

A Bi-Weekly Publication

NETCOM Buzz

May 6, 2025

ARMY
EMERGENCY RELIEF

ARCYBER CSM Highlights Importance of Giving to the Army Emergency Relief Fund

CSM Heyse, ARCYBER Command Sergeant Major, highlights the importance of the Army Emergency Relief (AER) Fund, emphasizing how contributions directly support Soldiers and their families in times of unexpected financial need. Giving to AER is a meaningful way to strengthen our Army community and ensure no one faces hardship alone.

44th SIG BN Soldier Earns Presidential Volunteer Service Award

A huge congratulations to SGT Hilger-Meneses on receiving the prestigious Presidential Volunteer Service Award! In addition, she has been nominated for the USAG Rheinland-Pfalz Single Soldier Volunteer of the Year Award—a testament to her outstanding dedication and selfless service.

Hunter Care Day: Strengthening Teams, Building Readiness, and Welcoming the Newest Warriors

A successful “Hunter Care Day” welcomed new and returning Soldiers and civilians to the CPB, reinforcing the commitment to strong onboarding. By fostering early connections with leadership and teammates, we strengthen trust, boost readiness, and enhance the effectiveness of our Cyber Protection Teams in the fight to defend Army and national networks.

21st SIG BDE Joins Fort Detrick Community for National Day of Prayer Breakfast and Fellowship

Brigade members joined the Fort Detrick community for a morning of fellowship and reflection during the National Day of Prayer Breakfast. With remarks from MG Lodi and a message from Chaplain Bailey, the event highlighted the importance of spiritual resilience and unity.

NETWORK ENTERPRISE TECHNOLOGY COMMAND

Strengthening Interoperability: 52nd SIG BN and 53rd SIG REGT meet for Future Partnerships and Training

The 53<sup>ème</sup> Régiment de Transmissions (53rd Signal Regiment) hosted 52nd SIG BN for a key leadership engagement in the town of Lunéville, France. Engaging in partnership events like these is vital for fortifying our interoperability and boosting mission support across the theater. These gatherings are not just opportunities; they are crucial steps toward building stronger alliances.

Soldiers Engage with Industry Leaders in the Pacific at AUSA/TechNet

Signal Week continued with a strong showing as Soldiers and civilian partners attended AUSA/TechNet, engaging in meaningful discussions on advancements in signal and communications. The event also featured a keynote luncheon with inspiring remarks from Gen. Brunson, Commanding General of USFK, highlighting the importance of innovation and leadership in today's dynamic communications landscape.

311th SIG CMD Strengthens Regional Partnerships with Visits to Subic Bay and Clarke Freeport Zone

The 311th SIG CMD Command Team visited Subic Bay to engage with partner agencies on key topics and future collaboration, reinforcing efforts that directly support NETCOM's global communications reach. They then traveled to Clarke Freeport Zone to meet with the 307th SIG BN, recognizing their critical role in providing resilient, scalable communications support throughout the Philippines and the Indo-Pacific region.

2d SIG BDE Employee Spotlight: Kevin Tevebaugh

Mr. Tevebaugh, Chief Knowledge Management Officer for the Data Engineering Team, 2d SIG BDE, has demonstrated exceptional innovation in HR data management. Through the implementation of a Power BI-based solution, he increased team productivity by 75% and reduced report preparation time by 14 hours per week.

7TH SC (T) BEST RHN COMPETITION WINNER

Congratulations!!!

Camp Roberts' Team Wins 2025 Best RHN Competition, Advances to Represent 7th SIG CMD at NETCOM

Congratulations to USASA Team B from Camp Roberts RHN, for winning the 2025 Best RHN competition! Their outstanding performance in teamwork and technical excellence earned them the honor of representing 7th SIG CMD at the upcoming NETCOM competition in July.

Team 54 Celebrates Foundation Day with Friendly Competition and Recognition of Excellence

54th SIG BN celebrated its monthly Foundation Day with a spirited game of kickball, honoring Soldiers' achievements and recognizing the dedication and hard work of every team member. The event fostered camaraderie and highlighted the strength of the unit's collective spirit.