Established on 3 October 1951, as Headquarters, Support Activities, Naval Support Activity (NSA) Naples began its mission to support NATO's Allied Forces Southern Europe and the U.S. Sixth Fleet. After two years, the unit was renamed Commander, Subordinate Command, U.S. Naval Forces Eastern Atlantic/Commander, Headquarters Support Activities. It saw another redesignation in 1957 to U.S. Naval Activities, Italy. On 8 August 1966, it received its current and final name: U.S. Naval Support Activity, Naples. The installation now serves as the headquarters for U.S. Naval Forces Europe–Africa and the U.S. Sixth Fleet, hosting more than 50 commands and roughly 8,500 military and civilian personnel.

NSA Naples challenges itself daily to be the flagship base in Europe, and will strive to do so every day in support of the fleet and families.

NSA Naples Observes National Teen Dating Violence Awareness Month

February 2026 was National Teen Dating Violence Awareness Month (TDVAM). Capt. John Randazzo, installation commander, signed a proclamation declaring that NSA Naples will join in the observation of this campaign and take a united stand against teen dating violence. It is estimated that 1/3 of U.S. teens will experience some type of abuse from someone they are in a relationship. It is imperative to raise awareness, teach what healthy relationships are, and ensure our youth know their resources.

Radon Awareness: How Radon Enters Homes

On-base residential and non-residential units, including off-base Government leased units are in compliance with the Navy Radon Management Program.

Radon can enter your home in many ways:

- Cracks in solid floors
- Construction joints
- Cracks in walls
- Gaps in suspended floors
- Gaps around service pipes
- Cavities inside walls
- The water supply

www.epa.gov/radon

By NSA Naples Public Affairs

Radon is a naturally occurring, radioactive gas that is odorless, colorless, and tasteless. Radon gas is released from rocks and soil and can move to air, groundwater, and surface water. It is normally found at very low levels in outdoor air and can be found in water used for cooking and drinking.

Radon can build up in the air in any home or building, whether it has a basement, is sealed or drafty, or is new or old. Take action this month to reduce the risks of radon in your home by opening windows and using fans to circulate air. This increases airflow and mitigates the buildup of radon.

In compliance with the Navy Radon Assessment and Mitigation Program (NAVRAMP), NSA Naples on-base residential and non-residential units, including off-base Government leased units are either tested or mitigated or currently being tested.

Personnel that live off-base have entered into a private contract with their landlord, therefore limiting the scope with which the U.S. government may intervene or have control over said contract. However, DoD personnel living off-base can work with their landlord to test for and mitigate radon, if desired, at their own expense.

The lessee may work with the lessor to address any identified issues, as outlined in Section 19 of the NSA Naples housing lease.

Information about finding an at-home radon test kit is available through the Environmental Protection Agency: Link Here

If you have specific questions about your home or your options, please contact our housing office for assistance at: DSN: 629-4466

While NSA Naples has a known overall potential for elevated radon levels, classifying the installation as a Radon Potential Category (RPC) 1 according to the NAVRAMP, the installation is complying with NAVRAMP testing and mitigation policies at government owned/controlled units.

RPC1 is simply the level assigned when even one unit or building is found on the installation with a radon level over the minimum threshold of 4.0 picocuries per liter (pCi/L).

Update On Radon Test Results at NSA Naples Non-Residential Facilities

This public notification provides an update on the recent radon testing conducted at NSA Naples' non-residential facilities, as required by the Navy Radon Assessment and Mitigation Program (NAVRAMP). As part of this year-long effort, radon detectors were deployed from August 2024 to September 2025.

The results, which the base received in January 2026, underwent a thorough quality review. Due to a failure to meet NAVRAMP's strict quality assurance standards, NSA Naples has formally rejected the entire set of test results and will conduct a re-test.

Naples Public Health Evaluation

In-Focus: Food Safety in Naples

By: Josephine Schneider

Food Inspection On-Base

One of Naples Public Health Evaluation's enduring processes is food safety, which seeks to ensure that food sold at the Commissary on U.S. Naval Support Activity, Naples Support Site is safe to eat and undergoes a rigorous process by the U.S. Army Veterinary Command (VETCOM) who serve as the local food inspectors before entering the store to be sold. The Commissary has labeled the fresh produce to inform shoppers of the area from which the produce is grown. Much of the produce in the Commissary is from Germany and Northern Italy.

Continuous Food Safety Monitoring

Food provided on base is monitored on an ongoing basis. The U.S. Naval Hospital Naples Preventive Medicine routinely inspects all dining facilities on base to ensure that food is properly stored, maintained, and prepared. In accordance with Department of Defense Directive 6400.4, VETCOM ensures inspectors are stationed in the Commissary and consistently monitor food products; all food products are from VETCOM-approved sources that have been inspected; buying from approved sources is required for all meat, dairy, eggs, prepared vegetables and bottled water (fresh produce is exempt in Western Europe); proper facility sanitation; personal hygiene practices of food service workers; and education of food service managers and employees about food safety.

Food Inspections Off-Base

The U.S. Government does not inspect restaurants or supermarkets off-base. Italy has a system in place to inspect Italian food facilities, markets, and suppliers. However, the health and well-being of all personnel and families in Naples is the base's top priority. VETCOM inspects Italian food manufacturing facilities producing food that is supplied to U.S. military installations.

Food Safety Tips

The U.S. Department of Health and Human Services provides valuable sanitary practices that can apply wherever you live in the world:

- Wash fresh fruits and vegetables thoroughly with potable water prior to eating or cooking.
- Immune-compromised people should consume only cooked fruits and vegetables.
- Use separate cutting boards, plates and utensils for uncooked and cooked meats to avoid cross-contamination.
- Use a food thermometer to make sure meat is cooked to a safe temperature.
- Refrigerate hot or cold leftover food within two hours of being served. Keep leftovers for three to four days when properly refrigerated.

If at any point you feel your health is being or may be impacted by the environment, please contact your primary care physician. If you have questions about any of NPHE enduring processes, or any other environmental life, health or safety issue, send an email to Naples_LHS_questions@us.navy.mil

What Is Naples Public Health Evaluation (NPHE)?

The Naples Public Health Evaluation is a comprehensive study of the health risks associated with potential exposure to chemicals in the environment resulting from the area's waste disposal practices. The Campania region of Italy has experienced numerous challenges associated with trash collection, open burning of uncollected trash and illegal waste disposal practices. In response to health concerns expressed by U.S. Navy personnel in 2007, the Commander, Navy Region Europe, Africa, Central (CNREURAFCENT) contacted the Navy and Marine Corps Force Health Protection Command (NMCFHPC) to conduct a comprehensive public health evaluation to assess the potential health risks for U.S. personnel living in the Naples area. The NPHE was conducted from January 2008 to June 2011.

What did the Navy learn from NPHE?

Through the Public Health Evaluation, the Navy has been able to identify and address public health risks for U.S. personnel living in the Campania region. The Navy established new health-protective policies and took immediate action to protect the health of U.S. personnel and their families. Many of these health-protective policies remain in place, as enduring processes, to ensure continued health protection beyond the life of the study.

Where are the results of NPHE and where can I read more about this evaluation?

The NPHE results are located on the Health Awareness section at NSA Naples website:

Your Health: Facts for Families in Naples

About: Food On and Off-Base

The U.S. Navy is committed to ensuring our families are safe while serving our country at home or overseas. The following information is provided as part of a wide-ranging effort to understand the health risks of our personnel and families living in Naples, Italy. A comprehensive Public Health Evaluation was conducted to assess potential short and long-term health risks associated with living in the Naples area (see left panel). In line with our commitment to continually share important health information, we encourage you to review the following information.

In 2007, numerous reports of high dioxin levels and other chemicals in air, water, and soil created a concern amongst the U.S. Navy community that foods grown in the Campania region could be contaminated. Articles in newspapers and in some Italian scientific journals alleged links between adverse health effects and the toxic waste dumps in the Campania region. These articles implicated locally grown vegetables, fruits, and mozzarella di bufala as possibly contaminated foods.

As part of the Navy's overall efforts to be protective of the health of U.S. military and civilian personnel and their families in Naples, the Navy and U.S. Army Veterinary Command (VETCOM) conducted an investigation of foods produced in the Campania region and sold in the Naples Gricignano D'Aversa Navy Commissary (Commissary). The food study was performed in February 2008.

VETCOM is the Department of Defense executive agent for food safety and quality assurance and is responsible for providing direct assistance to all DOD agencies requiring support with respect to food safety and food defense.

Although there are multiple layers of health protection already in place for U.S. personnel purchasing food items at the Commissary, the presumed higher potential for environmental contaminants to be present in the Campania region led the Naples Public Health Evaluation team to conduct a food study. The study went beyond routine inspections of food products by performing various laboratory analyses, which are normally not mandated by VETCOM. Foods grown locally, particularly fresh fruits and vegetables, received a closer look.

Using the above criteria, an assessment of the Commissary was conducted. Products that met the food study criteria and were thus evaluated in the study included:

- Artichokes
- Celery
- Spinach
- Cabbage
- Chicken
- Carrots
- Mushrooms

Top Navy Leaders Visit NSA Naples, Reinforces Commitment to Sailor Well-being

By Josephine Schneider

NAPLES, Italy – Chief of Naval Operations Adm. Daryl Caudle and Master Chief Petty Officer of the Navy John Perryman visited U.S. Naval Support Activity Naples from Feb. 4-5, 2026, to meet directly with sailors and senior leaders on mission readiness, quality of life, and the region's strategic importance.

During an all-hands call, Caudle emphasized the direct link between quality of life and combat readiness while recognizing the contributions of outstanding performers. Perryman heard from sailors on a range of topics including process improvements, training, manning, and housing.

The visit began with a comprehensive overview from the base's commanding officer, Capt. John Randazzo, and other military leaders.

Discussions focused on enhancing living conditions for the approximately 8,500 service members, Department of War civilians, and their families in the Naples area. A key part of the visit included a tour of unaccompanied housing units, where Caudle, joined by Randazzo and Command Master Chief Celina Miller, assessed living conditions.

Both leaders also visited the U.S. Naval Hospital Naples and had lunch with sailors, fielding their questions and gathering direct feedback on their needs and concerns.

Concurrently, Mrs. Donna Caudle, spouse of the Chief of Naval Operations, visited several quality-of-life facilities with Fleet and Family Readiness staff, including the fitness center, bowling alley, and liberty centers, and served lunch to sailors.

Commander of MyNavy Career Center Addresses Sailors at NSA Naples

By Josephine Schneider

In a move to directly connect with forward-deployed Sailors, Rear Adm. Kertrek Brooks, Commander of MyNavy Career Center (MNCC), visited U.S. Naval Support Activity (NSA) Naples. The visit provided a valuable opportunity for sailors, command triads, and support personnel to engage with the leader responsible for the Navy's pay and personnel systems.

During his visit, Brooks held open all-hands calls, taking time to answer questions and listen to feedback from those stationed outside of the continental United States. The discussions centered on improving personnel services and ensuring the timely and accurate delivery of pay and benefits to every Sailor.

The MNCC's mission is to provide modern 'hire-to-rotate' human resource services with around-the-clock support to Sailors, veterans, and their families. The visit to Naples, Italy is part of a broader effort to engage with the fleet and gather firsthand accounts of the challenges and successes within the Navy's personnel system.

The meeting between the MNCC commander and personnel from the Naples area underscores the Navy's ongoing commitment to refining its administrative processes and ensuring the well-being of its service members worldwide.

URGENT Community Notice: Trash Separation on Support Site

It has been brought to our attention a critical issue regarding our waste collection services that requires everyone's immediate attention and cooperation.

Italian regulations mandate that all households must properly separate their trash and recycling. This is not a base policy, but a legal requirement from our host nation.

Unfortunately, our community has not been meeting these requirements. We have been formally notified by the waste management authorities that if we do not immediately comply with the proper separation of waste, they will completely halt all trash collection services for the entire SS community.

To be clear, this means no more trash or recycling pickups for anyone if things do not change.

This is a community-wide issue that requires a community-wide solution. Every single household must do its part. Please ensure you are correctly sorting your recyclables from your general waste.

Let's work together to keep our community clean and ensure our essential services are not interrupted. We thank you for your immediate cooperation in this serious matter.

These meetings are a great opportunity for us to connect with you and learn more about how we can better support your experience living on-site. Your Housing Zone Manager will be sending out invitations with all the meeting details shortly. We look forward to seeing you there!

In the meantime, if you are experiencing any issues in your home, please remember to utilize the QR codes we have been implementing for prompt assistance.

Economy Housing Tips

- * Carefully complete the Discrepancy Card at move-in, documenting all existing damages, even minor ones.
- * Accurately fill out the Meter Reading Form with actual utility readings (electricity and gas).
- * Take clear photos to support what is documented on both forms.
- * Incomplete or superficial documentation may lead to disputes, delays, or unexpected charges at move-out.
- * A thorough move-in inspection protects you, your deposit, and your PCS timeline.

Mosquito Prevention

Mosquito prevention is crucial for maintaining a comfortable and healthy living environment. Did you know that mosquitoes can develop in as little as a spoonful of water? To combat their breeding grounds, it's essential to empty any standing water around your home regularly. Remember, they don't fly far from where they breed, so if you're experiencing mosquito bites, chances are they're breeding nearby. In addition to eliminating standing water, you can also take steps like keeping gutters clean, using screens on windows and doors, and wearing insect repellent when outdoors. Regularly inspect your home for signs of infestation and address any issues promptly to keep your living space pest-free. By staying vigilant and implementing these preventive measures, you can enjoy a comfortable, pest-free environment year-round. Stay safe and bite-free!

Every feedback is welcomed, good or bad, that's the surest way to help the installation improve services and quality of life in the community

By NSA Naples Public Affairs

The Interactive Customer Evaluation (ICE) system is a web-based tool that collects feedback on services provided by various organizations throughout the Department of Defense (DoD) including here at NSA Naples. Benefits of ICE:

- Allows community members to quickly and easily provide feedback to service provider managers on the installation.
- Gives NSA Naples leadership timely data on service quality.
- Allows service provider managers to benchmark their performance against like services in other DoD organizations.

Military Family Housing

I would like to take a moment to commend our building manager Ben Cioffi for working tirelessly on our behalf. I had recently reached out to the Warehouse to ask if they had another oven rack available. We are a family of six and cooking with just one rack makes meal preparation both complicated and time consuming. The Warehouse had looked for a rack for us but came up empty. Ben visited the facility on our behalf and was able to locate a rack for us. It fits perfectly! He also secured a baking tray for us as well, something that had not been provided with the unit.

Youth Sports Carney Park

I've been meaning to write a review of the youth sports program since football season, but today I felt it was important to finally do so. Mr. Jerry does an outstanding job organizing and running the sports program each season. He is present at every event practices, games, the races and consistently shows up with a positive attitude and a smile on his face. His customer service is truly exceptional.

MWR Special/Community Events

It's great having fitness classes at Carney Park. Vicky is a wonderful instructor and she caters to all fitness levels; showing modifications, corrections, and encouragement. I hope you reconsider and add the Friday class back to the schedule. The workouts at Carney Park are easier to attend than going to Support Site, which is close to 40 minutes away for a lot of the participants. If something comes up, we have more opportunities to make up the class. I, along with a number of workout participants, hope this is reconsidered for next month.

Post Office

I would like to recognize PO3 Jablaski for his outstanding customer service and professionalism at the Capodichino customer mailbox room (next to Community Bank) on 3 February 2026. Although the scheduled customer service hours were not set to begin until 1300, I was checking my mailbox at approximately 1100 when PO3 Jablaski stepped out from the mail sorting area and proactively asked if I needed assistance. Without hesitation, he went out of his way to help me and printed the required form I needed to complete.

Motor Vehicle Registration Office

Alessia Supino responded to my request very promptly and assisted me greatly when I needed proof that I sold my old vehicle years ago. I very much appreciate their willingness to help me so fast.

LOCAL LENS: Spring Walks, the Local Way

By Paolo Cutillo, Contributing Writer

March in Campania is the month when walking becomes a ritual again. Not rushed, not planned, just natural. As days grow longer and the air softens, locals step outside with a different mindset, letting the season gently reset their pace.

In the cities, walking is how spring announces itself. In Naples, the lungomare fills quietly in the late afternoon, with locals strolling as the sun lowers over the water. In the historic center, streets feel alive but unhurried, a balance that only exists before peak season begins. March is when residents reclaim these spaces, enjoying them without the pressure of crowds.

In Caserta, spring walks often lead through the Royal Palace gardens. Trees begin to bloom, fountains come back to life, and the park becomes a shared living room for the city. You can even find this gem in the fiction "The Great" now on Netflix.

Many locals head toward the coast around Gaeta, where spring arrives early. Walking along the seafront or up toward Monte Orlando, between sea views and Mediterranean vegetation, is a favorite way to spend a calm March afternoon. The paths are peaceful, the light is softer, and the town still feels untouched by summer crowds.

What makes March special isn't just the weather, but the feeling that time opens up. Walks stretch longer, conversations unfold naturally, and destinations matter less than the journey itself. In Campania, spring doesn't arrive all at once. It reveals itself step by step through streets, gardens, coastal paths, and familiar routes walked anew. And in March, locals know that the best way to welcome it is simply to walk.

LEGAL CORNER

Don't Let Your Sojourner's Permit Expire! Check the Expiration Date! For those with Sojourner Permits, it is essential to know when your permits expire. The expiration date is written in European format of DAY-MONTH-YEAR. If your Sojourner Permit is set to expire within the next 60 days AND your orders, contract or sponsor's orders extend beyond that expiration date, you must begin the permit renewal process.

INFORMATION ON THE ELECTRONIC SOJOURNER'S PERMIT PROCESS

All current Sojourner's permit holders and first-time applicants to include GS Civilians, DoD Contractors, and all dependents, may be affected by a new processing procedure (NATO SOFA personnel). Note: Active-duty Service members do not require a Sojourner's Permit, but please review this information carefully, as it may affect your dependents.

The Italian Ministry of Defense officially removed the requirement for a €16 fee in conjunction with electronic Sojourner Permit applications for NATO SOFA personnel. Therefore, the Naples and Caserta Immigration Offices have re-started processing the new electronic Sojourner Permits for NATO SOFA personnel. Currently, the processing is being conducted on site at the Naples and Caserta Immigration Offices. The potential for on-base processing is still under review. The Naples Immigration Office has reserved Thursday mornings for application processing and fingerprinting; and the Caserta Immigration Office has reserved Tuesday afternoons for application processing and fingerprinting. All appointments at the immigration offices are facilitated by RLSO EURAFCENT Legal Assistance Office for personnel residing in the Naples and Caserta provinces.

What Do You Need To Do Now?

RLSO EURAFCENT Legal Assistance office is collecting first-time and renewal applications.

1. If you have recently submitted your paperwork for a first-time application or a renewal application, you do not need to take further action now. We will notify you via email on the next steps, according to instructions from the immigration office.
2. If you already have a current paper Sojourner's Permit, you do not need to take further action now. You will be contacted by our office when it is time to begin the process to convert it into an electronic permit, according to instructions from the immigration office.
3. If you have a paper Sojourner's Permit that has expired, you must schedule a renewal request appointment with the RLSO EURAFCENT Legal Assistance Office by emailing napleslegalassistance@us.navy.mil or calling us at +39 (081) 568-4576 during our normal operating hours. Our Sojourner's Permit specialist will collect the required paperwork for the application, but you will hold onto your paper permit until an appointment is scheduled at the appropriate immigration office.

RLSO EURAFCENT will provide further updates as soon as additional information becomes available. Please continue to monitor all Facebook pages and PAO Notes since requirements and information are rapidly changing. Thank you for your understanding and cooperation during this time.

For assistance or more information on how to begin the renewal process, please contact RLSO EURAFCENT Legal Assistance Office:

FRESH, NEVER FROZEN
Beef FOR OUR EUROPE AND MIDDLE EAST COMMISSARY SHOPPERS

PROUDLY PREPARED AND PACKAGED BY COMMISSARY STAFF IN OUR VERY OWN EUROPE-BASED MEAT PROCESSING PLANT

Where does the Commissary get its meat products?

Shoppers are amazed to learn that the USDA-approved Natural and Choice beef we sell in the commissaries in Europe and the Middle East are shipped here from the U.S. Even more surprising, is that the retail cuts of beef are fresh, never frozen. This is accomplished through the use of vacuum packaging.

What are the advantages of vacuum packaging?

- ▶ Because oxygen is removed, the shelf life of vacuum-packaged red meat increases from a matter of days to at least two weeks.
- ▶ Vacuum packaging allows natural enzymes to act as a natural tenderizer and enhances quality/palatability of beef.
- ▶ Without the vacuum technology, most locations would have only frozen meat products.

Beef gets its red color from exposure to oxygen. In our vacuum packing process, we remove over 99% of the oxygen from the package. The lack of oxygen turns the meat a darker color but the meat will return back to the usual red-color once the package is opened and is, once again, exposed to oxygen.

The vacuum package does not allow for any air in or out. This can cause naturally occurring lactic acid to build up inside the package. Shortly after opening the package, the initial off-odor will dissipate. This process does not affect the quality of the meat or taste and acts as a natural meat tenderizer.

VACUUM SEALED FOR FRESHNESS!

CENTRAL MEAT PROCESSING PLANT SERVING COMMISSARY CUSTOMERS IN 10 Countries SINCE 1998

The Central Meat Processing Plant's state-of-the-art facility features highly efficient meat processing and vacuum machines, metal detectors and X-ray machines, a flash freezer, and high-tech cleaning systems. USDA Beef is cut, ground, packaged, vacuum sealed, and shipped from Kaiserslautern Cold Storage to our overseas locations. Fresh pork is sourced locally from German locations and processed under the same strict guidelines. Commissaries receive shipments an average of every two to three days, depending on the size and sales volume of the location.

Special Orders
FOR YOUR SINGLE-SERVING OR PARTY-PLANNING MENUS

Just as you can go to a stateside commissary and place a special order for pork or beef, you can do the same here in Europe. You can simply request a special order from the commissary at the meat department or front-end department by filling out a special-order form if you are looking for a large quantity or a special cut.

Special order lead times vary depending on the request but a majority can be filled within days. Large quantity requests may take up to eight weeks. Whole pigs require a 10-day lead time. Check with your commissary for details.
