Fort Riley the Podcast

This episode of Fort Riley the Podcast brings you information about the continuing education available to Army civilian employees through the Leadership and Workforce Development Program.

Historic Places

This week we explore more of the brick structures on Carpenter Avenue. Several served as 4-family apartments, and still do. They were built during a construction program that replaced temporary WWI structures with permanent ones for a peacetime Army. The program ran, nationwide from 1927 until about 1940.
