

VOLUME 5
ISSUE 20

Victory Week

FORT RILEY POST

June 14, 2024

Fort Riley's Victory Week: Units celebrate history, Victory with competitions

Events for victory week included both competition and camaraderie as their core goals. Events included combative tournaments, softball, archery, a historic run, basketball and more. Check out these images and then visit the Victory Week Photo Album on Flickr for more. To learn the winner of the 2024 Victory Cup, visit <https://www.facebook.com/1stInfantryDivision>.

Army Worldwide News

- Soldier strides to summer Olympics spot
- Next-generation chemical detector provides enhanced CBRN defense to warfighter
- Army expands spouse licensing, fellowship programs
- Detroit Arsenal taps into geothermal power through DOE partnership
- Ranger walks grandfather's WWII path during D-Day commemoration

Historic Places

Building 214 Custer Avenue, like many others in this area, was constructed as barracks. It opened in 1903 along with its neighbor building 212, and building 208. In fact, these three buildings are nearly identical except for the porch structure that was retained on the exterior of bldg. 214. Most barracks built during this time period included a porch or balcony structure that was later removed.

Doc Jargon cuts through the jargon that is the language of the U.S. Army. This week Doc explains who the first "Pvt. Joe Snuffy" was and how he earned the Congressional Medal of Honor.

DOC JARGON

Home of the First Infantry Division