

Howl at the Moon (6205) Press Release

Howl at the Moon, an iconic dueling piano venue with locations across the United States, is sending touring artists Mike Godwin and Sydney Stephan to tour with Armed Forces Entertainment (AFE) as part of its annual Holidays Around the World concert and event series. The tour, which runs from December 25, 2025, to January 1, 2026, features five performances in Poland.

Mike Godwin is a North Carolina native based in Atlanta, Georgia. With more than 25 years of experience as a dueling pianist, he has also performed with bands and orchestras across 49 states and 37 countries. His career highlights include two appearances on the Grand Ole Opry stage and touring with numerous country artists. He is thrilled to be entertaining the military and their families this holiday season after spending much of the year performing for Howl at the Moon aboard Norwegian Cruise Lines.

Also an entertainer with Howl at the Moon aboard NCL cruises, Sydney Stephan has performed internationally in over 50 countries, on television, on stages and at top venues in New York City. You can listen to her live EP on streaming platforms and check out her production company, Productions by Stephan. This holiday season, she is beyond excited to travel the world and make music, thanking Howl at the Moon and her community back home.

Armed Forces Entertainment delivers world-class entertainment to U.S. troops and their families overseas, strengthening their resilience, boosting morale and contributing to readiness. These engaging experiences connect servicemembers to home, foster a sense of belonging, ease the challenges of deployment and support their mental health.
