FORT RILEY POST

April 21, 2023

Transitioning Soldiers learn about Kansas communities through TAP KEEP

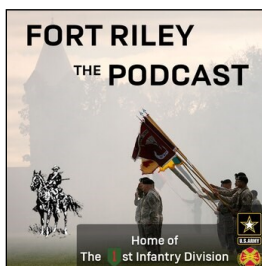

April 18, a tour was put on by the Kansas Employment Exploration Program, facilitated by the Fort Riley Transition Assistance Program. The tour initiative is designed to encourage transitioning servicemembers to remain in Kansas after military service.

This week Doc Jargon explains the origin of RIP/TOA to a husband that is curious about his wife's messages as she is preparing to return home from Europe.

Fort Riley the Podcast

In this week's edition of Fort Riley the Podcast, we hear First Sergeant Roy Walters of the Commanding General's Mounted Color Guard reflect on his time in the saddle and passes the reins to the next company First Sergeant.

Historic Places

This Fort Riley Friday we visit Custer Hall, building 403 on Holbrook Avenue. Custer Hall was completed in 1889 and served as the Artillery Administration Building. It faces Artillery Parade Field.

A rider's experience in the Fort Riley Basic Motorcycle Safety Course

Fort Riley offers a mandatory course that Soldiers who want to ride motorcycle on the installation must take. This class is free to all Soldiers and DA Civilians to take and comes with many positive experiences. Read about this riders experience from the most recent safety course.
