

ARMY FLIER

SERVING THE HOME OF ARMY AVIATION SINCE 1956

VOLUME 74 • NUMBER 02 • JANUARY 24, 2024

CH-47s from the 101st Combat Aviation Brigade, Wings of Destiny deployed over 500 nautical miles to Alexandria, Louisiana and Fort Johnson to start air assaulting into their training mission at the Joint Readiness Training Center in January 2024. This exercise will implement one of the division's core capabilities – the execution of a Large-Scale Long-Range Air Assault. Photo Credit: 101st Airborne Division (Air Assault)

Fort Novosel MWR Director retires after fulfilling 45-year career

A stalwart of Fort Novosel, Program Director for Morale, Welfare, and Recreation, Evy Bludsworth hangs up her many hats after serving families over 45 years. The year was 1978, nearly all active-duty soldiers on Fort Novosel were yet to be born, and Bludsworth applied for her first position on what was then Fort Rucker. "Like everybody else, I had to eat. I was looking for a job, but I never intended to stay. My bachelor's..."

'Part of a team': Corsaro family father and son share Army Aviation legacy

2nd Lt. Jacob M. Corsaro remembers the day a West Point graduate visited his school and said something that made him want to join the Army. "She said 'in the Army you're always going to be working as part of a team,'" Jacob said. "I always liked working as part of a team. I like people, I like being around others, I like working with others. If you're in the Army and you're part of a team you're never alone. No one likes to be alone."

Fort Novosel garrison leaders participate in prestigious fellowship

Albert Einstein is known to have said that a person cannot solve a problem with the same thinking that created it. Garrison leaders at Fort Novosel are learning new ways to look at and solve problems, lead change, and build coalitions through their involvement in the City-County Management Senior Fellowship Program (CMSFP). Thyais Scott, the Director of Human Resources for the US Army Garrison Fort Novosel, is no stranger to...

Coffee County Youth Leadership Program navigates Fort Novosel

The saying goes, “Seek and you will find.” Students from the Coffee County Youth Leadership Program (CCYLP) came seeking leadership examples, lessons, and career opportunities as they visited Fort Novosel on Jan. 10, 2024. According to the Chairman of the CCYLP, Gavin Mauldin, that’s exactly what they found. The CCYLP includes students from six different high schools across Coffee County, including Kinston, Enterprise, Elba, Zion Chapel, New Brockton, and Enterprise Christian Academy, who ...

Fort Novosel’s mutual aid agreements help save lives and land in the Wiregrass

Military installations across the country are filled with uniformed heroes, according to most, but one group of heroes take their service beyond the installation gates. The Fort Novosel Fire Department has long-standing mutual aid agreements (MAA) with over 40 surrounding fire departments, allowing them to aid in calls to the surrounding Wiregrass area departments and vice versa.
