7th Fleet Band to Perform at 2025 Kanrin Maru Festival in Uruga

By CFAY Public Affairs

The U.S. Navy 7th Fleet Band Broadside Brass Band is scheduled to perform tomorrow, April 26, from noon to 1 p.m. during the annual Kanrin Maru Festival at Uruga Brick Dock.

The free two-day festival honors Kanrin Maru, Japan's first screw-driven steam warship and the first Japanese vessel to cross the Pacific Ocean. The family-friendly event includes carnival games, live performances and kitchen cars, alongside exhibitions commemorating Japan's maritime history and early international diplomacy.

Originally built in the Netherlands and later acquired by the Tokugawa shogunate, Kanrin Maru departed Uruga for San Francisco on Feb. 9, 1860. Following the signing of the Treaty of Amity and Commerce, the ship accompanied the USS Powhatan, which carried a Japanese diplomatic delegation to the United States as part of the nation's first formal embassy to America.

Uruga's Kanrin Maru Festival kicks off with an opening ceremony at 11 a.m. Saturday, followed by performances from local musicians, dance groups, martial artists and historical reenactments.

Visitors can participate in guided tours of the Uruga Brick Dock and a historical walking route through the surrounding neighborhood. Additional exhibits include a miniature lantern display created by students from Uruga Elementary School and ship model collections inside the Uruga Administrative Center.

Yokosuka's Uruga district has a long naval history, including its role during Commodore Matthew C. Perry's arrival with the Black Ships in 1853. The Kanrin Maru Festival is one of several annual events throughout Yokosuka commemorating Japan's opening to the world. Other events include Kurihama's Perry Festival and the William Adams Cherry Blossom Festival in Tsukayama Park.

Event organizers encourage use of public transportation, as parking is extremely limited. Keikyu Uruga Station is the nearest train stop. Vehicle and road restrictions are expected.

For more information, visit the official festival website at <https://miurahantou.jp/kanrinmaru-fes>.

Active Parenting of Teens :)

For Parents of Teens and Tweens

The challenge of successfully ushering children through their teen years has always been among parents' hardest-won achievements. But in today's society where children seem to become adults overnight, and where they often make decisions about drugs, sexuality, and violence before they understand the consequences, a parent's job is more important than ever. So how can you ensure that your teens develop the skills and character they need to not only survive but to thrive as they gain independence?

You can create harmony and stability in your family while raising your teens to be responsible, courageous and prepared for independent life. Active Parenting of Teens, a video and discussion program by parenting expert Dr. Michael Popkin, will show you how. In six sessions packed with activities, discussion, real-world examples, and feedback, you'll learn a proven approach to parenting, plus indispensable techniques and insights for overcoming obstacles, that will bring happiness and harmony into your home. You'll leave each session energized and motivated to make positive and realistic changes in your own family's daily life.

Since 1983, millions of families have learned the benefits of Active Parenting. Now it's your turn.

Join us at the next session and see the difference!

Narrated by TV mom Daphne Maxwell Reid ("The Fresh Prince of Bel-Air") and by the author, Dr. Michael Popkin
