

Eye On AMC

Wednesday, March 4, 2026

Army announces solicitation for additional CSDV

WASHINGTON – The Army announced March 2 a solicitation to expand the service’s Campus-Style Dining Venue pilot, which aims to move beyond traditional dining halls and provide Soldiers with a flexible dining experience, to six additional locations.

Related: New Campus-Style Dining experience coming to Fort Drum

Strong Sergeants key to future Army victories

FORT HOOD, Texas – As the Army pivots to confront global threats, senior enlisted leaders say that a return to fundamentals and the creation of a lethal, proactive sustainment enterprise are the keys to victory. “This next fight ... will be won because of the NCOs on the ground that are empowered to make decisions,” said Command Sgt. Maj. J. Garza, Army Materiel Command’s senior enlisted leader.

Fort Lee marks a new era in Soldier nutrition

FORT LEE, Va. – The Army took a major step toward transforming how Soldiers fuel with the grand opening of Victory Fresh, a modern, chef-driven dining concept unveiled at Fort Lee. Victory Fresh is part of the Army’s broader initiative to modernize food.

Related: ASC supports opening of Fort Lee Victory Fresh

Army medical maintenance facilities modernize

FORT DETRICK, Md. – U.S. Army Medical Logistics Command is embracing the use of artificial intelligence and advanced telemaintenance to ensure life-saving medical devices are ready for the next generation of warfare, where troops may be more isolated and support less accessible. The shift addresses the challenges of potential future conflicts in geographically vast areas.

SecArmy visits USASAC

REDSTONE ARSENAL, Ala. – Secretary of the Army Dan Driscoll met with U.S. Army Security Assistance Command and Army Materiel Command leadership Feb. 26 to discuss foreign military reform at USASAC headquarters.

Related: IMCOM CG visits Presidio of Monterey

402nd AFSB supports 11th ABN during JPMRC

ALASKA – In the unforgiving Arctic environment, sustainment operations must function with precision, adaptability and speed. At Joint Pacific Multinational Readiness Center Alaska, the 402nd Army Field Support Brigade’s Logistics Support Element served as a conduit between the 11th Airborne Division and the Army Materiel Command enterprise.

FOCUS ON THE FORCE

III Armored Corps, AMC open 42 Bistro

Fort Leonard Wood MWR team member named best in IMCOM

The Vital Role of Fort Drum EMS

Fort Lee wins Army-wide community service award

NEWS AROUND THE ARMY

Army launches 2026 Tenant Satisfaction Survey

Fort Benning dedicates H2F center to Georgia native, Olympian, Army hero

HRC expands retention initiatives for officers

Army Acquisition awards recognize excellence