

Aug 2023

August is Antiterrorism Awareness Month

Army community members must know how to identify and report suspicious activities or behavior;

“See Something Say Something”

“Don’t be a Passive bystander”

LRC Rheinland-Pfalz safety expert drills home summer, heat illness and workplace safety

KAISERSLAUTERN, Germany – With the heat of summer at our doorsteps, heat illness awareness and summer safety are paramount.

LaShaun Chappell understands the importance of using a team approach to help prevent heat injuries – or any other types of injuries – on the job or at home. (Click to read more)

Onboarding program fuels career hopes for new employee

ROCK ISLAND ARSENAL, Ill. – Ellie Martinez might be new to working at U.S. Army Sustainment Command , but she already feels right at home.

“The atmosphere is incredible,” Martinez says. “There is a wide range of knowledge and experience at ASC. I learn new and incredible things every day from both the Soldiers and Civilians I work with.” (Click to read more)

ASC GLOBAL ELINE

403rd AFSB welcomes Brown, bids farewell to Rennard in change of command ceremony

CAMP WALKER, South Korea – The 403rd Army Field Support Brigade welcomed Col. Henry Brown and said goodbye to Col. Lisa Rennard during a change of command ceremony here, July 7.

Brown comes to the 403rd AFSB from the Hoover Institution at Stanford University where he recently completed his Army Senior Service College as a National Security Affairs Fellow. (Click to read more)

403rd AFSB welcomes Harvey as new command sergeant major

CAMP WALKER, South Korea – Just one week after welcoming a new brigade commander, the 403rd Army Field Support Brigade received a new senior enlisted leader during an assumption of responsibility ceremony conducted at Soldiers Memorial Chapel, here, July 14.

At the intimate ceremony, Command Sgt. Maj. Cedrick Harvey was welcomed as the Powerhouse Brigade's new command sergeant major. (Click to read more)

Army Expeditionary Civilian Workforce adds extra firepower to 405th AFSB capabilities

KAISERSLAUTERN, Germany – The 405th Army Field Support Brigade is taking full advantage of a program designed for Army civilians who are interested in being assigned to Europe in a temporary duty status for six, nine, or 12 months.

The Army Expeditionary Civilian Workforce program has deployment opportunities in a TDY status available for Army civilians worldwide – to include many with the 405th AFSB. (Click to read more)

Red Cloud returns home after mission completion

CHARLESTON, S.C. – The U.S. Navy Ship Red Cloud recently completed its mission abroad, which included the first download and issue of Army Prepositioned Stock-3 equipment since Operation Iraqi Freedom.

The Red Cloud arrived in Subic Bay, Philippines in March and equipment was downloaded and configured by the Army Field Support Battalion-Charleston. (Click to read more)

ASC GLOBAL ELINE

New ASC chaplain ready to provide religious support

ROCK ISLAND ARSENAL, Ill. – “The role of a chaplain in today’s Army isn’t a whole lot different since the Chaplain Corps was authorized by the Continental Congress on 29 July 1775,” said Chaplain (Lt. Col.) Kevin Daul. “We are right next to our Soldiers on mission while deployed, advising commanders and staff on hard ethical and moral situations, and in garrison caring for their families. Chaplains nurture the living, care for the wounded, and honor the dead.” (Click to read more)

405th AFSB LOGCAP officer victorious at Norwegian Foot March competition in Romania

MIHAIL KOGĂLNICEANU AIR BASE, Romania – Crossing the finish line might have seemed like just another small victory for 1st Lt. Katy Voss, but it was a big win for her team and the 405th Army Field Support Brigade.

Voss recently completed a Norwegian Foot March competition in Romania, and her team of 405th AFSB Logistics Civil Augmentation Program professionals said they’re very proud of her. (Click to read more)

VIDEO & Article: AFSBn - Africa APS-2 Humvees return from DEFENDER 23 via U.S. Naval Ship Yuma

LIVORNO, Italy – Following DEFENDER 23, 40 Humvees from Army Prepositioned Stocks-2 used during the exercise were returned to Leghorn Army Depot and Army Field Support Battalion-Africa via U.S. Naval Ship Yuma at the Port of Livorno, Italy. (Click to see more)

ASC Commanding General

Maj. Gen. David Wilson

Chief, Public and Congressional Affairs

Kimberly Conrad

AFSB PAOs

Aaron DeCapua, 402nd AFSB

Galen Putnam, 403rd AFSB

Cameron Porter, 405th AFSB

Editor

Greg Wilson

Staff Members

Jon Connor

Elizabeth Glenn

Kelly Haertjens

Sarah Patterson