

Street Drum Corps Press Release

Street Drum Corps, a percussion group from Los Angeles, is touring with Armed Forces Entertainment this year. The group will be performing in two separate tours: one touring at bases throughout Europe from September 27 to October 13 and the other touring bases in Australia from September 12-13.

Street Drum Corps, a world-renowned percussion ensemble hailing from Los Angeles, California, mesmerizes audiences across the globe with their unparalleled energy and explosive performances. With a unique blend of resourcefulness and creativity, they breathe new life into discarded objects, transforming them into percussive instruments of astonishing brilliance. This visionary ensemble pushes the boundaries of musical expression, captivating crowds at musical tours, festivals, theme parks, sporting events, performing arts centers, military bases, private parties and educational institutes.

The group has performed live with Vans' Warped Tour, Thirty Seconds to Mars' Into the Wild, Linkin Park's Projekt Revolution and Rockstar Energy's Taste of Chaos. They have also been the featured performance at major festivals, including Insomniac's Electric Daisy Carnival and Lightning in a Bottle.

In addition to their live shows, they have collaborated with esteemed artists from bands such as Ministry, Skrillex, Slipknot, Mötley Crüe, Soundgarden, Bruce Springsteen, AFI, Red Hot Chili Peppers, Guns N' Roses, Jane's Addiction, Krewella, No Doubt, Pepper, Bad Religion, Incubus, Hoobastank, Good Charlotte, The Used, Pennywise, Matisyahu, Avenged Sevenfold, House of Pain, Limp Bizkit and Stomp.

Armed Forces Entertainment delivers world-class entertainment to U.S. troops and their families overseas, strengthening their resilience, boosting morale, and contributing to readiness. These engaging experiences connect servicemembers to home, foster a sense of belonging, ease the challenges of deployment, and support their mental health.
