Civilians Tour Lejeune

Prominent visitors from Wilmington and Jacksonville made a tour of Camp Lejeune last Friday and are shown above getting "the word" on the performance of Marine War Dogs from Major Harold C. Gors (standing on the barrel), commanding officer of the War Dog Schools. After an explanation of training procedure the civilians made a tour of area and saw the program at work which is designed to return the dogs to "civilian life."

Prominent Civilians Inspect Camp Lejeune In One Day Tour

Camp Lejeune played hosts Friday to visiting officials and businessmen from Wilmington and Jacksonville in a one-day tour of the base.

Approximately 50 Wilmington and 10 Jacksonville citizens were guests of Major General John Marston, Camp Commanding General, and Brigadier General Alfred H. Noble, Commanding General, Marine Training Command.

The visitors were met Friday morning at Folkstone by a caravan of Marine officers. Civilians and Marines "swapped seats" in cars, each group of visitors being escorted by an officer.

Among some of the prominent visitors from Wilmington were A. C. Nichols, city manager; W. W. Bell, president, Tidewater Power Co.; C. M. Harrington, president, Chamber of Commerce; P. F. Halsey, vice-president and general manager, N. C. Shipbuilding Co.; J. E. R. Wade, City Councilman; J. L. Morris, executive secretary, Chamber of Commerce; A. Hewlett, chairman, Board of Commissioners, and many others.

J-VILLE VISITORS

Among the Jacksonville visitors were Raymond Askew, mayor; Clarence Petteway, member Board of Commissioners; Dean Taylor, president, Chamber of Commerce, and others.

The caravan visited Montford Point and then made its first stop at the War Dog Training School where Major Harold C. Gors, commanding officer, outlined the work of the Marine canines during the past war. The visitors inspected the kennels and also viewed phases of the training program which is adapting the dogs for the return to their former owners.

General Marston was host to the delegations at a buffet luncheon given at the Officer's Mess.

Friday afternoon the group went to Onslow Beach to view anti-aircraft fire. The types of weapons and their use were explained by Lt. Col. Harry F. Noyes Jr., commanding officer of the Officers Anti-Aircraft Battalion.

INSPECT SCHOOLS

From the Beach the group drove to the Engineers Stockade where

Hospital Doors To Open Wide On Navy Day

It will be "Open House" at the Naval Hospital all day Saturday for Camp Lejeune personnel as part of the nation-wide observance of Navy Day.

Visitors will be welcome to tour the hospital and attend a band concert in the auditorium at 1315 by the Naval Hospital Band.

The band is also scheduled to play at Navy Day celebrations at the 2nd and Orange St. Wilmington USO on Friday night and at the Washington, N. C., USO Club.

The port of Wilmington plays host to several units of the U. S. Fleet Saturday when they pull in for civic ceremonies.

CORRECTION IN NUMBER

Last week it was erroneously reported to The Globe that the Camp Service Station was located in Building 1002. The correct number should have been Building 1100.

Paradise Pt. Bachelor Quarters Get OinC

Paradise Point's Bachelor Officer Quarters is now under the supervision of 2nd Lt. John P. Henson who has been assigned duty as Officer in Charge, according to a camp special order released last week.

President Lauds Fleet As Nation Plans For Navy Day

The full text of the statement, issued by President Truman on the Nation's observance of Navy Day, Saturday, follows:

"Navy Day, 1945, is a day on which the whole country can honor the 4,000,000 young Americans who fought in the Navy, Marine Corps and Coast Guard. To them we owe our victory in the greatest naval war in history—a victory which destroyed two enemy fleets and placed our forces on the beachheads of final triumph. For all the sacrifice and toil which went into those achievements the Nation now has an opportunity to say 'Well done.'"

"Navy Day this year also will let the American people see for the first time units of the great fleet which their work and money built. I hope it will be possible not only for vessels and planes to be assigned to as many cities as possible, but also for those vessels and planes to be visited by the people, to whom they belong. I hope that some cities may see the Marine Corps veterans who, from Guadalcanal to Japan itself, were in the van of our advance. The Coast Guard, too, which has contributed so importantly to our amphibious operations should also receive our accolade."

"In some ports, I understand, there will be new vessels with new crews, training to relieve ships and men who have served long tours of duty. That fact also is appropriate because it symbolizes not only our determination to release quickly the combat veterans of this war but also the continued importance of the Navy's mission: control of our sea approaches and of the skies above them."

Three Day Blitz For Dischargees

Points for discharge from the Marine Corps will be reduced to 50, effective November 1, for enlisted and officer personnel, according to a dispatch received Tuesday by Camp Headquarters from Marine Corps Headquarters, Washington, D. C.

Camp Lejeune's discharge center, the Redistribution Battalion of the Redistribution and Replacement Regiment, Monday morning swung into a 72-hour schedule for transferring Marines to civilian status, it was announced by Col. R. F. Crist Jr., Regimental Commanding Officer. Originally it required five days for the processing of a Marine.

At the end of last week the discharge center had handed out discharges to 6,668 Marines. This does not include Women Reserves and Montford Point Marines.

The largest discharges handed out in one day were 373 on Wednesday, 10 October. During the past week 1,240 men were discharged, being the smallest week in October.

The drop the past week was due to the fact that the board was clearing the base of all men stationed at Lejeune who have been released for discharge.

Some men are being held for "military necessity" until replacements may be located. Many of these will be freed shortly. In fact the first group was received at the discharge center on Monday.

Col. Crist also announced that approximately 900 men are being detached at Cherry Point and sent to Lejeune for processing. It is also likely that many Marines who returned last week from the Pacific with the Third Fleet will be reporting to this base soon for processing.

The processing center is now established so that it can receive 6,000 Marines at a time and start 250 through the discharge line each day.

The center has made great strides from that day in September when the first 50 men were started through the line. And, it has exceeded the original plans which called for the handling of 200 men per day as compared with the 250 per day on this date.

WR Band Slated For Bond Tour

Camp Lejeune's Womens Reserve band is scheduled to fly to Philadelphia tomorrow in three planes to start a Victory Bond drive tour through Pennsylvania, Ohio and possibly Indiana.

Forty-six members of the band, MT/Sgt. Charlotte Plummer and Lieut. Marion Murphy, director and officer-in-charge, respectively, make up the aggregation. They are to appear at the Navy-Penn football game Saturday at Franklin Field and at the Bellevue-Stratford Hotel's Navy Day dance that evening.

Their extended tour, estimated to take three weeks, starts in the Quaker City on Monday, 29 October.

Leave In Hawaii

Some American soldiers, sailors, and Marines, back from the Pacific, would have people believe that the South Sea islands under the Southern Cross are not the fabled lands of paradise. On Maui, second largest of the Hawaiian group, Cpl. Eugene Jones, a Marine combat photographer and die-hard romanticist, decided to prove that with certain essentials a leave on Maui could be ideal. The essentials were a Marine, a pretty girl, a pass, and a jeep.

The Marine was Pfc. Thomas (Buck) Buchanan, 21, a veteran of all the Fourth Marine Division's campaigns. He served with the Twenty-Fifth Marine Regiment and was wounded on Iwo Jima. The pretty girl was Mona Manary, native of Maui and former student of music at the University of Rochester. They spent two days roaming Maui's valleys and beaches in jeep and on foot.

Maui Island was the retreat of the Fourth Division between its sailing to Roi-Namur, Saipan and Tinian, and Iwo Jima. The several beautiful stream-beds which wind across the island are responsible for Maui's name of "Valley Island". Maui is famous for Mt. Koolau, a burned out volcano with an elevation of 10,000 feet and a crater 15 miles across.

Top left: The war clouds have silver linings. Buck and Mona normally are thousands of miles apart but the war brought them together for two happy days of vacationing on Mona's scenic island.

Top right: Buck puts the jeep to use and he and Mona enjoy the sights of one of Maui's valleys, which are responsible for the island's name of "Valley Island."

Buck is pointing to the view across the lush and clouded valley.

Center left: Penny tossing is fun, but Mona and Buck can't receive such from the swimmers just for pennies. The water urchins demand silver. Jones, the cameraman, lost a dollar and sixty-five cents before he obtained the picture he wanted. When he tried to deceive the divers with the new colored pennies, they threatened to splash water on his camera.

Center insert: Mona is wary of the temperature of the cold mountain water and gingerly extends a dainty toe to make a test. She is steadied by Buck who doesn't seem to mind the water, which is two and three inches deep in places.

Center right: Mona isn't so sure that Buck is just teasing her; anyway, the crab's appearance isn't attractive. The leave wouldn't have been complete without some happy hours in the surf of Maui.

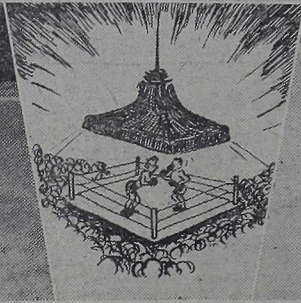

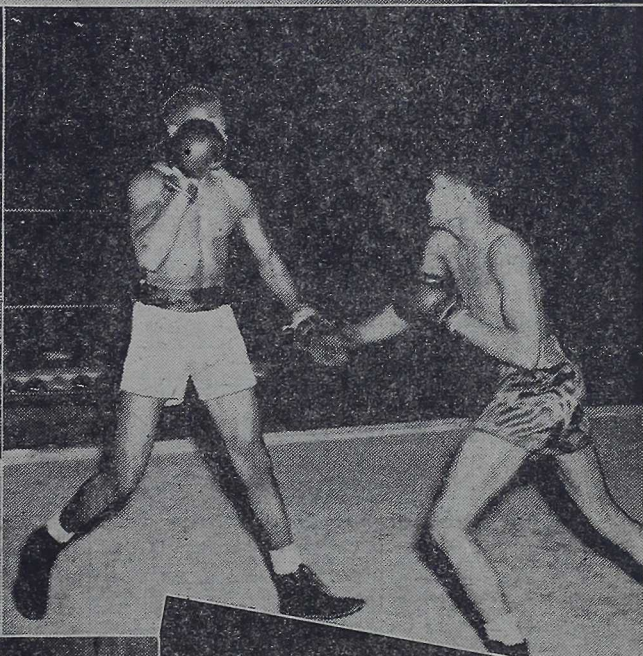

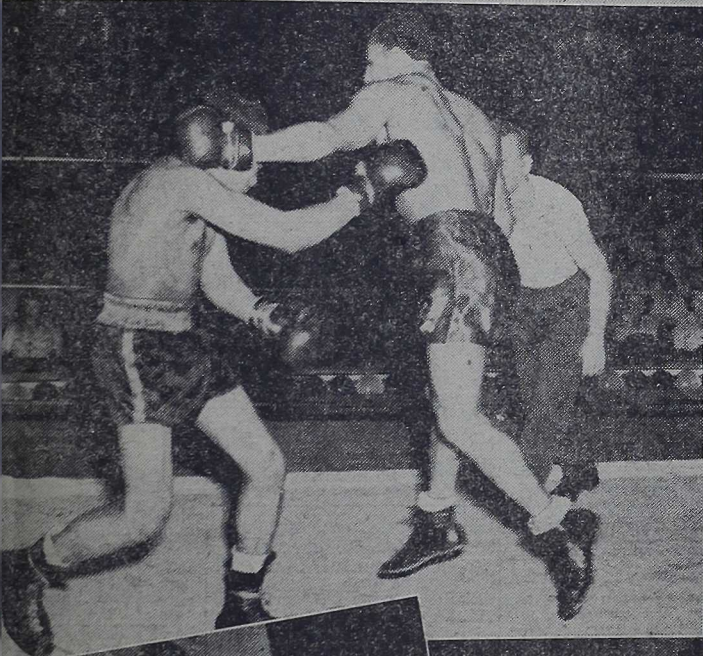

Bottom left: Mona and Buck spend a few minutes making friends with the horses on Maui. Their curriculum for the day included picnics, swimming, and some jeep riding, but this is the closest they came to taking a horse ride.

Bottom right: The traditional beauty of the tropics is present in the view of Mona and Buck as they watch the scarlet sunset. There is the red sky, swaying palm trees, and a boy and a girl. A beautiful day's end.

New Pose

This is one gal who's been featured a-plenty in cowboy chaps and ten-gallon stetsons. So, just for a change Claire Trevor goes completely feminine in typical Hollywood manner. How do you like that look in her eyes? Nize, no?

Combat Intelligence, Photo Interpretation Classes End

By Pfc. MARION A. ALLEN
Specialist Training Regiment "tightens up the belt a notch" as we bid adieu to one of our H and S Company schools. October 12th marked the finishing date for the 21st Combat Intelligence Class. On the same date the 15th Photo Interpretation Class was disbanded.

From its inception, some two years ago, to the closing of Combat Intelligence School, literally hundreds of Marines have negotiated the various phases of intelligence training offered. As these courses currently sing their "swan song," here is an orchid to the Combat Intelligence and Photo Interpretation personnel for their good work. . . . October 13th was the graduation date for the 7th Bakers Course and the 15th Cooks Regular Course. Five graduates from the 15th Cooks Course were retained for the 14th Mess Management Course which teed off last Monday the 15th.

Captain M. L. Howell now COS our H and S Company, vice, Captain George L. McConnell, who has been detached and will report to the Fourteenth Naval District, Pearl Harbor, on October 7th. Miss Christine Morris, of Winston-Salem, N. C., and Captain McConnell were married. . . . 2d Lt. A. D. Davitt, our flying enthusiast, is now the "former Executive Officer" of H and S Company. Last week he reported for duty to the Philadelphia Navy Yard. . . . Our Property Officer is 2d Lt. Arthur Young. If he has any difficulty going to sleep at night, Lt. Young will probably start counting those 800 mattresses instead of sheep.

TAKING LEAVE

As some of our schools formally close their doors, so do some of the instructors formally take leave of the Marine Corps and embark on a civilian career. Capt. William Miller goes to Michigan, Capt. DeWitt Porter to Washington, D. C., and Capt. W. W. Wagner (via New York) goes eventually to Iowa. . . . 1st Lt. Frederic Peachy goes to Maine. . . . The list of our E and R bound personnel continues to mount. Among the newest ones are: T-Sgt. R. Garcia and Sgt. Rudolph Poliquin, instructors in one of the H and S Schools; S/Sgt. Donald Pierson, Personnel Clerk, and Corp. Robert Schreiber, Regimental File Clerk; C. Ck "Mike" Worch, an instructor in Cooks and Bakers School, and Cpl. Sam Kitterman, our Recreation NCO. Pfc. Wallace Glisson and Pvt. Curtis Haggie will soon be adding two red stars to the Quartermaster's "Civilian Flag."

Get well wishes to 2nd Lt. K. A. Mosher, our Special Service Officer, who is in the Naval Hospital with an infected hand. . . . To 2d Lt. Duncan MacRae Jr., Regimental Police Officer, who is on an emergency leave in Philadelphia, we wish a speedy recovery for his wife. . . . Our sincere thoughts go to Sgt. Louis Peterka (from Regimental QM) who is on an emergency furlough in Texas because of the death of his father. . . . Pl/Sgt. Glenn Abbott, an instructor in one of our schools, furloughs in Charlotte, N. C. . . . Pfc. William J. Martin and Ralph E. Palmer, students, have gone to Iowa and Texas, respectively. Our get well wishes to Pfc. Palmer who received a foot injury in a bus accident en route home. . . . Sgt. Dorothy Burns, from Regimental Personnel, furloughs in Chicago. . . . Pfc. Gloria Kurtz, from the office of our First Sergeant, takes hers in Buffalo, N. Y.

MEET THE TEAM

This week we're introducing our football team. At left end is 2d Lt. Jessie Owens; left tackle, Corp. Bob Callahan; left guard, Pfc. John Liles and Pvt. Joe Gary at center. Right Guard is a toss up between Pfc. Joe Machin and 2d Lt. Val Molkenburgh, as is right tackle for Pvt. Jack Schwartz and Pvt. Tom Lane. At right end is 2d Lt. George Grinniger and left halfback is Pvt. P. J. Bifulk. 1st Lt. Roy B. Whitlock and Corp. J. C. Scheidler are another toss up for right halfback. 2d Lt. Pete Sultis plays quarterback and Corp. Wilton Ferrell, fullback. Come on, Specialist Training Regiment, let's back up our team!

He Doesn't Want It To Happen Again

HANAU, Germany (CNS)—For 8 months, Henry A. Pate thought he was a sergeant, and so did Finance, which paid him accordingly. His promotion order, however, had been rescinded four days after it was published, but nobody in the 45th Air Depot Group found out about it until recently. When the brass discovered the error, Henry had to get it up, and so for three months, he drew a blank when the eagle screamed. His buddies chipped in and made up his pay. When Pate was promoted to sergeant again last week, he asked his CO for a written statement that the order had not been rescinded, and requested his CO to underwrite all financial risks.

Police Reports In Sasebo Plenty Mild

Japan—(Delayed)—Expectations of Oriental intrigue in the police reports in Sasebo died a sudden death when the crime calendar turned out to be disappointingly similar to that in any American metropolitan area.

Only one entry yesterday, made any mention of the Marines. One unidentified Marine leaped into the harbor waters to rescue a small Japanese child who fell from the docks where U. S. ships were unloading supplies.

Other entries disclosed that four men were arrested for gambling. All were Japanese civilians.

Crimes of passion were limited to one. An unhappy Jap, armed with a knife, chased his sweetheart down one of Sasebo's narrow streets.

Local police said that with the occupation, crime struck a distinct downward trend. — By T/Sgt. Charles B. Cunningham.

Local Quintet Shaping Up Strong

About A Generation Ago . . .

Football fans of a generation or so ago won't ever forget the classic mistake of gridiron history that was perpetrated by Roy Riegels in the Rose Bowl game between the University of California and Georgia Tech on New Year's day of 1929.

MacGregor-Smith Sports have reported that Riegels is now a major in the United States Army serving with the Air Technical Command.

It will be recalled that California had the ball a few feet from the Yellow Jackets' goal line. The situation: a play or two, the goal and the touchdown—that was the vision of the University of California team and something like 100,000 frantic fans who packed the bowl that day.

Tragedy struck that seemingly inevitable victory when a California man fumbled. Riegels, playing center for the Golden Bears, pounced on the loose ball and started hell-bent for his own goal at the other end of the field. Before he reached it, however, after running almost the entire length of the field, a desperate teammate brought him down from behind. The Yellow Jackets, holding an 8-7 lead at the time, won the game by that score, as California couldn't recover the ground Roy unwittingly donated to the other team.

Comment from all over stated for a long while: "A brilliant player ruined and disgraced for life." Well, it didn't turn out that way—far from it. In fact, Roy wasn't built of that kind of stuff. Riegels' comeback was almost as spectacular as his boner. To show him their confidence his teammates elected him captain for the next season. He repaid them by playing superb ball and being named on the All-American team for the following year.

Six Changes In Football Rules

The football rules committee has instigated six changes for the current 1945 season. Most noteworthy of these is one that permits forward passing anywhere behind the line of scrimmage. Previous to this change, the passer had to be five yards in back of the line of scrimmage.

In three good games so far this season, I have not really noticed many passes being brought up to the line and then let go. Most of them have been passed from the old five yards in back position.

The pros have always passed from the line of scrimmage. To do this, however, they had to have a mighty strong line to set up a defense. Colleges may have strong lines but they don't have experienced ball players to ward off the on-rush of the opposing team long enough for the passer to move up those five yards and toss one.

As soon as the ball leaves center, the passer has very little time to get ready for a long pass. Letting one go to the flats, or a bucket pass over center, shouldn't be too hard to accomplish, however.

This rule has its benefits without a doubt, but as to practicability for any club except a strong and brilliant team, it just can't be done.

Hanley Answers Accusers

Some newspaper columnists in California have hinted that the reason Coach Dick Hanley and the El Toro Marines could not get football games with some colleges and service teams was that he taught the Marines to play dirty football.

Coach Hanley answered this accusation last week by speaking before the California Sports Writers Quarterback Club, asserting: "This is a full-fledged lie. Any coach would be dumb to teach his boys a lot of dirty tactics when he should be coaching them on plays and strategy, blocking and tackling."

All of it was the outcome of several teams cancelling their previous scheduled games with the Marines. Recent tilts that the "Leatherneck 11" have played have disclosed one of the cleanest brands of football in California.

The Saturday Evening Post has started the ball rolling on the selection of the All-American football team for 1945. The American Football Coaches Association will assist in the selection. The 350 member coaches will send in nominations throughout the season and these will form the basis of final selections. Coaches have been asked to confine their early season nominations to two or three nominations and two or three backs. At the end of the season the nationwide selections will be tabulated and will be sent to the coaches for final perusal.

Pro-Boxers Provide Laugh And Thrills At Camp Theater

By SGT. GEORGE CARROLL

In an exhibition featured by the appearance of A. Godoy, former Chilean champion of South America, prewar opponent of Joe Louis, several of boxing greats visited Hadnot Point last Wednesday evening, October, to take part in a total of 11 bouts.

Arranged by CWO Sid Fischer and flown in from New York, the show was the beginning of celebrity fight shows that will be presented by Camp Special Services for the coming months.

The highlight of the evening was Camp Lejeune's Bob Postall-Tony "Kid" Soave five-rounder, climaxed by Postall receiving the judges' nod. Refereeing the evening festivities were Godoy, Sonny Horn and Andy "Red" Tucker of the pros.

Tucker, a fighter of long standing, now trains boxers in New York City. Horn, former member of the Navy, has fought many service bouts before turning pro.

Roscoe Toles, Montford Point's boxing coach, was on the evening card staging a three-round exhibition with Al Hoosman, an up and coming contender for the heavyweight crown.

Another guest boxer, Long Sin Que, 118 pounds in weight and 44 years old, appeared in an exhibition bout with Johnny Wilson, 145, a local boxer. This old-timer in the boxing game didn't receive the best of treatment from Wilson, in what was supposed to have been a comedy boxing bout.

Cleo Shans staged a fast and furious exhibition with New Yorker Annunzio Ferrero. Shans visited Lejeune after winning a pro bout the night before in New York.

Other ring notables attending were Irving Magid, Buddy Tucker, Marcus "Kid Chickens" Lockman, Louis Perez, Sam Howard (noted trainer), Fred Keyes, Jerry McGee and Buddy Tucker.

In the other Camp Personnel bouts of the evening, Henderson Gibbs, 194, won on a decision over Jimmy Golden, 193. ## Service Swamps QM Battalion In Runaway, 34-0

Service Battalion swamped a hapless but fighting Quartermaster Battalion club, 34-0, in the second game of the Camp football league last Sunday, 21 October, before a crowd of 5,000.

Sparked by three Service back and an influx of O. C. Battalion men, the Mike Kostynick-coached eleven scored in every quarter.

Nelligan, Hubka, McKinney and Burg were the Service aces, while Manuppelli and Darling put life in the QM backfield.

Wellington, Kraus and Kearns were most consistent for Quartermaster, smashing through the airtight Service defense at will.

The first tally of the game was scored in less than five minutes of the first quarter, when Hubka, on a lateral from McKinney, raced 25 yards for the touchdown.

Bib Bill Nelligan, former Notre Dame and Marquette pigskinner, caught a pass on the run from the ten-yard line and garnered a second score for Service.

J. T. Bills, another backfield ace of Service, dropped his touchdown chance when he fumbled over the goal line. "Wide Awake" Burg leaped on the ball to save the day and added another six points to the Service total.

Quartermaster, definitely the underdog from the outset, never gave up against their widely experienced opponents and won plaudits and comments from the crowd for their spirit.
