

Eye On AMC

Wednesday, May 28, 2025

SecArmy highlights Redstone as 'gem' driving transformation

REDSTONE ARSENAL, Ala. – Secretary of the Army Dan Driscoll visited Redstone Arsenal for the first time May 19. During his trip, he met with leaders and experts from Army Materiel Command, Rapid Capabilities and Critical Technologies Office, Program Executive Office Aviation and PEO Missiles and Space. After the engagements, Driscoll said he was impressed by Redstone Arsenal's missions and its talented workforce.

CAA's new explosive rail yard delivers munitions readiness

CRANE, Ind. – Army and Navy officials gathered May 19 at Crane Army Ammunition Activity for a ribbon cutting ceremony to mark the opening of a new explosive railcar holding yard. The state-of-the-art holding yard ensures CAA's ability to support its retrograde mission and simultaneously conduct high-volume munitions outload and adding approximately 11,000 linear feet of track.

NATO experts coordinate military asset tracking standards

ROCK ISLAND ARSENAL, Ill. – Standardizing asset tracking across a 32-nation military alliance is no small task, but it's essential for operational success. With each NATO member managing wartime logistics differently, ensuring seamless coordination is a challenge that demands innovative solutions—and that's exactly what experts tackled at a recent working group meeting in Hershey, Pennsylvania.

Memorial Day ceremony salutes Gold Star families

HUNTSVILLE, Ala. – Framed by the towering granite walls of Veterans Memorial Park, hundreds gathered once again this Memorial Day to remember and honor the men and women who gave their lives in service to the nation. Attendees included service members, veterans, civic leaders, Gold Star families and community members young and old, many of whom return to the annual ceremony to reflect, remember and reconnect.

Fort Cavazos celebrates first-of-its-kind fitness park

FORT CAVAZOS, Texas – The sound of laughter and encouragement could be heard May 17 throughout the entirety of the newly opened GroundPlay Outdoor Fitness Family Park. Soldiers, family members and children came to together to celebrate the opening of the park. The new park has several distinct areas: a group fitness space, a multi-use court, a playground, workout stations with various types of durable outdoor fitness equipment, a track and more.

Tobyhanna commences work on new Army family housing

TOBYHANNA, Pa. – The skies were gray but golden shovels gleamed as leaders from Tobyhanna Army Depot and their military housing partner, Centinel Public Partnerships, broke ground to build better housing for military families. Depot Commander Col. James Crocker presided over the event, which commenced a $38 million project that will build 35 modern and accessible homes for American heroes stationed in Northeastern Pennsylvania.

FOCUS ON THE FORCE

403rd AFSB units recognized with Army-level awards

Fire personnel earn designations through commitment to excellence

Financial reporting reform pays dividends for partners

TYAD recognizes employee of the quarter

NEWS AROUND THE ARMY

Hegseth directs changes to address shortfalls in household movement system

New FMTVA2s arrive at Transportation School

FORSCOM welcomes new senior enlisted warfighter

AER 2025 Campaign: Five-peat for the 250th