beach and maneuvered his men against strongly entrenched enemy positions.

In the face of intense machine gun, mortar and artillery fire, he led his assault platoons against high commanding ground, eliminating one blockhouse and six pillboxes. On the following day he distinguished himself for the second time by re-establishing contact with his company and an isolated unit under enemy fire.

WO Taylor is the officer in charge of the Division training aids library.

TERRAIN CONDITIONS STUDIED
Today's practitioner of the military art must be able to make decisions on the basis of terrain factors in formulation of campaign decisions.

New Program At Marston Pavilion; Floor Show, Broadcast Spark Dances

Marston Pavilion is rapidly becoming the focal point of interest for the Marines here, since the inception of an entirely new recreation program. A number of innovations give promise of great enjoyment during the fall season of dances to be held at the Pavilion.

Last week's dance was the second under the new program, which features a short floor show during intermission. Not only was the show a great success, but also a subsequent thirty-minute broadcast over the local radio station of Allan Craig's "Dreamtime" was a great success.

Billie Arthur of Jacksonville, Fla., and the floor show which was highlighted by little Pauline Kenney's second guest appearance at Camp Lejeune.

The dances will continue to run on the first and third Thursdays of each month. Arrangements will be made through Special Services Officer, Mr. Lester Gould, manager of the pavilion, to broadcast special attractions.

One very apparent reason for the success of last week's dance was the number of junior hostesses present. The girls represented five North Carolina cities: Wilmington, Kinston, Jacksonville, Morehead City and Beaufort. They filled four busses, comprising the largest group of hostesses to attend this summer.

Inspection Lane At Jacksonville; Future Dates Announced

The North Carolina Automobile Inspection lane has been in Jacksonville for the past two years and will remain through tomorrow. The lane will move to Jacksonville from November 15 and again from December 15.

The inspection lane at Wilmington has been made a permanent lane and will inspect cars on all further notice.

The lane is expected to be located at the same place on Johnson Street, between Highway 17 and 24, on each visit to Jacksonville.

The registration is in accordance with Alnav 59-48, which states that all personnel, male and female, will be recorded for purposes of determining the state, territory, possession and District of Columbia induction quotas. Quotas awarded states will be based on actual number of men eligible for service under the Selective Service Act of 1948 who are not deferred after classification. Each state will receive credit for residents already in the armed forces.

All age groups in the Marines and Navy are to be recorded on NME Form 53 which is available to commands at all district publications and printing offices. The forms must be completed as of midnight, Oct. 31, 1948. Naval personnel will not be concerned with the filling out of the form. This must be accomplished by their respective commands.

Lejeune-Norfolk Win Evens Score; 2 Losses, 2 Wins

Lejeune for four plays on their own five yard line. "Little" Hipps scored a few minutes later when he intercepted a Norfolk pass on their 35 and scooted the field. Steepe kicked the conversion.

Norfolk pulled one of the most daring plays of the game a moment before the first half closed when, on the fourth down on the Lejeune forty, King, Norfolk left half, threw a neat 15 yard pass to Rich from the deep punt formation. Ptak, Lejeune safety, stopped him on the Lejeune 25 as the half ended.

The second half kickoff by Stein of Lejeune was received by Richeson on his own 8, and he ran it to the 21 before being stopped by Bakewell and Overholt. Held for no gain on three plays. Kimmel tried to punt, but Sadler, veteran Lejeune linesman, broke through and blocked the kick. Burnett, home team end, recovered on the Norfolk 10. "Big" Hipps went around right end for the score two plays later from the Norfolk seven. He also made the conversion kick good.

Later on in the third quarter Maxsin, Lejeune right half, interrupted a Norfolk drive when he intercepted a pass from Kimmel, Norfolk fullback, on the Norfolk thirty and threaded his way down the center of the field for another score. Stein converted with a place kick.

In the fourth quarter the tiring Norfolk team tried hard to stave off a pressing Lejeune attack, but after being held for three plays on their own thirty, Coggans of Norfolk kicked to his own forty, where Bayless and Slater took the ball for 12 yards and a first down on two plays. Zakula made another first down on two right side plays, and then Slater, Lejeune quarterback, sneaked thru the center on two more plays for a first and goal to go on the Norfolk five yard line. Zakula drove over center to score one play later. Ward, Lejeune tackle, kicked the conversion point.

Norfolk staged their last threat late in the final period when Candler, Norfolk end, intercepted a pass by Chiapuzio on his own twenty five and returned it to the Norfolk 35. Coggans threw a pass for Kimmel a play later, but it was intercepted on the fifty by Lejeune's Bakewell, however, he fumbled and Norfolk recovered on the Lejeune 45. Sicard then went through the center of the Lejeune line for twenty yards and a first down on the Lejeune 25, but, after being thrown for losses by Dawson and Stein, Clark punted to Ptak. Lejeune safety, who returned the ball to the Lejeune 15. A penalty against Lejeune set them back to the one yard line, where Stein and Maxsin pulled Lejeune out of the hole to the twelve yard line, where it was first and ten.

On the next play Stein took the ball on an off tackle play and ran the length of the field to score on the longest run of the day, with the entire Lejeune team providing blocking, including a spectacular block by end Romero of the Norfolk safety man. "Big" Hipps kicked the extra point.

Camp Basketball Team Will Organize Monday, 18 Oct.

Basketball at Camp Lejeune will get underway during the coming week when candidates for the Camp squad report to Gym 201 at 1600 on Monday, 18 October, for tryouts.

Plans call for the bigger schedule than any previous season at Camp Lejeune. In addition to the tentative schedule given below, plans also call for entry into the Southern Division of the Middle Eastern Service Command League, which includes Army, Navy, Air Force and Marine Corps teams in the Norfolk area.

All hands desiring to try out for the team are urged to report to Gym 201 at 1600 on Monday, 16 October, where more complete details will be released concerning training, etc. Men from the Second Division and Marine Barracks, and all attached units at Camp Lejeune are eligible.

The coach for the team will be Major Anthony Caputo, former forward and center at the University of Pennsylvania, where he played under Lon Jourdet, one of the best known basketball coaches in the United States.

Equipment for the tryouts will be furnished by Camp Special Services.

Gunners Vs. Group Eleven At Hadnot Field On Saturday

Saturday, 16 October, the ComSerGrp eleven will face the 10th Marine Gunners at 1400 on either the Varsity Practice Field or the Main Camp Field in the only intra-mural game scheduled for this week.

The Gunners, a greatly improved ball club, will face a team which has not had much chance to demonstrate their offensive power, their only previous game is a 6-0 win over the AlMars on a very muddy field.

Despite that mud, they showed great defensive promise in holding the AlMars to few gains of any kind on the cold and damp field. Deep in reserves and with a heavy line, the ComSerGrp team will have a tough time stopping the powerful Gunners, who are the most improved team in the intra-mural league, as demonstrated by their win over the hard-fighting AlMars.

Weekly Radio Program Over WJNC Tonite Will Feature The Engineers

The weekly radio program featuring Marines at Camp Lejeune, will be heard over station WJNC this evening at 2015. The program this week, one of a series being produced by the Division Public Information Office, will spotlight the activities and function of the Marine Corps Engineers.

This series is designed to bring you a word picture of the life and training of the modern Marine, and should prove to be informative and interesting to all listeners.

Camp Lejeune Golf Champions Named Lt. Anthony, Mrs. Eddy-1948 Winner

The Camp Lejeune Golf Championship Tournament came to a highly successful conclusion last Sunday evening when over 75 competitors for the beautiful perpetual trophies gathered in the Point Golf Course Clubhouse to honor the new champion W. S. Anthony and Mrs. L. J. Eddy, at a buffet dinner.

Camp Boxing Team Works Out In 401; Heavies Needed

The Camp Lejeune Boxing team is well underway with its preliminary workouts in preparation for the coming season, and Lt. Cockrum, team coach is quite pleased with the showings of his charges thus far.

There is, however, a definite need for candidates for the Heavy and Lightheavy classes, and all men who are in those weights will be welcomed with open arms at Gym 401 on any day between 1500 and 1700 at the gym.

Early candidates include a number of men from last year's team, as well as newcomers with experience who have recently been transferred to Lejeune. Experience is not necessary to try out, however, and lack of experience should not stop anyone who has the urge to try out.

Among the newcomers on the Lejeune boxing scene are Tommy Otero, lightweight from the 10th Marines, and Lee Damon, another lightweight, of the Second Marines.

Red Red Davis and Mario Pinnelli, standouts on last year's team, are back again this year, and also out is T/Sgt. Diaz, classy veteran boxer and Marine.

If the team continues to shape up as it is right now, and if a heavyweight can be found, the team can again be expected to earn a fighting reputation in Southeastern boxing.

STATE COLLEGE, Pa. (AFPS)

Penn State's 10-year football record, from 1938 to 1947 inclusive, is 58 victories, 20 defeats, seven ties. The 1947 team was the only squad unbeaten and untied.

Almost outshining the trophies with its brilliance was the cake prepared by the Cooks and Bakers school of the Supply Battalion. It tasted as good as looked, as was proved after the champions had cut the master's. The dinner and cake were prepared under the supervision of WO1 sock, with funds provided from Camp Recreation Fund and all to the Golf Course for that purpose. Winners in each flight are below:

CHAMPIONSHIP FLIGHT

Lt. W. S. Anthony, who defeated HM1/c T. J. Hornbuckle, 11 and 10 to go in 36 holes.

CHAMPIONSHIP CONSOLATION

Sgt. J. B. Spencer, who defeated M/Sgt. C. C. Adams, 1 up in 4 holes.

1ST FLIGHT CHAMPION

Maj. R. H. Gray, who defeated M/Sgt. J. F. Gallagher, 5 up in 4 to go.

1ST FLIGHT CONSOLATION

Lt. Col. M. I. Shuford, who defeated Capt. A. J. Strohmenger, and 1.

2ND FLIGHT CHAMPION

Col. G. H. Cloud, who defeated M/Sgt. W. J. Wylie.

2ND FLIGHT CONSOLATION

3RD FLIGHT CHAMPION

Capt. K. M. Kusiak, by default over Lt. A. D. Capps, (Lt. Capps was confined in the Naval Hospital with appendicitis.)

3RD FLIGHT CONSOLATION

Capt. G. B. Gibson, who defeated Maj. C. N. Johnson, 2 and 1.

4TH FLIGHT CHAMPION

M/Sgt. J. L. Craumer, who defeated Lt. Col. N. A. Sisak, 11 and 19 holes.

4TH FLIGHT CONSOLATION

ons Dump Bulldozers For 3rd Win, in Top Spot In Intra-Mural Race

Division Deacons ran and passed their way to an impressive victory over the Bulldozers last Friday afternoon on the Midway gridiron. Sparked by the running of D'Ambrosio and Mangini, Deacons scored twice in the first half and once in the second, with gaining power plays and tricky passes.

The first score came early in the third quarter when the Deacons took the Bulldozers 45 and 1 down the field to the five plays, including dashes of 11 yards by Mangini, D'Ambrosio took the ball across from on a line plunge over center Lipsinski went across for the extra point.

The second Deacon score came after when Gorman, left end, tackled and downed the Bulldozers for a 10-yard score. Tomalavich kicked the point.

Engineers got going for the second time in the second quarter when they took over on fourth, moved to the Deacons on two plays for a first and then completed a twenty-yard pass from Cochran to who ran another ten to the 15 before being dragged.

Albers, Bulldozer fullback, around right end for five and then Cochran ran the end to score. The conversion was good.

Engineers came near to once more in the second quarter on long passes, but the Deacon secondary fought the off.

The second half started with an drive by the Deacons, and to conclusion when D'Ambrosio went over from the ten for a score of the game. The point was no good.

The Deacons came close to score more on a daring forward with a lateral from the Deacons to follow up back, which led for thirty five yards, but the Bulldozers ten lost their chance.

Engineers were handicapped by reserves, but their line backs, Hoppe, Ducharme, Gilliland and Helper, played a good and the backfield lineup of Cook, Fagan, and Albers, the Bulldozers' hopes alive about the game.

The entire Deacon line deserves credit, and Mangini, D'Ambrosio, Wilhelm, Lyle, Black, Savage, and Gorman were the backfield mainstays.

Lejeune Gridders Tackle Navy Team At 1430 Sunday

The Lejeune Marines will meet this Sunday on the Hadnot Point football field a team representing one of the most famous and oldest battlewagons in the Navy—the U.S.S. Mississippi.

The Mississippi has long been known throughout the fleet for the teams which it fields in every sport. Only last year the boxing team from the Mississippi won the Atlantic Fleet Championship.

The ship has done well in other fields also—she was one of the ships participating in the invasion of France, and did convoy duty across the North Atlantic for several years during both wars.

Although not too much is known about the present football team, they have been called one of the strongest teams in the Atlantic Fleet Conference this year.

Camp Lejeune will be ready for the Navy, with most of the team fit for the game with the exception of Gigli, regular at tackle, who is on an emergency leave, and Zakula, a dependable standby at right half, who is out for the rest of the season with a broken hand received in an accident.

Head coach Missar expects plenty of trouble from the Navy squad, and is worried over the failure of the Lejeune passing attack thus far. The local squad has been working on the problem all week, but it remains to be seen at Sunday's game whether a solution has been found.

1430, then, is the time, and the Hadnot Point gridiron is the place, on Sunday, 17 October, when the Lejeune Marines meet the Navy in the fourth home game of the current season.

The Second Division Band will again supply the halftime festivities and the cheerleaders will be on hand to add color and enthusiasm to home team rooting.

The game will be broadcast over radio station WJNC, the first time this year that a Camp Lejeune game has been put on the air.

His background includes two years of varsity at Fresno Hi, one of the strongest teams in the California high school league, in addition to a year of track.

Stein, a Pfc. in Signal Company, H&S Bn, Div, enlisted in early 1947, and after boot at San Diego went to Communications School at Camp Pendleton before coming to the Second Division at Camp Lejeune.

Last year he played for the 10th Marines in the intra-mural league.

Greatly Improved Gunners Overpower AlMars, 32-0, At Midway Park Sunday

The Tenth Marine Gunners proved themselves a real threat in the Camp Lejeune IntraMural Football League last Sunday at Midway Park as they bowled over the Marine Barracks AlMars by the highest score in any Intra-Mural game thus far—32-0.

Football Programs

The sale of football programs at varsity home games thus far has netted $368.63 for the Family Hospital Fund. The programs will continue to be sold, and all hands are urged to continue their contributions for this worthy cause.

Much of the credit for the success of the project thus far must go to the volunteer groups who are devoting their time to the sale of the programs at Trailer Park, Midway Park, and Paradise Point, as well as at the stadium before games.

Sideline Slants

... by PORTERFIELD

The Camp Basketball team, which commences practice during the coming week, if plans are approved will get one of the biggest breaks of any athletic team in the history of Camp Lejeune—a week in Bermuda during the cold weather. It won't all be pleasure though, the boys will have to play some hot basketball to keep above the Air Force and Navy teams they meet there.

The football team also gets a trip to Bermuda, if plans now in the making are completed. At last report only a confirmation from Washington was necessary to complete the trip.

Although the base ball team will not commence practice until next year, arrangements are already going ahead to schedule games with many teams up and down the East coast. The expansion of the armed forces will see many new teams on the scene next year, and Lejeune intends to play as many as possible.

The Camp swimming team, with several new members added, will enter competition sometime during November, and meets have been tentatively scheduled with several of the leading Southern Conference colleges and universities. Lt. Donn Dreager, coach, is still looking for a backstroke for the team, and wants any interested candidates to report to the Second Area Pool any time the pool is open.

Lee Damon, one of the men now out for the Camp Boxing team, was runner-up in the Chicago AAU tournament last year. If he can get back in shape he may be one of the best boxers ever to wear the colors of Camp Lejeune.

The 10th Marine Gunners, if they can keep their new look they demonstrated at Midway Park last Sunday against the AlMars, will be one of the top teams in the Intra-Mural League this year.

The ComSerGrp eleven hasn't really had a chance to demonstrate its offensive power so far, but if the flashes of power they showed on a muddy field against the AlMars come to life again, they will not be too big an under-dog team in Saturday's game with the Gunners.

For the super prediction of the week, the GLOBE this week favors

The Gunners held the upper hand from the first quarter, when, after the AlMars had held them for three downs on the fifty, Geter, AlMar safety, dropped a twisting punt on his own ten, and Shea, Gunner end, recovered. Evans went over for the score on a line smash three plays later. The conversion attempt was no good.

The AlMars staved off a Gunner threat in the middle of the first quarter when Scarborough, AlMar guard, smeared Ogden for a loss on the AlMar 15, but the Gunners came right back a few minutes later and scored Taylor from the AlMar 30 on a reverse around left end. The try for the extra point failed, as the AlMar line rushed the kicker hard.

The quarter was coming to an end as the Gunners kicked off, and Geter again took the ball, fighting his way up to his own 12 before being stopped. On the next play Craig's pass, intended for AlMar end Jenkins, was intercepted by Semon on the thirty, and he made it back to the AlMar 15 as the quarter ended.

Schwartz and Evans took the ball to the AlMar 4, where it was 1st and ten, and Evans went over for the touchdown a play later on a play off left guard.

The Gunners scored once more in the first half as Taylor, Ogden, and Settimo ran the ball to the AlMar ten on a series of fast plays highlighted by the Gunner offensive blocking, and Ogden went over from the ten as he swept around right end. The conversion kick was blocked.

The closing minutes of the half were marked by a spectacular AlMar try for a touchdown as, on the third down with 10 to go and deep in their own territory, scab-back Geter of the AlMars took the ball from Craig on a fake kick and went thirty-five yards to the Gunner 45, then went down to the Gunner thirty on a tricky lateral.

The Gunner line stiffened however, and it was fourth and ten for the AlMars as the half ended, with the Gunners leading, 25-0.

The final score of the game came late in the second half when the AlMars fumbled on a pass interception, the Gunners recovered on the AlMar 20, and Schwartz passed to Ostergen for another score on the next play. The conversion kick was good, to make the score 32-0. The game ended with the Gunners once again in scoring position after a long pass from Evans to Cackowski, Gunner end, on the AlMar 12.

Outstanding for the AlMars were Wycuff, Beno, Scarborough, Rudd, Jenkins, Nofsinger, Montcalm, Wilkins, and Geter, Craig and Wirth.

The Gunners had two strong lines, their offensive team of Shiner, Mullen, Cabral, Ostander, Ustaszewski, Pierce, and Downs was instrumental in the gains of the Gunner backs, while the defensive wall of Shea, Hackett, Mitchell, Kuzelow, Hykes, Sirocky, Miller and Risser pulled the AlMars down many times at the line of scrimmage, and kept the AlMar passers harried all the time.

Backfield standouts for the Gunners were Ostergen, Novotny, Ogden, Settimo, Taylor, Ward, Schwartz, and Evans.

JOE WARD, TACKLE

Ward was rather busy during the war, after enlisting in 1942 he joined the 4th Division, and served in a rifle platoon throughout the campaigns in the Marshalls, Saipan, Tinian, and Iwo Jima. Ward was awarded three Purple Hearts, and two personal letters of commendation during the course of his wartime service.

At present he is on detached duty to H&S Bn, Div, from the 2nd Marines.

Pfc. Richard Stein

Triple threat for the Lejeune Marines this year is fullback Dick Stein, from Fresno, California. The hard driving 190 pounder has seen plenty of service this year, and will continue to do so barring injury. His punting is spectacular, forty yards is a disappointment to Stein, and as a line backer the husky Californian is a standout.

DICK STEIN, FULLBACK

Civilian Personnel Guide

RESIGNATION PROCEDURE

Effective October 12, 1948, the Industrial Relations Office will inaugurate a new procedure for handling resignations of civil service employees at this activity. An Industrial Relations Memorandum has been distributed to each of the departments, which explains this new procedure. However, for the benefit of the employees a brief description of this procedure is outlined below. It is requested that each employee who wishes to resign execute the resignation form which includes a check-off list of eight different departments which should be contacted for the proper signatures before the completion of the resignation form. Upon visiting each of these departments listed on the resignation form, the employee should inquire as to the directions in reaching the next department listed.

The employee should execute this type of resignation form at least three days before the effective date of resignation. Employees will be carried in duty status while visiting the activities listed on the resignation form. They will not be granted any leave after submitting the resignation except in extreme emergencies. The Provost Marshal has agreed to permit the guards at the Main Gate to issue these employees visitors passes to use in getting to work during the remainder of the week of their resignation.

If this procedure as outlined above is followed, it will enable all departments listed on the form to better maintain records required of their offices. It is also believed that this would help reduce the total losses in man hours. It is to be noted that much lost man power results from abandonment of positions (quitting without formally resigning) since the vacant positions may not be filled until the former employee is contacted by mail to ascertain his intention of returning. The minimum delay in filling a vacancy created by the abandonment of the position by the former employee will necessarily be seven (7) days and the maximum thirty-two (32) days (case of veterans).

It will be appreciated by the Industrial Relations Office if all civil service employees at this Camp cooperate in effecting this new procedure when resigning.

state and territory on the basis of its high school population. Those who are successful in passing the aptitude test will be interviewed and given physical examinations; then, if found in all respects qualified, their names will be submitted to state and territorial Selection Committees composed of prominent citizens and naval officers. The Navy expects to enter about 2,350 students into the program commencing with the fall term of college, 1949.

The students selected by these competitive examinations will be assigned to the 52 Naval Reserve Officers' Training Corps units which are located in various universities and colleges in the United States. If accepted by the college, they will be appointed Midshipmen, U.S.N.R., and will have their tuition, books, and normal fees paid for by the government. In addition they will receive pay at the rate of $50.00 a month for the four-year period. Upon graduation they may be commissioned as officers in the Regular Navy or Marine Corps and required to serve on active duty for two years. At the end of this time they may apply for retention in the Regular Navy or Marine Corps, or transfer to the Reserve and return to civilian life.

TOMORROW WILL BE BETTER

by Betty Smith (author of the Tree Grows In Brooklyn). The author of the former best seller has again chosen Brooklyn of past years as the scene of her new novel.

Margy Shannon, young and shy, but eager for happiness is the central figure in the story. The theme is in the title; in spite of poverty, hardships and human misery there is always the dream and hope that tomorrow will be better.

SEA CHASE by Andrew Geer. This is an adventure novel written in the tradition of Conrad and Forester.

The Ergenstrasse was a forty-five year old freighter, rusty and wheezing. She was caught in the Sydney harbor when the war broke out. Her captain, an outcast from the German Navy hoped, by bringing his ship home safely, to be reinstated to a navy command.

There was more than eluding the British Navy before he could reach a safe harbor—there was bitter conflict aboard the vessel and the ever-unpredictable weather of heavy tropical seas and Arctic hurricanes.

GAUDY'S LADIES by Clark McMeekin. Here is a colorful, dramatic tale of Louisville in the days of thriving river traffic. Gaudy Robertson, homeless orphan, fought his way to wealth and power. A lusty story by the author of "Show Me A Land."

Jimmie Livingston, Youngest Old-Timer, Brings Band To Staff NCO Club Tomorrow

To our knowledge, the youngest "old timer" in the music business is Jimmie Livingston who brings his nationally famous orchestra to the Staff NCO Club tomorrow night. Jimmie has just tipped the thirty year mark; yet he boasts a backlog of 19 years as a professional bandleader.

Livingston was introduced to the music business at the age of ten, collecting tickets from patrons at his father's ballroom in Hendersonville, North Carolina. Jimmie's dad was the first promoter of note in North Carolina and is credited with having started Hal Kemp in the business. Kemp was a college bandleader at the time Livingston senior brought him to Hendersonville for professional dance dates.

Working on the door or in the box office, Jimmie soon decided he would rather "be up there where Hal was" than play front man for daddy. With money he saved he bought himself a saxophone and by the time he was thirteen was playing dance dates with a band of his own.

Jimmie did a thorough job on his "home" territory before venturing into parts unknown. He played successful engagements at the Hotel Charlotte, The Tutwiler, the Henry Grady in Atlanta, and every hotel of note in the southeast. Once his reputation had been established and his RCA Victor records released, he felt strong enough to take his band on a nationwide tour.

Jimmy was fortunate in being assigned the entire score of Walt Disney's "Snow White", and the popularity of this film and the demand for its music made Jimmie's platters a "hot" sale in stores everywhere. He likewise was the first to record the Ozzie Nelson hit "The Kid in the Three

JIMMIE LIVINGSTON

Cornered Pants." This, you may recall, was the tune written for Ozzie's little boy David, and was a tremendous favorite over the nation. Jimmie's record did it!

The present Livingston band is, as always, a "sweet, commercial type band". Jimmie believes in music for dancing and that is where he places the accent. However, he has a keenly developed sense of showmanship, and the public is assured that when Livingston is on the stand you not only get your share of ear and dance appeal, but there's a little something extra added in the way of "eye appeal." That's the 1948 edition of the youngest "old timer" in the music business, popular Jimmie Livingston.

1240 ON YOUR DIAL

WJ NC

By GORT WILBUR

DISA ABOUT DATA: When this paragraphing reaches you, the series will be written into the diamond record books, and if you dialed 1240, you got the best picture that could be given. A story even bigger than the series is about to unfold. It will not only have nationwide significance, but world-wide effects. I'm referring to the national elections that come up on the second of next month.

I have my own choice. You have yours. I don't intend to try and sway you either way as far as what the election result should be. What I'm trying to sway is your choice of where you should dial on the night of the election for the most complete election returns.

WJNC beginning at seven the night of the 2nd. will start an all-evening coverage from every angle of who will get in where and why. We intend to stay on the air until one in the morning in order to bring you the trend up until that hour. By that time a definite trend should be underway and when WJNC signs off, we should either have a new president or one that stays at 1600 Pennsylvania Avenue.

WJNC and Mutual will have the best coverage from the main focal points. Bill Cunningham, the old Texan gone Bay State, will give you an idea of how things are going in New England. Cecil Brown, Fulton Lewis Jr., and Gabriel Heatter will be in New York. Bob Hurlough will give you the scoop on the midwest reaction, so it goes across the country.

By the way, have you heard that great weekly feature show over WJNC, "Great Scenes From Great Plays?" It's brought to you by the Protestant Episcopal Churches of America and really makes interesting listening. The finest in the acting world portray the "Great Scenes." It's heard each Friday evening at 8 over 1240.

10th Marines, Organized In 1918, Oldest Artillery Regiment In Corps

By PFC. R. K. DALY

The 10th Marines, oldest artillery regiment in the Marine Corps, has participated in two world wars and two expeditions. From the 10th grew the many units of Marine Corps artillery which supported Pacific invasions. From Guadalcanal to Okinawa, through six of the bloodiest operations in the Pacific theater, the 10th Marines fought with the 2d Division and received one Presidential Unit Citation with elements of the unit holding more than one PUC.

The present commanding officer of the regiment, Lt. Col. Thomas S. Ivey, was with the 2nd Battalion, 10th Marines, when the battalion was part of the 1st Provisional Brigade, Lt. Col. James O. Appleyard was also with the 10th Marines in the Pacific during the past war. He is Operations Officer at present.

Landing on Guadalcanal and Tulagi, the regiment helped capture and defend these islands. On Tarawa the 1st Battalion, 10th Marines gave direct support to the infantry, and was the only battalion to land on Betio. The 2nd Division landed artillery on DUKWS for the first time during the Saipan operation and the 10th Marines executed some of the best regimental mass firing of the war on Tinian. The rapid advancement on Tinian was attributed to this accurate firing. The 2nd Bn., 10th Marines landed on Okinawa the 1st day of June and contributed in a large measure towards the securing of the island.

At the end of the Okinawa campaign the 10th Marine Regiment returned to Saipan and then sailed to Nagasaki for occupational duty in Japan. The regiment returned to the States in July of 1946 and has been stationed at Camp Lejeune since that time.

The 10th Marine Regiment is now composed of the 1st and the 2nd Provisional Artillery Battalions. Under the new "J" series Table of Organization, the regiment has two headquarters platoons which direct the firing of two or more batteries. The 1st Provisional Artillery Battalion is commanded by Lt. Col. John F. Mallard and the 2nd Provisional Artillery Battalion by Major Robert E. Collier.

Now with TTU at Little Creek, Va., the 4.5 Rocket Battery is a relatively new battery. Activated about August 1947, it has taken part in all of the annual maneuvers of the 2nd Marine Division.

Servicing the regiment is the H&S Battalion, commanded by Captain John M. Kusiak, who recently won top honors in his Flight in the Camp Lejeune Golf Championship. The Battalion Sergeant Major, M/Sgt. Edward La Rocque, has been with the regiment since the occupation of Japan.

Able Battery, commanded by Major Glenn E. Norris, has in its ranks Cpl. Dean C. Bergersen, who was with the battery during the past war. He was with the 1st Battalion, 10th Marines for thirty-four months and is the holder of three Presidential Unit Citations. T/Sgt. Canby L. Davidson was with the regiment from August 1943 through Tarawa and left the regiment to join the 5th Marine Division. He was awarded a Bronze Star for heroic action on Iwo Jima.

Major Raymond D. Wright, Commanding Officer Baker Battery, was with the 3rd Corps Artillery during the war, and has been with the regiment for about a year. Sgt. James P. Quickenton now with Baker Btry. was with the same battery from December 1943 until December 1945.

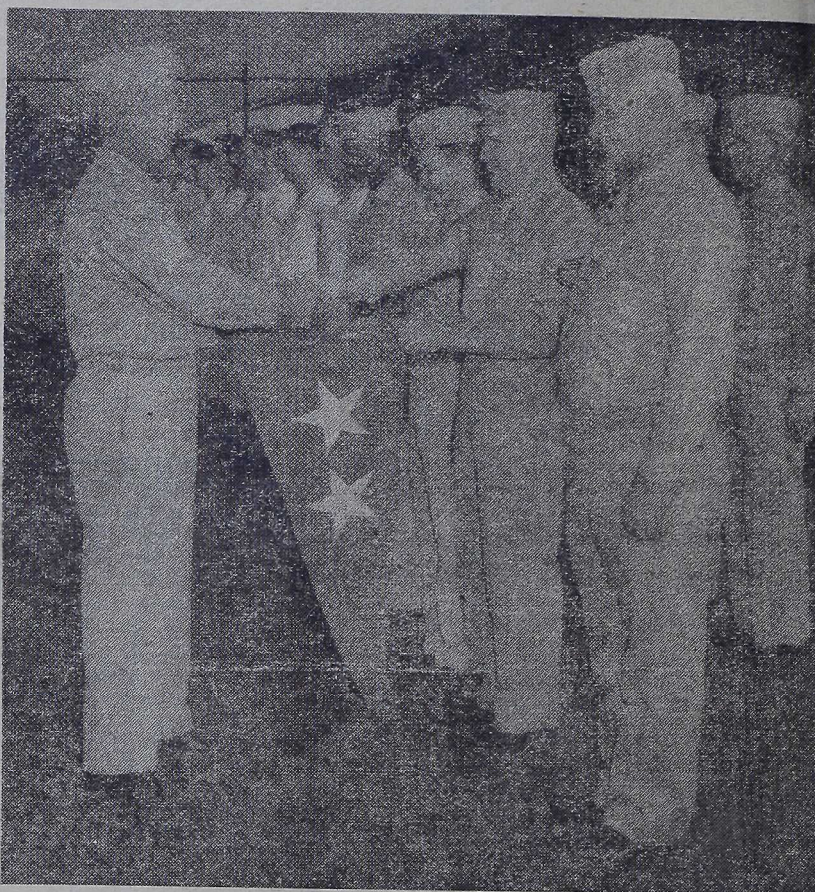

In 1941, Major Alfred L. Owens was with the 10th Marines and he now commands Charley Battery. He wears a Bronze Star and Navy Unit Commendation. Captain Harry E. Dickinson was with the regiment from September 1941 until after Tinian. He received a Silver Star while fighting on Tarawa. Cpl. Donald M. Dickey was with the 2nd and 4th battalions, 10th Marines from August 1943 until December 1945.

Major Vernon A. Peltzer joined the regiment in the first part of 1945 and remained with it until the first part of 1946. He now commands Dog Battery. 1st Lt. Carl P. Haynes was with the old Tenth Marines back in Quantico in 1938. He later joined the 14th Regiment and received a field commission while serving with the regiment on Saipan. Also with the 10th Marines at Quantico was CWO Walter L. Tate. He went to Cuba with the regiment and was at that time a section chief with the 1st Battalion.

The 10th will soon go to TTU, Little Creek, Va., where they will have approximately a month of field problems. Major General

Third Award

May. Gen. Franklin A. Hart, Commanding General, presents the mess pennant with two stars, symbolic of the third award, to T/Sgt. P. T. Marcum, mess sergeant of Tent Camp Mess Hall No. 1, 2d ComSeGrp, during ceremonies last Friday. For winning the efficiency pennant for the third time, the personnel of the Tent Camp mess hall were granted a liberty. The mess officer, foreground, is CWO P. L. Harr. (Photo by Cpl. Rider)

Franklin A. Hart is expected to observe a part of these exercises. Rather than go by sea, the regiment will march overland for some three hundred miles. It will be one of the longest land marches a Marine regiment has ever taken.

During this past summer's reserve maneuver 10th Marine and Division personnel trained all the organized Marine Corps Reserve artillery units from east of the Mississippi.

The old 10th Marines was a professional group of crack artillery men. The salty artillery men of the two battalions which formed the 10th regiment were all volunteers. It was their profession, just as others were bankers and miners. They were justly proud of their outfit and loved their weapons. The speed with which they could load and fire was exceptional, and they would strive to make it better. Those men never had to stop to figure out why their pieces were called "pack howitzers."

The men of the 10th Marines are again professional artillery men. These men take pride in their batteries and the regiment, displaying the Esprit de Corps that makes a crack outfit. The 10th Marines is once more the backbone of Marine Corps Artillery, and the foundation of any future Division and Corps artillery units.

Change In 1948 Hunting Regulations

The current Hunting Season is the first time that North Carolina Camp Lejeune has been open for turkey shooting since the 1930s. During these closed years the turkey population of Camp Lejeune, which had been in danger of extinction, has increased and there are a reasonable number of turkeys on the reservation. Turkeys, however, could hardly be called WILD turkeys, having been partially tame due to their not having been hunted for the past 15 years.

In order to conserve our turkeys during the coming hunting season it is considered necessary to further limit the duration of the season and to reduce the season bag limit for this reservation. A portion of paragraph 3 of Camp Memorandum Number 140-1948 concerning turkeys, is therefore changed as follows:

GAME (Species)	1948-1949 OPEN SEASON (Dates Inclusive)	BAG LIMIT (day)	POSSESSION LIMIT
Turkeys (Gobblers)	For Camp Lejeune Nov. 29 to Dec. 8, 1948	1	2

Hunters are asked to be sporting in their taking of any game of turkeys in particular. Any personnel who are apprehended shooting out of season, or in possession of more than their authorized amount of game, will be subject to disciplinary action.

MCI

itary art can know in advance the nature of the terrain in his zone of action by acquiring a knowledge of Military Geology. This science will develop the leader's ability to learn more information from his maps and from personal observation. It can be classed as something new under the American military sun for it is a kind of scientific fortune-telling which predicts to assault troops the kind of terrain they will find.

BETTER DECISIONS

The man trained in Military Geology can make better decisions based on more complete information because he will be trained in appreciation of geologic features and geologic maps. A commanding hilltop might be picked from a topographic map as suitable for an O. P., but the military geologist could warn against the soil being so thin that observers could not dig in.

One of the most practical courses in the MCI curriculum is Military Geology, a subject of vital importance to all leaders from squad leaders to division commanders. The course is based on two texts—An Outline of Principles of Geology by Field and Military Maps and Air Photos by Lebeck and Tellington. IMPORTANT PROFESSIONS General topics covered in the Mapping section are basic advanced map reading, typographic forms and air photographs. Military geology takes up dynamic geology, physiography paleontology and the relation of geology to the military.

It is a college level course for the mature student who wishes to add to his military acumen a professional background. The student will then apply for a commission in the Marine Corps, obtain an application from the Education Officer, or the Director, Marine Corps Institute.

COEUR D'ALENE, Idaho (AFPS) — Kenny Klason, fell off a back porch and broke his leg. He told his inquiring neighbor that "a bird pushed me."
