

A Bi-Weekly Publication

NETCOM Buzz

May 21, 2024

Army Implements Enhanced Security Measures for Data

Effective June 1, 2024, the Network Enterprise Technology Command will begin blocking access to all Army 365 services, including webmail, Teams, SharePoint Online and OneDrive, through insecure commercial internet channels. Users are strongly encouraged to transition to the secure alternatives of AVD or Hypori immediately.

Army Combatives Program Training

The 302d Signal Battalion trained Soldiers on Army Combatives Program fundamentals May 9 at on Ft. Detrick, Maryland. This training builds confidence by familiarizing Soldiers with close-quarters combat and improving physical and mental conditioning.

509th SIG BN Lends Helping Hand

Members from our 509th Signal Battalion volunteered their time helping to clean up after flooding severely affected the small community of Isola Vicenta, Italy.

307th SIG BN Showcases Modernization Efforts and Strategic Role at Pacific Symposium

They discussed ongoing modernization efforts by the Theater Army Signal Command, which has upgraded Expeditionary Signal Battalions to Enhanced status to better support emerging missions with advanced technologies.

NETWORK ENTERPRISE TECHNOLOGY COMMAND

11th Annual Hilda I. Clayton Best Combat Camera Competition

The 55th SIG CO, under the 21st SIG BDE, is holding the 2024 Best COM-CAM Competition 17-22 May at Ft. Walker, Virginia. Thirteen teams will celebrate the legacy of SPC Hilda Clayton as they compete to win the title.

U.S., French Signal Leaders Establish ICG Partnership

Leadership from 2d Theater Signal Brigade and French Army CIS and Cyber Support Brigade establish an Interoperability Cooperation Group (ICG) between the two units.

Brigadier General Kevin Meisler
311th Signal Commander

BG Kevin Meisler Discusses Indo-Pacific Communications Challenges and Modernization with Defense News

The interview reiterates NETCOM's message for providing decision dominance to the warfighter.

44th SIG BN Shows off Signal Skills During French Competition

Members from the 44th Expeditionary Signal Battalion-Enhanced journeyed to the South of France to showcase the "Brigade of Excellence" skills during a French Signal competition. Our Soldiers competed against French and Belgians Signaleers to see who would earn the title of 'Best Signaleers', while boosting esprit de corps and interoperability.

CPB Showcases Talents During Cyber Flag 24

Cyber Flag is a joint, multinational exercise designed to both enhance operational readiness and deepen partner relationships. During the exercise, the teams faced and overcame complex challenges within a realistic, large-scale cyber defense and incident response scenario. Additionally, the teams created valuable relationships with future partners through collaboration during the exercise.

101st ESB Participates in Eager Lion 24 in the Southwest Asia Theater

During this exercise SPC Robles' invaluable contribution to the team has been profound. Through his expertise in cable installation and management, the team successfully ran numerous cables throughout the HICON. His proactive approach and meticulous attention to detail have truly distinguished him. As a result of his efforts, the team delivered exceptional customer service to over 350 customers.