

Allie Colleen Press Release

Country artist Allie Colleen will be touring with Armed Forces Entertainment (AFE) this summer, as part of its annual Heat Wave summer event series. The tour, which features three performances, will run from July 2 to 8, 2026.

Colleen is a country artist, singer and songwriter whose impeccably strong voice, rooted in timeless tradition yet fresh with modern influence, has made her one of today's most compelling independent acts. Known for silencing a room with heartfelt stories of love and heartbreak and for penning witty, relatable lyrics that connect deeply with audiences, she is quickly earning recognition as one of country music's breakout stars.

She has accumulated 11.9 million total streams across various platforms, such as Spotify, Apple Music and Amazon Music. She was named an "artist to watch" by People Country, Holler, Wide Open Country, Nashville Music Guide, Country Evolution and more. Colleen has also been highlighted as the artist of the week on Bobby Bones's Top 30 Countdown, featured on Apple Music Country's Best New Songs and celebrated by outlets including Nash News, Music Mayhem and Country Thang Daily. Her duet with Lee Brice, "While We're Still Friends," was spotlighted by The Morning Hangover as one of the day's hottest releases, further fueling her momentum.

With more than 250K followers across social platforms and accolades spanning playlists, radio and national press, Colleen continues to cement her reputation as a fearless songwriter and powerhouse vocalist destined for stardom.

AFE delivers world-class entertainment to U.S. troops and their families overseas, strengthening their resilience, boosting morale and contributing to readiness. These engaging experiences connect servicemembers to home, foster a sense of belonging, ease the challenges of deployment and support mental health.
