

Eye On AMC

Wednesday, August 13, 2025

Army pilots program for expanded meal entitlement use

FORT HOOD, Texas – The Army is conducting a limited user assessment test for the Flexible Eating and Expanded Dining, or FEED, initiative, Aug. 11-25 at Fort Hood intended to give Soldiers more options with their meal entitlements. FEED will allow Soldiers to use their meal entitlements outside of traditional Army-operated dining facilities for the first time. During the pilot, 200 Soldiers from the 61st Quartermaster Battalion can swipe their Common Access Card at select Army and Air Force Exchange Services vendors.

Six leaders named to join AMC Hall of Fame Class of 2025

REDSTONE ARSENAL, Ala. – Six veterans and former Army Civilians will be inducted into the Army Materiel Command Hall of Fame in recognition of their significant contributions to Army readiness and enduring support to Soldiers and families. Since 2012, the AMC Hall of Fame has preserved the command's history and recognized the exceptional leadership, service and dedication of former AMC members for their remarkable efforts in support of the Army and the nation.

402nd AFSB integrates materiel enterprise to sustain Pacific

FORT SHAFTER, Hawaii – In the vast Indo-Pacific theater, sustaining the fight requires maintenance of combat equipment to prolong endurance of the force. But it's not just about quick fixes. In an environment challenged with long and intermittent supply chain networks, maintenance can be complex. Supporting warfighters through these complexities requires expertise from experienced maintainers. The Theater Army Field Support Brigade in the Pacific is the 402nd AFSB, a subordinate command of Army Sustainment Command, positioned in the INDOPACOM region to provide direct support U.S. Army Pacific.

Integrating sustainment from the SSA to Area of Operations

FORT SHAFTER, Hawaii – From the Arctic tundra to the equatorial bamboo forests of Southeast Asia, Soldiers of U.S. Army Pacific are rehearsing for operations across the vast and complex geography of the Indo-Pacific. The region covers more than 50% of the Earth's surface and comprises over thousands of islands spanning 36 nations, with diverse languages, cultures, and bilateral and multilateral agreements. Army Field Support Brigades enable readiness at the tactical edge by integrating capability with supported units and experimenting with strategic solutions at logistics nodes to extend operational reach.

Fort Belvoir showcases quality of life during Dentino visit

FORT BELVOIR, Va. – David Dentino, Deputy Assistant Secretary of the Army for Installations, Housing and Partnerships made his first visit to Fort Belvoir July 18 to discuss housing, partnerships and what the Army is doing to enhance quality of life for families. Matthew Conlan, Directorate of Public Works Housing Division chief, said that the Army and privatized housing partners have a united focus on family welfare. "Our goal is to get families into quality housing," he said.

FOCUS ON THE FORCE

JMC wins first place at AMC
Data Summit

AMC employee of the quarter
helps the Army reduce brain
health risks

404th AFSB logistician named AMC employee of quarter

RRAD Depot turns 84

NEWS AROUND THE ARMY

Fort Stewart Soldiers show
'Dogface' resolve after shooting

New production facility looks to streamline artillery production

New Army drone earns praise from Soldiers at first fielding

SMDC hosts ribbon cutting for new, state-of-the-art facility