

+ NAVY MEDICAL SERVICE CORPS LEGENDS + HEALTHCARE ADMINISTRATORS

Healthcare Administrators (HCAs) have been a foundational part of the Medical Service Corps since Aug. 4, 1947. HCAs represented 56% of the Medical Service Corps plankowners in 1947.

Prior to the establishment of Medical Service Corps, hospital corps officers and warrant officer pharmacists typically served in the roles of HCAs.

85% of Medical Service Corps chiefs / directors have been HCAs. They include current director, Rear Adm. Matthew Case and Rear Adm. Lewis Angelo, the first MSC flag officer.

The Medical Service Corps Healthcare Administrator specialty comprises 9 subspecialties including patient administration, medical logistics, financial management, and plans, operations & medical intelligence (POMI).

