

Walk of Fame/Hall of Fame Press Release

Hall of Fame wrestler Anthony Robles and Hall of Fame baseball player Randy Johnson will partner with Armed Forces Entertainment (AFE) for the Walk of Fame/Hall of Fame tour. The tour will feature four events at bases across the Pacific from February 25-28, 2026.

Anthony Robles

Anthony Robles had a decorated collegiate career as a wrestler. Despite being born with only one leg, he was a three-time wrestling All-American, the 2011 NCAA Division 1 National Champion and was inducted into the National Wrestling Hall of Fame in 2012. Since 2012, Robles has been a college wrestling expert and analyst for ESPN. He was a member of the President's Council on Fitness, Sports and Nutrition from 2013–16.

He was named the National Wrestling Media Association's Broadcaster of the Year in 2015 and was inducted into the Arizona Sports Hall of Fame in 2017 and the Arizona State University's Sun Devil Athletics Hall of Fame in 2022.

Robles is an official Nike athlete and became a published author with his book, "Unstoppable: From Underdog to Undefeated: How I Became a Champion," released in 2012. The book was turned into a primetime special in Japan in 2014, which was viewed over 15.5 million times. In 2015, it was turned into a feature film, "Unstoppable", which stars Jharrel Jerome and Jennifer Lopez and is available on Amazon Prime.

Randy Johnson

Randy Johnson was an elite athlete who used his height to his advantage in both baseball and basketball. He turned down the Atlanta Braves after they drafted him in the fourth round in 1982, opting for a combination baseball/basketball scholarship at the University of Southern California (USC). However, once Johnson began concentrating solely on baseball following his sophomore year, he was firmly on the path to Cooperstown.

In 22 seasons, Johnson led his league in strikeouts nine times, earned four ERA titles and recorded 100 complete games with 37 shutouts. He was named to 10 All-Star Games, earning four starts—the second-best all-time total. Only four left-handed pitchers (Warren Spahn, Steve Carlton, Eddie Plank and Tom Glavine) have won more games.

His 4,875 strikeouts rank No. 2 of all-time behind Ryan's 5,714.

Johnson was elected to the Hall of Fame in 2015.

Armed Forces Entertainment delivers world-class entertainment to U.S. troops and their families overseas, strengthening their resilience, boosting morale and contributing to readiness. These engaging experiences connect servicemembers to home, foster a sense of belonging, ease the challenges of deployment and support their mental health.