

Eye On AMC

Wednesday, February 4, 2026

Meet Soldiers where they are

FORT HOOD, Texas – Fort Hood tops the food pyramid as the first installation to launch a Campus-Style Dining Venue scheduled for a Feb. 18 grand opening. One of five pilot locations opening under a contract with Compass Group USA, Inc., the Fort Hood CSDV is a key initiative in the Army's broader food transformation efforts. With tailored menus, Soldiers will receive similar nutrition as college athletes.

Sustaining the strength of the Army

REDSTONE ARSENAL – Lt. Gen. Chris Mohan, commanding general of Army Materiel Command, addressed the AMC enterprise virtually Jan. 27, thanking employees for their hard work and resilience as the Army transforms at a rapid pace. "AMC is the muscle behind the spear," said Mohan. During the town hall, he emphasized the command's lines of effort, noting that all three are essential to how AMC operates.

Modern gear management personalized for you

DETROIT ARSENAL, Mich. – A Soldier's strength is built on more than courage and rigorous training – it's also in the gear worn on their bodies, stowed in their rucksacks and carried into conflict. Diligent equipment management has always been a cornerstone of readiness. As the nature of warfare evolves, the Army is launching a powerful tool to transform how today's forces prepare for tomorrow's fight.

Lt. Gen. Smith formally assumes command of IMCOM

FORT SAM HOUSTON, Texas – Lt. Gen. James Smith formally assumed command of Installation Management Command during a ceremony Jan. 22 at the Fort Sam Houston Theater. The command is responsible for maintaining the highest quality of life for Soldiers, families and civilians across 104 garrisons from Korea to Poland in support of Army readiness and deployability.

Army leaders discuss MEDLOG transformation

FORT DETRICK, Md. – Leadership through change was a key theme during Army Medical Logistics Command's operational update to senior leaders at Communications-Electronics Command. "Leaders lead through change and I appreciate everybody's attitude as we work through this," Maj. Gen. James Turinetti IV, commanding general of CECOM, said.

AMCOM spotlights AI, data governance

REDSTONE ARSENAL, Ala. – Aviation and Missile Command spent a day examining what has become one of its most valuable resources: data. Maj. Gen. Lori Robinson, AMCOM commanding general, emphasized the importance of data and how it affects the mission.

Related: AI in spotlight at APG's first Innovation Showcase

FOCUS ON THE FORCE

Powering Soldier Support at Rock Island Arsenal

AMC names ASC's top employee of the 3rd quarter

LCAAP's Wojtkiewicz named an AMC Employee of the Quarter

IT team increasing efficiency in their requirements

Army nears 100,000 Wickr users as secure communications platform expands across force

Resources for Milano Cortina 2026 Winter Olympics

A blueprint for success in contested environments

Army seeks Soldiers to become space operations specialists