

Army To Host Interservice Photo Contest

The U. S. Army will host the upcoming Ninth Interservice Photography Contest and Marine Corps Base, Camp Pendleton, has been designated to conduct the All-Marine finals.

The interservice finals will be held in Washington Dec. 5. Camp Pendleton will conduct the All-Marine Corps competition Oct. 10, and 100 winning photos will be entered in the interservice finals.

Rules governing the 1960 photo contest are similar to those of previous years. Competition will be conducted in two categories: black and white single photographs (Group I), and color transparencies (Group II).

All Marine Corps commands will hold local level elimination contests to select photos for entry in the All-Marine finals. To be eligible for consideration in the finals, entries must reach Camp Pendleton by Oct. 8.

Each of the four services is authorized to submit up to 50 black and white photos and 50 color transparencies for entry in the interservice finals.

Detailed information concerning the 1960 photo competition, including contest rules, was published earlier this month in MCO 1710.15.

The interservice photo competition is conducted every 18 months with a different service acting as host each time. The Marine Corps was host in 1959. Camp Lejeune was the All-Marine host last year.

Contracts Can Hook Even Most Dubious Shoppers

As soon as the car buyer drives away from the small loan place, the salesman demands that he endorse the small loan check over to the used car dealer.

Now the salesman takes the buyer back to the lot.

The close-out man informs the buyer that he can't get a bank to finance the balance but he can get a finance company to do it. He prepares a new contract.

This time he spells out the insurance finance charges and terms of payment. None of the charges bear any resemblance to the earlier verbal assurances.

In my $1,495 car, for instance, the way he had added the additional charges on the piece of paper he destroyed, my total cost would amount to about $1,662. He hadn't put that figure on a contract because it wasn't true.

My down payment would be wiped out. I would be stuck with separate payments on the small loan. I would wind up with a lump sum at the end—a balloon payment. I wouldn't be at all to raise the lump sum and that part would be refinanced with more finance and insurance charges.

If I signed the first contract I would be "hooked." Suppose I refused to sign the second contract? I would lose my $100 "pickup payment." I would still have to pay off the small loan company for what I had borrowed. And I would be liable to a suit for the difference between my down payment and the total unpaid balance.

Needless to say, I didn't sign the first contract.

In our day of shopping that was the nearest I got to a contract.

As we approached the second lot a salesman approached us, a man shouted: "Hold it, Sam!"

The man ran across the lot.

"This little lady is from The Star," he panted. "She wants to write a story. She's an investigator."

When I insisted that I really did want to buy a car—and thanked my stars that he had interrupted before I could go into my masquerade—he chuckled:

"Look, honey, I know you. You're not going to get anything but straight answers from me because I know who you are."

It wasn't the first time I had run into him on a story. He was a former policeman.

D-Day, 6 June, Recalls Valiants

When American assault forces stormed ashore on Omaha and Utah beach of the Normandy coastline June 6, 1944, they were concerned only with cracking the defensive positions of the German Wehrmacht, and so paving the way for the eventual defeat of Nazi Germany.

Those valiant Americans could not be concerned with the petty complexities of world politics—the differences of opinion existing among the various allies as to where or when they should have landed. Paris first and Berlin next were their committed goals.

Most important was the fact that the American people had thrown their total resources into the crusade to smash the Axis powers. This included pouring much-needed war supplies into a torn and bleeding USSR.

Many Americans died on the Normandy beachhead—many more died before American forces seized their last objectives deep within Germany.

But the real achievement of our American assault troops on D-Day was that they, along with British, Canadian and other free national assault troops, paved the way for preventing most of Europe from being overrun by Communism. For that achievement we can never thank them enough.

36,000,000 Reasons For Safe Driving . . . SCHOOL'S OUT

Drivers Beware Kids Now Loose

To the children of the Camp Lejeune area, the month of June means the start of vacation time.

Tomorrow, the Camp Lejeune schools will be closing for the summer. This means from now until September over 2500 Camp Lejeune school children will be active throughout the dependent housing areas, as well as in some areas of the Base itself.

The demand for extreme caution on the part of camp motorists will never be greater. Also, increased parental supervision will deserve high priority.

This necessarily implies that motor vehicle operators should be especially alert for children on bicycles, roller skates or on foot in any close vicinity of roadways or highways. At this season of the year, youngsters will surely be more in evidence and more often than before on street corners, around playgrounds or any other areas where youth activities are taking place.

Extra caution while driving will insure your not being held responsible for unnecessary injury to some school young person of the Camp Lejeune area. North Carolina traffic figures reveal over 173 fatalities occurred last year involving children under 14 years of age.

Faith Overcomes Our Self-Defeat

A psychologist says: "Today's people want success instead of integrity; spending instead of saving; restlessness instead of rest; self-indulgence instead of self-discipline. They want to show instead of solidify; dependence instead of self-reliance; gregariousness instead of solitude; luxury instead of simplicity; ostentation instead of restraint; quick impression instead of genuine thought."

If this be so, no wonder modern man is restless and unhappy! We are then living only on the surface of things. To strive and fret and seek and want and slave just to justify our pride or indulge our weaknesses is a sure road to self-defeat. The gospel of Jesus breaks our bondage to the unimportant. Christ challenges the idea that life is a casual, brittle, temporary thing, to be satisfied with baubles and gadgets. Thank God we don't have to join the passing parade to be adequate for life! The deepest satisfactions of life come rather from integrity and self-discipline; from solitude, self-reliance, and solidarity; from restraint and genuine thought. And these things are nourished by a lively faith in God and a Christian interpretation of life.

The modern mind likes to modify, adulterate, alter, polish up, color, and rewrite the Christian faith. Certainly we need to try to understand the deep meanings of the Saviour Christ. But we need to be careful not to dilute or obscure the historical Jesus. This is one simple purpose of the observance of the Lord's Supper. Jesus wanted us to remember Him. Our ideas about his life and teachings may differ. But He Himself is stable, solid, substantial, food for living. In remembering Him we feed the inner spirit and bring.

When our lives are "hid with Christ in God," we don't need to advertise the quality of our faith. It shines through whatever guise or front we may have. Thus when we take the cross of Christ seriously it does something to us. It humbles us and makes us ashamed for our little faith. It gives us something real to live for. It transforms our suffering into something shining and significant.

If You Ask Me:

WHAT ASPECT OF MILITARY COURTESY DO YOU THINK NEEDS THE MOST ATTENTION?

ACT. SSGT. RICHARD D. WAUGHMAN, Hq. Co., Hq. Bn., MCB — The showing of respect to superiors in order to retain a certain amount of respect for yourself is, in my opinion, the main aspect of courtesy in the military services today. By so doing, an individual maintains a feeling of esteem for all persons with whom he comes in contact, and this esteem is in turn reflected upon himself.

PFC SHIRLEY A. DAVENPORT, WM Co., Hq. Bn., MCB — Respect for one another. In my opinion, men and women in the service show too little respect for each other. How can we expect to work together and go out together if we constantly belittle the opposite sex. Certainly, a man cannot enjoy associating with a woman who refers to him as not being a member of civilized society. Likewise, a woman cannot have much respect for a man who refuses to recognize her endeavors to display ladylike qualities.

LCPL. GLORIA J. HEIMBACH, WM Co., Hq. Bn., MCB — The manner of speaking. From my experience at Camp Lejeune, I've noted too much discourtesy on the part of Marine personnel in general toward other personnel in responsible positions. Were the offending persons to show more courtesy in their contacts, they would make it easier for the persons they're dealing with; and, in return, they would receive better service.

ACT. SSGT. THOMAS A. ROBERTS JR., MP Co., Hq. Bn., MCB — The most important phase of military courtesy, in my opinion, is one Marine's individual attitude toward other Marines 24 hours daily, remaining within the realm of his rank be he a private or a general. This unwritten rule of courtesy should be recognized as being one of the finest attributes which a Marine can possess.

SELF-ADMINISTERED DRUGS—In the event of atomic war, this boy's life may depend on physically fit, well trained personnel who know how to treat themselves and care for others. In this photo, a tough Marine prepares to pierce his leg with a training syrette (single dose hypodermic). Although this syrette contains harmless glycerine and sterile water it is actually inserted in the thigh during training problems. 2nd Medical Battalion Erects 'Instant Hospital' Used For Emergency

A fully equipped, 60-bed hospital was erected in 21 minutes here last Thursday, giving man better odds to survive atomic warfare and natural disaster.

The "instant hospital" and modern techniques for self-administering drugs were demonstrated by Navy personnel of the 2nd Medical Bn., 2nd Division.

Eighty-two sailors and Marines of Alfa Co., 2nd Medical Bn., moved onto the sun-baked parade field in a 15-vehicle convoy shortly before 2 p.m. With certain innovations, their formation was like the familiar old west wagon train making a circle on the prairie to do battle with the Apaches.

From the top of a field ambulance, Navy Lt. Kenneth Floan, Alfa Co. commander, barked orders over a PA system as erection crews accomplished pre-determined jobs.

Observers saw trucks, ambulances, tents, beds and medical supplies that could be stored in remote areas for on-the-spot use, or hauled to disaster scenes. The emergency hospital is staffed by five doctors who could conceivably treat 250 persons a day, in addition to the 60 bed-patients.

The entire operation was video-taped by Teletalent, Inc., for visual presentation at the National Medical Civil Defense Conference in Miami, Fla., next month. The tape for the tape, entitled "Rapid Response for Survival," is being picked up by CIBA Pharmaceutical Products, Inc.

Boss of the operation which established a new record for pre-fab field hospital erection was Lt. Winfred O. Ward, young Navy doctor, and executive officer of 2nd Medical Bn.

A native of Exmore, Va., Dr. Ward foresees prototypes of the Navy emergency hospital in remote areas surrounding cities and towns all over the United States. These units, to be operated and manned by civil defense, could mean dividends in terms of saved lives.

On the other hand, he thinks there is more to atomic warfare survival than emergency hospitals. He estimates that one-third of the nation's population is educated on treating battle wounds and those of others.

Scores of antidotes in laboratory tubes every man, woman and child should be trained to give oral medication.

Civilians must learn to administer injections as atropine dermic injections as atropine which would probably be necessary in such a case.

"In such perilous and ordinary man on the street wounds and sickness nor be able to make it if he up."

Closer to home, and recommends that 10 or 20 hospitals be located at strategic spots could move to administer or other disaster victims catastrophe.

In the embryo stage Navy's blitz hospital concept until the Korean conflict. Marines were treated at the cases, major surgery was

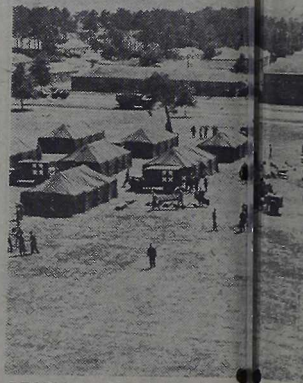

According to Dr. Ward civilian emergency hospital organized—efficient.

"For civilians to equal the military, they must have training, and keep their equipment like a war machine."

Ward said they had that they took what was a use. He said constant drill perfection and cut time in hospitals.

CAMP FORMATION—In the second phase of the emergency hospital erection, men double-time to pre-determined jobs of unloading and setting up tents, and then move beds, medical supplies, and furniture into them. The Marines and sailors set a new record for establishing the hospital here while the temperature stayed at 92 degrees. (Photo by Act. Sgt. J. D. Weaver)

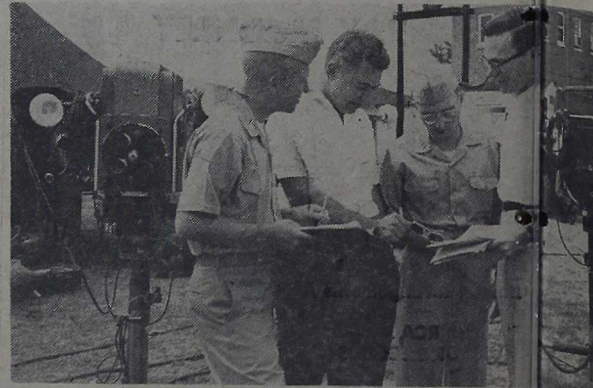

READY—In 21 minutes the emergency hospital is ready for emergency use. Facilities include an operating room, a laboratory, and primary evaluation of patients. The hospital consists of two major cases simultaneous operating room, ward tents (two surgical and two general), a mess supply tent, shower and fresh water, and two elevators. Eight ambulances stand by for emergency use. (Photo by Act. Sgt. J. D. Weaver)

OPERATION DIRECTOR—Navy Lt. Kenneth Floan, Alfa Co. commander, directs each man to specific pre-determined details in erecting a 60-bed hospital in 21 minutes at Camp Lejeune last week.

Trivial jobs, like driving tent pegs, are assigned to two men. One starts them with a small hammer, and another comes along with a mallet to finish the job. (Photo by Act. Sgt. J. D. Weaver)

After defeating Ft. McPherson in the first game of a two-game series, 8-1, last Wednesday night behind the hurling of Bill Haywood, the locals capped the final game, 7-6, with reliever Thad McCollum getting the win, Thursday night at Harry Agganis Field.

During Thursday night's game, starter Bob Williams gave up a run to the visiting Colonels in the first on three hits and after a shaky second and third innings, gave way to reliever Ron Beigel, who also found trouble in the fifth, and was relieved by McCollum.

Falling behind 1-0 in the first, the locals bounced back in the home half of the second to put together three walks, a single by catcher Hank Nichols and a sacrifice fly by centerfielder Cliff Simpson to take the lead at 2-1.

Second baseman Barry Fullerton drew a base on balls, moved to second on a wild pitch before scoring on a slashing triple against the deep centerfield wall at the 420-foot mark by leftfielder Sam Valentine, to give the Marines a two-run advantage.

Three-Run Fourth

The locals picked up three runs in the fourth before McPherson got to Beigel for two in the fifth to trail at 6-3. Beigel led off the three-run inning when he beat out a surprise bunt and scampered to third on a throwing error to first base. Simpson followed with a single, scoring Beigel and moved to second when first baseman Hal Norton drew a free pass from losing pitcher Bill Dunn, before scoring on a single by Fullerton. Norton scored from third as Valentine reached first on an error before Dan Fister, who relieved Dunn, could retire the side.

After both teams picked up a run in the sixth the Colonels jumped on McCollum for a two-run rally in their half of the eighth to trail the Marines by one run, 7-6.

Three tremendous plays by McPherson erased any chance for the locals to gain ground on the Colonels in the home half of the eighth but splendid pitching by McCollum in the final frame closed the door on the visitors and assured the locals of their 10th straight victory and extended their season record to 35-9.

DRAG BUNT—Relief pitcher Ron Beigel, who is considered the fastest pitcher on the Lejeune ball team, lays a perfect surprise bunt down to start off a three-run rally in the fourth inning of last Thursday night's game with Ft. McPherson. Beigel was safe at first and moved around to third base on a throwing error to the first baseman. (Photo by Act. Sgt. J. D. Weaver)

Camp Lejeune Will Select All-Marine Tennis Entrants

Ten contestants of the Camp Lejeune Intramural Tennis Tournament will be selected to vie in the All-Marine Corps Tennis Championship scheduled to be held at Marine Corps Recruit Depot, San Diego, Calif., on Aug. 12.

The Championships will be in two divisions: An Open Division and a Senior Division for players who have reached 40 years of age or before the date of the match. Six Lejeune entrants will be placed in the Open Division while four will go in the Senior Division.

In an effort to have Marine Corps Base represented in the Quad - Tournament, elimination tournaments of singles and doubles will take place between June 13 and 17 with the winners and runners-up participating in the Quad event.

With all matches taking place at Paradise Point tennis courts, the winners and runner-up teams will be determined by the following:

Three Games On Tap With Gordon Saints

Returning from a three game road trip, the local nine will take on the Ft. Gordon Saints in a three-game series beginning tonight at Harry Agganis Field, with the final game Saturday night, played in honor of the Knot-holers of the Camp Lejeune, Jacksonville and Swansboro areas.

Baseball fans of Camp Lejeune will recall that Lejeune met the Signalers in their official opening game, which was rained (called out before the fifth inning, with ace righthander Bill Haywood working on a no-hitter, after retiring the first 12 batters to come to the plate in order.

Lejeune followed the next night with a 6-3 win with fireballer Ron Beigel collecting the victory, but dropped the nightcap 6-8 for their fifth loss of the season, with Haywood suffering the defeat after relieving Alex Bright in the third.

During the first game, the locals grabbed a three-run lead in the second inning off the starting and losing pitcher, Dick Hagen, but failed to keep the visitors from scoring as they peeked away at starting pitcher Bob Rumer for single runs in the third, fifth and sixth innings before Bobby Cooke smashed a three-run homer in the late innings to break a 3-3 deadlock and give Beigel his third win of the season. The Signalers bounced back in the nightcap to win on a two-run rally in the final inning after Lejeune had grabbed a 6-3 lead. Gordon's Bunk Warren went the route to pick up the win.

FUTURE CITIZENS—A Citizenship Banquet was held at the Hadnot Point Staff NCO Club for 27 Marine wives who had just completed the three-month course in citizenship. Col. Kenneth A. Jorgenson, center, Chief of Staff, Marine Corps Base, congratulated the wives and presented them with

Citizenship Banquet Honors Wives Completing Course

Wednesday evening was a gala occasion for 27 Marine wives as a Citizenship Banquet was held in their honor at Hadnot Point Staff Club. Col. Kenneth A. Jorgenson, Chief of Staff, Marine Corps Base, presented the Certificates of Completion of the Citizenship Course to the ladies after a congratulatory speech. Marines who have taken Marine Corps posters at their word, "Join the Marine Corps for Travel and Adventure," added romance to it. After they returned to the States with their Marine husbands and made plans for a more settled life, the wives soon enrolled in a citizenship class or a home study class.

With the certificates which were awarded them, these women are assured of an outstanding potential on receiving their citizenship papers. The actual citizenship test can be obtained by each of the graduates at their residential state immigration office or at the North Carolina State Immigration Office in Wilmington, after three years' residence in the United States.

The basis of the subject matter taught in the three-month course consisted of fundamental American history and government.

Classes were held once a week by Cpl. Albert W. Mayers Jr. and Cpl. Donald Nall. Offered to Marines and dependents, the course was conducted by the Education Office and sponsored through Base Special Services.

Another class of this type will start June 9 and be completed Sept. 1. A formation meeting will be held in Room 1, of the Annex to the Camp High School on June 9 from 7 p.m. to 10 p.m. It is important that all aliens interested in attending citizenship classes be present at this meeting. Registration classes will be held at the Camp High School, either Tuesday, Thursday night, from 7 p.m. to 10 p.m.

The Base Education Office procured several copies of Home Study Course in Citizenship which may be checked out by personnel preparing for naturalization. Assistance with this course is available at the Base Education Office Bldg. 19.

11 Brownies Are Advanced To Girl Scout

Part of the dream of becoming a Girl Scout was realized last Wednesday when 11 Brownie Scouts were invited as Girl Scouts by their leaders, Mrs. R. C. Smith and Mrs. W. St. Clair.

The 11 new Tenderfoot Scouts earned their rank by learning the Girl Scout Promise Laws, the history of Scouting along with many other basic Girl Scout activities. The new members are: Barbara Allen, Cathy Bartlett, Elizabeth Capehart, Carolyn Chase, Peggy Darby, Martha Hengert, Gail Lehman, Glenna Murray, Smith and Marjorie Sutts.

Eighty-eight proficiency badges were awarded at a Court of Awards, held by Girl Scout Interdistrict Troop 152 at Paradise Point on June 26.

Receiving First Class awards were Kathy Byrd, Cathy McCrea, Barbara Pregnall, Susan Reagan and Margery Harris.

As each girl received her award badge, she explained the activities involved in earning one of them. Mrs. R. G. Demaree, newly elected Chairman for Paradise Point, spoke to the assembled group, discussing the aims of Girl Scouts and outlining plans for the future.

Following the program, the members entertained their guests with cookies, brownies, and wafers and sherbert punches. Leaders of Troop 152 are: M. Lett, B. R. Pitcher, Pfc Donna Harmon, who is co-leader, and Mariner Schell, Judy Leopold, troop program consultant.

Marston Pavilion Takes On A New Look

What to do? A frequent question. But now, there is an answer. Go to Marston Pavilion. Spreading along the pine-shaded banks of Wallace Creek, almost completely hidden from the eyes of passing motorists, Marston Pavilion, named in honor of Maj. Gen. John Marston, 1945 Base commander, houses one of the largest and most modern service clubs in the military service.

Already a top leisure-time activity, the Pavilion is planning new features and facilities to make it an even more attractive place to spend off-duty hours.

First on the list is square dancing to be held monthly on Fridays and Saturdays. The first such dance will be held Friday and Saturday, July 1 and 2 from 8 p.m. until midnight. "The String Dusters" will provide authentic square dance music for this occasion.

Beginning June 8, Wednesday nights from 7:30 to 11 p.m., record hops are the order of the day. The best in musical recordings will be available.

A welcome feature for the many single men on the Base is Stag Night, due in the near future. Plans are to hold these once a month and special entertainment for "stags" only will be featured.

Stage-struck and starry-eyed individuals will also get that "big break" with the inception of Talent Night. Planned as a monthly feature, anyone with any sort of talent will have an opportunity to prove themselves. Personnel interested in talent should contact Base Special Services.

Weekends will also feature a buffet supper. Hours will be from 6 to 8 p.m. Friday and Saturdays and from 5 to 7 p.m. Sundays.

For the married couples, a nursery will soon be established. Fees will be nominal and will allow these couples to avail themselves of some of the outstanding entertainment scheduled for the Pavilion.

Do you like shuffle board? Pool? Pingpong? These things and many more will soon be available in the proposed new recreation area at Marston Pavilion.

In an effort to continually beautify and enhance the atmosphere of the club, decorations will be changed monthly and the bandstand will get a "new-look" each week.

Tablecloths and hurricane lamps are now on all the tables and Marston Pavilion is taking on the appearance of a large and stylish night club.

New hours for the Pavilion, open to all sergeants and below, their dependents and guests, have been inaugurated. The club is open Wednesday through Friday from 5:30 until 11 p.m., except on dance nights or when any other special show is scheduled, then closing time is midnight. Saturday's hours are 2 p.m. until midnight and Sunday, the club opens at 2 p.m. and closes at 11 p.m. The Pavilion is reserved for unit parties on Mondays and Tuesdays.

Attractions scheduled for the month of June begin with "The Twain Plus III," June 3 and 4. "The Greenville Combo" will play on June 10 and 11 and again on the 17th and 18th. The Glenn Miller orchestra under the direction of Ray McKinley will hold forth Thursday, June 23. On June 25 and 26, The Pastels will provide dance music. Dance times are from 8 p.m. until midnight.

Two dance floors and a 103-foot horseshoe shaped bar can accommodate a crowd of over 5,000. Acres of shaded picnic areas surround the Pavilion and dancers will want to stroll along the ballroom's 175-foot screened-in porch overlooking the moonlit creek.

Marston Pavilion is for your enjoyment, so there is no need to say: What to do?

Central Library Exhibits Four Paintings by Lejeune Artist

Four paintings, representing America's favorite subjects, that of landscapes, are on display at the Central Library. The artist is Mr. Robert W. Barnum, an engineering draftsman with the Public Works Department. Of the realistic school of art, Mr. Barnum has been painting in his spare time for the past 50 years. After retirement in two years, he plans to devote all of his time to painting.

Water colors comprise the main body of his works although he does work in oils. He prefers landscapes, seascapes and still life but does some portrait work.

Anyone desiring to exhibit their works at the Central Library is extended a cordial welcome to do so. Contact Mrs. Louise Rowe at the library for arrangements.

The Central Library also sponsors a Great Books Discussion Group with the Onslow County Public Library. Meetings are held every other Thursday from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. at the Jacksonville Library.

This group recently selected two discussion leaders. They are WO Felix McCool and Mr. Aaron H. Farnell.

Cook-Out Held By Girl Scout Troop 125

Eighteen girls of Girl Scout Troop 125 held a camp-out over the weekend at the Knox Girl Scout Area. They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Wheaton and Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Paul.

The girls left Friday afternoon at 5 p.m. and returned late Sunday afternoon.

During the camping trip, they pitched tents, cooked out and enjoyed a songfest Saturday. "Scout Zone" was held Sunday morning.

Testing Dates Established For GED Exam

Testing dates, regulations and procedures for the High School General Educational Development Tests have been established by the Base Education Office. Reservations for testing are divided into weekly periods.

The schedule of testing and the number of reservations by units, for the period July 11 through Dec. 30 may be found in Base Bulletin 1500. Any unit not scheduled on a regular basis (e.g., Rifle Range Detachment, Reserve Liaison Unit, Base Brig, etc.) and who have men to be tested will be worked in as quickly as possible on a space available basis.

Since no unit is either required or obligated to fulfill its schedule of reservations, it is necessary for the Base Education Office to know, one week in advance, the number of men to be tested. The Education Office requests that this information be phoned to them on the Monday prior to the week of the scheduled testing.

Personnel to be tested should be at the auditorium, Bldg. 62, promptly at 8 a.m. or 1 p.m., according to their schedule, in the uniform of the day and with ID cards. Each man must attend either every morning or every afternoon during the scheduled week.

When one or more parts of the test battery are failed, a retest in that part or parts may be authorized by USAFI only after the entire battery of tests has been taken and no retest will be given until six months after the date of the last test.

2nd FAG Returns To Lejeune After 11-Day Firing Exercise

The 1,400 men of the Second Field Artillery Group, Force Troops, have successfully completed their annual Ft. Bragg Field Firing Exercise, held May 12 through May 27. During the 11 days of firing, two Honest John rockets and approximately 3,500 rounds of ammunition from 8-inch guns, 155mm howitzers, 155mm guns and 4.5-rockets were sent roaring to their targets. For the first nine firing days, all shooting was done on a battery level. During the last two days, all units were combined for massing of fire and time-on-target exercises. There were two nights of firing night illumination. Extensive displacement exercises were carried out during the 11 days. Four hundred and eighty miles of wire were laid in a two and a half day period.

Recreation was provided for all.

SEVEN HUNDRED BRAINS IN HIGH GEAR—High school diplomas were the goal for more than 700 2nd Division Marines at Camp Lejeune during a three-week testing period which ended May 28. The General Educational and Development Tests, recognized in 49 of 50 states, gives the Marine the equivalent of a high school diploma. Tests are administered each year by Marine Corps Base officials to Division Marines who have not completed high school. (Photo by Act. Sgt. H. L. Shipp)

Lt. Kilday Assumes Duties As Base Education Officer

Second Lt. J. A. Kilday, USMCR, former executive officer of the Woman Marine Company, has assumed the duties of Base Education Officer. She relieved Capt. J. D. Fless, who was recently released from active duty. Lieutenant Kilday has been executive officer of the WM Company since she first came to Camp Lejeune, Nov. 16, 1959. A '59 graduate of Tusculum College, Greeneville, Tenn., Lieutenant Kilday joined the Marine Corps May 13, 1957, as a member of the Woman Marine OCS program. She received her basic training in two six-week sessions, one between her sophomore and junior years in college, and one between her junior and senior years. Upon graduation, she was presented the gold bars of a second lieutenant.

Lieutenant Kilday's duties as Base Education Officer include control of the off-duty education program of MCI and USAFI courses and coordination of the East Carolina College extension program for Camp Lejeune personnel. Her office administers all GED high school and college equivalency tests.

Besides that of Base Education Officer, Lieutenant Kilday holds two other important titles. She is Base Voting Officer, with the responsibility of disseminating all information concerning servicemen's voting privileges. She is also Base Bond Officer, general coordinator of the Base Bond Drive.

Another service offered by Lieutenant Kilday and her staff is giving counsel to Marines thinking of leaving the service for the civilian world. Sound advice is available to anyone who has questions concerning their rights as veterans. Catalogues from countless colleges and universities are available to those contemplating college courses after separation from service.

LIEUTENANT KILDAY

Absentee Ballots May Be Obtained From Home States

With state primary elections now in progress, and with the Presidential election looming in the near future, Camp Lejeune personnel are urged to take immediate steps to obtain an absentee ballot from their home state. To get a ballot, individuals must first get from their company voting officer or from the Base Education Office the standard Federal Post Card Application form.

After filling out this easy-to-read form, it is to be mailed to the proper official of the state of residence. In many states, the County Clerk of the county of residence receives the form, but because this is not always the case, individuals are urged to contact the Base Education Office and find out who to receive the FPCA form in the state.

USO Invites All Reservists

JACKSONVILLE—The Jacksonville USO welcomes all reservists to come and visit while they are at Camp Lejeune. Audie Murphy and Joan Evans star in the weekend movie, "No Name on the Bullet," at 8 p.m. Saturday and 6:30 p.m. Sunday. Hospitality Hour is at 4 p.m. Sunday, and a quiz will be held Sunday at 2 p.m. The prize is a free phone call home.

WILMINGTON—The weekend activities include dance instructions at 8 p.m. Friday and dancing Sunday at 8:30 p.m. with USO Junior Hostesses. Coffee and donuts are served every Sunday morning at 9 a.m. and Hospitality Hour is at 5 p.m. Beach parties will be held as the weather permits.

KINSTON—A dance is held every Saturday evening from 7:30 to 11. Refreshments are served. Snack time is held at 5:30 p.m. Sunday, followed by vespers at 6 p.m.

A note of interest: Two men were arrested at Santa Cruz, Calif., recently and charged with putting up 36 unauthorized signs along the beach. Read the signs, "Please Do Not Feed the Sharks."

On receiving the FPCA form, the state or county official will mail to the applicant an absentee ballot. The ballot must be returned so that it reaches the state or county usually the day prior to the election or the day of the election. In order to be sure about this, personnel are again asked to check with the Base Education Office about the voting rules of their state.

The importance of the vote of every eligible Marine cannot be emphasized too strongly. The thousands of votes which could come from the Marine Corps would control to a large degree the choice of the next Commander-in-Chief of the Armed Forces.

The FPCA form now in use, standard Form 76, replaces an older and smaller form which became obsolete in 1955. According to the Defense Department, letters from state voting officials indicate unauthorized and obsolete ballot application forms are being used in many instances.

Some states may no longer honor applications on the wrong form, so personnel are reminded of the importance of sending in the correct FPCA form in order to get their absentee ballot in time for the elections.

GLOBE Copies

With the return of the single edition of the GLOBE, copies will no longer be mailed to government quarters. In order for dependents to receive a copy, married personnel are urged to take the GLOBE home to their families. Although there is no Family Edition, there is much news in the paper of special interest to dependents.

Midway Park Theater Holds Official Opening Tomorrow

The Midway Park Theater will open tomorrow evening at 6 p.m. under the control of Base Special Services with the first free movie to be shown in the theater for Midway Park families. Formerly operated by a civilian firm, the theater will now show the same top-rated movies which are shown at all Camp Lejeune theaters. The first movie will be "Run Silent, Run Deep," starring Clark Gable.

There will be two showings of the feature every weekday, at 6 and 8:30 p.m. A kiddie matinee will be shown at 2:15 Saturday afternoons, followed by the 6 and 8:30 p.m. showings of the regularly scheduled movie. The Saturday matinee will be the one normally shown at the Camp Theater Saturday matinee. The Camp Theater will now have four runs of the regularly scheduled movie on Saturday.

On Sunday, the regular run movie will be shown at 2:15, 6 and 8:30 p.m. The Midway Park Theater will be first on the Camp Lejeune movie schedule. That is, the theater will show all movies before they appear at any other Camp Lejeune theater.

Children under 10 years of age will be admitted to the Saturday matinee without their parents. But, according to Maj. F. L. Straner of Base Special Services, if there is any problem of identifying the children as Camp Lejeune dependents, they may be required to show some form of identification before they will be admitted to the movie.

All Base regulations which govern attendance and conduct at Lejeune theaters will apply to the Midway Park Theater. These regulations appeared in the May 26 issue of the GLOBE, and may also be seen in Base Order 1710.8.

First Contingent To Launch Beach Recreation, Training

"Operation Sun and Sand" will be launched tomorrow at Onslow Beach when the first contingent of Lejeune personnel report there for recreation and training. Conceived by the 2nd Marine Division, the new program will run from June to September. It is designed to provide personnel of Division, Force Troops and Base the opportunity for recreational leave periods in the "sun and sand" and to make available an area for unit training.

Heretofore, with the barracks at Onslow Beach closed except during training maneuvers, limited training in water safety, use of rubber boats and familiarization with beach and surf conditions has been available here.

The unit program, aimed at reducing the limitations for such training, will be conducted under the direction of the Division's infantry regimental commanders.

The program for recreational leave will be under the supervision and control of the Division Special Services Officer, Lt. Col. P. S. Tritel. Leave personnel quotas will be available to all commands throughout the three-month period.

Reconditioning of the barracks and other facilities at the beach has been accomplished by Base Maintenance and the first personnel to train or enjoy leave at the "sun and sand club" are expected to arrive there tomorrow.

Base Special Services has added Onslow Beach to the regular movie schedule. Nightly showings in the outdoor theater will begin tomorrow.

Unit training will be conducted during a Friday-to-Friday week, with a minimum four-hour training day scheduled. After the training, personnel will be permitted to spend the rest of the day in rest and relaxation.

Control of the recreation and training site will be assumed by Second Marine Regiment commander, Col. E. A. Wright, until July 1. He will then relinquish control of the site to Col. M. D. Henderson, Sixth Marines commander, who will coordinate the training activities until Aug. 5. During the remainder of the summer Col. R. R. VanStockum, commander of the Eighth Marines, will exercise control. Presence and activities of leave personnel will be coordinated with these commanders by the Division Special Services Officer.

Quotas for the training site will be filled June 3 through July 1 by the Second Marines, Tenth Marines, Hq. Bn., and 2nd Reconnaissance. July 1 to Aug. 5 is scheduled for the Sixth Marines, Hq. Bn., 2nd AT Bn., 2nd Med. Bn., 2nd MT Bn., 2nd Pioneer Bn., 2nd Recon Bn. and 2nd Service Bn. The final period, from Aug. 5 to Sept. 2, will be filled by quotas from the Eighth Marines, Hq. Bn., 2nd AT Bn., 2nd Pioneer, 2nd Recon and 2nd Service Bn.

Quotas also will be available for Force Troops and Marine Corps Base units for training throughout the summer on a space available basis.

20,000 Safe Landings For GCA Group

Marine Air Traffic Control Unit 64 passed another milestone in its history on May 24, when it completed its 20,000th accident-free ground-controlled approach.

The record was established when Act. SSgt. Sam A. Gill, duty crew chief, controlled an HUS helicopter piloted by Lt. Col. Edwin O. Reed, commanding officer of HMR(L)-264 and 1st Lt. Benjamin E. Edic, to a low pass over the GCA touchdown point.

After landing, the pilots were escorted to the GCA site where they were greeted by Maj. Mont L. Beamon, MATCU-64 officer-in-charge. Cake and refreshments were served to celebrate the occasion.

MATCU-64 is attached to Marine Air Control Squadron 7 at the Air Facility and is under operational control of the Base Operations officer. They provide navigational assistance to aircraft entering and leaving the Air Facility control zone.

Since arriving here from MCAS, Miami, Fla., on Aug. 8, 1958, the GCA unit has controlled more than 5,000 approaches at the Air Facility.

Power Cut-Off

There will be an electrical power interruption affecting all of Tarawa Terrace on June 5 from 4:30 to 6:30 a.m.

First Increment Of Reserve Units Arrive This Weekend

The first of 67 Organized Marine Corps Reserve units to receive summer training at Camp Lejeune this year are scheduled to arrive this weekend. Small advance parties from each of the 12 units which will make up the first increment of reserves to undergo the annual two-week training program are reporting aboard today and tomorrow. These parties will set the stage for the arrival here this weekend of the main body of their units.

Five rifle companies and seven other types of units from as far away as Rock Island-Moline, Ill., and as near as Charlotte, N. C., will be arriving by all modes of land and air travel Saturday and Sunday.

All but two of the units will kick off their training with annual requalification on the Lejeune rifle range Monday through Wednesday. Two of the units conducted firing at their home armories earlier this year and will get down to other training.

Navy Relief Drive Contributions Lagging

With only two weeks remaining in the 1960 Navy Relief Fund Drive, an overall total of $37,000 has been donated thus far for a total of 57 per cent of the $65,000 gross goal. The drive will end June 17.

Although an excellent showing is indicated in the below units, there are still several units whose drive contributions are still lagging in the 30 per cent bracket. This lowers, considerably, the overall effort.

Marine Corps Base still leads all other Quad-Command units with a 70 per cent donation or $16,430, followed by Division troops with 51 per cent for a total of $14,928.28. The Air Facility and MAG-26 have contributed $1,900 or 49 per cent of their quota and Force Troops units have turned in $3,700.50 or 44 per cent.

Division's 2nd Motor Transport Battalion was inadvertently omitted from the "honor" units last week when its 108 per cent effort went unnoticed in these columns. The unit continues to lead the Division drive this week with 118 per cent of quota.

Other units with 100 per cent-plus donations are Motor Transport Bn. with 118 per cent, Rifle Range, 177 per cent, Research Lab, 150 per cent, and HMR(L)-261, 250 per cent. Nearing the 100 per cent mark are 1st ITR, 93 per cent, Field Medical Service School with 96 per cent, the Sixth Marines, 76 per cent, and Pioneer Bn. with 74 per cent.

In other contributions last week, Atlantic Contractors, Inc., donated $200 to the drive and Mr. R. L. Williams Jr., vice-president in charge of the First Citizens Bank, made a $200 contribution for the bank.

'Mountain Laurels' Bestowed Upon 2nd Division Band At Annual Kentucky Fete

The triumphant appearance of the 2nd Division's Band at last year's Kentucky State fair culminated in an equally successful appearance last week at the Kentucky Mountain Laurel Festival at Pineville, Ky.

Spectacular mountain scenery and the beauty of college coeds competing for the coveted Laurel Queen title, make the festival one of the most colorful and entertaining in the nation.

Held each year in Pineville in southeastern Kentucky, the festival began in 1931. It was staged to honor Doctor Thomas W. Walker, a pioneer explorer and surveyor, and at the same time, celebrate the blooming of mountain laurel so abundant throughout the Cumberland Mountains.

The 2nd Division Band, directed by WO George J. Buccieri, opened the festival with a concert at the courthouse square in Pineville Thursday, May 26.

Friday was the big day of the festival and for the band. A two-hour parade, led by a color guard of Marine recruits and followed by the band, marched through the streets of Pineville. Dignitaries in the reviewing stand included the Governor of Kentucky, the Honorable Bert Combs, and Lt. Col. William Duncan, who represented Lt. Gen. J. C. Burger, commanding general of the Fleet Marine Force, Atlantic.

The Laurel Cove Amphitheater in Pine Mountain State Park was the scene of the crowning of the festival queen. The cove is a natural, bowl-shaped depression in the side of Pine Mountain. A towering, 150-foot sandstone cliff, crowned with laurel and rhododendron, serves as a backdrop for the grassy stage which faces in a reflecting pool.

Warrant Officer Buccieri led the band in an hour-long concert before Governor Combs crowned Lana Ruth Jones, a Bowling Green coed, the 1960 Festival Queen. The Division's Dance Band furnished background music during the judging of the 20 candidates.

The band received a standing ovation from the 10,000 spectators when it played the "Mountain Laurel Festival March." The march was written for the occasion by Act. SSgt. Jose Castillo and was officially presented to the festival committee.

Sixth Marines Suffer Loss But Continue To Set Pace

Despite a 15-10 drubbing at the hands of the surging Group 1 contingent, the Sixth Marines continued to set the pace in the Division intramural baseball league last week. The league leaders shook off their second defeat of the season with an 11-7 victory over the Second Marines to maintain a full two-game advantage over their closest rivals. Group I exploded for six runs in the opening inning of their encounter with the Sixth Marines and went on to dent the plate for seven more counters in the fifth frame to ice the decision. The win marked the third consecutive triumph for the Group club and vaulted them into a third place tie with the Eighth Marines. Tom D'Andrea provided the scoring punch for the victors with a two-run homer and two singles to account for three of the 15 runs. Bill Butler was tagged hard in the final inning when the Sixth Marines erupted for six runs but managed to hang on for the decision.

Joe Grant made it three in a row for the Group nine when he bested the Eighth Marines 7-6. The Eighth Marines yielded six early runs and fell short with a late inning rally to go down to their fourth defeat of the campaign.

The Sixth Marines unveiled their booming bats to get back on the winning track when they scored seven of their 11 runs via the round trip route to cost to an 11-7 win over the last place Second Marines. Ramon Lugo connected twice with the bases empty while Bill Strickler and Tom Gray hit for the circuit with two mates aboard. Gray tossed a seven-hitter, going the distance for the win.

The Tenth Marines scored five runs in the opening three innings, coasting to a 7-1 triumph over the Eighth Marines. The win snapped a two-game Eighth Marine win streak and moved the Cannoneers into sole possession of second place in league standings.

John Borgese, hard-hitting second sacker for the Tenth Marines, led the hit parade with three safeties in four trips to the plate.

Bob Jones picked up his second win of the year for the Cannoneers with a neat three-hitter.

'Fashion Dreamland' Comes To Life At Knox

A dreamland of fashions came to life Friday night at Knox Trailer Park as the Wives Club held its first fashion show. The show was held outside, with two large trailers forming the background for the patio setting, and was attended by more than 350 people. The casual clothes included swim suits, Bermuda short sets, Capris, coordinate short sets, blouses, matching belts, blazers, and skirts. A few dress-up styles made of cottons, cotton blends, and drip dry miracle fibers were also shown.

Miss Jean Jackson of radio station WJNC was the commentator for the show. She described the show as being a "tremendous undertaking for a new club."

This club was organized by a group of volunteers in March, with the membership open to all wives in the park regardless of their husband's rank. It is sponsored by the Trailer Park Community Association and monetary allotments are made to it from the Association's recreation fund, which shared in the expense of the fashion show.

With the exception of the hair stylings, the show was handled entirely by trailer park volunteers. It was directed by Mrs. Stanley S. Carr, Lot 2516, who attended the Grace Downs School of Modeling in New York and had modeled in that city. Make-up artist was Mrs. Roland Copeland, Trailer 703, who was employed by Max Factor, and, as a member of the Bud Westmore organization, did make-up for Allied Artists motion pictures, both studio and on location.

The club would like to thank the volunteer models and the others

Insect Spraying

With the arrival of warm weather, spraying for insects has been resumed throughout the area. Parents are warned that the "fog" given off by the vehicles can be harmful if breathed at close proximity. Let's leave the insecticide to the insects and keep our children healthy.
