Army flight school grad follows in father's footsteps

When Warrant Officer Paul D. Kelly walked across the stage and graduated flight school Feb. 8, 2024, his silver wings were not the only thing he took away with him.

Also in his tool kit is a sense of connection he found among those who knew and flew with his late father, Col. Paul M. Kelly, a senior Army aviator who served at the National Guard Bureau and Department of the Army Staff levels, who was killed in action when the warrant officer was...

Fort Novosel community carries the weight of remembering, together

Over 300 people participated in the Ruck to Remember event hosted by the Fort Novosel Survivor Outreach Services (SOS) program on Feb. 10, 2024.

Soldiers, spouses, civilians, pets, retirees, and survivors came out to honor fallen service members by carrying bricks across Fort Novosel. Participants had the choice of rucking the 5K, 10K or 20K distance and choosing the amount of weight they were willing to carry as a symbol of sacrifice. SOS Coordinator Lee Richards reminded ...

Big hearts for furry patients: Fort Novosel Veterinary Treatment Facility

Military veterinarians are a special breed of service member, often filling many roles on an installation. The Fort Novosel Veterinarian Treatment Facility (VTF) is run by a small but mighty team, according to Officer-In-Charge Capt. Jacquelynn Watson, Doctor of Veterinary Medicine. Most people don't know that military veterinarians also serve as the post food inspectors and are fully responsible for the medical care of all military working dogs (MWD) assigned to an installation. There are currently 8 ...
