

A Bi-Weekly Publication

NETCOM Buzz

November 22, 2022

NETCOM CG speaks at the community's 27th Annual Veterans Day Parade

Addressing this year's Veterans Day ceremony was Maj. Gen. Christopher L. Eubank, Network Enterprise Technology Command (NETCOM)'s commanding general, who reminded everyone of the importance of Veterans Day.

Cyber Protection Brigade looks to retain its top talent through Training with Government program

TWG gives CPB Soldiers an opportunity to embark on developmental assignments with other governmental agencies, then bring what they learned there back to the Army.

The 311th Signal Battalion conducts Welcome Home ceremony

Special guests who attended this event; Daniel Furtado, California's Army Reserve Ambassador, Lance Izumi, J.D., California's Civilian Aide to the Secretary of the Army, Kevin Spease, Elk Grove City Council Member for the 3rd District and Air Force combat veteran, and Chuck Jamison, who was a veteran with more than 30 years of military service and played the bag pipes at the end of the ceremony to the Army Song tune.

Cyber Protection Brigade welcomes new commander, farewells outgoing leader

The Army Cyber Protection Brigade both welcomed a new leader and bid farewell to its outgoing commander in a ceremony, Oct. 27, 2022, at Fort Gordon, Georgia. During the change of command, Col. John Popiak relinquished command of the "Hunter Brigade" to Col. Christopher Stauder.

NETWORK ENTERPRISE TECHNOLOGY COMMAND

1LT Alvaro Garcia from 335th made Army History

1st Lt Alvaro Garcia is one of our Cyber officers assigned to the Western Cyber Protection Center, U.S. Army Reserve Cyber Protection Brigade. He has become the first Cyber Curriculum Planner for JRTOC.

Signal Soldier exemplifies excellence of Warrant Officer Cohort

Chief Warrant Officer 4 Yuri Comesi, Regional Cyber Center-Continental United States, U.S. Army Network Enterprise Technology Command (NETCOM), serves as a cybersecurity technical compliance manager.

NETCOM Soldiers help show students "A Day in the Life"

Signaleers from NETCOM, supported U.S. Army Intelligence Center of Excellence (USAI CoE) and United States Army Recruiting Command's (USAREC's), "A Day in the Life" recruiting event. The first event of its kind here, approximately 50 current high school students had the opportunity to learn about the lives, jobs and experiences of everyday Soldiers.

93rd SIG BDE Soldiers and Civilians conducted a Team Building event at the Fort Eustis Bowling Alley

Soldiers and Civilians of the S3 Division conducted a Team Building event at the Fort Eustis Bowling Alley on Friday, 18 November. The event began with the Brigade Chaplain providing team-building and spiritual/holistic health exercises, capped off with food and bowling.

2d TSB UMT Spiritual Fitness events build camaraderie

During the event, participants took a walking tour through Worms, visiting key sites where Martin Luther took his stand in the face of imperial and papal pressure, which resulted in the Protestant Reformation movement that eventually swept across Europe.

Communicators' conferences build trust, increases collaboration

'Decision Dominance' cannot be achieved without continuous communication. The 2d Theater Brigade's 102d and 509th Strategic Signal Battalions held communicators' conferences to provide communicators and support elements with opportunities to discuss enterprise-level initiatives and enhance cohesion amongst Europe's Signal community.