

The Durable Report

Distinguished Guests Visit the 1SB

Five United States Governors Visit the 1st Sustainment Brigade

Soldiers from the 1st Sustainment Brigade here at Camp, Arifjan Kuwait were greeted by United States Governors on July 22, 2010.

Governor Tim Pawlenty of Minnesota, Governor Jim Douglas of Vermont, Governor Deval Patrick of Massachusetts, Governor Jay Nixon of Missouri and Governor Mike Rounds of South Dakota greeted the troops with high morale.

The 1st Sustainment Brigade's 164th Transportation Battalion and the Joint Logistics Task Force 7 hosted a static display of the types of convoy support vehicles designated for the responsible drawdown of equipment from Iraq for the distinguished guests.

The 1st Sustainment Brigade Soldiers explained the importance of convoy operations and the specific vehicle roles to the Governors.

The Governors greeted constituents from their respective states and emphasized to service members the importance of their service.

The Governors toured the convoy staging lanes and were enlightened by subject matter experts on the specific capabilities of their equipment.

The 1st Sustainment Brigade is a vital asset, in spearheading the responsible drawdown of Iraq.

