Historic Places

Hangar 741 was built in 1932 and is one of the first permanent buildings on Marshall Army Airfield. According to the Army Corps of Engineers, the hangar is significant for its association with the evolution of military aviation, and for its representation of a type of construction—early aviation architecture.

February Retirement Ceremony

The monthly retirement ceremony was held at King Field House Feb. 8 2024. Congratulations to the five Soldiers who retired and thank you for your dedicated service throughout your Army careers. More images are available here.
