Walking town hall brings leadership to the front porch

Front porch hangouts between neighbors are common on Army installations, especially in the south, but it's not every day the commanding general shows up to one.

Walking town halls have created a way for Fort Novosel residents to voice praise or concerns, face-to-face, with leaders that are eager to listen.

Maj. Gen. Michael C. McCurry, U.S. Army Aviation Center of Excellence and Fort Novosel commanding general, along with members of the USAACE and garrison...

Fulfilling our nation's promise

In his 1920 acceptance speech for the Republican nomination for the vice presidency, Calvin Coolidge said, "The nation which forgets its defenders will be itself be forgotten."

One defense agency not only remembers America's defenders but actively works to fulfill the nation's promise to account for or bring all missing personnel home. The Defense POW/MIA Accounting Agency's (DPAA) mission is to provide the fullest possible accounting for our...

50 years of purpose- Fort Novosel flight instructor receives FAA Master Pilot Award

No names are as synonymous to aviation history as Orville and Wilbur Wright, pioneers in the discovery of flight. The Federal Aviation Administration's (FAA) most prestigious award began in 2003 and was rightfully titled in their namesake. Steve Rutland, Fort Novosel flight instructor and Amentum employee, received the Wright Brothers Master Pilot Award at a small ceremony at Cairns Army Airfield on March 1, 2024. The award is reserved for U.S. aviators reaching 50 years of accident-free flying...
